- (c) require a person to produce, or furnish the Board with a written report or other document relating to a matter before the Board;

- (d) require a person appearing before the Board to answer on oath or affirmation any questions put to him by the Board that are relevant to a matter before the Board;
- (e) require a written report or other document submitted to the Board to be verified by a statutory declaration;
- (f) require the carrying out of risk assessment and risk management activities in relation to an offender; and
- (g) do such other things as are necessary or expedient for the performance of its functions.

(2) An answer to any question on oath or affirmation under subsection (1), shall be made in accordance with the requirements of the Oaths Act.

Chap. 7:01

(3) The Board in performing its functions under this section, may, where the circumstances necessitate, utilise electronic means which includes teleconference, video-link, internet link or any other manner of instant communication between the Board and the necessary persons or parties facilitated by the use of technology.

PART III

PAROLE FOR OFFENDERS

Eligibility for parole

20. An offender, other than an offender sentenced to death, is eligible for parole in accordance with the provisions of this Act as follows:

- (a) an offender undergoing a life sentence, shall be eligible for—
 - (i) partial parole upon the expiration of fifteen years; and
 - (ii) full parole upon the expiration of twenty years, after his reception into a prison after sentencing; or

- (b) an offender undergoing a sentence other than a life sentence, shall be eligible for—
- (i) partial parole upon the expiration of one-quarter of his sentence; and
 - (ii) full parole upon the expiration of one-half of his sentence, subject to certification by the Board of his successful completion of partial parole.

21. (1) A Court shall have the authority to receive and consider the recommendations of the Board for the grant of parole to an offender in accordance with the provisions of this Act. Court to receive and consider the recommendations of the Board

(2) Where a Court receives a recommendation under subsection (1), the Court may, before ordering the grant of parole, require—

- (a) the Board to provide any report or documents that it considers relevant as part of its consideration; and
- (b) any person or witness who may have an interest in the outcome of the grant of parole to appear before the Court to be examined.

22. The Commissioner shall assign such number of suitably qualified and trained prison officers to be parole officers as he sees fit for the purposes of this Act. Assignment of parole officers

23. (1) A parole officer shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the reception of an offender, conduct a rehabilitative needs assessment of the offender with the view of determining appropriate rehabilitation programmes that would best assist in the rehabilitation process of the offender. Rehabilitation needs assessment

(2) An offender shall not be recommended for the grant of parole, unless the offender successfully participates in all rehabilitation programmes prescribed under subsection (1).

Parole eligibility
dates for offenders

24. (1) A parole officer shall, upon the reception of an offender, calculate the date on which the offender shall become eligible for—

- (a) partial parole, which shall be the date immediately after the expiration of one-quarter of the sentence; and
- (b) full parole, which shall, subject to certification by the Board of the successful completion of partial parole by the offender, be the date immediately after the expiration of one-half of the sentence.

(2) When the eligibility date for partial parole and full parole have been calculated under subsection (1), the parole officer shall in writing inform the offender of the eligibility dates.

(3) Where an offender does not, on or before his full parole eligibility date, obtain certification by the Board of his successful completion of partial parole, he shall become eligible for full parole on the date that he obtains that certification.

(4) For the purposes of this section, where an offender is serving—

- (a) concurrent sentences, the longest sentence shall be used for the purpose of calculating the partial parole eligibility date and full parole eligibility date of the offender; or
- (b) consecutive sentences, the aggregate term of imprisonment shall be used for the purpose of calculating the partial parole eligibility date and full parole eligibility date of the offender.

Application for partial parole

25. (1) An offender may, not earlier than six months before his partial parole eligibility date, submit his application for partial parole to the Superintendent.

(2) A Superintendent shall not more than seven months and not less than six months before the partial parole eligibility date of an offender, give the offender notice in the form set out in Part A of the Schedule of that date and inform him of his entitlement to apply for partial parole in accordance with subsection (1). Schedule Part A

(3) An application for partial parole shall be in the form set out in Part B of the Schedule. Schedule Part B

(4) An application for partial parole may be accompanied by a written representation from the applicant in support of the application and the written representation may be submitted to the Superintendent with the application or at any time before the application is forwarded to the Board under subsection (7).

(5) Upon receipt of an application for partial parole, the Superintendent shall, as soon as practicable—

- (a) cause a case history of the applicant and a report as set out in Part C of the Schedule on the conduct of the applicant while in prison, to be prepared; and Schedule Part C
- (b) make arrangements for the applicant to undergo a psychological or psychiatric evaluation.

(6) Where an applicant for partial parole refuses to undergo an evaluation under subsection (5)(b), the Superintendent before whom the application was made, shall forward the application to the Board with a note indicating that the offender refused to undergo the evaluation.

(7) Subject to section 24(2), a Superintendent shall, as soon as practicable after receiving the case history, report and the results of the psychological or psychiatric evaluation referred to in subsection (5), forward to the Board the application, case history, report and the results of the psychological or psychiatric evaluation and any written representations submitted by the applicant.

(8) The Minister may, by Order, amend the Schedule.

Board to fix date,
time and place for
partial parole
hearing

26. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Board shall upon receipt of an application of an offender for partial parole, fix the date, time and place for the partial parole hearing of an applicant and shall give at least thirty days written notice of such date, time and place to—

- (a) the offender;
- (b) the Commissioner;
- (c) the Commissioner of Police;
- (d) the victims of the offence committed by the offender or such relatives of the victims as the Board thinks fit; and
- (e) such other persons as the Board thinks fit.

(2) A partial parole hearing shall commence at least sixty days before the partial parole eligibility date of the applicant, but the applicant shall not be released on partial parole before his partial parole eligibility date.

Conduct of partial parole hearing

27. (1) The Board shall at a partial parole hearing of an offender, consider—

- (a) the application, case history, report, results and where applicable, the written representations from the applicant referred to in section 25(7);
- (b) any other documents which are required by the Board to be furnished;

- (c) any oral submissions made by the offender or any other person appearing before it;
 - (d) the nature and circumstances of the offence for which the offender was convicted and sentenced;
 - (e) any remarks made by the Court at the time of sentencing;
 - (f) any information provided by a parole officer or any other person with an interest in the outcome of the application for parole;
 - (g) the need to protect society from exposure to any undue risk of danger; and
 - (h) any other factor as the Board may consider appropriate.

(2) After conducting the partial parole hearing of an offender, the Board shall, subject to sections 29 and 30, recommend to the Court where the offender was sentenced, whether to grant or refuse partial parole and shall provide the Court with a record of the proceedings of the hearing and a copy of any relevant reports.

28. The Board may recommend to the Court where the offender was sentenced, the grant of partial parole to the offender in the form of a temporary absence order under section 29, or a work release order under section 30, where it is satisfied that—

Recommendation of
partial parole

- (a) the behaviour of the applicant while under sentence does not preclude the grant of partial parole;
- (b) the applicant is fit to be released on partial parole; and
- (c) the reform and rehabilitation of the offender will be aided by partial parole, and in the case of a temporary absence order, it is also satisfied with respect to the criteria stated in section 29 (1), or in the case of a work release order, it is also satisfied with respect to the criteria stated in section 30 (1).

Grant of temporary absence

29. (1) A Court may grant a temporary absence order to an offender for partial parole, where the Court is satisfied with respect to the criteria specified in section 28 and that—

- (a) the offender is unlikely to commit an offence or otherwise pose an undue risk to any person or to society during the period that the offender is released on partial parole;
- (b) it is desirable for the offender to be temporarily absent from the prison for the purpose of attending a distinct personal development programme, performing community service, or participating in a community-based activity or programme in order to prepare the applicant for work release;
- (c) the behaviour of the offender while under sentence does not preclude authorising the absence;
- (d) a structured plan for the temporary absence of the offender has been prepared by a parole officer;
- (e) there will be support for the offender including the involvement of—
 - (i) family members;
 - (ii) community support groups; or
 - (iii) religious groups;
- (f) the offender is fit to be released on temporary absence; and

(g) the offender has met any other requirement that it considers necessary prior to being granted temporary absence.

(2) An offender who is granted temporary absence by a Court shall engage in such personal development programme, community service or community-based activity or programme outside the prison for such number of hours per outing and such number of outings per week as is approved by the Court.

(3) For the purposes of subsections (1)(b) and (2), a personal development programme may include family contact or parental responsibility.

(4) A parole officer shall, as soon as practicable after the expiration of a temporary absence order, submit to the Board a report on the compliance of the offender with the order together with his recommendations as to whether the offender should be certified as having successfully completed his temporary absence.

(5) Where the Board, after considering a report submitted under subsection (4), and interviewing the parole officer, the offender and such other persons as the Board thinks fit, is satisfied that the offender has successfully completed his temporary absence, the Board shall certify, in writing, that the offender has successfully completed his temporary absence.

30. (1) The Court, where an offender is sentenced, may grant a work release order to an offender for partial parole where the offender is certified under section 29(5), and the Court is satisfied with respect to the criteria specified in section 28 and that—

(a) the offender is unlikely to commit an offence or otherwise pose an undue risk to any person or to society during the period that the offender is on work release;

- (b) it is desirable for the offender to participate in a structured programme of work in order to prepare the offender for full parole;
 - (c) the behaviour of the offender while under sentence does not preclude authorising the work release;
 - (d) a structured plan for the work release has been prepared by a parole officer;
 - (e) there will be support for the offender including the involvement of—
 - (i) family members;
 - (ii) community support groups; or
 - (iii) religious groups;
 - (f) the offender is fit to be released on work release; and
 - (g) the offender has met any other requirement that the Court considers necessary prior to being granted work release.

(2) An offender who is granted work release by a Court shall—

- (a) engage in such employment outside the prison as is specified in his work release order;
- (b) reside at, and return nightly to such community-based residence as is specified in his work release order;
- (c) deposit into a bank account such portion of his earnings as is specified in his work release order;
- (d) subject to any Court ordered payments, pay such portion of his earnings as the Court specifies towards family assistance, including maintenance and towards his upkeep at the community-based residence; and

- (e) be given such allowance out of his earnings as is approved by the Court to meet his personal or incidental expenses.

31. (1) Where the Board recommends the grant of partial parole to an offender, it shall within seven days of making its decision, cause the offender to be informed in writing of its decision. Notice of recommendation to grant partial parole

(2) Where the Board refuses to recommend the grant of partial parole to an offender, the Board shall within seven days of making its decision, cause the offender to be informed, in writing, of its decision and its reasons.

32. A partial parole order shall—

Partial parole order

- (a) have effect for the period specified in the order;
- (b) require the parolee to submit to the supervision of a parole officer during the partial parole period;
- (c) specify, subject to section 33, the conditions on which the parolee is released on partial parole;
- (d) specify such other requirements as the Court considers necessary for securing the supervision of the parolee; and
- (e) specify such additional requirements as to residence and other matters as may be necessary for the reform and rehabilitation of the parolee.

33. (1) A partial parole order made in respect of an offender shall require the offender to comply with the following conditions of release: Conditions of release on partial parole

- (a) on release, immediately report in person to designated parole officer;

- (b) report to his parole officer as instructed by that officer;
 - (c) remain at all times in such area as is specified in the order;
 - (d) obey the law and keep the peace at all times;
 - (e) as far as possible, refrain from associating with any person whom he ought to reasonably know to be involved in crime;
 - (f) as soon as possible after his arrest for any subsequent offence or after being questioned by the police, inform his parole officer of that occurrence;
 - (g) at all times, have on his person a copy of the order and produce it on request for identification, to a police officer or parole officer;
 - (h) report to a police station if and as instructed by his parole officer;
 - (i) not own, possess or have the control of any firearm, pepper spray or other prohibited weapon;
 - (j) not possess or have the control of any tools or other implements except if and as authorised by his parole officer;
 - (k) remain free of dangerous drugs and alcohol and shall subject himself to random testing for any dangerous drug and alcohol as directed by his parole officer;
 - (l) if released on work release, shall—
 - (i) observe the curfew of the community-based residence to which he is assigned; and

- (ii) upon returning to the community-based residence to which he is assigned, subject himself to such searches as may be necessary to promote the security, good order and discipline at the community-based residence.

(2) A partial parole order made in respect of an offender may require the offender—

- (a) to subject himself to electronic monitoring in accordance with the Administration of Justice (Electronic Monitoring) Act, 2012; Act No. 11 of 2012
- (b) to refrain from associating with—
 - (i) children;
 - (ii) a victim of the offence for which the offender is sentenced; or
 - (iii) any other person or class of persons as the Court considers necessary;
- (c) to comply with conditions relating to the finances or earnings of the offender;
- (d) to participate in a rehabilitative or other type of programme;
- (e) to take prescription medication that is prescribed by a medical practitioner;
- (f) not to enter or remain in specified places or areas at specified times, or at all times; or
- (g) to comply with such other conditions of release as the Court considers necessary.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(e), an offender shall not be subject to a condition that requires him to take prescription medication unless the offender—

- (a) has been fully advised by a medical practitioner about the nature and likely or intended effect of the medication and any known risks; and
- (b) consents to taking the prescription medication.

(4) An offender does not breach a condition of release for the purposes of this Act, if he withdraws consent to taking prescription medication, however, the failure to take the medication may be a ground for revocation or suspension of parole under this Act.

Submission of documents for full parole

34. (1) Not earlier than five months or later than four months before the expiration of a partial parole order for work release of an offender—

- (a) the parole officer assigned to the offender, shall submit to the Board a report on the compliance of the offender with the order together with his recommendations as to whether the offender should be certified as being eligible for full parole and whether the offender should be granted full parole upon the expiration of his work release order;
- (b) a Superintendent shall furnish the Board with—
 - (i) an updated case history of the offender;
 - (ii) an updated report on the conduct of the offender; and
 - (iii) a Superintendent's report as provided in Part C of the Schedule;
- (c) the Board shall make arrangements for the offender to undergo a psychological or psychiatric evaluation for the purpose of obtaining an opinion as to whether the offender is fit to be released on full parole; and

Schedule
Part C

- (d) the offender shall submit to the Board an application for full parole in the form set out in Part B of the Schedule and any written representations in support of his release on full parole.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an offender may at any time after completing at least half of his work release under a partial parole order, apply to the Board—

- (a) for the certification of his eligibility for full parole on the basis that he has exhibited such excellence in general behaviour and has made such endeavours in relation to rehabilitation that it is desirable for him to be eligible for full parole; and
- (b) to be recommended for the grant of full parole before the expiration of his partial parole order for work release, and the offender may submit in writing to the Board any written representations in support of his application.

(3) Where an offender makes an application under subsection (2), the Board shall—

- (a) require his parole officer to submit a report on the compliance of the offender with his partial parole order for work release and to state in the report whether in his opinion the offender—
- (i) has exhibited such excellence in general behaviour and has made such endeavours in relation to rehabilitation that it is desirable for the offender to be eligible for full parole; and

(ii) should be recommended for the grant of full parole before the expiration of his partial parole order for work release;

(b) require a Superintendent to furnish it with a report as provided in Part C of the Schedule;<sup>Schedule
Part C</sup> and

(c) make arrangements for the offender to undergo a psychological or psychiatric evaluation.

(4) Where an offender who applies for full parole refuses to undergo an evaluation under subsection (1)(c) or (3)(c), the Superintendent before whom the application was made, shall forward the application to the Board with a note indicating that the offender refused to undergo the evaluation.

(5) The Board shall fix the date, time and place for the full parole hearing of an offender and shall give at least thirty days' written notice of such date, time and place to—

(a) the offender;

(b) the Commissioner;

(c) the Commissioner of Police;

(d) the victims of the offence committed by the offender or such relatives of the victims as the Board thinks fit; and

(e) such other persons as the Board thinks fit.

(6) The full parole hearing of an offender shall, as far as practicable, commence—

- (a) in the case of an offender referred to in subsection (1), at least sixty days before the expiration of the partial parole order for work release; or
- (b) in the case of an offender referred to in subsection (2), within twenty-one days of the receipt by the Board of documents referred to in subsection (3).

35. The Board shall, at a full parole hearing of an offender, consider— Conduct of full parole hearing

- (a) the documents referred to in section 34(1) and (3);
- (b) any other documents which are required to be furnished to it;
- (c) any oral submissions made by the offender or any other person appearing before it;
- (d) the nature and circumstances of the offence for which the offender was convicted and sentenced;
- (e) any remarks made by the Court at the time of sentencing;
- (f) any information provided by a parole officer or any other person with an interest in the outcome of the application for parole;
- (g) the need to protect society from exposure to any undue risk of danger; and
- (h) any other factor that the Board may consider appropriate.

36. (1) After conducting the full parole hearing of an offender, the Board may, where it is satisfied that the offender fulfills all the necessary conditions for the grant of full parole, recommend to a Court the grant of full parole to the offender. Recommendation for the grant of full parole

(2) Where the Board is of the opinion that the offender does not satisfy all the necessary conditions for the grant of full parole, the Board shall not recommend to a Court the grant of full parole to the offender and may instead recommend to the Court the extension of the offender's partial parole order for work release to such date as the Board thinks fit.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where the Board recommends the grant of full parole to an offender under subsection (1), the Board shall—

- (a) in the case of an offender referred to in section 34(1), recommend to a Court the grant of full parole on the expiration of the offender's partial parole order for work release; or
- (b) in the case of an offender referred to in section 34(2), recommend to a Court the grant of full parole before the expiration of the offender's partial parole order for work release.

(4) The Board may recommend, and a Court may grant full parole to an offender, where the Board or a Court, as the case may be, is satisfied that—

- (a) the offender is unlikely to commit an offence or otherwise present an undue risk of danger to any person or to society during full parole;
- (b) the behaviour of the offender while under sentence does not preclude authorising full parole;

- (c) a structured plan for full parole of the offender has been prepared by the parole officer or such other person as the Board recommends;
 - (d) the offender has derived maximum benefit from his imprisonment;
 - (e) the offender is fit to be released on full parole;
 - (f) the reform and rehabilitation of the offender will be aided by full parole; and
 - (g) the offender has met any other requirement that it considers necessary prior to being granted full parole.

37. (1) Where the Board recommends the grant of full parole to an offender, the Board shall—

Notice of recommendation for the grant of full parole

- (a) within seven days of making its decision, cause the offender to be informed in writing, of its decision; and
- (b) submit its recommendation to the Court at least thirty days before the expiration of the offender's partial parole order for work release.

(2) Where the Board refuses to recommend the grant of full parole to an offender, the Board shall, within seven days of making its decision, cause the offender to be informed in writing, of its decision and its reasons.

38. A full parole order shall subject to any earlier date of release of the offender by remission granted under the Prison Rules—

Full parole order

- (a) have effect until the date that the offender is due to be released from prison, unless previously revoked or suspended;

- (b) require the parolee to submit during the full parole period to the supervision of a parole officer;
 - (c) specify, subject to section 39, the conditions on which the parolee is released on full parole;
 - (d) specify such other requirements as may be necessary for securing the supervision of the parolee; and
 - (e) specify such additional requirements as to residence and other matters as the Court considers necessary for the reform and rehabilitation of the parolee.

Conditions of release on full parole

39. (1) A full parole order made in respect of an offender shall require the offender to comply with the following conditions of release:

- (a) on release, immediately report in person to designated parole officer;
- (b) report to his parole officer as instructed by the parole officer;
- (c) reside at such place, and be subject to such residential restrictions as specified in the order;
- (d) remain, at all times, in such area as is specified in the order;
- (e) obey the law and keep the peace at all times;
- (f) as far as possible, refrain from associating with any person whom he ought to reasonably know to be involved in crime;
- (g) as soon as possible after his arrest for any subsequent offence or after being questioned by the police, inform his parole officer of that occurrence;

- (h) at all times, have on his person a copy of the order and produce it on request for identification, to a police officer or parole officer;
 - (i) not own, possess or have the control of any firearm, pepper spray, or other prohibited weapon;
 - (j) report to a police station if and as instructed by his parole officer;
 - (k) not possess or have the control of any tools or other implements except if and as authorised by his parole officer;
 - (l) remain free of dangerous drugs and alcohol and shall subject himself to random drug and alcohol testing as directed by his parole officer; and
 - (m) co-operate with his parole officer and other persons to secure employment and enrolment in after-care programmes.

(2) A full parole order made in respect of an offender may require the offender—

- (a) to subject himself to electronic monitoring in accordance with the Administration of Justice (Electronic Monitoring) Act, 2012; and
- (b) to refrain from associating with—
 - (i) children as specified in the order;
 - (ii) a victim of the offence for which he is sentenced; or
 - (iii) any other person or class of persons;
- (c) to comply with conditions relating to the finances or earnings of the offender;

- (d) to participate in a rehabilitative or other type of programme;
- (e) to take such prescription medication as is prescribed by a medical practitioner;
- (f) not to enter or remain in specified places or areas at specified times, or at all times; or
- (g) to comply with such other conditions of release as the Court considers necessary.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(e), no offender shall be subject to a condition that requires him to take prescription medication unless the offender—

- (a) has been fully advised by a medical practitioner, about the nature and likely or intended effect of the medication and any known risks; and
- (b) consents to taking the prescription medication.

(4) An offender does not breach a condition of release for the purposes of this Act if he withdraws consent to taking prescription medication, however, the failure to take the medication may be a ground for revocation or suspension of parole under this Act.

PART IV

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Procedure for the conduct of hearings
of the Board

40. (1) There shall be a record of the minutes of each meeting of the Board and of all sessions conducted for the purpose of making recommendations under section 6 and such records shall be kept in a registry to record the decisions of the Board.

(2) Proceedings of the Board shall be conducted in camera unless otherwise directed by the Board.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where a person wishes to attend a hearing of the Board, he shall first apply to the Board in writing, to attend such hearing, and subject himself to a security or background check before being granted leave to do so.

(4) A person who applies to attend a hearing of the Board shall not be granted permission to do so, where in the opinion of the Board—

- (a) the attendance of the person at the hearing is likely to disrupt the Board or its ability to consider the matter before it;
- (b) any decision will be adversely affected by the presence of the person;
- (c) the presence of the person is likely to adversely affect those who have provided information to the Board, including victims, relatives of the victims or members of the offender's family;
- (d) the presence of the person is likely to adversely affect an appropriate balance between the public's interest in knowing the outcome of the matter and the public's interest in the effective reintegration of the offender into society; and
- (e) the security and good order of the premises in which the hearing will be conducted is likely to be adversely affected by the presence of the person.

(5) Where a person is denied permission to attend a hearing of the Board under subsection (4), the Board shall give to that person written reasons for its decision.

(6) Subject to subsection (13), the Board shall, upon request, provide an offender, his Attorney-at-law or any other person authorised by the offender in writing, with a copy of any document which relates to the hearing of the offender.

(7) Victims or the relatives of the victims shall be entitled—

- (a) to appear at hearings of the Board and to make oral or written submissions on the parole of an offender and this may be done in the presence of the offender, or in his absence; or
- (b) to make written submissions by way of affidavit where they choose not to attend a hearing for parole and subject to subsection (12), the Board shall provide the offender, with a copy of the affidavit.

(8) The Board shall consider at all its proceedings, the concerns of victims or the relatives of the victims, but the concerns of a victim or the relatives of the victims shall not be the sole determinant or overriding factor in determining whether or not to recommend the grant of parole to an offender.

(9) An offender who is being considered to be recommended for the grant of parole shall be entitled at all proceedings of the Board to respond by way of oral submission or by affidavit to the submissions of any person appearing before the Board or to any affidavit submitted under subsection (7)(b).

(10) An offender who is being considered to be recommended for the grant of parole—

- (a) shall be entitled to have legal representation; or
- (b) may be assisted by a person of the offender's choice if the person obtains leave from the Board under subsection (3).

(11) The Board shall provide the assistance of an interpreter where an offender does not have an adequate understanding of the English language.

(12) The Board may refuse to disclose information under subsection (6) or (7), where it has reason to believe that the disclosure of the information would not be in the public interest or would jeopardise the safety or security of a person.

(13) The Board may redact any information referred to in subsection (12) from any copy of a document, which it provides under subsection (6) or (7).

(14) The Board shall, in writing, notify—

- (a) the Commissioner;
- (b) the Commissioner of Police;
- (c) the victim of the offence committed by the offender or such relative of the victim as the Board sees fit;
- (d) an offender; and
- (e) such other persons as the Board thinks fit, within seven days of its decision with respect to the recommendation for the grant or refusal of parole to an offender.

(15) The appearance of an offender, victim, relatives of the victim or any other person participating in the proceedings, may appear in such hearings or proceedings virtually, through the use of video conferencing or other electronic communication technology that allows for real-time audio and visual participation.

41. A police officer shall, as soon as possible after arresting or charging a parolee, inform the Board, the parole officer and the Registrar of the Supreme Court of that occurrence.

Duty of police officer to inform of arrest or charging of parolee

Parole order ceases to have effect where parolee is convicted

42. (1) Where a parolee during the course of his parole, is convicted with any criminal offence—

- (a) his parole order granted under this Act shall immediately cease to have effect and the offender shall be returned to prison; and
- (b) the offender shall cease to be eligible for parole.

(2) Where a parolee under subsection (1), is on electronic monitoring—

- (a) the Electronic Monitoring Unit shall be notified of the occurrence; and
- (b) all electronic monitoring equipment on the person of the offender shall be removed before the offender is returned to prison.

(3) Where a parolee is returned to the prison in accordance with subsection (1), the period spent by the parolee while on parole, shall be counted as a part of his sentence.

(4) A parolee who is returned to prison under subsection (1), shall not be eligible to reapply for parole.

Suspension of parole order

43. (1) Subject to section 42, the Board may recommend to a Court the suspension of a parole order in respect of any parolee where the Board has reason to believe there has been, or is likely to be, a breach by the parolee of any of the conditions of parole.

(2) A Court may, after considering the recommendation of the Board under subsection (1) and any submissions by or on behalf of the parolee, suspend the parole order.

Recommendation for the revocation of parole

44. (1) The Board shall recommend to a Court the revocation of a parole order where—

- (a) the parolee poses an undue risk to the safety of the community or any person or class of persons;

- (b) the parolee has breached his conditions of release;
 - (c) it appears that the immediate recall of a parolee is necessary in the public interest; or
 - (d) the parolee no longer wishes to be subject to his conditions of release including residential restrictions.

(2) Where the Board intends to recommend to a Court the revocation of a parole order, the Board shall give at least seven days written notice of such intention to—

- (a) the parolee;
- (b) the Commissioner;
- (c) the Commissioner of Police;
- (d) the parole officer; and
- (e) such other persons as the Board thinks fit.

(3) A Court may, after considering—

- (a) the recommendation of the Board under subsection (1); and
- (b) any submissions by or on behalf of the parolee, the parole officer and such other persons as the Court thinks fit, revoke the parole order, where the Court is satisfied with respect to any of the grounds specified in subsection (1).

45. (1) Where a parole order has been suspended or revoked, the parole order in respect of such parolee shall cease to have effect and the Court shall forthwith issue a warrant, addressed to any police officer for the arrest and the return of the parolee to prison.

Effect of revocation or suspension of parole

(2) Where a parolee is returned to prison in accordance with subsection (1), the period spent by the parolee while on parole, shall be counted as a part of his sentence.

Reapplicatiion for parole

46. (1) An offender whose application for parole has been refused, may reapply for parole after the expiration of twelve months from the date of the refusal.

(2) Subject to section 42(3), a parolee in respect of whom parole has been suspended or revoked, may reapply to the Board for parole after the expiration of twelve months from the date of such suspension or revocation.

Computation of sentence

47. The parole period shall be counted as part of the sentence in respect of which parole was granted and shall be taken into account for the purpose of determining the date of expiration of such sentence.

Appeal from decisions of the Board

48. An appeal from a decision of the Board shall be made to the High Court on the ground that the Board, in making its decision—

- (a) breached or failed to apply any of its own internal policies; or
- (b) based its decision on erroneous or incomplete information.
