AN ACT to regulate the use of the coat of arms of The West Indies. The Act 7/1958.

Date of assent 9th July, 1958

Commencement 9th July, 1958

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Federal Coat of Arms (Regulation) Act, 1958. Short title and application.

(2) This Act shall apply to the Cayman Islands and the Turks and Caicos Islands.

2. Subject as hereinafter provided, any person who, otherwise than in accordance with the terms of a licence granted by the Governor-General, uses or displays— Restrictions on using the coat of arms of the Federation.

(a) in connection with the carrying on of any business, trade, profession or calling; or

(b) in connection with the activities of any body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, the coat of arms of the Federation, or any arms so nearly resembling them as to be calculated to deceive, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act:

Provided that the foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to the reproduction or representation of the coat of arms of the Federation on any article, goods or thing sold or offered for sale unless the Governor-General considers that such reproduction or representation offends or might, if effected, offend public good taste and declares, by order published in the Gazette, that the said foregoing provisions shall apply to the reproduction or representation of the coat of arms of the Federation on those articles, goods or things.

2 Cap. 801 FEDERAL COAT OF ARMS (REGULATION)

Licences
may be subject to terms and conditions.

3. (1) Any licence issued by the Governor-General under the provisions of this Act may contain such terms and conditions as to the Governor-General may seem fit and may at any time be revoked, amended or altered by the Governor-General.

(2) All applications for such licences shall be in writing addressed to the Federal Secretary and shall contain such information as the Governor-General may from time to time require.

Penalty.

4. Any person guilty of an offence against this Act shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars and in the case of a continuing offence to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every day or part of a day during which the offence is continued after the first day on which a conviction is had.
