No. 9—1949.

[L.S.]

I ASSENT,

J. V. W. SHAW,

Governor.

16th March, 1949.

AN ORDINANCE for the Incorporation of certain persons as Trustees of the Holy Name Convent in Trinidad.

[24th March, 1949.]

Commencement.

WHEREAS the Convent or Institution in the City of Port-of-Spain, known as The Holy Name Convent, in the Island of Trinidad, (hereinafter referred to as "the said Convent"), and founded in this Colony by certain members of the Religious Community known as the Congregation of Sisters of St. Catherine of Siena of the Order of St. Dominic, is governed and administered by an Advisory Council consisting of the Prioress and four Sisters of the said Congregation in the Colony.

And Whereas by a resolution of the said Advisory Council duly passed on the sixteenth day of May, 1947, the Reverend Mother Germaine Mercier and Sisters Yvonne Robert and Therese Noussanne were appointed to be the Trustees of the said Convent and to hold all the property both real and personal of the said Congregation of Sisters for the uses and purposes of the said Convent.

And Whereas by a resolution of the said Advisory Council duly passed on the fifteenth day of August, 1948, Sister Ida Lacombe was appointed to be a Trustee of the said Convent in place of Reverend Mother Germaine Mercier :

And Whereas it is expedient that the said Trustees should be incorporated and should have power to acquire, hold and deal with land and other property in this Colony in trust for the said Convent.
