

No. 2.—1876.

1st April.

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Law as to the Application of Penalties.

(L.S.) HENRY T. IRVING.

6th April, 1876.

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as Short title.
“The Penalties Application Ordinance, 1876.”

2. Where under any Ordinance by which on conviction any share of the penalty imposed is given to the informer, an information is laid by the Inspector Commandant or any other inspector of police or by any non-commissioned police officer or any police constable and a penalty is imposed, the share of such penalty given by the Ordinance to the informer shall not be paid to such informer but shall be paid by the Justice or other person receiving the same into the Colonial Treasury for the use of Her Majesty.

Application of penalties in certain cases.

3. In the case of any conviction in respect of which a share of the penalty is by virtue of this Ordinance paid into the Colonial Treasury, the Governor may at any time grant by way of reward to any non-commissioned police officer or police constable whom in respect of special services in reference to such conviction he considers worthy of reward any sum not exceeding the share of the penalty paid into the Colonial Treasury.

Power to reward police.

Passed in Council this first day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

A. C. ROSS,

Clerk of the Council.
