AN ORDINANCE for the apprenticing of the Children of Indian Immigrants.

JAMES WALKER.

WHEREAS an Ordinance was passed in Council on the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, entitled "An Ordinance for promoting the Education and Industrial Training of the Children of Indian Immigrants:" And whereas it is necessary to make provision for the apprenticing of such children on their leaving such training schools: Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Council of Government as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor to apprentice any child who may have been trained at any Indian training school on such child leaving such school, as a household servant, or as a servant in husbandry or gardening, or to any trade, craft, art, or mystery for any term not more than five years, determinable in every case upon such child attaining the age of eighteen years, or in the case of a female upon her being married, upon such terms and conditions to be contained in the Indenture of apprenticeship as to the Governor shall seem fit, and every such Indenture shall be as binding on such child as if he or she being of full age had by deed of covenant bound himself or herself.
2. Every master or mistress of any such apprentice who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to perform any of the terms or conditions contained in such Indenture to be performed by such master or mistress shall, on conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace, forfeit such sum not exceeding twenty pounds sterling as to the convicting Justice shall seem fit.
3. It shall be lawful for the master or mistress of any such apprentice with the consent of the Governor in writing to be indorsed on such Indenture to assign such apprentice during the residue of his or her apprenticeship to any person willing to take such apprentice, and who may be approved of by the Governor.

4. In case of the death of the master or mistress of any such apprentice during the term of such apprenticeship it shall be lawful for the Governor to assign such apprentice for the residue of his or her term of apprenticeship to such person as the Governor shall see fit.

5. It shall be lawful for the Governor in any case where he shall see fit to cancel the Indenture of such apprenticeship, and thereupon to bind such apprentice to some other person for a term equal to the unexpired term of his or her original service.

Passed in Council this first day of May, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

JAMES H. LACROIX,
Clerk of Council.
