27th November, 1944.

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Spirits and Spirit
Compounds Ordinance, Ch. 32. No. 9.

[30th November, 1944.]

Commencement.

ENACTED by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Spirits and Spirit Short title.
Compounds (Amendment) Ordinance, 1944, and shall be read as one with the Spirits and Spirit Compounds Ordinance hereinafter referred to as the Principal Ordinance. Ch. 32. No. 9.

Section 15 of Principal Ordinance repealed and replaced.

2. Section 15 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and replaced by the following :—

“Distiller not to be retailer of spirits.

15. Save as provided in this section and in section 17, no person who is the holder of a distiller's licence, and no person authorised or permitted to keep or use a still under section 14 or section 20, shall be a retailer of spirits, or be in any manner interested or concerned in the trade or business of a retailer of spirits: Provided that it shall be lawful for a licensed distiller to sell from a warehouse at any one time any quantity of spirits distilled by him not being less than 24 gallons contained in one package or less than 2 gallons contained in bottles packed in one case ; and if any such person shall retail or knowingly suffer or permit any servant or other person in his employ to retail spirits or be in any manner interested or concerned in the trade or business of a retailer of spirits, otherwise than as authorised by this section, he shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty of four hundred and eighty dollars”.

New section 73A of the Principal Ordinance.

3. The following new section is hereby added to the Principal Ordinance immediately after section 73 :—

“Restriction on sale of compounds.

73A. It shall not be lawful for any licensed compounder to sell compounds for consumption on his licensed premises or to sell at any one time for consumption off his licensed premises compounds of a quantity less than one gallon. Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this section shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty of four hundred and eighty dollars and his licence as compounder may be cancelled by the Magistrate on conviction.”

Passed in Council this seventeenth day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-four.

W. J. BOOS,
Clerk of the Council.
