No. 15. 1878.

23rd August.

AN ORDINANCE for further amending the Law with regard to Wardens.

(L.S.) HENRY T. IRVING.

28th August, 1878.

Preamble.
Cites Ordnances Nos.
13 of 1852,
14 of 1854,
and 17 of 1876.

WHEREAS an Ordinance, No. 13 of 1852, was passed in Council on the first day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, intituled "An Ordinance for amending and consolidating the law with regard to the appointment of wardens and the powers and duties of such wardens";

And whereas another Ordinance, No. 14, of 1854, was passed in Council on the twenty-second day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, intituled "An Ordinance to make certain amendments and alterations in an Ordinance intituled 'An Ordinance for amending and consolidating the law with regard to the appointment of wardens, and the powers and duties of such wardens'"; And whereas another Ordinance, No. 17, of 1876, was passed in Council on the first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, intituled "An Ordinance for further amending the law with regard to wardens"; And whereas it is expedient further to amend and alter the law with regard to wardens: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance shall be read and construed with Construction. the said recited Ordinances as one Ordinance.

2. It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, by proclamation under his hand, to form as many ward unions as he shall think fit into provinces. Power to Governor to proclaim Provinces.

3. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to appoint such person as Her Majesty thinks fit to be a Commissioner for each of such provinces. Appointment of Commissioners.

Every such Commissioner shall have in his Province all the powers and authorities, and shall be entitled to the indemnity and protection which by law are given to the warden of any ward union comprised in such province. Powers of Commissioners.

4. It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time to appoint certain persons to be assistant wardens, and such assistant wardens shall have all the powers and authorities and be entitled to the indemnity and protection which the warden of a ward union now has by law; but no assistant warden shall exercise any of the said powers or authorities except with regard to such such matters and within such territorial limits as the Governor shall from time to time in writing direct and prescribe. Appointment of assistant wardens.

Passed in Council this twenty-third day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

A. C. ROSS,
Clerk of the Council.

No. 17.—1878.

3rd September.

AN ORDINANCE to fix the Security to be given by the Marshal.

(L.S.) HENRY T. IRVING.

20th September, 1878.

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, as follows:—

Amount of security.

1. Every Marshal of the Colony shall give security to the satisfaction of the Governor with some sufficient surety or sureties in the sum of one thousand pounds for the due performance of the duties of the office of Marshal, and for faithfully accounting for all moneys and property that come into his hands or possession as such Marshal and paying over such moneys.

Penalty for neglect to give security.

2. Any person who enters upon the office of Marshal or performs any of the duties thereof without having previously given such security shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred pounds, and shall forthwith be discharged from and be thenceforth incapable of being appointed to or holding the said office.

Commutation in lieu of certain fees.

3. Every Marshal shall be paid such yearly sum of money as the Governor, with the consent of the Legislative Council, allows in lieu of fees for the services mentioned in the fourth Section of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1838, and not the yearly sum of three hundred and fifty pounds appointed in that Section, and he shall not be entitled to any other fee or reward whatsoever for or in respect of the said services.
