

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO.

No. 10.—1909.

16th March.

AN ORDINANCE to provide for the regulation of public recreation grounds and pastures.

[L.S.]

S. W. KNAGGS,

ACTING GOVERNOR.

24th March, 1909.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Recreation Grounds and Pastures Regulation Ordinance 1909.

Power to make rules and regulations.

2. It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time to make alter and revoke rules and regulations as to the use by the public of any public recreation ground or pasture, as to the times during which and the terms and conditions under which persons, horses and carriages and other vehicles, cattle and other animals may be admitted to any such ground or pasture.

Such rules and regulations may provide for the imposition of penalties not exceeding five pounds for breaches thereof.

Every person contravening any of such rules and regulations shall be guilty of an offence, and on summary conviction shall be liable to such penalty as is provided by the rules and regulations, or if no penalty is so provided, to any penalty not exceeding two pounds.

3. It shall be lawful for any member of the Constabulary Force or any other person appointed by the Governor in this behalf, to arrest without warrant any person who within his view commits any breach of any rule or regulation made under this Ordinance, if the name and address of such person is unknown to such member of the Constabulary Force or person, or if such person continues to commit such breach after being warned to desist, and to detain him in custody until he can be conveniently brought before a Stipendiary Justice of the Peace to be dealt with according to law.

4. All rules and regulations made under this Ordinance shall be published in the Royal Gazette. Production of a copy of the Royal Gazette purporting to contain any such rules and regulations shall be prima facie evidence of the due making and tenor of such rules and regulations.

5. This Ordinance shall not apply to the Queen's Park in the Town of Port-of-Spain.

Passed in Council this Sixteenth day of March, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nine.

H. L. KNAGGS,
Clerk of the Council.
