CHAPTER 1:50

CITIZENSHIP OF THE REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO ACT

An Act to re-enact and revise certain laws respecting citizenship of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. 11 of 1976.

[31ST JULY 1976]

Commencement.
119/1976.

1. This Act may be cited as the Citizenship of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago Act. Short title.

PRELIMINARY

2. (1) In this Act—

Interpretation.
[17 of 1981
28 of 1981].

“alien” means a person who is not a Commonwealth citizen, a British protected person or a citizen of the Republic of Ireland;

“British protected person” means a person who is a British protected person for the purposes of the British Nationality Act, 1948 of the United Kingdom;

11 & 12 Geo. 6
c. 56 (U.K.).

“certificate of naturalisation” means a certificate of naturalisation issued under this Act;

“the Commonwealth” and “Commonwealth country” mean Trinidad and Tobago, any country to which section 18 of the Constitution applies and any dependency of any such country;

“Commonwealth citizen” means a citizen of any country to which section 18 of the Constitution applies, and includes a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago;

“the Constitution” means the Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago set out in the Schedule to the Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago Act;

Ch. 1:01.

“consulate of Trinidad and Tobago” means an office of a consular officer of the Government, or, where there is no such office such office as may be prescribed;

“foreign country” means a country other than the Republic of Ireland that is not part of the Commonwealth;

S.I. 1962/1875
(U.K.).

“the former Constitution” means the Trinidad and Tobago Constitution set out in the Second Schedule to the Trinidad and Tobago (Constitution) Order-in-Council 1962;

“minor” means a person who has not attained the age of eighteen years;

“responsible parent” in relation to any child means the father but—

(a) where the father is dead; or

(b) where custody of the child has been awarded to the mother; or

(c) paternity of the child is not admitted or established in accordance with the Status of Children Act,

Ch. 46:07.

the expression “responsible parent” means the mother;

“service under the Government” means service, whether within or outside Trinidad and Tobago, under the Government or under an authority of the Government.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a person shall be—

(a) of full age, if he attains the age of eighteen years; and

(b) of capacity, if he is not mentally ill, within the meaning of the Mental Health Act.

Ch. 28:02

(3) } (Repealed by Act No. 17 of 1981).
(4) }

(5) Where under this Act a person is required to renounce the citizenship of a country but either—

(a) under the law of that country he is not permitted to do so; or

(b) he is unable to establish that he is a citizen of that country, he may make instead the prescribed declaration concerning that citizenship.

3. A reference to a British subject in any law in force in Trinidad and Tobago on the commencement of this Act shall be construed so as to include a reference to a Commonwealth citizen.

References in existing laws to British subject to be construed as including references to Commonwealth citizens.

4. A law in force in Trinidad and Tobago at the date of commencement of this Act and any written law which, although made before that date, comes into operation on or after that date shall have effect in relation to citizens of the Republic of Ireland who are not Commonwealth citizens, in like manner as they have effect in relation to Commonwealth citizens.

Existing laws to have effect in relation to citizens of the Republic of Ireland as if they were Commonwealth citizens.

PART I

ACQUISITION OF CITIZENSHIP

5. (1) The Minister shall cause a child born outside of Trinidad and Tobago of a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago by descent to be granted a certificate of citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago upon receipt of the prescribed application made—

Citizenship by descent.
[25 of 1978].

- (a) by the responsible parent or the guardian of such child before the child attains full age; or
- (b) by the child within one year of his attaining his majority according to the law of the country of which he is a citizen or on his attaining full age.

(2) A person to whom a certificate of citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago is granted under subsection (1) is a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago by descent for all the purposes of the law relating to citizenship save that nothing in subsection (1) applies to a child of a person who became a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago by reason of that subsection.

6. Where under a law in force in Trinidad and Tobago relating to the adoption of children, an adoption order is made by a competent Court in respect of a minor who is not a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, then, if the adopter, or in the case of a joint adoption, either of the adopters, is a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, the minor shall become a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago as from the date of the order.

Citizenship on adoption.
[66 of 2000].

Registration of Commonwealth citizens, citizens of the Republic of Ireland and British protected persons.
[25 of 1978
63 of 2000].

7. (1) Subject to this section, the Minister may cause any person of full age and capacity to whom this section applies to be registered as a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago if that person makes the prescribed application for registration to the Minister and satisfies the Minister—

- (a) that he is of good character;
- (b) that he has an adequate knowledge of the English language and of the duties of a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago;
- (c) that he has either resided in Trinidad and Tobago or has been in the service of the Government, or has had partly such residence and partly such service, throughout the period of five years, or such shorter period (not being less than twelve months) as the Minister may in the special circumstances of any particular case accept, immediately preceding the date of his application.

(2) A person to whom this section applies shall not be registered under this section unless he takes the oath of allegiance.

(3) This section applies to a Commonwealth citizen, a citizen of the Republic of Ireland, and to a British protected person.

Registration of minor children.
[25 of 1978
63 of 2000].

8. (1) The Minister may cause the minor child born outside Trinidad and Tobago of a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago to be registered as a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago upon receipt of the prescribed application made by the responsible parent or the guardian of such child.

(2) The Minister, in such special circumstances as may be prescribed, may cause any minor to be registered as a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago.

(3) A person who becomes a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago by virtue of this section shall cease to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago one year after attaining full age unless he has taken the oath of allegiance.

9. (Repealed by section 6 of Act No. 25 of 1978).

10. (Repealed by section 7 of Act No. 25 of 1978).

11. (1) Subject to this Act, a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago shall cease to be such a citizen if he acquires the citizenship of another country by voluntary act other than marriage.

Dual citizenship.
[25 of 1978
21 of 1988
63 of 2000].

(2) The Minister may cause a person who ceased to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago other than by birth or descent by reason of the voluntary acquisition of the citizenship of another country, to be granted a certificate of citizenship where that person—

- (a) makes the prescribed application;
- (b) satisfies the Minister—
 - (i) that he is of good character;
 - (ii) that he has adequate knowledge of the English Language and of the duties of a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago;
- (c) (Deleted by Act No. 63 of 2000); and
- (d) takes the oath of allegiance.

(2A) A person who being a former citizen of Trinidad and Tobago by birth or by descent, having voluntarily acquired the citizenship of another country or having renounced citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago in order to acquire citizenship of another country may, on the coming into force of this Act, make an application to the Minister on the prescribed form to have citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago restored to him.

(2B) The Minister shall by the issuance of a certificate of restoration of citizenship, restore citizenship to a person who makes an application under subsection (2A) where such a person satisfies him that he—

- (a) is not a habitual criminal within the meaning of section 7(3) of the Immigration Act; and
- (b) does not fall within the prohibited classes described in section 8(1)(b), (d)–(o), and (q) of the Immigration Act.

Ch. 18:01.

(2C) Where an applicant falls within any of the classes referred to in paragraph (2B)(b) the Minister may, in his discretion determine whether citizenship should be restored to the applicant.

(2D) A citizen of Trinidad and Tobago by birth or by descent, who acquires citizenship of another country shall not lose his citizenship by reason only of such acquisition.

(2E) A person who between 31st August, 1962 and 29th July, 1988, voluntarily acquired the citizenship of another country by voluntary act other than marriage and ceased to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago and was subsequently granted a certificate of citizenship under section 11(2) of the Act prior to the 29th July, 1988 is deemed to have re-acquired citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago on the date he ceased to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago.

(3) Any person who ceases to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago under the former Constitution by reason of his failure to renounce his citizenship of another country shall, if the citizenship of that other country was acquired involuntarily or by marriage, be deemed not to have ceased to be a citizen by reason of such failure; and, unless he has since acquired citizenship of a foreign country by voluntary act other than marriage, or he has otherwise lost his citizenship under section 14, he shall continue to be a citizen under this Act.

Naturalisation.
[25 of 1978
63 of 2000].

12. (1) The Minister may grant a certificate of naturalisation to any alien of full age and capacity who makes the prescribed application therefor and satisfies the Minister—

- (a) that he has the qualifications specified in section 7(1)(a) and (b);
- (b) that he has resided in Trinidad and Tobago throughout the period of twelve months immediately preceding the date of his application;
- (c) that during the seven years immediately preceding the said period of twelve months he has resided in Trinidad and Tobago or has had service under the Government, or has had partly such residence and partly such service, for periods amounting in the aggregate to not less than five years.

- (2) The Minister may, in such cases as he thinks fit—
- (a) allow a continuous period of twelve months ending not later than six months before the date of the application to be reckoned for the purpose of subsection (1)(b) as if it had immediately preceded that date; and
 - (b) allow periods of residence or of service earlier than the seven years preceding the date of the application to be reckoned in computing the aggregate period mentioned in subsection (1)(c).
- (3) An alien shall not be granted a certificate under this section unless he takes the oath of allegiance.

13. A person to whom a certificate of naturalisation has been granted shall become a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago by naturalisation as from the date of the certificate.

Effect of certificate of naturalisation.

13A. A person making application under section 7, 11(2) or 12 shall not be registered as a citizen or granted a certificate of citizenship or of naturalisation unless he entered Trinidad and Tobago legally and is not a member of a prohibited class within the meaning of the Immigration Act.

Restriction on registration and naturalisation. [25 of 1978].

Ch. 18:01.

PART II

LOSS OF CITIZENSHIP

14. (1) A citizen of Trinidad and Tobago who became such by registration or naturalisation or whose citizenship was restored by the Minister in accordance with this Act shall cease to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago if he is deprived of that citizenship by an Order of the Minister made under this section.

Deprivation of citizenship. [21 of 1988].

(2) Subject to this section, the Minister may by Order deprive such citizen of his citizenship if he is satisfied that the citizenship was obtained by means of fraud, false representation or the concealment of any material particular.

(3) Before making an Order under this section the Minister shall give the person against whom the Order is proposed to be made notice in writing informing him of the ground on which it is proposed to be made and, if the Order is proposed to be made on any of the grounds specified in subsection (2), of his right to an inquiry under this section.

(4) Whenever it is proposed to make an Order on any of the grounds specified in subsection (2), the Minister shall, if the person against whom the Order is proposed to be made so requests, refer the case for inquiry and report to a committee appointed by him for the purpose.

Ch. 19:01.

(5) The powers, rights and privileges of a committee appointed under subsection (4) are the same as those conferred on a commission under the Commissions of Enquiry Act and that Act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to an inquiry under this section and to a person summoned to give evidence at the inquiry.

15. (Repealed by Act No. 63 of 2000).

Renunciation of citizenship.

16. (1) Subject to this section, if any citizen of Trinidad and Tobago of full age and capacity who is or is about to become a citizen of another country and for that reason makes and registers in the prescribed manner a declaration of renunciation of his citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago, upon such registration that person shall cease to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) Where during any war in which Trinidad and Tobago is engaged, a declaration is made under this section by a person who is or is about to become a citizen of another country, that declaration shall not be registered without the consent of the Minister.

(3) For the purposes of this section a woman who has been married shall be deemed to be of full age.

Retention of citizenship after renunciation in special case.

17. Where a person who is not a citizen or national of any other country renounces his citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago but has not become a citizen or national of another country within six months of the renunciation, he shall be deemed to have remained and shall continue to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago notwithstanding the renunciation.

18. }
to } (Repealed by Act No. 25 of 1978).
21. }

PART III

[25 of 1978].

MISCELLANEOUS

22. The Minister may in such cases as he thinks fit, upon receipt of the prescribed application, grant a certificate of citizenship to a person with respect to whose citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago a doubt exists, and a certificate issued under this section is, unless it has been obtained by means of fraud, false representation or concealment of any material particular, conclusive evidence that such person was a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago on the date of the certificate, but without prejudice that he was such citizen at an earlier date.

Certificate of citizenship in cases of doubt.

23. An oath of allegiance required to be taken under this Act or under the provisions of the Constitution relating to citizenship shall be in the form specified in the Schedule.

Form of oath.

Schedule.

24. (1) A document purporting to be a notice, certificate, order, authority or declaration or an entry in a register, or subscription of an oath of allegiance, given, granted, issued or made in terms of this Act, or any law relating to nationality or naturalisation in force in Trinidad and Tobago at any time prior to the commencement of this Act shall be received in evidence and shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been given, granted, issued or made by or on behalf of the person to whom or on whose behalf it was made.

Evidence.

(2) Any entry in a register made pursuant to any written law referred to in subsection (1) shall be received as evidence of the matters stated therein.

(3) Prima facie evidence of a document referred to in subsection (1) may be given by production of a document purporting to be certified as a true copy thereof by such person and in such manner as may be prescribed.

Offences.
[25 of 1978].

25. Any person who, for the purpose of procuring anything to be done or not to be done in connection with the provisions of this Act, knowingly or recklessly makes a statement which is false in a material particular is, without prejudice to any other proceedings that might be taken against him, liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months.

Regulations.
[25 of 1978].

26. (1) The Minister may by Regulations make provisions generally for the carrying out of this Act or any of the provisions of Chapter 2 of the Constitution and in particular for—

- (a) prescribing anything which is to be prescribed in relation to or in connection with citizenship;
- (b) the registration of anything required or authorised to be registered;
- (c) the administration and taking of oaths of allegiance, for the time within which such oaths shall be taken and for the registration of such oaths;
- (d) the giving of any notice required or authorised to be given to or by any person;
- (e) the cancellation of the registration of, and the cancellation of certificates of registration or naturalisation relating to persons deprived of citizenship, and for requiring such certificates to be delivered up for those purposes;
- (f) providing for the issue of a certificate of registration or naturalisation to any person registered or naturalised as a citizen;
- (g) the imposition and recovery of fees in respect of any application made to the Minister in respect of any registration, or the grant of any certificate, or the taking of any oath of allegiance, authorised to be made, granted or taken, and in respect of supplying a certified copy of any notice, certificate, order, declaration or entry given, granted or made and for the application of such fees.

(2) Regulations made under this section shall be subject to negative resolution of Parliament.

(3) Such Regulations may contain provisions for imposing on any person contravening the Regulations, a fine recoverable on summary conviction of one thousand dollars or imprisonment for six months.

SCHEDULE

Section 23.
