

3. The following shall be substituted for Section 24 of the Principal Ordinance :—

Section 24 of
Cap. 25
substituted.

24. Every person who—

Fraudulent conversion.

(a) being entrusted either solely or jointly with any other person with any chattel, money or valuable security in order that he may retain in safe custody or apply, pay or deliver, for any purpose or to any person, the chattel, money or valuable security or any part thereof or any proceeds thereof ; or

(b) having either solely or jointly with any other person received any chattel, money or valuable security for or on account of any other person ; or

(c) having contracted with any other person to make anything or execute any work, obtains from that other person any money to be laid out in providing materials, tools or other things necessary or suitable for the making of the thing or the execution of the work, fraudulently converts to his own use or benefit, or the use or benefit of any other person, such chattel, money or valuable security or any part thereof or any proceeds thereof, provided that the chattel, money or valuable security or the part or proceeds so fraudulently converted does not exceed ninety-six dollars in value, shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof by a Magistrate may be imprisoned with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding six months, and also may be ordered to pay to the party aggrieved any sum not exceeding ninety-six dollars by way of compensation.

4. The following shall be inserted as paragraph (c) to Section 25 of the Principal Ordinance :—

Section 25 of
Cap 25
amended.

(c) if the amount of the damage exceeds twenty-four dollars and does not exceed ninety-six dollars, to a penalty not exceeding one hundred and ninety-two dollars, or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding four months.

- (4) Every person who shall, without leave of the owner or occupier, affix any placard or notice upon any building, wall, pillar, post, or fence, or otherwise deface the same ; Placarding.
- (5) Every person pretending or professing to tell fortunes. Fortune telling.

7. The following shall be substituted for paragraph (8) of Section 51 of the Principal Ordinance :— Section 51 (8) of Cap. 25 substituted.

- (8) Every person wilfully and obscenely exposing his person. Obscene exposure.

8. Section 55 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sub-section :— Amendment of Cap. 25, s. 55.

- (3) An animal used in drawing a vehicle shall be deemed to be ill-treated if, by reason of the condition of the vehicle or harness used, or of the nature and condition of the road travelled over, or other cause, the animal, in the opinion of the Magistrate, has been made to suffer unnecessary strain or pain or has been overworked.

9. Section 61 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following : Amendment of Cap. 25, s. 61.
 “ Pending the hearing of a complaint for any such offence the Magistrate may, on the application of the complainant, direct the animal to be detained in like manner ”.

10. The following shall be added as sub-section (3) to Section 81 of the Principal Ordinance :— Section 81 of Cap. 25 amended.

- (3) Every person shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding forty-eight dollars who, during the presentation or performance of any stage play or concert or other dramatic or musical entertainment, or the holding of any dance, in any building or place to which the public is admitted or has access—

- (a) is indecently attired ;
- (b) performs any lewd or suggestive dancing or actions ;
- (c) in any play, song, ballad or speech uses language which is profane, indecent or obscene, or which is insulting to any individual or section of the community whether referred to by name or otherwise ;
- (d) acts in a manner calculated to hold up to public ridicule or contempt any individual or section of the community.

14. Sections 94, 95 and 96 of the Principal Ordinance are hereby repealed and the following sections shall be substituted in lieu thereof :—

Sections 94-96 of Cap. 25 and s. 7 of Ordinance 34 of 1932 replaced

LICENSING OF CERTAIN TRADES.

94.—(1) Any person who shall, within the limits of any town, commence or carry on the trade or business of a blacksmith, tinman, founder, farrier, or cooper without having first obtained a licence under the hand of the Magistrate of the district, authorizing him to carry on such trade or business in some particular house, workshop, or premises to be therein specified, or who, having such licence, shall carry on such trade or business in any place except the house, workshop, or premises therein specified, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ninety-six dollars.

Certain trades to be licensed.

(2) Every person carrying on the trade or business of a blacksmith, tinman, founder, farrier, or cooper, who, on being required by any constable on the premises where such trade or business is carried on to produce his licence, shall refuse to do so, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding nine dollars and sixty cents or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding fourteen days.

Refusing to produce licence.

(3) One month's notice by public advertisement shall be given by the Magistrate of any application made to him for a licence to carry on any trade or business mentioned in this section, in which notice shall be inserted the name of the applicant and the place where such trade or business is intended to be carried on.

Notice of application for licence

95.—(1) Any person who for reward offers his services to any other person for the purpose of directing and accompanying such other person to any place of local interest or for the purpose of giving information to such other person in respect of any such place shall first obtain a licence as a guide from the Magistrate of the district in which he resides. Such guide shall wear a numbered armband which shall be supplied to him by the Inspector-General of Constabulary. Such guide shall charge for his Guide's licence.