Note on Act No. 19 of 1988

Section 38 of the Trinidad and Tobago Free Zones Act, 1988 (Act No. 19 of 1988) provides as follows:

“Work permits. Ch. 18:01.	38. (1) A person who is a foreign national or Commonwealth citizen employed by the Company or by an approved enterprise established in any free zone shall not, by virtue only of such employment, be exempt from the Immigration Act, but the Minister responsible for the administration of that Act shall, in considering applications by or on behalf of such a person, have regard to the need to facilitate the operations of the free zone.

(2) Where a person referred to in subsection (1) is employed by an approved enterprise, he and that enterprise shall be exempt from such provisions of the Immigration Act as authorise or require the payment or imposition of fees in relation to the grant of a work permit to him.

Ch. 58:02. *(3) The Aliens (Landholding) Act shall not apply with respect to an investment in an approved enterprise established in a free zone or the holding of an interest in land in a free zone.”
(*See Note on Act No. 16 of 1990).

Note on Act No. 16 of 1990

Act No. 16 of 1990 (Foreign Investment Act, 1990) repealed the Aliens (Landholding) Act, Ch. 58:02. Accordingly, section 38 (3) of Act No. 19 of 1988 should be read in the light of this repeal.

Note on Act No. 14 of 2005

PART I

ADMISSION OF PERSONS INTO TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

3. Except as permitted under this Act, no person may be admitted into Trinidad and Tobago as an immigrant or being within Trinidad and Tobago remain therein as an immigrant.

Immigrants.

ENTITLEMENT OF CITIZENS AND RESIDENTS TO COME INTO TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

4. (1) A citizen of Trinidad and Tobago has the right to be admitted into Trinidad and Tobago.

Entitlement to admission to Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) A resident who is not a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, so long as he continues to be a resident, has the right to be admitted into Trinidad and Tobago.

5. (1) The following persons not being citizens of Trinidad and Tobago are residents of Trinidad and Tobago:

Persons who are residents of Trinidad and Tobago. [7 of 1974 24 of 1978].

- (a) a person who was entitled under the former Constitution to be registered as a citizen;
- (b) a person to whom permission has been granted by the Minister under section 6 to become a resident;

- (c) a person other than a person described in paragraph (a) or (b) who immediately before the commencement of this Act (that is, 1st July 1976) was deemed to be a person belonging to Trinidad and Tobago by virtue of section 2(2) of the former Ordinance;
- (d) a person who applies for and is granted permission to become a resident under section 50(1);
- (e) the child of a person who is a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago or who by virtue of this section is a resident provided that such child is a minor or is dependent on and living with his parents;
- (f) such other persons on whom the Minister may confer the status of a resident.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) and (d), no period shall be counted towards the acquisition of resident status during which a person—

- (a) is confined in or is an inmate of any prison or hospital for mental diseases;
- (b) remains in Trinidad and Tobago after the making of a deportation order against him and prior to the execution of such order or his voluntarily leaving Trinidad and Tobago, unless an appeal against such order is allowed; or
- (c) is in Trinidad and Tobago under a permit.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(f) the Minister may, in his discretion, confer the status of a resident on any person he considers fit.

Persons who may be permitted to become residents. [7 of 1974 24 of 1978].

6. (1) Subject to this Act and the Regulations, persons who come within the following classes may on application in the prescribed form, be granted permission by the Minister if he thinks fit, to become residents, that is to say:

- (a) a permitted entrant who—
 - (i) by reason of his education, occupational qualifications, personal history, employment record, training, skills or other special qualifications has established or is likely to be able to establish himself successfully in Trinidad and Tobago in a profession, trade, self-operating business or agricultural enterprise and who has sufficient means of support to maintain himself and his immediate family in Trinidad and Tobago; and

- (ii) has been continuously resident in Trinidad and Tobago for five years or such shorter period (not being less than twelve months) as the Minister may in the special circumstances of any particular case accept;
- (b) a person who is the parent or grandparent of either a citizen or resident of Trinidad and Tobago, residing in Trinidad and Tobago, if such citizen or resident is willing and able to provide care and maintenance for that person;
- (c) the spouse of a citizen or resident of Trinidad and Tobago; and
- (d) a person who has ceased to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago by reason of his voluntary acquisition of citizenship of another country.

(2) In determining the suitability of an applicant for the grant of resident status under this section, the Minister shall be satisfied, inter alia, that the applicant—

- (a) had entered the country legally;
- (b) is not in a prohibited class; and
- (c) is of good character as evidenced by a police certificate of good character.

7. (1) Subject to subsection (6), resident status is lost by a person—

- (a) who voluntarily resides outside Trinidad and Tobago for a continuous period of one year, unless he obtains from the Minister a certificate in the prescribed form exempting him from the provisions of this paragraph; or

Loss of resident status.
[24 of 1978
47 of 1980].

(b) who was entitled under the former Constitution to be registered as a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, if he has resided outside Trinidad and Tobago for a continuous period of two years immediately preceding the commencement of this Act, unless within a period of six months from that date he obtains from the Minister a certificate in the prescribed form exempting him from the provisions of this paragraph.

(2) Where the Minister is satisfied that a person has been—

- (a) engaged in activities detrimental to the security of Trinidad and Tobago; or
- (b) an habitual criminal,

that person shall be deemed to have lost the status of resident at the commencement of his engagement in such activities or at the time of his becoming an habitual criminal.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b) an habitual criminal is a person who—

- (a) is not less than thirty years of age;
- (b) has been convicted of an indictable offence punishable with imprisonment for two years or more and has been convicted on at least three previous occasions since the age of seventeen years of offences similarly punishable; and
- (c) was on at least two of these occasions sentenced to imprisonment, or has at least on one occasion been sentenced to be detained at the Youth Training Centre or any other similar Institution.

(4) The Minister, where he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a resident—

- (a) has given false or misleading information in his application for residence; or
- (b) is a person referred to in section 8(1)(e), (f), (k), (l), (m), (o) or (q),

may issue a written declaration under his hand stating that the resident has lost his resident status from the date specified in the declaration, and the Minister may make a deportation order against that person.

(5) Any period during which a permitted entrant is in Trinidad and Tobago that is less than the period required for the acquisition of resident status under section 6(1)(a)(ii) that might otherwise be counted by a person towards the acquisition of such status in accordance with Regulations made under this Act is lost upon the making of a deportation order against him, unless an appeal against such order is allowed.

(6) In no case shall residence out of Trinidad and Tobago for the purpose of serving in the public service or diplomatic or other service of Trinidad and Tobago, cause loss of resident status.

PROHIBITED CLASSES

8. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), entry into Trinidad and Tobago of the persons described in this subsection, other than citizens and, subject to section 7(2), residents, is prohibited, namely—

Prohibited

- (d) persons who have been convicted of or admit having committed any crime, which if committed in Trinidad and Tobago would be punishable with imprisonment for one or more years;
- (e) prostitutes, homosexuals or persons living on the earnings of prostitutes or homosexuals, or persons reasonably suspected as coming to Trinidad and Tobago for these or any other immoral purposes;
- (f) persons who are reasonably suspected of attempting to bring into Trinidad and Tobago or of procuring prostitutes or other persons for the

- purpose of prostitution or homosexual or other immoral purposes;
- (g) habitual beggars or vagrants;
 - (h) persons who are likely to become charges on public funds;
 - (i) persons who are chronic alcoholics;
 - (j) persons who are addicted to the use of any drug;
 - (k) persons who are engaged or at any time have been engaged or are suspected on reasonable grounds of being likely to engage in any unlawful giving, using, inducing other persons to use, distributing, selling, offering or exposing for sale, buying, trading or trafficking in any drug;
 - (l) persons who are or have been at any time before or after the commencement of this Act advocates of the overthrow by force or violence of the established Government of Trinidad and Tobago or any other country, or of all forms of law, or who advocate the abolition of organised Government, or who advocate the assassination of public officials or who advocate or teach the unlawful destruction of property or who are or have been members of or affiliated to any organisation which entertains and preaches any of the doctrines and practices specified in this paragraph;
 - (m) persons concerning whom there are reasonable grounds for believing they are likely to engage in espionage, sabotage or any other subversive activity of any kind directed against Trinidad and Tobago or detrimental to the security of Trinidad and Tobago;
 - (n) persons, not included in any other prohibited class, who are certified by a medical officer as being mentally or physically abnormal to such a degree as to impair seriously their ability to earn a living;
 - (o) persons who have been reasonably suspected of engaging in treasonable activities against

Trinidad and Tobago or of assisting enemies in time of war;

- (p) persons who cannot or do not fulfil or comply with any of the conditions or requirements of this Act or the Regulations or any orders lawfully made or given under this Act or the Regulations;
- (q) any person who from information or advice which in the opinion of the Minister is reliable information or advice is likely to be an undesirable inhabitant of, or visitor to Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) The Minister may authorise in writing under his hand or under the hand of a person designated by him, entry into Trinidad and Tobago of persons passing through Trinidad and Tobago under guard to another country.

(3) In this section—

“drug” means any substance included in the Schedule to the Narcotics Control Ordinance, or anything that contains any substance included in that Schedule, and includes any hallucinogenic drug or any drug producing hallucinations if misused; 27 of 1961.

“infectious diseases” and “dangerous infectious diseases” have the meanings respectively assigned to them by section 2 of the Public Health Ordinance. Ch. 12 No. 4.
(1950 Ed.).

PERMITTED ENTRANTS

9. (1) An immigration officer may allow to enter Trinidad and Tobago on such conditions and for such periods as may be fit and proper in any particular case, the following persons or classes of persons, as the case may be: Permitted entrants.
[24 of 1978
47 of 1980
2 of 2005].

- (a) persons who are diplomatic or consular officers or representatives or officials duly accredited, of any country, or of the United Nations or any of its agencies or of any inter-governmental organisation in which Trinidad and Tobago participates, coming to Trinidad and Tobago to carry out their official duties or passing through in transit, or members of the suites or families of such persons;

- (b) members of any naval, army or air forces who come to Trinidad and Tobago for training or otherwise in connection with the defence and security interests of Trinidad and Tobago, or under the provisions of any treaty or agreement between Trinidad and Tobago and another country and whose entry into Trinidad and Tobago is approved by the Minister, together with such members of their families or suites as may be approved;
- (c) tourists or visitors;

- (k) has, since he came into Trinidad and Tobago broken any of the terms and conditions of the certificate issued to him under subsection (2), the Minister may at any time declare that such person has ceased to be a permitted entrant and such person shall thereupon cease to be a permitted entrant.

(5) The Minister may make a deportation order against any person referred to in subsection (4) or section 50(5), subject [as regards a person referred to in section 50(5)] to the provisions of section 31(3), and such person shall have no right of appeal and shall be deported as soon as possible.

ENTRY UNDER PERMIT

10. (1) The Minister may issue a written permit authorising any person to enter Trinidad and Tobago or, being in Trinidad and Tobago, to remain therein.

Issue of permits.
[7 of 1974].

(2) A permit shall be expressed to be in force for a specified period not exceeding twelve months, and during the time that it is in force such permit stays the execution of any deportation order that may have been made against the person concerned.

(3) Subject to subsection (4) and without prejudice to the generality of his powers under this section, the Minister may issue a permit to the following persons to enter Trinidad and Tobago or being in Trinidad and Tobago to remain therein, that is to say:

- (a) persons such as are described in section 8(1)
 - (a) or (b) if satisfied that such persons are—
 - (i) unlikely to become charges on public funds; or
 - (ii) members of a family in Trinidad and Tobago and the family of such persons have given satisfactory security against their becoming charges on public funds, and that, except in the case of persons described in section 8(1)(a) in respect of whom as is mentioned in paragraph (ii) satisfactory security is given, the Minister responsible for Health has agreed to their treatment and care at any health resort, hospital, sanatorium, asylum or other place or institution in Trinidad and Tobago;

- (b) persons such as are described in section 8(1)(i) if satisfied that such persons have ceased to be members of or associated with such organisations, groups or bodies and that the entry of such persons would not be detrimental to the security of Trinidad and Tobago.

(4) The Minister may attach to the entry or remaining in Trinidad and Tobago of such persons such terms and conditions as he may think fit, and if any person to whom a permit has been granted under subsection (3), contravenes any such term or condition, the Minister may cancel such permit.

(5) The Minister may, at any time in writing, extend, vary or cancel a permit.

(6) The Minister may, upon the cancellation or expiration of a permit, make a deportation order respecting the person concerned and such person shall have no right of appeal from the deportation order and shall be deported as soon as practicable.

Unlawful entrants and prohibited
immigrants.

11. Nothing in this Part shall be construed as conferring any right to be or to remain in Trinidad and Tobago on any person who—

- (a) either before or after the commencement of this Act has come into Trinidad and Tobago otherwise than in accordance with the former Ordinance or this Act, as the case may be; or
- (b) is at the commencement of this Act a prohibited immigrant within the meaning of the former Ordinance, and the Minister may make a deportation order against such person and such person shall have no right of appeal therefrom and shall be deported as soon as possible.

PART II

ADMINISTRATION

IMMIGRATION OFFICERS

12. (1) For the purposes of this Act an immigration officer is a person appointed as such in manner authorised by law. Immigration Officers. [24 of 1978].

(2) Every immigration officer has the authority and powers of a constable to enforce any provision of this Act, the Regulations or any Order lawfully made under this Act or the Regulations relating to the arrest, detention or deportation of any person.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), every immigration officer may, in cases of emergency, employ such temporary assistants as he considers necessary to enable him to carry out his duties under this Act and the Regulations and such temporary assistants shall, during their employment, have the authority and powers referred to in subsection (2), but no such employment shall continue for a period exceeding forty-eight hours unless approved by the Minister.

(4) Every immigration officer has authority to administer oaths and take evidence under oath or by affirmation in any matter arising under this Act.

(5) An immigration officer shall not disclose directly or indirectly, to any person except—

- (a) the Minister or a person authorised by him to be privy to the information; or
- (b) a member of the Immigration Department, any information obtained by virtue of any provision of this Act.

(6) For the purpose of exercising his powers and carrying out his duties under this Act, an immigration officer may—

- (a) without a search warrant, enter upon and search any vessel in Trinidad and Tobago;

13. (1) Immigration officers in charge of a port of entry are Special Inquiry Officers and the Minister may nominate such other immigration officers as he considers necessary to act as Special Inquiry Officers.

Powers of inquiry.

(2) A Special Inquiry Officer has authority to inquire into and determine whether any person shall be admitted into Trinidad and Tobago or allowed to remain in Trinidad and Tobago or shall be deported and for the purpose of the exercise of such authority has all the powers and may do any of the things mentioned in the Schedule.

Schedule.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of a Special Inquiry Officer may within twenty-four hours appeal to the Minister on the prescribed form and subject to sections 30 and 31 the decision of the Minister shall be final and conclusive and shall not be questioned in any Court of law.

Arrest and detention.
[24 of 1978].

14. (1) The Minister may issue a warrant for the arrest of any person in respect of whom an examination or inquiry is to be held or a deportation order has been made under this Act, and may order the release of any such person.

(2) The Minister, the Chief Immigration Officer or a Special Inquiry Officer, may make an Order for the detention of or direct the detention of any such person.

(3) Where the person concerned is an inmate of a reformatory or prison, the Minister may, instead of issuing a warrant or order under subsection (1) or (2), issue an Order to the Commissioner of Prisons or other person in charge thereof commanding him, at the expiration of the sentence or term of imprisonment awarded to such person or at the expiration of his sentence or term of imprisonment as reduced by the operation of law, to detain such person and deliver him to an immigration officer to take into custody and cause him to be detained as the warrant may direct.

(4) A warrant or Order made or a direction given under this section is, notwithstanding any other law, sufficient authority to the person to whom it is addressed or who may, under this Act, receive and execute it, to arrest and take into custody or cause the detention of the person concerned, as the case may be.

15. Every police officer and every immigration officer may, without the issue of a warrant, order or direction for arrest or detention, arrest and detain for an inquiry or for deportation, any person who upon reasonable grounds is suspected of being a person referred to in section 9(4) or section 22(1)(i), and the Chief Immigration Officer may order the release of any such person.

Arrest without warrant in certain cases.
[24 of 1978].

16. Any person in respect of whom an inquiry is to be held, or an examination under section 18 has been deferred under section 20, or a deportation or rejection order has been made may be detained pending inquiry, examination, appeal or deportation at an immigration station or other place satisfactory to the Minister.

Detention
pending inquiry, examination, appeal or deportation.
[24 of 1978].

17. (1) Subject to any order or direction to the contrary by the Minister, a person taken into custody or detained may be granted conditional release or an order of supervision in the prescribed form under such conditions, respecting the time and place at which he will report for examination, inquiry, deportation or rejection on payment of a security deposit or other conditions, as may be satisfactory, to the Chief Immigration Officer.

Conditional release.
[7 of 1974
24 of 1978].

(2) Where a person fails to comply with any of the conditions under which he is released from custody or detention he may without warrant be retaken into custody forthwith and any security deposit made as a condition of his release shall be forfeited and shall form part of the general revenue.

EXAMINATION OF PERSONS SEEKING ADMISSION OR ENTRY

18. (1) Every person seeking admission shall first appear before an immigration officer at a port of entry or at such other place as may be designated by an immigration officer in charge of the port of entry for examination as to whether he is or is not admissible.

Examination by Immigration
Officers.
[24 of 1978].

(2) Every person shall answer truthfully all questions put to him by an immigration officer at an examination and his failure to do so shall be forthwith reported by the immigration officer to a Special Inquiry Officer and shall be sufficient ground for deportation where so ordered by the Special Inquiry Officer.

(3) Unless the examining immigration officer is of the opinion that it would or may be contrary to a provision of this Act or the Regulations to admit a person examined by him, he shall, after such examination, immediately grant admission to such person.

Medical examination.

19. Where so required by the Regulations, a person seeking admission to Trinidad and Tobago or a person referred to in section 8 shall undergo a mental or physical examination or both by a medical officer.

Where a person cannot be properly examined.
[24 of 1978].

20. (1) Where, in the opinion of the examining immigration officer, a person appearing before him for examination cannot be properly examined by reason of the effects of alcohol, drugs or illness, the immigration officer may cause an examination of such person to be deferred until such time as he may be properly examined or may make an order for his rejection.

(2) A rejection order in the prescribed form or copy thereof shall be served upon the person against whom it is made and upon the owner or master of the vessel by which such person was brought to Trinidad and Tobago.

(3) A rejection order shall cease to be in force or to have effect when the person against whom it was made again appears before an immigration officer and can, in the opinion of such officer, be properly examined by him.

INQUIRIES

Rejection orders and reports on persons seeking admission.
[7 of 1974].

21. (1) Where an immigration officer, after examination of a person seeking to enter into Trinidad and Tobago, is of opinion that it would or may be contrary to a provision of this Act or the Regulations to grant admission to such person into Trinidad and Tobago, he may either—

- (a) make an order for the rejection of such person; or
- (b) cause such person to be detained pending the submission of a report to a Special Inquiry Officer.

(2) A person in respect of whom an order for rejection has been made under subsection (1)(a) who is aggrieved by the making of such order may forthwith give notice of appeal to the immigration officer.

(3) Where a notice of appeal has been given under subsection (2), the immigration officer shall forthwith make arrangements for the appeal to be heard and determined by a Special Inquiry Officer.

(4) Where a notice of appeal has been given under subsection (2), the immigration officer may either—

- (a) cause such person to be detained pending the hearing and the determination of such appeal; or
- (b) release such person on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

(5) The provisions of section 20(2) and (3) shall apply for the purposes of an order for rejection made against a person under subsection (1)(a).

22. (1) Where he has knowledge thereof, any public officer shall send a written report to the Minister in respect of paragraphs (a) to (c) and to the Chief Immigration Officer in respect of paragraphs (d) to (i), with full particulars concerning—

Reports on persons in Trinidad and Tobago. [7 of 1974 24 of 1978].

- (a) any person, other than a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, who engages in, advocates or is a member of, or associated with any organisation, group or body of any kind that engages in or advocates subversion by force or other means of democratic Government, institutions or processes;
- (b) any person, other than a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, who, if in Trinidad and Tobago has, by a Court of competent jurisdiction, been convicted of any offence involving disaffection or disloyalty to the State;
- (c) any person, other than a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, who, if out of Trinidad and Tobago, engages in espionage, sabotage or any activity detrimental to the security of Trinidad and Tobago;

Ch. 11:25.

- (d) any person, other than a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, who is convicted of an offence for the violation of section 5 of the Dangerous Drugs Act;
- (e) any person who being a resident is alleged to have lost that status by reason of section 7(2)(b) or (4);
- (f) any person, who, being a permitted entrant, has been declared by the Minister to have ceased to be such a permitted entrant under section 9(4);
- (g) any person other than a citizen or resident of Trinidad and Tobago who has become a charge on public funds;
- (h) any person, other than a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, who counsels, aids, or abets others to remain in the country illegally;
- (i) any person other than a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago who either before or after the commencement of this Act came into Trinidad and Tobago at any place other than a port of entry or has eluded examination or inquiry under this Act.

(2) Every person who is found upon an inquiry duly held by a Special Inquiry Officer to be a person described in subsection (1) is subject to deportation.

Powers of
Special Inquiry
Officer.

23. (1) Where a Special Inquiry Officer receives a report under section 18 he may admit such person into Trinidad and Tobago or may cause such person to be detained for immediate inquiry under this Act.

(2) Subject to any Order or direction by the Minister, the Chief Immigration Officer shall, upon receiving a written report under section 22 and where he considers that an inquiry is warranted, cause an inquiry to be held concerning the person respecting whom the report was made.

(3) Where a Special Inquiry Officer receives a report under section 21 with respect to a person seeking admission into Trinidad and Tobago who has been detained he shall hold an inquiry concerning such person.

24. (1) An inquiry by a Special Inquiry Officer shall be separate and apart from the public and in the presence of the person concerned wherever practicable, but the person concerned shall, on request, be entitled to a public hearing.

Nature of hearing.
[47 of 1980].

(2) The person concerned shall be entitled to conduct his case in person or by an Attorney-at-law, or may be assisted in conducting his case at the hearing by any other person with leave of the Special Inquiry Officer (which leave shall not be unreasonably withheld).

(3) The Special Inquiry Officer may, at the hearing, receive and base his decision upon evidence considered credible or trustworthy by him in the circumstances of each case.

(4) Where an inquiry relates to a person seeking admission to Trinidad and Tobago, the burden of proving that he is not prohibited from admission to Trinidad and Tobago rests upon him.

(5) If the respondent in a deportation matter admits the factual allegations in the order to show cause and notice of hearing and is willing to leave Trinidad and Tobago voluntarily and at no expense to the Government of Trinidad and Tobago, he may make verbal application for voluntary departure before the Special Inquiry Officer and if the Special Inquiry Officer is satisfied that the case is genuine he may, instead of making a deportation order against such person issue the prescribed form for his voluntary departure.

Decision.
Form 26.

Form 46.

25. (1) At the conclusion of the hearing of an inquiry, the Special Inquiry Officer shall give his decision in writing as soon as possible and shall give it in the presence of the person concerned wherever practicable.

Decision after inquiry.

(2) Where the Special Inquiry Officer decides that the person concerned is a person to whom section 4 relates, he shall, upon giving his decision, admit or let such person come into Trinidad and Tobago or remain therein, as the case may be.

(3) Where the Special Inquiry Officer decides that the person concerned is a person who—

- (a) in the case of a permitted entrant, is not a member of a prohibited class;

- (b) in the case of a person other than a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, or a resident who is in Trinidad and Tobago, is not proven to be a person described in section 8(1)(d), (e), (f), (j), (k), (l), (m) or (o); or
- (c) in the case of a resident who is in Trinidad and Tobago is not proven to have lost that status by reason of section 7(1), he shall, upon giving his decision, subject, in the case of the admission of a person mentioned in paragraph (a), to the provisions of this Act and any directions to the contrary given him by the Minister, admit or let such person come into Trinidad and Tobago or remain therein, as the case may be.

(4) In the case of a person other than a person referred to in subsection (2), the Special Inquiry Officer shall, upon giving an adverse decision make an order for the deportation of such person.

Re-opening of inquiry.
[24 of 1978].

26. An inquiry may be re-opened for the hearing and receiving of additional evidence or testimony by Order of the Minister or at the instance of the Special Inquiry Officer who presided at such inquiry, or by any other Special Inquiry Officer acting upon the directive of the Chief Immigration Officer; and the Special Inquiry Officer concerned may confirm, amend or reverse the decision previously given.

Appeals.
[7 of 1974].

27. (1) No appeal may be taken from a deportation order in respect of any person who is ordered deported as a member of a prohibited class described in section 8(1)(a), (b) or (c) where the decision is based upon a certificate of the examining medical officer, or as a person described in section 8(1)(j) and (k).

(2) Except in the case of a deportation order against persons referred to in section 50(5), an appeal may be taken by the person concerned from a deportation order if the appellant within twenty-four hours serves a notice of appeal in the prescribed form upon an immigration officer or upon the person who served the deportation order.

(3) All appeals from deportation orders may be reviewed and decided upon by the Minister, and subject to sections 30 and 31, the decision of the Minister shall be final and conclusive and shall not be questioned in any Court of law.

(4) The Minister may—

- (a) consider all matters pertaining to a case under appeal;
- (b) allow or dismiss any appeal; or
- (c) quash a decision of a Special Inquiry Officer that has the effect of bringing a person into a prohibited class and substitute the opinion of the Minister for such decision.

(5) The Minister may in any case where he thinks fit appoint an Advisory Committee consisting of such persons as he considers fit for the purpose of advising him as to the performance of his functions and the exercise of his powers under this section.

(6) The Minister may in any case where he considers it fit to do so, cancel any deportation order whether made by him or not.

PART III

DEPORTATION AND TRANSPORTATION

DEPORTATION

28. A deportation order or copy thereof shall be served upon the person against whom it is made and upon such other persons, and in such manner as may be prescribed.

Deportation—
service of order.

29. (1) Unless otherwise provided in this Act, a deportation order shall be executed as soon as practicable.

Execution of deportation.
[24 of 1978].

(2) A deportation order does not become invalid on the ground of any lapse of time between its making and execution, and remains valid after execution unless cancelled by the Minister.

(3) An appeal against a deportation order shall stay the execution of the order pending the decision thereon.

(4) A person who has committed an offence against this Act or the Regulations may, notwithstanding the fact that a deportation order has been made against him, be prosecuted and required to undergo any punishment that may be imposed upon him in respect of such offence before he is deported.

(5) A deportation order that has been made against a person who was at the time of its issue an inmate of any prison or becomes an inmate of such an institution before the order can be executed, shall not be executed until such person has completed the sentence or term of imprisonment awarded or at the expiration of his sentence or term of imprisonment as reduced or remitted by lawful authority.

(6) (a) A person in respect of whom a deportation order is made shall leave Trinidad and Tobago in accordance with the terms of the order, and shall thereafter so long as the order is in force remain out of Trinidad and Tobago.

(b) Any person who contravenes the foregoing provisions of this subsection is guilty of an offence.

(c) Any person who returns to Trinidad and Tobago in contravention of a deportation order may again be deported under the original order.

(7) Subject to subsection (9), a person against whom a deportation order has been issued shall be deported to the place whence he came to Trinidad and Tobago or to the country of which he is a national or citizen or to the country of his birth or to such country as may be approved by the Minister under this Act.

Return of deportee.

(8) Any person who, having been removed or otherwise lawfully sent out of Trinidad and Tobago, enters or resides in Trinidad and Tobago without the permission in writing of the Minister is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars and to imprisonment for six months and, in addition to any penalty for such offence, is liable to be removed or again removed, as the case may be, from Trinidad and Tobago.

(9) Unless otherwise directed by the Minister or an immigration officer in charge, a person against whom a deportation order has been made may be requested or allowed to leave Trinidad and Tobago voluntarily, provided he complies with the conditions governing voluntary departure.

Arrangements for deportees.

(10) Where any person is ordered to be removed from Trinidad and Tobago under the provisions of this Act, the Minister or Chief Immigration Officer may order such person to be detained in custody for such period as may be necessary for the purpose of making arrangements for his removal, so, however, that any person detained under this subsection who appeals under the provisions of section 21 or section 27 against the order of removal may, in the discretion of the Minister or Chief Immigration Officer, be released pending the determination of his appeal, on such conditions as to furnishing security or otherwise as the Minister or Chief Immigration Officer considers fit.

(11) Subject to the determination of any appeal under section 27, a person who is ordered to be removed from Trinidad and Tobago may be placed aboard a suitable vessel by a police officer or immigration officer, and may be lawfully detained on board such vessel, so long as the vessel is within the territorial limits of Trinidad and Tobago.

(12) Any person who is detained in custody in pursuance of an Order made by the Minister or Chief Immigration Officer under subsection (10) may be so detained in any prison, police station or immigration depot, or in any other place appointed for the purpose by the Minister or Chief Immigration Officer.

30. Subject to section 31(3) no Court has jurisdiction to review, quash, reverse, restrain or otherwise interfere with any proceeding, decision or Order of the Minister, the Chief Immigration Officer, a Special Inquiry Officer or an immigration officer had, made or given under the authority of and in accordance with this Act relating to the detention or deportation of any person, upon any ground whatsoever, unless such person is a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago or is a resident.

Jurisdiction of Court.
[24 of 1978].

31. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), an appeal shall lie to a Judge of the High Court and thence to the Court of Appeal against any rejection Order or deportation Order of the Minister, a Special Inquiry Officer, or an immigration officer, with respect to a person who claims to be a citizen or resident of Trinidad and Tobago or any declaration as to loss of resident status under section 7(4).

Right of appeal for citizens and residents.
[7 of 1974
24 of 1978].

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), there shall be no appeal by a person referred to in section 8(1)(l), (m), (o), or (q) against a declaration of the Minister under section 7(4).

(3) A person to whom section 50(5) applies may appeal to a Judge of the High Court, whose decision thereon shall be final, on the ground that there is a reasonable excuse for his failure to apply for permission to become a resident in accordance with section 50(1) or, where his application is refused because the Minister considers that such person was not ordinarily resident in Trinidad and Tobago for a period of five years from the commencement of this Act, he may appeal on the ground that he was so ordinarily resident.

Ch. 4:01.

(4) Rules of Court may be made by the Rules Committee under section 77 of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act for regulating and prescribing the procedure on appeal from the decision of the person making the rejection order or deportation order or any other matter in respect of which an appeal may lie under this section to a Judge of the High Court and therefrom to the Court of Appeal.

TRANSPORTATION

Liability of
company.

32. (1) Where a deportation order or rejection order is made against a person, the transportation company that brought him to Trinidad and Tobago shall, when he is deported, pay the costs of deportation or rejection from the port of entry from which he will leave Trinidad and Tobago and shall at its expense convey him or cause him to be conveyed to the place whence he came to Trinidad and Tobago or to the country of which he is a national or citizen or to the country of his birth as directed in the deportation order, rejection order or other order or direction made by the Minister, Chief Immigration Officer, a Special Inquiry Officer or an immigration officer or at the request of the transportation company and, subject to the approval of the Minister, to a country that is acceptable to such person and that is willing to receive him.

(2) Where a person against whom a deportation order has been made is being detained in any place in Trinidad and Tobago, other than the port of entry from which he will leave Trinidad and Tobago, the transportation company that brought him to such place shall, when he is deported, at its expense, convey him or cause him to be conveyed to that port of entry in accordance with the direction or order made in that behalf by the Minister, Chief Immigration Officer, a Special Inquiry Officer or an immigration officer.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this section, where an inquiry is ordered more than five years after the date on which the person concerned was admitted to Trinidad and Tobago or where deportation is ordered due to causes that arose subsequent to admission, the deportation costs shall not be paid by the transportation company concerned.

(4) The Minister may direct that the costs of transportation from Trinidad and Tobago be paid out of moneys appropriated by Parliament in the case of a person—

- (a) whose transportation costs are not, under this Act, payable by a transportation company;
- (b) who should, in the opinion of the Minister, be assisted in leaving Trinidad and Tobago;
- (c) who is, in the opinion of the Minister, unable to defray, without hardship, his own costs of transportation.

33. (1) The transportation company that brought to Trinidad and Tobago a person seeking admission thereto shall pay all costs of his detention.

Cost of detention of persons seeking admission to Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) A transportation company is not required to pay the detention costs of any person who is detained after he has been admitted to Trinidad and Tobago, except in the case of a person described in section 9(4)(j).

34. Every transportation company which by this Act is directed to pay deportation or rejection costs or to carry any person who is ordered, deported or rejected shall at their expense—

Duties of transportation companies to carry out deportation direction. [47 of 1980].

- (a) detain and guard safely the person concerned until he can be placed on board the vessel on which he is to be carried;
- (b) accept on board such vessel, guard safely and transport such person in accordance with the deportation or rejection order or other order or direction or any regulation issued or made in that behalf; and

(c) treat in a humane manner and feed such person.

Transportation of deported person.

35. Where pursuant to section 32, a transportation company is obligated to pay the costs of deportation of a person who is to be deported, it shall be notified thereof and given an opportunity of conveying him or causing him to be conveyed on one of its own vessels or otherwise, but, where the transportation company, after being notified, is not prompt in furnishing transportation or if it is expedient that the deportee leave the country immediately, the Minister may direct that such person be deported by other transportation at the expense of the Government and the obligated transportation company shall, on demand, reimburse the Government for the transportation expenses and any costs of the detention or safeguarding of the deported person incurred while en route or otherwise.

Duty to prevent passengers from leaving vehicles at unauthorised times or places. [24 of 1978].

36. (1) A transportation company bringing persons to Trinidad and Tobago shall not, upon the arrival of its vessels in Trinidad and Tobago, allow—

- (a) any person to leave the vessel at a place other than a designated port of entry;
- (b) any person to leave the vessel until permission has been granted by an immigration officer in charge of the port of entry or by an immigration officer authorised by him.

(2) Any master of a vessel who knowingly suffers any person who arrives in such vessel to land therefrom contrary to the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of an offence.

(3) A person who knowingly and wilfully lands or suffers himself to be landed, or a person who knowingly lands or procures to be landed or who aids or assists in landing another person, contrary to the provisions of this Act is guilty of an offence.

Rights of immigration officers to inspect vessels, documents, etc.

37. (1) Immigration officers may inspect any vessel bringing or taking persons to or from Trinidad and Tobago, examine the persons and their baggage carried by it, examine any records or documents relating to such persons and take copies of extracts therefrom and may hold and detain such vessel until such inspection and examination are completed.

(2) The master of any vessel leaving the country must report to an immigration officer at a place designated by him immediately prior to departure to enable the immigration officer to examine the crew and passengers.

(3) All passengers and crew seeking to leave Trinidad and Tobago may be required to report to an immigration officer at a place to be determined by him, and to complete an international E/D Card in such form as may be prescribed and submit their travel document and other papers for examination.

38. No vessel bringing persons to Trinidad and Tobago shall be granted clearance if the transportation company operating it or the owner or master thereof has, in the opinion of an immigration officer in charge, committed an offence under this Act, but clearance may be granted in the discretion of the immigration officer in charge, if a sum of money or other security is deposited with him at least equal to the maximum fine that may be imposed for such offence. Clearance.

39. (1) Where a medical officer is of opinion that a person seeking admission to Trinidad and Tobago is or may be, either pending his admission or pending his deportation where admission has not been granted, suffering from sickness or mental or physical disability or has been in contact with a contagious or infectious disease, such person may, where it is so directed by the Minister, Chief Immigration Officer, an immigration officer in charge of a port of entry or a medical officer, be afforded medical treatment or held for observation or diagnosis, on board the vessel by which he was brought to Trinidad and Tobago or at an immigration station or may be removed to a suitable hospital or other place for treatment, observation or diagnosis as so directed and the cost of treatment, medical attention and maintenance shall be paid by the transportation company that brought such person to Trinidad and Tobago. Medical treatment.

(2) The Minister, Chief Immigration Officer or an immigration officer in charge of a port of entry may, where he considers it advisable for the proper care of such person, direct that a member of his family or other suitable attendant be kept with him during his period of medical attention and treatment, including, in the case of deportation, his journey to the port of entry from which he will leave Trinidad and Tobago, and to his port of destination if this is necessary and the costs thereof shall be paid by the transportation company that brought him to Trinidad and Tobago.

PART IV

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

Specific offences against this Act.
[24 of 1978
37 of 1995].

40. Any person who—

- (a) comes into Trinidad and Tobago at any place other than a port of entry and fails to report to an immigration officer for examination;

- (ii) on conviction on indictment for a first offence, to a fine of two thousand dollars and to imprisonment for eighteen months, and on any subsequent conviction on indictment to a fine of four thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

(2) No proceedings by way of indictment for an offence under this section shall be commenced without the fiat of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

42. (1) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or the Regulations is guilty of an offence and, where the provisions by or under which the offence is created provides no penalty, is liable on summary conviction for a first offence to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for twelve months and on any subsequent summary conviction to a fine of two thousand dollars and to imprisonment for eighteen months.

Offences and penalties.
24 of 1978].

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), where a person is charged with committing a breach of the Regulations, the Chief Immigration Officer may impose a fine not exceeding the amount stipulated in subsection (1) for the breach but, in respect of the master or representative of a vessel, the power to impose such fine is exercisable only at the election of such master or representative.

Power of Chief Immigration Officer to impose fine.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Regulations, the Chief Immigration Officer may, subject to the approval of the Minister, which approval may be signified by general directions to the Chief Immigration Officer, mitigate or remit any penalty at any time prior to the commencement of proceedings in any Court against any person for an offence under this Act or the Regulations.

Mitigation of penalty.

(4) The power of the Chief Immigration Officer under subsection (3) to mitigate or remit any penalty shall not be exercised unless the person charged with committing a breach of the Act or the Regulations, admits the breach in writing in the prescribed form.

Limitations.

43. Proceeding in respect of an offence under this Act or the Regulations that is punishable on summary conviction may be instituted at any time within three years after the offence was committed but not thereafter.

PART V

MISCELLANEOUS

Regulations.
[7 of 1974
24 of 1978].

44. (1) The Minister may make Regulations for carrying into effect the purposes and provisions of this Act and, in particular, may make Regulations respecting—

- (a) the conditions applicable to the grant of permission to acquire the status of a resident and the manner of making application therefor;
- (b) the registration of persons who acquire resident status by virtue of section 5 and the registration and recording on travel documents of the status of a person who is a resident by virtue of section 5(1)(b), (d), (e) or (f);
- (c) the registration and recording of persons who are not citizens or residents of Trinidad and Tobago;
- (d) the forms of warrants, permits, certificates or other documents prescribed by this Act or the Regulations or issued or used for the purposes of this Act;
- (e) medical and other examinations or tests and the prohibiting or limiting of admission of persons who are unable to pass them;
- (f) the terms, conditions and requirements with respect to the possession of means of support or of passports, visas or other documents pertaining to admission;
- (g) the prohibiting or limiting of admission of persons who are nationals or citizens of a country that

- refuses to re-admit any of its nationals or citizens who are ordered deported;
- (h) the prohibiting or limiting of admission of persons by reason of unsuitability having regard to the economic, social, industrial, educational, labour, health or other conditions or requirements existing, temporarily or otherwise, in Trinidad and Tobago;
 - (i) the procedure to be followed upon examination, inquiries and appeals to the Minister under this Act and the duties and obligations of immigration officers and the methods and procedure for carrying out such duties and obligations, whether in Trinidad and Tobago or elsewhere;
 - (j) prescribing such forms and notices as he considers necessary for the carrying out of this Act;
 - (k) designating ports of entry and facilities for detention for the purposes of this Act;
 - (l) the provision, equipping and maintenance of building accommodation or other facilities for the proper detention and examination of persons brought to Trinidad and Tobago, or to be deported from Trinidad and Tobago, on the vessels of transportation companies and also respecting the requirement that such transportation companies pay the costs incurred in detaining persons at detention stations provided by Government;
 - (m) manifests, bills of health or other records or documents concerning the persons carried by vessels to or from Trinidad and Tobago;
 - (n) the obligations and duties of transportation companies and members of a crew to safeguard persons on board vessels, to report escape from custody of persons in their custody and to take such other precautions or steps as may be required to prevent such persons from unlawfully coming to Trinidad and Tobago or, in the case of persons in their custody who are ordered deported or rejected, from failing to leave Trinidad and Tobago;

- (o) the obligations and duties of transportation companies to ensure that persons who are carried by them and who are seeking admission into Trinidad and Tobago are—
 - (i) outside the prohibited classes; and
 - (ii) in possession of the proper medical and travel documents;
- (p) arrangements for the procurement of suitable uniforms and insignia to be worn by immigration officers;
- (q) the reporting, detention, custody and return of stowaways or other persons who have secreted themselves in or upon a vessel coming to Trinidad and Tobago;
- (r) lists or other information concerning the members of a crew, their discharge, transfer or desertion and the obligations and duties of transportation companies respecting the physical and mental fitness of members of a crew and the custody and return of deserters or any other members of a crew who are discharged from or leave the vessel and come into or remain in Trinidad and Tobago contrary to this Act;
- (s) the boarding of vessels carrying persons seeking admission into Trinidad and Tobago after such vessels have entered the territorial limits of Trinidad and Tobago and before such persons have left the vessels, and also respecting the granting of clearance to such vessels before departure;
- (t) such fees as are required by the Regulations to be paid;
- (u) prescribing such matters as are by this Act required to be prescribed.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) shall be subject to negative resolution of Parliament.

SECURITY AND LIENS

45. (1) The Minister may at any time require any transportation company that transports or carries, directly or indirectly, persons seeking admission into Trinidad and Tobago to deposit with the Chief Immigration Officer such sum of money or other security as the Minister considers necessary as a guarantee that such transportation company will comply with this Act.

General security by transportation companies.

(2) Where a transportation company fails to comply with a provision of this Act or the Regulations, the Minister may order that the whole or any part of the security money deposited by it be forfeited and thereupon such money or part shall be forfeited or may order that proceedings be taken to enforce payment of the whole or part of such other security as may be deposited.

(3) Any security or part thereof deposited under this section may be returned or cancelled, as the case may be, upon order made by the Minister declaring that such security or part is no longer required.

46. (1) Where a member of the crew of a vessel deserts his vessel while in Trinidad and Tobago, or is, for any reason, to be left in Trinidad and Tobago after the departure of his vessel, the immigration officer in charge of the port of entry at which the vessel may be, may require the transportation company operating it or the owner or master thereof to deposit with him such sum of money as he considers necessary as security for the return of such member to the vessel or his deportation or other departure from Trinidad and Tobago.

Security respecting deserters.

(2) Where, within three years after the date of the deposit, such member of the crew returns to his vessel, voluntarily leaves Trinidad and Tobago or is deported, the money deposited shall be returned, less any expenses for detention, maintenance, treatment or transportation or otherwise incurred by the Government in respect of him.

(3) Where a member of the crew does not return to his vessel or does not voluntarily leave Trinidad and Tobago or is not deported within three years after the date of the deposit, the Minister may order that the money deposited be forfeited and thereupon it shall be forfeited or may order that it be returned subject to any further security he may prescribe against the expenses that may be incurred by the Government, should such member of the crew be later found in Trinidad and Tobago.

(4) If conclusive proof is established that the deserter has left the country clandestinely, the deposit made on his behalf may be refunded to the transportation company.

Security that permitted entrants will leave.
[7 of 1974].

47. (1) The immigration officer in charge at a port of entry may require any permitted entrant or group or organisation of permitted entrants arriving at such port to deposit with him such sum of money as he considers necessary as a guarantee or, if he thinks fit, to enter into a bond in the prescribed form that such permitted entrant or group or organisation of permitted entrants will leave Trinidad and Tobago within the time permitted by him as a condition for entry.

(2) Where the permitted entrant or group or organisation of permitted entrants fails to leave Trinidad and Tobago within the time prescribed, the immigration officer in charge may order that the sum of money so deposited be forfeited and thereupon it shall be forfeited and where the person or persons concerned leave Trinidad and Tobago within the prescribed time, the money deposited shall be returned, less any expenses for detention, maintenance, treatment or transportation or otherwise incurred by the Government in respect of such person or persons or any of them.

Exercise of functions of Minister.
[7 of 1974].

48. The Minister may authorise his Permanent Secretary or the Chief Immigration Officer to perform and exercise any of the functions that may be required to be performed or exercised by the Minister under this Act, and any such function performed or exercised by the Permanent Secretary or the Chief Immigration Officer under the authority of the Minister, shall be deemed to have been performed or exercised by the Minister.

49. (1) If upon any proceeding under this Act a question arises whether any person is an immigration officer, his own evidence thereof shall be prima facie evidence thereof and every such officer shall be deemed a competent witness upon the trial of any matter arising under this Act. Evidence.

(2) The contents of all registers, permits, certificates and other documents shall be admissible in evidence in all Courts upon matters coming before the Courts under this Act, and the production of the register or a copy of the relevant portion thereof certified by an officer designated by the Minister for that purpose shall be prima facie proof of the facts recorded therein.

TRANSITORY PROVISION

50. (1) Notwithstanding anything in Part I to the contrary, a person who, upon the commencement of this Act was ordinarily resident in Trinidad and Tobago for a period of five years is entitled to apply to the Minister for permission to become a resident, and the Minister may, if he thinks fit, grant such permission. An application under this subsection shall be made within one year of the commencement of this Act and no later, unless the Minister prescribes some further period, not exceeding three years, within which such application might be made. Applications by certain persons for resident status and for certificates under section 9. [24 of 1978].

(2) Every person other than a person referred to in subsection (1) who has a permit under the former Ordinance to enter Trinidad and Tobago and who wishes to remain for a longer period than that previously granted or to have conditions attaching to his entry varied, shall, within the period of six months or less as is provided in subsection (3), report in person to an immigration officer and shall, notwithstanding that he is already in Trinidad and Tobago, submit to an examination under the provisions of this Act and the Regulations, and an immigration officer may issue him a certificate in accordance with section 9(2), as if he had entered Trinidad and Tobago under section 9(1).

(3) A person who immediately before the commencement of this Act has resided in Trinidad and Tobago for a period of less than five years shall, if he does not already hold a permit that is in force by virtue of having been granted under the former Ordinance specifying some lesser period than six months, be deemed to hold a certificate under section 9(2) authorising him to remain in Trinidad and Tobago for a period of six months from the commencement of this Act but no longer, and the provisions of subsection (2) shall apply to such person.

- (4) Subsection (3) shall not apply to a person who—
 - (a) has unlawfully entered Trinidad and Tobago;
 - (b) is at the date of the commencement of this Act a prohibited immigrant within the meaning of the former Ordinance.
- (5) Subject to section 31(3) where an application—
 - (a) is not made within the period of one year referred to in subsection (1) or such further period as is prescribed thereunder; or
 - (b) is refused,

a person shall be deemed to be a permitted entrant for the purposes of this Act, save that such person is liable to be deported, if he fails to obtain from an immigration officer a certificate in accordance with section 9(2), as if he had entered Trinidad and Tobago under section 9(1).

(6) A person who fails to comply with subsections (2) and (3) shall for all the purposes of this Act be deemed not to be a permitted entrant and shall, subject to section 27(2) and to any provisions of this Act with respect to prosecution for offences against this Act, be deported.

(7) Where the Minister refuses an application made by a person under subsection (1), on the ground that he does not consider that such person was ordinarily resident in Trinidad and Tobago for the period required by the said subsection (1), but in no other case, he shall so certify upon giving notice of such refusal.

Transitional.

51. (1) Every deportation order, permit, warrant, order, direction in writing or other document that was issued, made or granted under the laws respecting immigration before the commencement of this Act and that was valid immediately prior to such commencement, shall be given effect as if issued, made or granted under this Act.

(2) Unless the Minister directs that they be continued and completed under the provisions of the law respecting immigration that were in force before the commencement of this Act, all examinations, investigations, inquiries, appeals and other matters relating to landing, entry or deportation of any person that were commenced pursuant to such laws and are not completed at the date of the commencement of this Act shall be completed pursuant to the provisions of this Act so far as such provisions may be adapted.

(3) The Chief Immigration Officer and every immigration officer appointed in accordance with the immigration laws in force immediately prior to the commencement of this Act, continue to hold the posts to which they were appointed under such laws and are hereby vested with all the powers, functions and responsibilities that are vested in immigration officers by this Act.

52. Where, prior to the commencement of this Act the Minister, the Chief Immigration Officer or a person acting on their behalf purported to grant resident status otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of the former Ordinance, such purported grant shall, save where it would have been unlawful had this Act then been in force, be deemed to have been lawfully and validly made, and no legal proceedings or other action of any kind shall be entertained in respect of or in consequence of such purported grant.

Validation.
[24 of 1978].

Section 13(2).

SCHEDULE

POWERS OF SPECIAL INQUIRY OFFICERS

1. Special Inquiry Officers have the power of summoning before them any witnesses, examining such witnesses and requiring them to give evidence on oath, or on solemn affirmation if they are persons entitled to affirm in any Court of law orally or in writing, and requiring them to produce such documents and things as such officers consider requisite to the full investigation of the matters into which they are appointed to examine, and to punish persons guilty of contempt.

Ch. 4:20.

2. Special Inquiry Officers have the same power to enforce the attendance of witnesses and to compel them to give evidence as is vested in a Magistrate or Justice by the Summary Courts Act.

Form 52. (b) A Certificate of Facilitation of Entry shall be in the form set out as Form 52.

(5) Where a person seeking to enter Trinidad and Tobago falls within one of the categories described in section 9(1)(f), (g), (h) or (i) of the Act, the immigration officer may accept as sufficient evidence for the purpose of entry the fact that such person, not being a person suffering from infirmity of mind or body or ill-health, is in possession of means of support, save that in the case of a person falling within the category described in section 9(1)(i), and subject to the provisions of regulation 10(1)(c), a valid work permit must be produced.

Form 43. (6) (a) Where a person seeking to enter Trinidad and Tobago falls within the category described in section 9(1)(g) of the Act, the immigration officer shall not allow such person to enter Trinidad and Tobago for the purpose of entering any educational or training establishment in Trinidad and Tobago unless that person is in possession of a valid student's permit in the form set out as Form 43. The holder of a student's permit shall comply with the terms and conditions specified in such permit.

Form 34. (b) A person seeking to enter and remain in Trinidad and Tobago for the purpose of receiving education or training at an educational or training establishment by which he has been accepted as a student, may make application for a student's permit in duplicate to the Chief Immigration Officer in the form set out as Form 34.

(c) The Chief Immigration Officer may, upon being satisfied as to the bona fides of the educational or training establishment, issue a student's permit if—

- (i) the person seeking to enter and remain in Trinidad and Tobago has been accepted as a student by such establishment;
- (ii) there is adequate accommodation for the student at such establishment;
- (iii) no local student has been displaced; and
- (iv) the person seeking to enter and remain in Trinidad and Tobago does not belong to a prohibited class.

(d) The Chief Immigration Officer may cancel a student's permit if the person to whom such permit is issued fails within a reasonable time to enter the educational or training establishment designated in any such permit issued by the Chief Immigration Officer, or having entered such educational or training establishment fails to remain or ceases to be retained as a student therein or fails to comply with any condition endorsed on the permit.

(e) No person shall admit to any educational or training establishment in Trinidad and Tobago any person who is not a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago or a resident, unless that person is in possession of a valid student's permit issued by the Chief Immigration Officer. A person who admits any such student into an educational or training establishment without there being in force a valid student's permit in relation to that admittance in contravention of the provisions of this regulation is guilty of an offence.

(f) A person to whom a student's permit is issued shall keep it in his possession or in the possession of his parent or guardian, and the person in possession of the permit shall produce it to an immigration officer or a public officer on demand or at such place as the immigration officer or the public officer may designate.

shall engage in any profession, trade or occupation whether for gain or not in Trinidad and Tobago or be employed in Trinidad and Tobago unless there is in force in relation to him a valid work permit in the form set out as Form 36 and every person so engaged or so employed shall be employed in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the permit.

(2) No person other than those described in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subregulation (1) shall be employed by any person in Trinidad and Tobago, unless there is in force a valid work permit in relation to that employment, and any person who engages in any occupation or employment in Trinidad and Tobago in contravention of the provisions of these Regulations, or any person who has in his employment in Trinidad and Tobago any person other than those described in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subregulation (1) without a valid work permit issued by the Minister, is guilty of an offence.

Form 3.

(3) Where an employer desires to employ a person who falls outside of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subregulation (1), he shall apply in twelve copies to the Permanent Secretary in the form set out as Form 3.

First Schedule.
Form 3A.

(3A) An employer who desires to employ a group of persons comprising ten or more persons may submit a group application in the form set out in Form 3A of the First Schedule.

(3B) An application for a work permit under this regulation may be submitted electronically through the internet.

(4) On receipt of the application referred to in subregulation (3) the Minister may if he considers it fit, direct that a work permit be issued to the applicant in respect of the person on whose behalf he had made the application.

(5) Where the Minister directs that a work permit be issued under subregulation (4), a copy thereof shall be transmitted to the Chief Immigration Officer for the purpose of his records.

(6) Where an employer has been granted a work permit he may be required to furnish security to the Chief Immigration Officer in an amount to cover all the expenses of the repatriation of the employee, and any dependants he may bring with him.

(7) Every work permit shall be kept by the person in respect of whom it is issued, and such person shall produce the work permit to an immigration officer or a public officer on demand or within three days of such demand at such place as the immigration officer or public officer may direct.

(8) A person having in his possession a work permit appearing to have been issued under these Regulations shall answer any questions put to him by an immigration officer or a public officer relating to the possession of such permit.

(9) A person is guilty of an offence who—

- (a) without reasonable excuse fails or refuses to produce a work permit as required in subregulation (7); or
- (b) fails without reasonable excuse to answer any questions put to him in connection with the possession thereof.

(10) The Minister may, in any case where he is satisfied that the terms and conditions of a work permit have not been complied with or that the person in respect of whom such work permit has been issued has become a person described in section 8(1)(q) of the Act, vary or cancel such work permit; and on any such variation or cancellation, the Permanent Secretary shall transmit to the holder of such work permit a notice in the form set out as Form 39.

Form 39.

(11) Where an employment is terminated, or upon the expiration of the work permit, an employer shall immediately inform the Permanent Secretary of the termination of the employment.

(12) The employer shall—

- (a) not less than seven days before the arrival or expected arrival in Trinidad and Tobago of any

(3) The fees set out in the Fifth Schedule shall be payable to the Comptroller of Accounts in respect of a licence granted to any travelling salesman allowed to enter Trinidad and Tobago to engage in legitimate trade or occupation under section 9(1)(i) of the Act.

Fifth Schedule.

(4) A person who—

- (a) buys from, or agrees or attempts to buy from a travelling salesman any goods or services in respect of which the travelling salesman takes or receives or solicits orders in Trinidad and Tobago;
- (b) places or agrees or attempts to place any order with a travelling salesman in respect of any such goods and services as mentioned above, without proof of the existence of a valid licence under this regulation, is guilty of an offence, save that it shall be a defence to any proceedings against any person in respect of an offence against this regulation to prove that the default occurred without his connivance and was not facilitated by any neglect on his part.

(5) In this regulation “travelling salesman” means a person other than a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago or a resident, entering the country for the purpose of taking or receiving or soliciting orders for goods or services for any business undertaking not carrying on business in Trinidad and Tobago.

*(6) The Minister may by Order, conditionally or otherwise, exempt any travelling salesman from the provisions of this regulation.

12. (1) Where any person who is not a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago or a resident, enters Trinidad and Tobago and at the time of his entry is under a work permit to serve an employer (such person being in this regulation referred to as the

- (a) where during the currency of a work permit or on the normal expiry of any such work permit or its earlier determination by the employer, the employee becomes liable to be treated as a member of the prohibited class under section 8(1)(b) of the Act the employer shall be liable to pay to the Government all expenses incurred by the Government in connection with the maintenance and transport of the employee and his dependants from Trinidad and Tobago (in this regulation referred to as the expenses of the deportation of the employee);
- (b) where the employee determines the contract and thereafter becomes liable to be treated as a member of the prohibited class, the following provisions shall have effect:
 - (i) subject to the provisions of subparagraph (ii) the employer shall, during the period from the time of such determination to the time when such contract is normally due to expire or [subject to the provisions of paragraph (c)] during a period of two months from the date on which he gives notice in writing to the Chief Immigration Officer of the determination of the contract by the employee, whichever period first expires, be liable to pay to the Government the expenses of the deportation of the employee, and his dependants, if any;
 - (ii) the liability of the employer shall cease and determine if the employee gives new security either—
 - (A) by a bond of a subsequent employer, to the satisfaction of the Chief Immigration Officer, but only if this is

- done with the consent of the employer, conditioned for the payment of the expenses of the deportation of the employee in any case in which the employer would, but for the determination of the contract have been liable under this regulation; or
- (B) by complying to the satisfaction of the Chief Immigration Officer, with the requirements of any provision of the regulations made under the Act relating to security to be furnished by persons entering Trinidad and Tobago;
- (c) if, during the said period of two months from the date on which the employer gives notice in writing to the Chief Immigration Officer of the determination of the contract by the employee or where such determination takes place less than two months before the contract is due to expire, during the remaining period of the contract, the employee has not given new security in the manner provided by paragraph (b), then at any time during the last seven days of the said period the Chief Immigration Officer may declare the employee to be a member of the prohibited class and the employee shall forthwith be deported from Trinidad and Tobago; and, if notice that the employee has been so declared a member of the prohibited class has been given by the Chief Immigration Officer to the employer within the period during which the employer is liable under paragraph (a), the employer shall pay to the Government all the expenses of the deportation of the employee;
- (d) where a subsequent employer has entered into a bond as provided in paragraph (b), he shall be deemed to have assumed all the rights and liabilities of the employer under this regulation, and any reference in this regulation to the employer shall be deemed to apply to such subsequent employer.

13. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), every person seeking to enter Trinidad and Tobago shall be in possession of a passport issued by the country of which such person is a subject or citizen.

(2) A person under the age of sixteen years who is included in the passport of some other person may be exempted from the requirements of subregulation (1).

(3) A person who is on a temporary visit shall be in possession of a passport or other travel document, the validity of which extends at least to the duration of his stay in Trinidad and Tobago.

(4) A document other than a passport may be accepted in lieu of a passport if it establishes to the satisfaction of the immigration officer, the identity and nationality of the bearer, and that he can return to the country which he has left to seek to enter Trinidad and Tobago, or that he can gain admission to some other country.

(5) Subject to subregulation (8), the passport or other travel document of every person who seeks to enter Trinidad and Tobago shall carry where required, the visa of a diplomatic or consular officer of Trinidad and Tobago or, where Trinidad and Tobago is not so represented, of a diplomatic or consular officer of the country that acts on behalf of Trinidad and Tobago in the country of issue.

(5A) Notwithstanding regulation 13(5), where a person holds a valid work permit issued under regulation 10 and seeks entry into Trinidad and Tobago that person may be issued with a visa by an immigration officer.

(6) The visa shall show the reasons for which the holder of the passport or other travel document seeks to enter.

(7) The certificate constituting the visa shall make reference to a number that has been recorded in a register kept for the purpose of recording the grant or issue of visas.

(8) Subregulation (5) shall not apply to—

- (a) citizens of Commonwealth countries;
- (b) nationals of countries with which Trinidad and Tobago has concluded Visa Abolition Agreements;
- (c) passengers in transit by sea or air in the course of a continuous and unbroken journey who are listed to depart by the same ship or aircraft in which they arrived;
- (d) persons who are in transit by sea or air and are in possession of valid entry visas to countries of destination and transit visas as required by countries en route to such destination and who hold confirmed bookings to leave Trinidad and Tobago within seven days of their arrival therein.

(9) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulations (5) and (8), but subject to subregulation (11), the Chief Immigration Officer or the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry may—

- (a) on the application, in the form set out as Form 31 of a person described in subregulation 8(d) issue an in-transit pass in the form set out as Form 38 permitting such person to remain in Trinidad and Tobago for a period not exceeding fourteen days; Form 31.

(6) Where a deposit has been made by a person against whom an order of forfeiture has been made under subregulation (4), the amount of the deposit shall be paid to the Comptroller of Accounts.

(7) The provisions of this regulation shall be read subject to Rules of Court relating to appeals under the Act.

NOTICE AND HEARING

Notice of appeal and procedure on appeal.

30. (1) Where an appeal to the Minister lies against a deportation order under the Act the appeal shall be instituted by serving a notice of appeal upon the immigration officer, or upon the person who serves the deportation order under section 27(2) of the Act in the form set out as Form 9A.

Form 9A.

(2) The notice of appeal referred to in subregulation (1) shall be served within twenty-four hours of service of the deportation order.

(3) The immigration officer or the person who serves the deportation order, upon being served with a notice of appeal from a deportation order pursuant to the Act or these Regulations, shall forthwith cause the notice of appeal together with the record of the proceedings resulting in the deportation order to be transmitted to the Minister.

(4) Every notice of appeal shall—

- (a) contain an address to which all notices and papers in connection with the appeal may be sent to the appellant; and
- (b) indicate whether the appellant wishes to make any representation.

(5) (a) The appellant may on appeal to the Minister submit written representations within seven days of the service of the notice of appeal.

(b) The Minister may require that any representations made be verified by affidavit.

(6) The Minister may—

- (a) allow amendments to be made to any written representations; and
- (b) do all other things necessary to provide for the proper disposition of an appeal.

31. (1) If the appeal is dismissed the appellant shall remain in or surrender to the custody of the immigration officer who shall forthwith take such steps as may be required either for his removal from Trinidad and Tobago or for such temporary or conditional residence within Trinidad and Tobago as may be permitted under the Act. Any deposit shall be applied in indemnifying public funds for all costs, charges and expenses incurred in regard to the appellant or his dependents.

Where appeal dismissed.

(2) If the appeal is allowed the appellant shall be discharged from custody and shall be relieved from the conditions of any temporary permit issued to him and any moneys posted as security shall be refunded or other security cancelled.

Where appeal allowed.

- Form 14. General Declaration (Outward/Inward) in duplicate in the form set out as Form 14;
- Form 13. (b) manifest of in-transit passengers in duplicate in the form set out as Form 13;
- Form 1. (c) a declaration in the form set out as Form 1 for each passenger embarking.

(3) The local representative or master of any vessel departing from Trinidad and Tobago shall, if so required by the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure give the approximate time that the passengers and crew will be on board and also the approximate time of departure of the vessel in the form set out as Form 16 and cause the crew and passengers to present themselves on the vessel or at a place to be determined by the immigration officer with their passports and other documents required for inspection.

(4) The immigration officer may prohibit departure in the following instances:

- (a) by Order of the Minister; or
- (b) if any of the travel documents are not valid for travel; or
- (c) if there is to the knowledge of the immigration officer a warrant of arrest in force relating to that person.

(5) Any master or representative who fails to comply with any of the requirements duly made under this regulation is guilty of an offence.

(6) Every person intending to disembark in or embark from Trinidad and Tobago, as the case may be, shall if required to do so by an immigration officer, produce for inspection his passport, visa, document evidencing permission to enter any country or other document of a like nature in his possession.

(7) The master or the medical officer of any vessel or other person referred to in this regulation who—

- (a) fails to deliver a manifest or other document required by this regulation; or
- (b) fails to state in such document all the information required; or
- (c) makes any false statement in such document; or
- (d) fails to account for every person whose name appears on such document, is guilty of an offence with respect to each person to whom any such omission occurs or any such false statement is made.

34. (1) The owner, agent or charterer of a ship intending to come to Trinidad and Tobago from a foreign port shall as early as possible give notice in writing in duplicate to the Chief Immigration Officer in the form set out as Form 15, of the expected date and time of arrival of such ship and shall give particulars in so far as is practicable of all other details required.

(4) No vessel other than a vessel which plies solely between ports in Trinidad and Tobago, shall proceed to any place in Trinidad and Tobago other than a port of entry.

(5) The master of every vessel which arrives in Trinidad and Tobago shall, if so ordered by an immigration officer, anchor or tie up his vessel at such place as may be ordered and shall remain there until an immigration officer gives him permission to leave.

(6) The master of any vessel who, without reasonable cause contravenes any of the foregoing provisions of this regulation or any order made or direction given thereunder is guilty of an offence.

(7) Where a person contravenes a provision of this regulation, that person commits an offence whether or not such contravention is elsewhere expressly declared to constitute an offence.

(8) The Minister may exempt the master of any vessel coming to Trinidad and Tobago or the transportation company operating such vessel from any or all of the requirements of this regulation and may direct such further or other requirements or documents to be taken in their stead as he considers proper.

Responsibility of transportation
company.

35. (1) A transportation company is responsible for safeguarding all persons ordered to be delivered to it or to the master of one of its vessels from the time of such delivery.

Form 35.

(2) The Minister may cause to be served on a transportation company that is not liable under the Act for the cost of deportation, the master, charterer or agent thereof a notice in the form set out as Form 35 requiring such company to carry a person ordered to be deported, and upon the service of such notice such company shall become liable for all detention and deportation costs—

(a) if it refuses to take on board or carry a person ordered to be deported following a proper written direction given by the Chief Immigration Officer;

- (b) if it fails to guard safely any such person on board its vessels or at such other place where such person may have been detained, until he can be placed on board the vessel on which he is to be deported;
- (c) if it does not report forthwith the escape from custody of any person ordered to be deported; or
- (d) if it fails to carry the person ordered to be deported to the place in the country of destination of such person designated on the order of deportation or on the written direction of the Chief Immigration Officer.

(3) The master, owner, agent or charterer of a vessel shall, on being required in writing by the Chief Immigration Officer so to do, receive a deportee on board for conveyance to a place specified in the requirement, being a place to which the vessel is bound, and also receive on board, for such time as is required by the Chief Immigration Officer, a person charged with the custody of the deportee.

Deportees to be received on board vessels.

Form 4.

(4) For the services specified in subregulation (3) there shall be paid such reasonable passage money and other charges as are demanded by the master, owner, agent or charterer, as the case may be.

(5) The Chief Immigration Officer shall not make a requirement under subregulation (3) unless he is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the deportee will be permitted to land at the place specified in the requirement, and it is a defence to a prosecution for a contravention of that subregulation if the defendant proves that, if the requirement had been complied with, the deportee would not have been permitted to land at the place specified in the requirement.

(6) Where a person has been placed on board a vessel for the purpose of deportation from Trinidad and Tobago, the Chief Immigration Officer, or an immigration officer, may at any time

Stowaways.

36. (1) The master of any vessel arriving in Trinidad and Tobago from a foreign port shall report immediately on the arrival of the vessel to the immigration officer in charge, the presence of any stowaways on board.

(2) The master of such a vessel shall be responsible for holding any such stowaway on board pending the departure of the vessel from Trinidad and Tobago and shall not permit the stowaway to leave the vessel without the written permission of an immigration officer.

(3) A master of a vessel—

- (a) who permits any stowaway to leave such vessel without the written permission of an immigration officer; or
- (b) from which a stowaway escapes, is guilty of an offence with respect to each stowaway.

(4) The master of a vessel from which a stowaway escapes shall report the escape to the immigration officer immediately and such a master who fails so to do is, in addition to any other offence for which he may be liable, guilty of an offence under this paragraph.

(5) A transportation company owning or operating a vessel on which a stowaway is found shall bear the cost of the detention and deportation of such stowaway.

Production of

37. (1) The master or agent of a vessel, other than a vessel of the regular armed forces of a Government permitted to call by the Government of Trinidad and Tobago, arriving in Trinidad and Tobago—

- (a) shall, upon the arrival of the vessel at a port of entry have in his possession the passport or identification documents in respect of each member of the crew who is on board the vessel;
- (b) shall, upon the arrival of the vessel at a port of entry if so required by an immigration officer, muster the crew in the presence of the officer and produce to the officer the passports or identification documents referred to in paragraph (a);
- (c) shall, before the departure of the vessel from a port of entry if so required by an immigration officer, muster the crew in the presence of that officer and produce to him the passports or identification documents referred to in paragraph (a); and
- (d) shall not, where required to muster the crew in accordance with paragraph (c) depart with the vessel from the port of entry unless he complies with such requirement.

(2) The master or agent of a vessel, other than a vessel of the regular armed forces of a Government permitted to call by the Government of Trinidad and Tobago, arriving in Trinidad and Tobago from a foreign port shall, immediately before the departure of the vessel from Trinidad and Tobago, report in writing to an immigration officer the name of any member of the crew of the vessel who was on board the vessel at the time of its arrival and has deserted or is absent and shall deliver to the immigration officer any passport or identification documents of that member.

Master to report absence.

MEMBERS OF A CREW, LIST AND CONTROL

38. (1) Before the departure of any ship, the master or agent of such ship shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure a statement recording any change in crew, prior to departure. The crew manifest shall contain a list of the names of all persons who are employed on such ship at the time of departure and also the names of those who have been paid off or discharged or who have been left ashore in hospital or who have died and of those who have deserted, and where there has been no such occurrence a notice shall be transmitted by such master or agent to the immigration officer in charge.

Manifest of seamen, etc., to be delivered by master of ship to immigration officer in charge.

(2) Every statement required by this regulation shall be supported by a declaration as to its accuracy by the master of the vessel or by his duly authorised agent.

(3) A transportation company, the agent, the master of the vessel or his duly authorised agent is guilty of an offence—

- (a) in respect of each person for whom no report is made as required by this regulation; or
- (b) whenever such person fails to deliver any one of the statements required by this regulation or to furnish all the information required in every such statement.

(4) No person employed on board a vessel bringing persons to Trinidad and Tobago shall be discharged in Trinidad and Tobago without the consent of an immigration officer, and the master or agent who so discharges such a person is guilty of an offence.

(5) A transportation company, or the agent or master of a vessel arriving in Trinidad and Tobago from any port or place outside of Trinidad and Tobago, who knowingly signs on the articles of the vessel, or engages as an employee on board such vessel or brings to Trinidad and Tobago as a member of a crew, any person, with the intent to permit such person to enter Trinidad and Tobago contrary to the provisions of the Act and of these Regulations, or who represents orally or in a statement or report referred to in this regulation, to an immigration officer that any such person is a bona fide officer or member of the crew, is guilty of an offence.

(6) Before a member of a crew is permitted to enter Trinidad and Tobago for medical treatment or any other purpose, a transportation company employing such person shall make a deposit or enter into a bond in the form set out as Form 2 in the First Schedule in favour of the Comptroller of Accounts, as may be required by the immigration officer in charge, in such amount as may be considered by such officer sufficient to cover the expenses then foreseeable.

(7) A receipt for each person shall be given by the master of a vessel taking on board persons ordered to be deported to the immigration officer. The receipt shall be in the form set out as Form 23.

FORMS, NOTICES, ETC.

39. (1) A deportation order in the form set out as Form 19A or 19B shall be made in triplicate and one copy shall be served upon the person ordered deported by delivering such copy to him personally whenever practicable, and in other instances by sending it by registered mail to his last known address.

(2) A copy of the deportation order shall be sent to the transportation company that is obliged to remove or to pay the costs of deportation of the person ordered deported and such copy may form part of a notice in the form set out as Form 20.

(3) A transportation company may request once only in each case that deportation be made to a country other than that designated in the deportation order or other order made by the Minister, the Chief Immigration Officer or a Special Inquiry Officer.

40. (1) The application for exemption from the provisions of section 7(1)(a) of the Act shall be in the form set out as Form 56.

(2) The certificate referred to in section 7(1) of the Act shall be in the form set out as Form 21.

(3) The declaration issued by the Minister under section 9(4) of the Act that a person has ceased to be a permitted entrant shall be in the form set out as Form 54.

N.B.—(1) If the above space is insufficient, the requested information can be attached on a separate sheet.

(2) The attention of applicants for the status of resident of Trinidad and Tobago is directed to the provisions of sections 5, 6, 7 and 50(1) of the Immigration Act, as quoted hereunder:

“Persons who are residents of Trinidad and Tobago.

5. (1) The following persons not being citizens of Trinidad and Tobago are residents of Trinidad and Tobago:

- (a) a person who was entitled under the former Constitution to be registered as a citizen;
- (b) a person to whom permission has been granted by the Minister under section 6 to become a resident;
- (c) a person other than a person described in paragraph (a) or (b) who immediately before the commencement of this Act was deemed to be a person belonging to Trinidad and Tobago by virtue of section 2(2) of the former Ordinance;
- (d) a person who applies for and is granted permission to become a resident under section 50(1);
- (e) the child of a person who is a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago or who by virtue of this section is a resident or provided that such child is a minor or is dependent on and living with his parents;
- (f) such other persons on whom the Minister may confer the status of a resident.

(2) For the purposes of subsections (1)(b) and (d), no period shall be counted towards the acquisition of resident status during which a person—

- (a) is confined in or is an inmate of any prison or hospital for mental diseases;
- (b) remains in Trinidad and Tobago after the making of a deportation order against him and prior to the execution of such order or his voluntarily leaving Trinidad and Tobago, unless an appeal against such order is allowed; or
- (c) is in Trinidad and Tobago under a permit.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(f) the Minister may, in his discretion, confer the status of a resident on any person he considers fit.

FORM 6—Continued

Persons who may be permitted to become residents.

6. (1) Subject to this Act and the Regulations, persons who come within the following classes may on application in the prescribed form, be granted permission by the Minister if he thinks fit, to become residents, that is to say:

- (a) a permitted entrant who—
 - (i) by reason of his education, occupational qualifications, personal history, employment record, training, skills or other special qualifications has established or is likely to be able to establish himself successfully in Trinidad and Tobago in a profession, trade, self-operating business or agricultural enterprise and who has sufficient means of support to maintain himself and his immediate family in Trinidad and Tobago; and
 - (ii) has been continuously resident in Trinidad and Tobago for five years or such shorter period (not being less than twelve months) as the Minister may in the special circumstances of any particular case accept;
- (b) a person who is the parent or grandparent of either a citizen or resident of Trinidad and Tobago, residing in Trinidad and Tobago, if such citizen or resident is willing and able to provide care and maintenance for that person;
- (c) the spouse of a citizen or resident of Trinidad and Tobago; and
- (d) a person who has ceased to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago by reason of his voluntary acquisition of citizenship of another country.

(2) In determining the suitability of an applicant for the grant of resident status under this section, the Minister shall be satisfied, inter alia, that the applicant—

- (a) had entered the country legally;
- (b) is not in a prohibited class; and
- (c) is of good character as evidenced by a police certificate of good character.

Loss of resident status.

7 (1) Subject to subsection (6), resident status is lost by a person—

- (a) who voluntarily resides outside Trinidad and Tobago for a continuous period of one year, unless he obtains from the Minister a certificate in the prescribed form exempting him from the provisions of this paragraph; or
- (b) who was entitled under the former Constitution to be registered as a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, if he has resided outside Trinidad and Tobago for a continuous period of two years immediately preceding the commencement of this Act, unless within a period of six months from that date he obtains from the Minister a certificate in the prescribed form exempting him from the provisions of this paragraph.

(2) Where the Minister is satisfied that a person has been—

- (a) engaged in activities detrimental to the security of Trinidad and Tobago; or
- (b) an habitual criminal,

that person shall be deemed to have lost the status of resident at the commencement of his engagement in such activities or at the time of his becoming an habitual criminal.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b) an habitual criminal is a person who—

- (a) is not less than thirty years of age;
- (b) has been convicted of an indictable offence punishable with imprisonment for two years or more and has been convicted on at least three previous occasions since the age of seventeen years of offences similarly punishable; and
- (c) was on at least two of these occasions sentenced to imprisonment, or has at least on one occasion been sentenced to be detained at the Youth Training Centre or any other similar Institution.

(4) The Minister, if he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a resident—

- (a) has given false or misleading information in his application for residence; or
- (b) is a person referred to in section 8(1) (e), (f), (k), (l), (m), (o) or (q),

may issue a written declaration under his hand stating that the resident has lost his resident status from the date specified in the declaration, and the Minister may make a deportation order against that person.

(5) Any period during which a permitted entrant is in Trinidad and Tobago that is less than the period required for the acquisition of resident status under section 6(1)(a)(ii) that might otherwise be counted by a person towards the acquisition of such status in accordance with Regulations made under this Act is lost upon the making of a deportation order against him, unless an appeal against such order is allowed.

(6) In no case shall residence out of Trinidad and Tobago for the purpose of serving in the public service or diplomatic or other service of Trinidad and Tobago, cause loss of resident status.

Applications by certain persons for resident status and for certificates under section 9.

50. (1) Notwithstanding anything in Part I to the contrary, a person who, upon the commencement of this Act, was ordinarily resident in Trinidad and Tobago for a period of five years is entitled to apply to the Minister for permission to become a resident, and the Minister may, if he thinks fit, grant such permission. An application under this subsection shall be made within one year of the commencement of this Act and no later, unless the Minister prescribes some further period, not exceeding three years, within which such application may be made.”.

Sir,

Regulation 35 of the Immigration Regulations provides that the Minister, or any person acting under his authority, may give directions to the master of any ship or commander of any aircraft which is about to leave Trinidad and Tobago requiring him to afford to any person against whom a deportation/rejection order is in force, and to any dependants of that person specified in the directions, a passage to any port so specified (being a port in a country of which that person is a citizen or in a country or territory to which the Minister has reason to believe that he/she will be admitted and at which the ship or aircraft is to call or land in the course of the voyage) and proper accommodation and maintenance during the passage.

is a person against whom a deportation/rejection order made under the Immigration Act is in force, and I, being an immigration officer acting under the authority of the Minister, require you to afford, him/her together with a passage to

and proper accommodation and maintenance during the passage.

Regulation 35 of the Immigration Regulations further provides that the master of a ship or commander of any aircraft shall, if so required by an immigration officer, take such steps as may be necessary for preventing any person placed on board the ship or aircraft under regulation 35 from disembarking from the ship or aircraft before it leaves Trinidad and Tobago and for that purpose the master or commander may detain the said person in custody on board the ship or aircraft.

I accordingly require you to take such steps as may be necessary to prevent the said from disembarking from your ship/aircraft before it leaves the territory. For this purpose you may, if necessary detain him/her in custody.

Any statement you make may be used as evidence in Deportation Proceedings

THE COPY OF THIS ORDER SERVED UPON YOU IS EVIDENCE OF YOUR IDENTIFICATION WHILE YOU ARE UNDER DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS,
THE LAW REQUIRES THAT IT BE CARRIED WITH YOU AT ALL TIMES

If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceedings at no expense to the Government of Trinidad and Tobago by an Attorney-at-Law, Relative or Friend. You should bring with you affidavits or other documents which you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If any document is in a foreign language, you should bring the original and certified translation thereof. If you wish to have the testimony of any witness considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing.

When you appear you may, if you wish, admit that the allegations contained in the Order to Show Cause are true and that you are deportable from Trinidad and Tobago on the charges set forth therein. Such admission may constitute a waiver of any further hearing as to your deportability. If you do not admit that the allegations and charges are true, you will be given reasonable opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine the Government's evidence, and to cross-examine any witness presented by the Government.

You may apply at the hearing for voluntary departure in lieu of deportation. Moreover, if you appear to be eligible to acquire lawful, permanent, resident status the Special Inquiry Officer will explain this to you at the hearing and give you an opportunity to apply.

You will be asked during the hearing to select a country to which you choose to be deported in the event that your deportation is required by law. The Special Inquiry Officer will also notify you concerning any other country or countries to which your deportation may be directed pursuant to law; and upon receipt of this information, you will have an opportunity to apply during the hearing for temporary withholding of deportation if you believe you would be subject to prosecution in any such country on account of race, religion, or political opinion.

Failure to attend the hearing at the time and place designated hereon may result in your arrest and detention by the Immigration Division without further notice, or in a determination being made by the Special Inquiry Officer in your absence.
