be signed by the Sub-Agent of Immigration, and being so signed shall have the same force and effect as if the same had been signed or made by the Agent General of Immigrants.

Immigration to be valid.

2. On any proceedings before any Court or Justice or Justices of the Peace it shall not be necessary to prove the hand-writing of the Sub-Agent of Immigration, or any other party to any Indenture purporting to be signed by such Sub-Agent of Immigration, or to any Certificate purporting to be signed by such Sub-Agent of Immigration; but every such Indenture or Certificate shall be admitted in evidence without any proof of the execution of the same, or the signatures affixed thereto.

Proof of hand-writing of Sub-Agent of Immigration or other parties to indentures not necessary.

Passed in Council this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

R. LECHMERE GUPPY,
Clerk of Council.

No. 19.—1861.

20th August.

AN ORDINANCE for the trial of certain Offences against the Person in cases in which the person injured within the Colony shall die at sea or in parts beyond the seas.

ROB. W. KEATE.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the trial of the offences of Murder and manslaughter and of being accessory to the crime of Murder or Manslaughter in cases in which the person injured shall die without the limits of this Colony: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor by and with the consent of the Council of Government, by virtue of the power and authority to them granted in and by the Act of the Imperial Parliament, entitled "An Act to enable the Legislatures of Her Majesty's possessions abroad to make enactments similar to the enactment of the Act Ninth, George the Fourth, chapter thirty-one, section eight." That where any person, being feloniously stricken, poisoned, or otherwise hurt, at any place within t e limits of this Colony, shall die of such stroke, poisoning or hurt upon the sea or at any place out of the limits of this Colony, every offence committed in respect of any such case, whether the same shall amount to the offence of Murder or of Manslaughter, or of being accessory before the fact to murder, or after the fact to Murder or Manslaughter, shall and may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, determined and punished in this Colony in the same manner in all respects as if such offence had been wholly committed within the limits of this Colony.

Vide 23 & 24 Vic., cap. 122.

Passed in Council this twentieth day of August in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

R. LECHMERE GUPPY,
Clerk of Council.

No. 22.—1861.

1st October.

AN ORDINANCE to authorise the advance of additional moneys for improving the Quays of the Town of Port of Spain.

ROB. W. KEATE.

WHEREAS an Ordinance was passed in Council on the first day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, entitled "An Ordinance for improving the Quays of the Town of Port of Spain:" under which Ordinance authority was given to the Governor to advance the sum of twenty thousand pounds for the purposes of such improvement: And whereas it is expedient that further moneys should be advanced from the Colonial Treasury for the purposes of the said Ordinance: Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor by and