TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO
Act No. 15 of 1972

AN ACT for the incorporation of a body to be known as
"The Trinidad and Tobago Music Festival Association".

[Assented to 13th May, 1972]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Representatives of Trinidad and Tobago, and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as "The Trinidad and Tobago Music Festival Association (Incorporation) Act, 1971".

2. The Association known as "The Trinidad and Tobago Music Festival Association" shall be and is hereby created a body corporate and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and may sue and be sued in all courts of justice in the Territory by that name, and shall have and use a common seal with power from time to time to change such seal.

3. The corporate body hereby created shall have power—

- (a) to make, adopt, establish and enforce any rules and regulations for and concerning the nomination, election, suspension, removal and expulsion of members and officers; the management, collection and disposal of its property and funds; the conduct, regulation and management of its affairs and of any other matter or thing whatsoever which may in any wise concern the good government of the said corporate body; and the same to amend, vary, repeal or promulgate from time to time as may seem proper: Provided always that no such rules or regulations be in any wise repugnant or contrary to Her Majesty's prerogative or to the laws of this Country and that the same shall not affect any person or persons other than those who are or may become members of the said corporate body;
- (b) to promote and hold music festivals, and to do all other such things as are incidental to the holding of such festivals; and to do all other things necessary for the encouragement of the appreciation of music.

4. All documents requiring the seal of the said corporate body shall be sealed with its common seal in the presence of its Chairman and Secretary for the time being in Office who shall sign every such document, and such signing shall be prima facie evidence that the said seal was duly affixed and the same is the lawful seal of the corporation.

5. The said corporate body shall at all times have a fixed address for the service of documents on the corporation and such address shall be registered with the Registrar General. All documents to be served on the corporation may be served by leaving the same at, or by sending the same by registered post to, the address registered.

6. Nothing in this Act shall affect or be deemed to affect the right of Her Majesty the Queen, Her Heirs or Successors or of any bodies politic or corporate or of any other persons except such as are mentioned or referred to in this Act and those claiming by, through, from or under them.

Passed in the Senate this 7th day of March, 1972.
