Sessions.

of the Magistrate, be adjourned, either generally, or, as respects any particular applications, to such other days as the Magistrate shall think fit, and, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Magistrate may, at such Session, or at any adjournment thereof, grant such certificates to such persons and in respect of such premises as the Magistrate in the exercise of his discretion deems proper :

Special Sessions.

Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor in the exercise of his discretion to direct any Magistrate to appoint and hold a special Session at any other date :

Provided also, that a fee of five pounds shall be payable in respect of each application considered at any such special Session.

Notice of Licensing Sessions.

13. The Magistrate shall, twenty-one days at least before each Licensing Session, appoint the time and place at which such Session is to be held, and cause notice thereof to be inserted in the Royal Gazette, and to be affixed in some conspicuous place or places. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any adjournment of a Session.

Applications for licences.

14. (1) Every person desiring to obtain a new licence in respect of any premises, shall, fifteen days at least before the day appointed for the Licensing Session, make an application in writing to the Magistrate, who shall cause notice of such application to be published in the Royal Gazette.

(2) In every such application shall be stated the name, occupation, and residence of the applicant, and the situation of the premises, and the trade in respect of which a licence is applied for.

(3) Renewals may be granted at Licensing Sessions on personal application without notice ; but it shall be lawful for any Customs and Excise or Constabulary Officer in Court to object to any renewal on sufficient ground to be stated in Court, and the Magistrate may at his discretion in any such case adjourn the hearing of the application to a convenient day to admit of evidence being adduced.

15. The owner of the premises in respect of which a new licence is applied for, and any owner or occupier of property, or a minister in charge of a place of public worship, or the managers of any public Elementary School, situate within a quarter of a mile therefrom, and any Officer of Customs and Excise or Warden and any member of the Constabulary Force in charge of the district, shall have the right of appearing before the Magistrate at Licensing Sessions to object to the granting of any new licence or the transfer of any licence to any new premises, and every such Officer, Warden, or member of the Constabulary Force shall have such right as regards the transfer of any licence to any person, and shall be heard by the Magistrate in support of any such objection.

objection to licence.

16. Any person aggrieved by any decision of the Magistrate granting or refusing any new licence or any renewal or transfer may appeal from such decision to the Full Court: Provided that, for the purposes of this section "any person aggrieved" shall mean the applicant, or any person who is entitled under the provisions of this Ordinance to object to such new licence, renewal, or transfer, and who shall have appeared before the Magistrate and objected to such new licence, renewal, or transfer.

Appeal against Magistrate's decision.

17. The procedure in respect of any appeal under the next preceding section shall be such as is laid down in the Summary Conviction Offences (Procedure) Ordinance, except that it shall not be obligatory to give any notice of reasons for appeal.

Procedure on appeal.

Cap. 24.

18. Where any certificate, permission, or approval of the Collector or any other person is a condition of the granting of a Magistrate's licence, the same shall be obtained by the applicant and lodged with the Clerk of the Peace before the day appointed for the Licensing Session: Provided that the Magistrate may in his discretion extend the time for the lodging of such certificate, permission, or approval, and adjourn the hearing of the application accordingly.

Certificates,
&c., to be lodged by applicant.

Returns of certificates to be sent to Treasurer by Magistrate.

19. A return of all certificates granted for the issue, renewal, or transfer of licences under this Ordinance, specifying the names and places of abode of the licensees, the licensed premises, and the terms for which the licences are granted, shall be transmitted by the Magistrate to the Treasurer within seven days next after the same are granted, renewed, or transferred.

Publication of licences granted.

20. (1) The Collector shall cause to be published in the Royal Gazette, quarterly returns of all licences granted, issued and transferred under this Ordinance.

(2) Production of a copy of the Royal Gazette containing any such return as in this section mentioned shall be sufficient evidence of any fact therein stated as to any licence therein returned.

Procedure at Licensing Sessions.
Cap. 24.

21. The Summary Conviction Offences (Procedure) Ordinance shall govern the procedure of the Court of a Magistrate sitting at any Licensing Sessions or any adjournment thereof under this Ordinance.

Personal application to Licensing Authority.

22. No new licence shall be granted or current licence transferred except the person applying for such grant, or to whom such transfer is to be made, personally appears before the Licensing Authority, or in the case of a company the manager or other servant of the company by whom the business is to be carried on on behalf of such company, so personally appears: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Licensing Authority, on special grounds, to dispense with such appearance in case of unavoidable absence.

Personation of applicant.

23. Any person falsely pretending before a Licensing Authority that he is the person applying for a licence or the person to whom any existing licence is to be transferred, shall be deemed so to have pretended with intent to deceive, and shall incur a penalty of fifty pounds; and if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Licensing Authority that he has so pretended with the connivance of the person entitled to apply, such licence or transfer shall not be granted.

24. No licence shall be granted or transferred to—
- (1) any person who has been convicted in the Colony of dealing in, retailing, selling, exposing to sale, offering for sale, or having in his possession or on his premises for purposes of sale, any intoxicating liquor contrary to any Excise Ordinance, or of any offence under Part XI of the Spirits and Spirit Compounds Ordinance, 1933 ; or
- (2) any person apparently under the age of twenty-one years, unless such person proves himself to have attained such age ; or
- (3) any person whose licence has been cancelled under the provisions of this Ordinance, or, during his life, his wife or any member of the family of such person resident with him ;
- (4) any person in respect of premises situated within a quarter of a mile of any distillery.

Disqualifications for licence.

No. 30 of 1933 .

25. (1) On the death of any licensed person, the licence may, save as otherwise provided by this Ordinance, be transferred by endorsement by the Licensing Authority to the licensed person's personal representative, or to the person beneficially entitled to the business, or to the Administrator-General or Public Trustee, or the appointee of the Administrator-General or Public Trustee.

Transfer on death of licensee, or on assignment or transfer.

(2) On the bona fide assignment or transfer of any licensed business, the licence may, save as aforesaid, at the discretion of the Licensing Authority, and with the consent of the parties, be transferred by endorsement by such Authority.

(3) No licence shall be transferred under this section except upon payment of the fee set out in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance.

(4) No penalty under this Ordinance shall be incurred by the executors or administrators or the widow or child of any licensed person who dies before the expiration of his licence, or by the trustee of any person who is adjudged bankrupt, or whose affairs are liquidated by arrangement, before the expiration of his licence, in respect of the sale or exposure for sale of any intoxicating liquor, so that such sale or exposure for sale be made on the premises specified in such licence, and takes place for not longer than twenty-eight days after the death of the said licensed person, or the appointment of a trustee in the case of his bankruptcy, or the liquidation of his affairs by arrangement : Provided that the Collector may, on reasonable cause being shown, extend the period of twenty-eight days aforesaid, by notification in writing.

Transfer to other premises
licence).

26. Any person having a Magistrate's licence may apply to the Magistrate for leave to transfer his licensed trade from his licensed premises to other premises within the same district. Seven days' notice shall be given of the hearing of such application by the Clerk of the Peace to the Collector and also to the Officer of Constabulary in charge of the district ; and the same may be opposed by the Constabulary or by any Officer on the ground that the premises to which it is proposed to transfer the licence are not suitable for the carrying on of such trade, or on any other proper ground. No such transfer shall be granted except upon payment of the fee set out in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance.

Transfer
notice (Magistrate's
licence).

27. An application for transfer of a Magistrate's licence may be made at any time on ten days' notice in writing of the application, to be given to the Clerk of the Peace, and shall be published in the Royal Gazette.

Transfer to other premises, (Excise
licence).

28. Any holder of an Excise licence may apply to the Collector for a transfer thereof to other premises, and the Collector may in his discretion grant such transfer by endorsement on payment of the fee set out in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance, and the licence shall thereupon be deemed to authorize the carrying on of the licensed trade on the premises substituted, and no longer to authorize the trade on the premises originally licensed.

Transfer of licence lost or withheld.

29. Where an application is made for the transfer of a licence, it shall be lawful for the Licensing Authority, in the event of the licence being lost or mislaid or wilfully withheld by the holder thereof, to receive a copy of such licence and deal therewith as hereinbefore provided, in case such Licensing Authority is satisfied that the licence is withheld by some person without any legal right to withhold the same.

PART III.

POWERS OF LICENSEES.

30.—(1) The authority given to any person by any licence in respect of any premises shall extend, in respect of such premises, to his servant, or his wife or a member of his family resident with him. Licence authorises servants, &c.

(2) Any licence issued under this Ordinance authorizing any sale of, or dealing in, or retailing of spirits, shall be deemed to extend to any intoxicating liquor, and any licence issued under this Ordinance authorizing any sale of, or dealing in, or retailing of wine, shall be deemed to extend to beer. Provisions as to the several classes of licences.

(3) A spirit retailer's licence and a wine retailer's licence shall authorize sale in any quantity for consumption either on or off the licensed premises.

(4) A hotel spirit licence, a special hotel licence, and a restaurant licence, shall authorize sale in any quantity, but for consumption by the persons hereinafter specified and upon the licensed premises only.

(5) A spirit grocer's licence shall authorize the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption off the licensed premises only, and in any quantity, but only in bottle.

(6) A spirit dealer's licence shall authorize the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption off the licensed premises only, and, as to quantity, as regards rum made in the Colony, not less than twenty-four gallons contained in one cask, or two gallons contained in bottles in one case, as regards wine, not less than one gallon, or, as regards any other intoxicating liquor, not less than two gallons of one denomination at one time. Provided that it shall be lawful for the holder of any such licence to sell imported spirits in the original unbroken packages in which the same were imported, notwithstanding that the same shall contain less than two gallons :

Provided also that it shall be lawful to sell compounds manufactured in the Colony in any quantity not less than one gallon at one time.

(7) A wine merchant's licence shall authorize sale of wine or beer only, for consumption off the licensed premises only, and in quantity not less than one gallon of wine, or two gallons of beer at one time.

(8) No licence for the sale of spirits shall authorize the sale at a lower strength than twenty-five degrees under proof, as ascertained by Sikes's hydrometer, of any spirits other than brandy, imported in bottle and sold intact in the bottles in which the same were imported, compounds, foreign liqueurs and gin, and if any spirits of a lower strength than twenty-five degrees under proof, other than brandy imported in bottle and sold intact in the bottles in which the same were imported, compounds, foreign liqueurs and gin, are found upon any licensed premises, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer, and the person in whose name the premises are licensed, and the manager of such premises shall each incur a penalty of fifty pounds.

(9) If in any prosecution under the preceding subsection any question shall arise as to whether any spirits seized are or are not brandy imported in bottle and sold intact in the bottles in which the same were imported, compounds as defined in this Ordinance, or foreign liqueurs or gin, then and in such case the proof thereof shall lie on the defendant or the owner or claimant of such spirits.

spirit dealers. 31. A spirit dealer's licence shall be granted in respect of premises in Port-of-Spain, San Fernando, and Scarborough only, and only by the Collector or a Sub-Collector.

spirit grocer. 32. It shall be lawful for the Collector or any Officer duly authorized by him in his discretion to grant a spirit grocer's licence to any person who shall be or about to be in his judgment bona fide carrying on the trade of a grocer or provision dealer in a shop or premises in Port-of-Spain, San Fernando, or Scarborough (or with the permission of the Governor in Executive Council in any other town), which shop or premises is or are in the opinion of the Collector proper and suitable for the purpose.

33. An hotel spirit licence shall be granted only in respect of premises in Port-of-Spain, San Fernando, or Scarborough, and shall authorize the keeper of an hotel to supply spirits, wine, and beer to guests at the hotel only. Any keeper of an hotel may supply wine and beer under a wine retailer's licence.

Provided that the Governor in Executive Council may from time to time authorise the Magistrate for any district to entertain an application for such a licence in respect of any premises elsewhere situate, and to deal with such application at his discretion, subject as in the next succeeding section provided.

34. Save as in the next succeeding section provided, no hotel spirit licence shall be granted by a Magistrate for any hotel containing a bar for the resort and accommodation of the public, nor in any case without the production to him of a certificate from the Collector that the premises sought to be licensed are bona fide an hotel, and are suitable to be licensed as an hotel for the retailing of spirits to be consumed therein.

35. It shall be lawful for the Governor on the joint certificate of the Inspector-General and the Collector that any hotel in which there is a bar or other drinking accommodation open to the public is kept mainly for the bona fide entertainment of guests using such hotel for sleeping and taking meals therein, and that it is for the general public convenience that such authority should be given, to authorize the Magistrate at his discretion to issue a special hotel licence for such hotel. And such licence shall be deemed to authorise the retailing of intoxicating liquors for consumption on the licensed premises, without distinction of the persons to whom or the part of the premises in which liquors shall be supplied :

Provided always, that no liquor shall be sold under such special licence to persons not guests at such hotel at any time during which the keeping open of licensed premises for the sale of intoxicating liquor to the public generally is by law forbidden, or on any part of the premises not entered in accordance with Section 67 of this Ordinance.

Provided also, that during the time while any tourist steamship is within the limits of a port of the Colony, or on the occasion of any dance, ball, or other entertainment being held after closing hours in an hotel so specially licensed, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate of the district on application, and subject on each occasion to payment of the fee prescribed in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance for an occasional licence, to authorize in writing the licensed occupier of such hotel to supply intoxicating liquors to the persons attending at such time, dance, ball, or entertainment during such hours and on such days as may be specified in such authority, and thereupon such occupier may lawfully supply the same accordingly, and shall not be deemed to have committed an offence against the Shop Hours Ordinance, in respect of the sale of intoxicating liquors on the licensed premises during the hours and on the days specified in such authorization.

Cap. 191.

Restaurant
licence.

36. It shall be lawful for the Governor, on the joint certificate of the Inspector-General and the Collector that any restaurant is kept for the bona fide entertainment of guests using such restaurant for taking meals therein, that the premises sought to be licensed are suitable, and that it is for the general public convenience that such authority should be given, to authorize the Magistrate to issue his certificate for a licence for such restaurant. Licences granted under this section shall authorise the sale of intoxicating liquor to persons taking meals in the restaurant for consumption at such meals, between the hours of ten o'clock in the morning and two o'clock in the afternoon, and between the hours of six-thirty o'clock in the afternoon and midnight, and not at any other time.

Occasional
licence.

37.—(1) A licensed retailer of spirits or wine and beer may apply to a Magistrate at any time for an occasional licence, on the occasion of any public entertainment, festivity, or meeting, to carry on his trade at the place of such entertainment, festivity, or meeting within the district in which his licensed premises are situate, and a

Magistrate, by certificate under his hand, may at his discretion grant such occasional licence for the hours, on the days, and to the extent that may be deemed necessary for the public convenience; Provided that:—

- (a) sufficient notice of such application shall have been given to the principal Officer of Constabulary of the district, who may oppose the same; and
- (b) no such licence shall be granted in any case to extend beyond the occasion in respect of which the same is granted; and
- (c) such licence shall not, unless specially permitted therein, be deemed to permit any sale of intoxicating liquors except between the hours and on the days during which the same may be by law allowed to be sold on the premises of the applicant; but, if so specially permitted, the holder of any such licence shall not be deemed to have committed an offence against the Shop Hours Ordinance, in respect of the sale of intoxicating liquors in accordance with the terms of such licence; and
- (d) in the case of a race meeting, the written permission of at least two of the stewards is first obtained.

Cap. 191.

(2) For the purposes of this section the expression “public entertainment, festivity or meeting” shall mean an entertainment, festivity, or meeting to which the general public are admitted, whether without charge, or on payment of money.

(3) Subject to the same conditions as are set out on paragraphs (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of this section, it shall be lawful for a Magistrate in like manner on the certificate of approval of the Inspector-General of Constabulary to grant an occasional licence to any person to sell intoxicating liquor at any entertainment conducted by any association of persons for the purpose of raising funds for the purposes of the association. Every such occasional licence shall be issued subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in the certificate of approval.

Occasional
licence to person not already licensed.

Provided that where the person who is granted the licence is not a licensed retailer of spirits, wine, or beer as the case may be, he shall obtain all the intoxicating liquor to be supplied at such entertainment from a licensed retailer not earlier than the day of the entertainment, and shall return any balance unsold into the stock of the licensed person who supplied the same during the forenoon of the day following the conclusion of such entertainment, or where the entertainment concludes during the forenoon of any day, then such balance of intoxicating liquor shall be returned within twelve hours of the time of the conclusion of the entertainment; provided also that an account showing such particulars as the Inspector-General shall require, including the cost of all intoxicating liquor supplied under such licence, the amounts received from the sale thereof, and the particulars of the intoxicating liquor returned as aforesaid, shall be furnished to the Inspector-General within three days of the conclusion of such entertainment. Any person to whom an occasional licence is granted under this sub-section who fails to comply with the provisions hereof, or to carry out the conditions aforesaid, shall incur a penalty of one hundred pounds.

Government Railway and Steamers, &c.

38.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Governor in Executive Council to authorize the Collector, without any Magistrate's certificate, to issue a spirit retailer's or wine retailer's licence free of charge to—

- (a) the Superintendent of Railways, or any person nominated by him in respect of the sale of intoxicating liquor at any station or on any train or steamer of the Government Railway;
- (b) the Harbour Master, or any person nominated by him in respect of the supply to passengers of intoxicating liquor during any actual passage on board any Government steamer;
- (c) any owner or officer of a passenger steamship regularly plying between ports or places in the Colony in respect of the sale of intoxicating liquor on board such ship during the actual passage.

(2) Any licence issued under this section shall be subject to such restrictions as to hours and manner of sale as the Governor in Executive Council may in each case prescribe, and shall not be deemed to authorize any sale or delivery in violation of such restrictions.

39. It shall be lawful for the master of any steamship making a stay of not more than two days, or such further period as the Collector may allow, at any port in the Colony, without a licence, to sell intoxicating liquor for consumption of any person on board of such steamship, but not otherwise, at any time, and no penalty shall be incurred under any Customs or Excise Ordinance by the master nor by any person consuming the same on board of such steamship, in respect of such sale or consumption, or by reason of the fact that duties of customs have not been paid upon such intoxicating liquors.

Foreign going steamship.

40. When a Volunteer canteen is authorized by the Commandant of the Local Forces, and is managed by a committee who have no interest in the profits, a licence is not necessary for the sale therein of intoxicating liquors to any person entitled to purchase articles at such canteen.

Canteens.

PART IV.

OFFENCES.

41. (1) Save as in this Ordinance expressly provided to the contrary, no person shall deal in, retail, sell, expose to sale, offer for sale, or have in his possession or on his premises for purpose of sale, any intoxicating liquor, unless duly authorized by a licence granted under an Ordinance relating to the sale of intoxicating liquor, or contrary to the terms of any such licence, or to any of the provisions of any such Ordinance, whether specifically mentioned in any such licence or not, and any person so offending shall for each such offence incur a penalty of two hundred and fifty pounds in the case of spirits, or one hundred pounds in any other case, and all such intoxicating liquor shall be forfeited; and, if such person is the holder of a licence granted under any such Ordinance, or, if any holder of a licence under any such Ordinance is charged with aiding, abetting, counselling, or procuring the commission of any PART V.

POWERS OF OFFICERS.

57. Any Officer may at any time enter into any house, premises, building, room, or other place, entered, licensed, or used for the keeping, storing or selling of intoxicating liquors, and examine any intoxicating liquor found therein, and may search for and take samples of any such intoxicating liquors, paying for any samples the usual price, and may inspect all books, invoices, permits, and certificates relating to the trade, and may also search for and seize any intoxicating liquor for the sale of which a licence is not held. Officers may enter licensed premises.

58. If any person in the occupation of any house, premises, building, room, or other place, or any servant or other person in his employment, or any person by his direction, refuses or fails to admit any such Officer into or upon such house, premises, building, room, or other place, or wilfully impedes, resists, or obstructs such Officer in such inspection, he shall incur a penalty of twenty pounds. Penalty for obstruction, &c.

Officer may enter suspected
premises.

59. (1) If upon information given on oath it appears to any Justice that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that any intoxicating liquor is kept for the purpose of sale by any person not duly licensed in that behalf, or by any licensed person in any premises not specified in his licence, or in any manner not authorised by his licence, such Justice may by warrant under his hand directed to any Officer, authorize such Officer to enter and search such premises, and, by the said warrant, may, if he thinks fit, specially authorize such Officer to enter and search such premises at any time of the day or night, and moreover, if he thinks fit, may specially authorize such Officer, with or without assistance, to break open or otherwise use force in order to effect an entry to such premises.

(2) If, upon search under this section, any such intoxicating liquor, or any vessel used for holding or measuring the same is found, it shall be lawful for the Officer executing the warrant to take possession of and secure such liquor or vessel ; and he may apprehend and bring before a Magistrate, not only the person in whose premises the same are found, but also every other person found in such premises, who appears to have been employed or assisting in the selling of intoxicating liquor, and unless it be made to appear to such Magistrate that such intoxicating liquor was not deposited for the purpose of being sold in such premises, the person in whose premises such intoxicating liquor is found, and every person so appearing to have been employed or assisting in the selling thereof in such premises, shall incur a penalty of one hundred pounds.

(3) All intoxicating liquor found on any search under this section, together with all vessels used for holding or measuring the same, or in any way in and about the selling thereof, shall, upon any conviction in respect thereof, be forfeited to His Majesty.

(4) Every warrant under this section shall remain in force for one month from the date thereof, and it shall be no defence to any charge that the liquor found on the premises was deposited or brought thereon after the issue of the warrant.

60. Any Officer shall at all times, in relation to intoxicating liquors and to any substance, liquor, or ingredient which may be mixed with intoxicating liquors, and the use or possession of which shall have been prohibited by the Governor, have the same powers as if he had been one of the functionaries mentioned in section 20 of the Food and Drugs Ordinance.
