

CHAPTER 520

THE PENSIONS (PRIME MINISTER) ACT, 1962.

AN ACT to provide for the payment of pensions to persons ^{Act} who have held the office of Prime Minister of the ^{2/1962} Federation.

Date of Assent 3rd April, 1962

Commencement 3rd April, 1962

1. This Act may be cited as the Pensions (Prime Minister) Act, 1962. Short title.

2. (1) A person who has, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, held the office of Prime Minister of the Federation for a continuous period of not less than two years or for periods amounting in the aggregate to not less than two years and who has ceased to be a member of the House of Representatives of the Federation shall be paid a pension of nine thousand six hundred dollars a year: Payment of pension to person who has been Prime Minister.

Provided that no pension shall be payable under this Act to any person so long as he is a member of a chamber of the Federal Legislature.

(2) Any pension payable under this Act shall be charged on the Consolidated Fund of the Federation.