

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO.

No. 11—1947.

[L.S.]

I ASSENT,

J. V. W. SHAW,
Governor.

23rd May, 1947.

AN ORDINANCE for the incorporation of certain persons as Trustees of St. Joseph's Convent in Trinidad.

[29th May, 1947.]

Commencement.

WHEREAS The Convent or Institution in the City of Port-of-Spain, known as St. Joseph's Convent and its subsidiary branches at San Fernando, Arouca, Arima and St. Joseph in the Island of Trinidad (hereinafter collectively referred to as "The said Convent"), and founded in this Colony by certain members of the Religious Community known as the Congregation of Sisters of St. Joseph de Cluny, are governed and administered by an Advisory Council consisting of the Superior of the said Convent and three Sisters of the said Congregation in the Colony ;

And Whereas by a resolution of the said Advisory Council duly passed on the eighteenth day of January, 1947 the Reverend Mother Raphael Glynn and Sisters Florence Kernahan and Conception Coyne were appointed to be the Trustees of the said Convent and to hold all the property both real and personal of the said Congregation of Sisters for the uses and purposes of the said Convent ;

And Whereas it is expedient that the said Trustees should be incorporated and should have power to acquire, hold and deal with land and other property in this Colony in trust for the said Convent ;

Enactment.

Be it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows :

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the St. Joseph's Convent Incorporation Ordinance, 1947.

2. The said Reverend Mother Raphael Glynn and Sisters Florence Kernahan and Conception Coyne and their successors in office as such Trustees as aforesaid shall be and are hereby created a body corporate known as The Incorporated Trustees of St. Joseph's Convent in Trinidad (hereinafter called "The Incorporated Trustees") and by that name shall have perpetual succession and shall and may sue and be sued in all Courts of Justice in this Colony in that name and shall have and use a Common Seal which may from time to time be changed. Such Seal shall only be used in the presence of at least two of the Trustees and shall not be changed except by resolution of the Trustees at a meeting held for the purpose, such resolution to be published in the Royal Gazette as soon after such meeting as possible.

3. The Incorporated Trustees shall, subject to the rules, regulations and control of the said Advisory Council, have full power to acquire for the said Convent by purchase, conveyance, transfer, assignment, exchange, demise, gift, devise or otherwise any lands, messuages and hereditaments of any nature or tenure whatsoever in perpetuity or for a life or lives or for a term of years and any rights, easements and privileges over or connected with any such lands, messuages and hereditaments and also any money, securities for money, goods, chattels and other personal property whatsoever and, subject to such rules, regulations and control aforesaid, and to the performance of any trusts upon which the said lands, messuages and hereditaments, moneys, securities for money, goods, chattels and other personal property may have been acquired, to take, hold, administer, manage, improve and develop the same.

4. It shall be lawful for the Incorporated Trustees, subject to such rules, regulations and control as aforesaid, from time to time by deed under their Seal to sell, grant, convey, grant rights and easements over, exchange, assign, demise, surrender, borrow money on the security of, mortgage, charge or otherwise dispose of and deal with any lands, messuages and hereditaments and any rights easements and privileges over or connected with any such lands, messuages and hereditaments which shall or may for the time being be or become vested in or which may hereafter be acquired by or vested in them.

5. It shall be lawful for the Incorporated Trustees, subject to such rules, regulations and control as aforesaid, from time to time by deed under their Seal to sell, assign, exchange, surrender, borrow money on the security of, mortgage, charge, hypothecate, pledge, turn to account, or otherwise dispose of and deal with any moneys, securities for money, goods, chattels and other personal property of or to which they shall or may be possessed or entitled or which may hereafter be acquired by them.

6. The Incorporated Trustees shall at all times have a fixed address for the service of documents on them and such address shall be registered with the Registrar General. All documents to be served on the Incorporated Trustees may be served by leaving the same at, or by sending the same by registered post to, the address so registered.

7. Nothing in this Ordinance shall affect or be deemed to affect the rights of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or of any bodies politic or corporate or of any other persons except such as are mentioned or referred to in this Ordinance and those claiming by, through, from, or under them.

Passed in Council this ninth day of May, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.

G. E. CHEN,
Clerk of the Council.
