

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO.

Law Revision.

No. 14.—1900.

5th June.

AN ORDINANCE for repealing certain Ordinances which have ceased to be in force or have become unnecessary.

[L.S.]

HUBERT E. H. JERNINGHAM,

GOVERNOR.

21st June, 1900.

WHEREAS it is expedient that certain Ordinances and parts of Ordinances (mentioned in the schedule to this Ordinance) which may be regarded as spent, or have ceased to be in force otherwise than by express and special repeal, or have, by lapse of time and change of circumstances, become unnecessary, should be expressly and specifically repealed: Be it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as “The Law Short title. Revision Ordinance, 1900.—No. 1.”

2. The Ordinances mentioned in the schedule to this Ordinance are hereby repealed to the extent Repeal of Ordinances in schedule. specified in the third column of such schedule subject to the exceptions and qualifications in this Ordinance mentioned.

Saving clauses.

3. Where any enactment not comprised in the schedule has been repealed, confirmed, revived, or perpetuated by any enactment hereby repealed, such repeal, confirmation, revivor, or perpetuation shall not be affected by the repeals effected by this Ordinance.

The repeal by this Ordinance of any enactment shall not affect any enactment in which such enactment has been applied, incorporated, or referred to, nor shall such repeal of any enactment affect any right to any hereditary revenues of the Crown, or affect any charges thereupon, or prevent any such enactment from being put in force for the collection of any such revenues or otherwise in relation thereto.

This Ordinance shall not affect the validity, invalidity, effect or consequence of anything already done or suffered, or any existing status or capacity, or any right or title acquired or accrued, or any remedy or proceeding in respect thereof, or any release or discharge of or from any debt, penalty, claim, or demand, or any indemnity, or the proof of any past act or thing, nor shall this Ordinance affect any principle or rule of law or equity, or established jurisdiction, form or course of pleading, practice or procedure, or existing usage, franchise, liberty, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, office, appointment, payment, allowance or emolument, notwithstanding that the same respectively may have been in any manner affirmed, recognized, or derived by, in, or from any enactment hereby repealed.

Nor shall this Ordinance revive or restore any jurisdiction, office, duty, drawback, fee, payment, franchise, liberty, custom, right, title, privilege, restriction, exemption, rule or principle of Spanish or other law, usage, practice, procedure, or other matter or thing not now existing or in force.

Passed in Council this Fifth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred.

HARRY L. KNAGGS,
Acting Clerk of the Council.
