An Act to extend the functions and powers of the Boundaries Commission for the purposes of Local Government Elections and for matters incidental thereto. 18 of 1967.

[24TH AUGUST 1967] Commencement.

1. This Act may be cited as the Boundaries Commission (Local Government) Act. Short title.

2. In this Act— Interpretation.

"the Commission" means the Boundaries Commission constituted and appointed in accordance with section 71 of the Constitution;

"the Constitution" means the Constitution of Trinidad and Tobago;

"electoral area" means—

(a) in relation to a County Council election any of the seven areas mentioned in the first column of Part I of the First Schedule and described in the second column of the said Part I; Part I First Schedule.

(b) in relation to a Municipal Council election, the corporate area of any of the municipalities mentioned in the first column of Part II of the First Schedule and described in the second column of the said Part II; Part II First Schedule.

"electoral district" means in relation to a Local Government election a constituency as defined in an Order made under section 4;

"municipality" means the City of Port-of-Spain, the Borough of San Fernando or the Borough of Arima;

"Municipal Council" means the Council of the Port-of-Spain Corporation, the San Fernando Corporation or the Arima Corporation.

Electoral Areas.

3. For the purposes of this Act, Trinidad and Tobago shall be divided into—

Part I First Schedule.

(a) the seven county electoral areas mentioned in the first column of Part I of the First Schedule and described in the second column of the said Part I; and Part II First Schedule.

(b) the three municipal electoral areas mentioned in the first column of Part II of the First Schedule and described in the second column of the said Part II comprising respectively the area of—

(i) the City of Port-of-Spain described in the Port-of-Spain Corporation Ordinance;

Ch. 39. No. 1. (1950 Ed.).

(ii) the Borough of San Fernando described in the San Fernando Corporation Ordinance;

Ch. 39. No. 7. (1950 Ed.).

Ch. 39. No. 11. (1950 Ed.).

(iii) the Borough of Arima described in the Arima Corporation Ordinance.

Procedure for review.

4. (1) The Commission shall define and review the boundaries of the electoral districts into which an electoral area is, or is to be, divided and shall submit to the Minister reports either—

Second Schedule.

(a) showing the constituencies into which it recommends that an electoral area should be divided in order to give effect to the Rules set out in the Second Schedule, or

(b) stating that, in the opinion of the Commission, no alteration is required to the existing number or boundaries of electoral districts in order to give effect to the said Rules.

(2) Reports under subsection (1) shall be submitted by the Commission—

(a) in the case of its first report after the commencement of this Act, not later than six months after the date of the commencement; and

(b) in the case of any subsequent report, not less than two nor more than three years from the date of the submission of its last report.

(3) As soon as may be after the Commission has submitted a report under subsection (1)(a), the Minister shall lay before the House of Representatives for its approval the draft of an Order by the President for giving effect, whether with or without modification, to the recommendations contained in the report, and that draft may make provision for any matters which appear to the Minister to be incidental to or consequential upon the other provisions of the draft.

(4) Where any draft made under this section gives effect to any such recommendations with modifications, the Minister shall lay the draft before the House of Representatives together with a statement of the reasons for the modifications.

(5) If the motion for the approval of any draft made under this section is rejected by the House of Representatives, or is withdrawn by leave of that House, the Minister shall amend the draft and lay the amended draft before the House of Representatives.

(6) If any draft made under this section is approved by resolution of the House of Representatives, the Minister shall submit it to the President who shall make the Order in terms of the draft; and the Order shall come into force on such day as may be specified therein and, until revoked by a further Order made by the President in accordance with this section, shall have the force of law.

(7) The question of the validity of any Order made by the President purporting to be made under this section and reciting that a draft thereof has been approved by resolution of the House of Representatives shall not be enquired into in any Court.

Amendment of First and Second Schedules.

5. The President may by Order—

(a) amend the third column of Part II of the First Schedule by varying the number of electoral districts set out therein;

(b) amend, vary or modify the Rules set out in the Second Schedule.

Sections 2, 3, 5.

SECOND SCHEDULE

Sections 4, 5.

RULES FOR DETERMINING THE NUMBER OF ELECTORS IN AN ELECTORAL DISTRICT OF AN ELECTORAL AREA

1. The number of electors in each electoral district of a county electoral area shall, so far as practicable, be the number obtained by the application of rule 2, but the Commission may, in consideration of rule 3 vary such number provided that in no case shall the number of electors in any one electoral district of an electoral area exceed or be less than the number of electors in any other electoral district of that electoral area by more than twenty-five per cent.

2. (1) The number of electoral districts in a county electoral area in Trinidad shall be determined as follows:

There shall be in every electoral area a basic number of six electoral districts. To this basic number shall be added the number obtained by dividing the electorate of the electoral area by 15,000; but where in any electoral area the electorate is—

(a) less than 15,000, there shall be seven electoral districts;

(b) more than 15,000, any residual number left after dividing the total electorate by 15,000 shall be treated as if that number were 15,000 and one electoral district shall be added in respect of such residual number.

(2) There shall be in the electoral area of Tobago, a basic number of six electoral districts. To this basic number shall be added the number obtained by dividing the total electorate by 4,000; but any residual number left after dividing the total electorate by 4,000 shall be treated as if that number were 4,000 and one electoral district shall be added in respect of such residual number.

3. In the division of electoral districts in county electoral areas natural boundaries such as major highways and rivers shall be used wherever possible.

4. The number of electors in an electoral district of a municipal electoral area shall be the number obtained by dividing the number of electors in that electoral area by the number of electoral districts shown opposite the name of that electoral area in the third column of Part II of the First Schedule, but the Commission may in consideration of topographical factors vary such number provided that in no case shall the number of electors in any one electoral district of an electoral area exceed or be less than the number of electors in any other electoral district of that electoral area by more than twenty-five per cent.

5. In the delimitation of electoral districts in electoral areas—

(a) rules 1, 2 and 3 shall apply in respect of county electoral areas; and

(b) rule 4 shall apply in respect of municipal electoral areas.
