PART II

LICENSING DISTRICTS AND AUTHORITIES

Division of Trinidad and Tobago into licensing districts.
[20 of 2020].
Ch. 4:20.

4. For the purposes of this Act, Trinidad and Tobago shall be divided into licensing districts which shall be coterminous with the Municipalities under the Municipal Corporations Act.

Constitution of licensing
committee.
[6 of 2014
20 of 2020
15/2022].

5. (1) There shall be a licensing committee for each Municipality which shall consist of the following members:

- (a) the Chairman, who shall be a Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court designated by the Chief Justice;
- (b) the Deputy Chairman, who shall be a senior officer of the District Courts;
- (c) one person, or his alternate, nominated by—
 - (i) the Tobago House of Assembly, in the case of Tobago; or
 - (ii) the relevant municipality;
- (d) one person nominated by the Minister in consultation with the local business associations or his alternate; and
- (e) a member of staff of the district court who shall be the secretary of the Committee.

(2) Whenever a committee sits for the transaction of business, the Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court shall be the Chairman.

(3) Three members of a licensing committee shall constitute a quorum.

(4) A member of a licensing committee shall declare any possible or perceived conflict of interest in respect of an application before the committee, and the member shall—

(a) in the case of the Chairman, withdraw from considering the application and either the Deputy Chairman shall assume the Chair or in the event that the Deputy Chairman is not present or is also conflicted, the other members present at that meeting shall elect a chairman for the purposes of the application; and

(b) in the case of any other member, withdraw from considering the application and be replaced by his alternate.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (4), a conflict of interest is deemed to arise if a member of a licensing committee makes or participates in the making of a decision and he knows or ought reasonably to know, that in the making of the decision, there was an opportunity either directly or indirectly to further his private interests or that of a member of his family or of any other person.

(6) In the event that the Chairman is absent from a meeting of a licensing committee, the Deputy Chairman shall act as Chairman.

6. A licensing committee may divide its licensing districts Licensing areas. into convenient licensing areas for the holding of licensing sessions.

7. (Repealed by Act No. 20 of 2020).

PART III

LICENCES

8. The several licences specified in the Second Schedule may Licences.
Second
Schedule. be applied for and granted subject to the provisions of this Act.

Forms of licences.

9. (1) Every licence shall be issued in the prescribed form.

(2) The Comptroller may from time to time alter the forms of licences.

Duration and date of licences.

10. Subject to this Act, every licence shall be granted for the time specified therein and shall be dated on the day on which it is granted, and shall in no case continue in force beyond the ensuing 31st of March.

Date of renewal of licence.
[18 of 1984].

11. Where any person whose licence is renewed pays the duty imposed on the new licence at the time and place prescribed for payment, the new licence shall bear date on the day following the date of expiration of the previous licence.

Licence to apply to one set of premises only.

12. A licence shall only authorise the person to whom it is granted to carry on the licensed trade in one set of premises to be specified in the licence, and the whole of the premises must be adjoining and held together for the same trade. However, no licence shall be deemed to extend to any part of such premises not described in the form of entry required by section 76.

Partnerships and companies.

13. (1) Where two or more persons carry on in partnership any trade, they shall not be required to take out in any year more than one licence for each set of premises in which the trade is carried on, and the licence shall be applied for jointly by and shall be issued in the joint names of every such person.

(2) Where a company carries on any trade, the licence shall be in the joint names of the company and of the manager or other servant required by *section 28 to appear before the licensing committee.

Proportional payments on commencement.

14. Any person who begins to carry on in any premises any trade mentioned in this Act for which a licence is required, may take out a licence on payment of a proportion of the annual duty charged thereon, as follows:

(a) if the licence is taken out within the second quarter of the current year, on payment of three-fourths of the duty; and

*Section 28 was repealed by Act No. 2 of 2002.

- (b) if the licence is taken out within the third quarter of the current year, on payment of one-half of the duty; and
- (c) if the licence is taken out within the last quarter of the current year, on payment of one-fourth of the duty.

However, a person who has previously taken out a licence for a trade shall not be entitled to the benefit of this section upon taking out a licence to carry on the same trade, whether on the same or different premises, unless one year at least has elapsed between the expiration of the previous licence and the taking out of the new licence, or unless such licence shall be additional to any licence held by him during the previous year.

15. Any person who—

- (a) has not taken out a spirit retailer's or spirit grocer's licence during the twelve months prior to his application; or
- (b) has had a spirit retailer's or spirit grocer's licence for the quarter immediately preceding the quarter for which he applies for a licence,

Quarterly payments in certain cases.

may be granted a licence on payment in advance of the duty for one complete quarter at the rate specified in the Second Schedule, and such licence shall expire on the last day of the quarter in respect of which the licence is granted; but no licence shall be granted under this section in respect of any premises for which a licence, other than a licence for the quarter immediately preceding, has been in force during a period of one year prior to the application.

Second
Schedule.

PART IV

PROCEDURE FOR OBTAINING A LICENCE

16. Subject to the provisions of this Act, licensing committees may grant certificates for the issue or renewal of licences to or for such persons as they may, in the execution of their powers under this Act and in the exercise of their discretion, think fit and proper.

Power of
licensing committees to grant certificates for the issue or renewal of licences.

L.R.O.

Issue of licences.

Second
Schedule.

17. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a licence may be issued on the payment of the appropriate duty specified in the Second Schedule and upon production of the certificate of the licensing committee authorising such issue.

(2) Subject to this Act licences shall be issued—

- (a) where the premises to be licensed are situated within the City of Port-of-Spain, by the Comptroller;
- (b) where the premises to be licensed are situated in Tobago, by the authorised officer for Tobago;
- (c) in any other case, by the authorised officer for the County in which the premises to be licensed are situated.

(3) Each authorised officer shall within fourteen days after the end of each calendar month submit to the Comptroller a return of all licences issued by him during that month.

(4) The Comptroller shall keep a register of all licences granted under this Act.

Licensing
sessions.
[18 of 1984
6 of 1993].

18. (1) Sessions for the granting of certificates for the issue or renewal of licences shall be held four times a year on convenient days to be appointed by the licensing committee in each licensing area or district, as the case may be, and any such session may, at the discretion of the licensing committee, be adjourned, either generally, or, as respects any particular applications, to such other days as the licensing committee shall think fit.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the licensing committee may, at such session, or at any adjournment thereof, grant such certificates to such persons and in respect of such premises as the licensing committee in the exercise of its discretion thinks proper.

(3) The Minister in the exercise of his discretion may direct any licensing committee to appoint and hold a special session at any other date provided a fee of one hundred and fifty dollars is paid in respect of each application considered at any such special session.

(4) The licensing committee in the exercise of its discretion may at any licensing session, or at any adjournment thereof, examine any person who in the opinion of the licensing committee is able to give any evidence relevant to the application before it and for that purpose may summon that person to appear before it.

(5) Any person who is entitled under this Act to apply for, or to object to, the grant of a new licence, or the transfer or renewal of a licence, may appear before the licensing committee in person or by an Attorney-at-law.

19. The licensing committee shall, twenty-eight days at least before each licensing session, appoint the time and place at which such session is to be held, and cause notice thereof to be inserted in the Gazette, and to be affixed in some conspicuous place or places. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any adjournment of a session.

Notice of
sessions.

20. (1) Every person desiring to obtain a new licence in respect of any premises shall, twenty-one days at least before the day appointed for the licensing session, make an application in writing to the licensing committee, and the licensing committee shall cause notice of such application to be published in the Gazette and in two newspapers circulating in Trinidad and Tobago.

Applications for licences.
[51/1980
18 of 1984
3 of 1994
4 of 2014
6 of 2014].

(2) Every such application shall state the name, occupation and residence of the applicant, and the precise situation of the premises, and the trade in respect of which a licence is applied for.

(3) Every such application shall be accompanied by a plan of the premises in respect of which the application is being made and a fee of forty dollars.

(4) Certificates for renewals may be granted at licensing sessions on written application made to the licensing committee at least fourteen days before the date fixed for the holding of the session; but where there is present at such session any person entitled under section 21(1) to object to the granting of a new licence, any such person may object to any renewal on sufficient ground to be thereupon stated and the licensing committee may in its discretion in any such case adjourn the hearing of the application to a convenient day to admit of evidence being adduced.

(4A) In the absence of any objection, a Licensing Committee may issue or renew a licence without requiring the applicant to attend before the Committee.

(5) With effect from the year 2016, an applicant for a licence under section 16 who desires to host amusement games in his premises shall, in respect of a year subsequent to the year 2014, provide the licensing committee with a certificate from the Board of Inland Revenue that the applicant is not in arrears of any gaming tax, interest or penalty payable to the Board of Inland Revenue in respect of the last six years prior to the year of application.

Certain licensed premises to host amusement games.
[4 of 2014].

20A. (1) Notwithstanding section 58, licenced premises referred to in section 35(3) or (4) may host amusement games where there are no more than twenty amusement games in operation at any given time.

(2) In respect of amusement games referred to in subsection (1), the maximum pay out sum per game of five thousand dollars shall be prominently displayed on each amusement game.

(3) The holder of a licence specified under section 35(3) or (4) who hosts amusement games on his premises, shall not permit an individual who is under the age of eighteen years, to be in that part of the premises where amusement games are conducted or to engage in amusement game activities on his premises.

(4) The holder of a licence specified under section 35(3) or (4) who hosts amusement games on his premises, shall cause to be displayed at all times, in a prominent place in that part of the premises where the amusement games are conducted, a sign, written in large, bold, upper case characters, that reads as follows:

“INDIVIDUALS UNDER THE AGE OF EIGHTEEN YEARS ARE NOT ALLOWED IN THIS PART OF THE PREMISES AND ARE PROHIBITED FROM ENGAGING IN AMUSEMENT GAME ACTIVITIES.”

(5) The holder of a licence specified under section 35(3) or (4) who knowingly permits an individual under the age of eighteen years —

- (a) to be in that part of his premises where amusement games are conducted; or
- (b) to engage in amusement game activities on his premises, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction for a first offence, to a fine of five thousand dollars, and in the case of a subsequent offence, to a fine of ten thousand dollars and the licence issued under this Act may be revoked.

(6) The holder of a licence specified under section 35(3) or (4) who fails to comply with subsection (4), commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars and the licence issued under this Act may be revoked.

20B. (1) Commencing in the year 2015, there shall be charged on all amusement games to be operated on premises referred to in section 20A, a tax to be known as a “gaming tax”, which shall be payable annually at the rate of three thousand dollars in respect of each amusement game.

Annual tax on amusement games.
[4 of 2014
16 of 2021].

(2) The holder of a licence specified in section 35(3) or (4) who desires to operate an amusement game on licenced premises shall, within fifteen days of the issue of the licence, in respect of every year commencing from the year 2015 —

- (a) submit to the Board of Inland Revenue, a return as to the number of amusement games to be used on the licensed premises, in such form as may be approved by the Board of Inland Revenue; and

(b) pay to the Board the gaming taxes in respect of every amusement game to be used on the licensed premises.

(3) The return under subsection (2) shall be signed by the holder of the licence referred to in that subsection and shall contain—

- (a) the name and address of the holder of the licence;
- (b) the operation and address of the licensed premises;
- (c) the exact number and description of the amusement games to be used on the licensed premises;
- (d) the calculation of the gaming tax payable in respect of every amusement game to be used on the licensed premises; and
- (e) the address for service of notices.

(4) Where the holder of a licence fails, neglects or refuses to submit a return for a year commencing from 2015, after six months from the time required to file the return, the holder of the licence shall, unless the Board of Inland Revenue otherwise directs, pay to the Board of Inland Revenue a sum of one hundred dollars for every six months or part thereof during which such failure, neglect or refusal continues.

Ch. 75:01. (5) The Board of Inland Revenue, in respect of the collection and recovery of the gaming tax, has all the powers as it has in relation to income tax under the Income Tax Act.

(6) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Board of Inland Revenue that the holder of the licence has paid gaming taxes in excess of the amount in respect of which the licence holder is properly chargeable, the holder of the licence shall be entitled to have the tax so paid in excess, refunded to him.

(6A) The gaming tax payable for the income year ending 31st December 2020 shall be reduced by forty-two per cent.

(6B) Notwithstanding subsection (6), where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Board of Inland Revenue that the holder of a licence has paid gaming taxes for the income year ending 31st December 2020, the holder of the licence shall be entitled to have forty-two per cent of the taxes so paid, refunded to him.

(7) Every claim for a refund under subsection (6) shall be made within one year from the end of the year to which the claim relates.

(8) Where the holder of a licence specified in section 35(3) or (4) fails to remit the gaming tax to the Board of Inland Revenue within the time specified in subsection (2), he shall be liable to pay together with the tax payable interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum on the tax.

(9) The gaming tax payable for an applicant who applies for a new certificate shall be calculated on a prorated basis for the unexpired portion of the year from the date upon which the applicant for a new certificate applies for the certificate.

(10) For the purposes of this section, an “amusement game” has the meaning assigned to it by section 10 of the Gambling and Betting Act.

Ch. 11:19.

21. (1) The owner of the premises in respect of which a new licence is applied for, and any owner or occupier of property, or a minister in charge of a place of public worship, or the managing body or manager of a government school or assisted school, situated within 400 metres therefrom, and any Officer may object, in writing, to the grant or renewal of a licence or the transfer of any licence to any new premises or person, stating the grounds of the objection, and every such objector shall be heard by the licensing committee.

*Act No. 4 of 2014 which introduced sections 20A, 20B and 20C came into operation on 3rd June 2014.

(2) Objection to the grant of a new licence or the transfer of a licence to new premises or to any person may be on any reasonable ground including any of the following grounds:

- (a) that the applicant has been convicted of an arrestable offence or of an offence for which he has been deemed a rogue and vagabond, or an idle and disorderly person, or is a person of known bad character;
- (b) that the district is already adequately served by licensed premises;
- (c) that the premises in respect of which the application is made are in too close proximity to a school or place of worship;
- (d) that the premises in respect of which the application is made are unsuitable either owing to difficulty in supervising them, size, state of repair or insanitary condition, or to the lack of sufficient means of exit in case of fire;
- (e) that a licence that the applicant had formerly held has been revoked in accordance with sections 21A and 21C.

(3) Objection to the renewal of a licence may be on any reasonable ground including any of the grounds mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e).

(3A) Where an objection to the grant, transfer or renewal of a licence is made in accordance with this section, the licensing committee shall meet with the applicant and the objector to assist them in reaching a mutually acceptable resolution.

(3B) Where the parties fail to agree to a resolution, the matter shall be heard by a Magistrate assigned for duty in the Municipality and the Magistrate may make an order approving or refusing the grant, transfer or renewal of the licence.

(4) Where the licensing committee is of opinion that the grounds of any person's objection to a renewal are unreasonable or frivolous, the licensing committee may make an order for the payment by that person to the applicant of a sum for costs (to be named in the order) which the licensing committee thinks just, and the order shall be enforced in the same manner as an order for cost by a Petty Civil Court.

Suspension and revocation of licences for discrimination.
[13 of 1997
6 of 2014].

21A. (1) A Magistrate may, on a complaint made in writing by a person to whom this section applies, suspend or revoke a licence if satisfied, by evidence, that the conduct of any trade or business on licensed premises to which the public has access is contrary to the provisions of section 21B.

(2) Where a complaint has been made against a licensee under subsection (1), the Magistrate shall summon the licensee to appear before him on the date set for the hearing of the complaint to respond to the allegations made against him and the licensee may either represent himself or be represented by an Attorney-at-law.

(3) A licensing committee may —

- (a) attach such reasonable conditions to the terms of any suspension imposed under this section as would, in its opinion, ensure that section 21B is complied with, so however that no suspension of any licence shall exceed a period of more than twenty-one consecutive days or forty-two days altogether in respect of any one complaint or group of complaints;
- (b) revoke any such licence if the conditions imposed by it have not been complied with.

(4) For the removal of doubt it is hereby declared that subject to subsection (5) nothing in this section shall be treated as having application to a members' club registered under the Registration of Clubs Act.

Ch. 21:01.

(5) Where a members' club give access to the public, or any section of the public, to the whole or any part of its premises, on special occasions in accordance with the provisions of the Registration of Clubs Act, any trade or business conducted thereon shall be done so as not to contravene section 21B.

(6) This section applies to any person who has been discriminated against in any manner, including a refusal of admission or service or refusal of access to facilities on any licensed premises, on the ground of that person's race, colour, religion or sex.

(7) The Minister may, by Order, subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament amend subsection (6) to increase the grounds on which a person may claim to have been discriminated against.

21B. (1) Discrimination on licensed premises by the owner or occupier or by any of his servants or his agents or by his associates on the ground of race, colour, religion or sex is hereby prohibited.

Discrimination on licensed premises.
[13 of 1997].

(2) In this section and in section 21A—

“associates” means any individual, partner or company having a pecuniary interest or otherwise concerned with the carrying on of any trade or business on the licensed premises in respect of which there is a complaint under section 21A;

“discrimination” means any inequality of treatment that is less favourable than that accorded to any person or group of persons and which is indicative of an intention to deal with that person or group of persons in a manner that is different from that in which the majority of other persons or a substantial number of such persons on any one occasion are treated or dealt with in that respect;

“licensed premises” includes the whole of the compound and curtilage of the premises on which the trade or business is licensed to be carried on.

(3) For the purpose of this Act, segregating a person whether by place or position or by time or occasion from other persons on the ground of race, colour, religion or sex is deemed to be discrimination.

21C. (1) A Magistrate may, on complaint made in writing by an aggrieved person, suspend or revoke a licence if satisfied, by evidence, that the conduct of any trade or business on licensed premises to which this Act applies has caused annoyance to

- (d) any person in respect of premises situated within 400 metres of any distillery, except with the permission in writing of the Comptroller.

Transfer on death of licensee, or on assignment of transfer.

31. (1) On the death of any licensed person, the licence may, save as otherwise provided by this Act, be transferred by endorsement by the licensing committee to the licensed person's personal representative, or to the person beneficially entitled to the business, or to the Administrator General or Public Trustee, or the appointee of the Administrator General or Public Trustee.

(2) On the bona fide assignment or transfer of any licensed business, the licence may, save as mentioned above, at the discretion of the licensing committee, and with the consent of the parties, be transferred by endorsement by such committee.

Second Schedule.

(3) No licence shall be transferred under this section except upon payment of the fee set out in the Second Schedule.

(4) No penalty under this Act shall be incurred by the executors or administrators or the widow or child of any licensed person who dies before the expiration of his licence, or by the trustee of any person who is adjudged bankrupt, or whose affairs are liquidated by arrangement, before the expiration of his licence, in respect of the sale or exposure for sale of any intoxicating liquor, so that such sale or exposure for sale be made on the premises specified in such licence, and takes place for not longer than twenty-eight days after the death of the said licensed person, or the appointment of a trustee in the case of his bankruptcy, or the liquidation of his affairs by arrangement. However, the Comptroller may, on reasonable cause being shown, extend the period of twenty-eight days by notice in writing.

32. Any person having a licence may apply to the appropriate licensing committee for leave to transfer his licensed trade from his licensed premises to other premises within the same licensing district. Seven days notice shall be given of the hearing of such application by the Secretary of the licensing committee to the Comptroller and also to the police officer in charge of the district, and the same may be opposed by any Officer on the ground that the premises to which it is proposed to transfer the licence are not suitable for the carrying on of such trade, or on any other proper ground. No such transfer shall be granted except upon payment of the fee set out in the Second Schedule.

(2) Any licence issued under this Act authorising any sale of, or dealing in, or retailing of spirits, shall be deemed to extend to any intoxicating liquor, and any licence issued under this Act authorising any sale of, or dealing in, or retailing of wine shall be deemed to extend to beer.

(3) A spirit retailer's licence and a wine retailer's licence shall authorise sale in any quantity for consumption either on or off the licensed premises.

(4) An hotel spirit licence, a special hotel licence, a restaurant licence, a special restaurant licence and a night bar licence shall authorise sale in any quantity, but for consumption by the persons specified below and upon the licensed premises only.

(5) A spirit grocer's licence shall authorise the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption off the licensed premises only, and in any quantity, but only in bottle.

(6) A spirit dealer's licence shall authorise the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption off the licensed premises only, and, as to quantity, as regards rum made in Trinidad and Tobago, not less than 109 litres contained in one cask, or 6.8 litres contained in bottles in one case; as regards wine not less than 3.4 litres, or, as regards any other intoxicating liquor not less than 6.8 litres, of one denomination at one time. However, the holder of any such licence may sell imported spirits in the original unbroken packages in which the same were imported, notwithstanding that the same contains less than 6.8 litres. Also, compounds manufactured in Trinidad and Tobago may be sold in quantities of not less than 0.75 of a gallon at one time.

(7) A wine merchant's licence shall authorise sale of wine or beer only, for consumption off the licensed premises only, and in quantity not less than 3.4 litres of wine, or 6.8 litres of beer at one time.

(8) (Repealed by Act No. 18 of 1984).

(9) No licence for the sale of spirits shall authorise the sale at a lower strength than 40 per cent A/c./Vol., as ascertained by the designated hydrometer, of any spirits other than brandy, imported in bottle and sold intact in the bottles in which the same were imported, compounds and foreign liqueurs; and if any spirits of a lower strength than 40 per cent A/c./Vol., other than brandy imported in bottle and sold intact in the bottles in which the same was imported, compounds and foreign liqueurs, are found upon any licensed premises, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer, and the person in whose name the premises are licensed and the manager of such premises shall each incur a penalty of five thousand dollars.

(10) If in any prosecution under subsection (9) any question arises as to whether any spirits seized are or are not brandy imported in bottle and sold intact in the bottles in which they were imported, compounds as defined in this Act, or foreign liqueurs, then and in such case the proof thereof shall lie on the defendant or the owner or claimant of such spirits.

(11) All bottles containing intoxicating liquor sold as provided in this section shall bear a legible label written or printed indicating the liquid content of each such bottle.

36. (1) Save as provided in subsection (2), a spirit dealer's licence shall be granted in respect of premises situated in Port-of-Spain, San Fernando and Scarborough only. Spirit dealers.

(2) The Minister may, in his discretion, authorise a licensing committee to grant a certificate for the issue or renewal of a spirit dealer's licence in respect of premises situated in any part of Trinidad and Tobago other than the towns specified in subsection (1).

Hotel spirit licence.

38. An hotel spirit licence shall authorise the keeper of an hotel to supply spirits, wine and beer to persons lodging at the hotel or taking a meal therein.

Conditions of grant of
licence.

39. Save as in the next succeeding sections provided, no certificate for the issue or renewal of an hotel spirit licence shall be granted by a licensing committee for any hotel containing a bar for the resort and accommodation of the public, nor in any case without the committee being satisfied that the premises sought to be licensed are bona fide an hotel, and are suitable to be licensed as an hotel for the retailing of spirits to be consumed therein.

Special hotel
licence.

40. (1) Upon being satisfied that any hotel is kept mainly for the bona fide entertainment of persons lodging or taking meals therein, a licensing committee may, at its discretion, grant a certificate for the issue or renewal of a special hotel licence for such hotel. Such licence shall be deemed to authorise the retailing of intoxicating liquors to the public for consumption on the licensed premises, without distinction of the persons to whom or the part of the premises in which liquors shall be supplied.

Second
Schedule.

(2) During the time while any tourist steamship is within the limits of a port of Trinidad and Tobago, or on the occasion of any dance, ball or other entertainment being held after closing hours in an hotel so specially licensed, the licensing committee of the district on application, and subject on each occasion to payment of the fee prescribed in the Second Schedule for an occasional licence, may authorise in writing the licensed occupier of the hotel to supply intoxicating liquors to the persons attending at any such time, during such hours and on such days as may be specified in the authority, and thereupon the occupier may lawfully supply the same.

Restaurant
licence and special restaurant
licence.

41. (1) Upon being satisfied that any restaurant is kept for the bona fide entertainment of persons using such restaurant for taking meals therein and that the premises sought to be licensed are suitable, a licensing committee may, at its discretion, grant a certificate for the issue or renewal of a restaurant licence or a special restaurant licence, as the case may be in accordance with the provisions appearing below, for such restaurant.

(2) A restaurant licence granted under this section shall authorise the sale or supply of intoxicating liquor to persons taking meals in the restaurant for consumption at such meals, at such hours as are prescribed under the Shop (Hours of Opening and Employment) Act, and not at any other time. Ch. 84:02.

(3) A special restaurant licence granted under this section shall authorise the sale of intoxicating liquor to the public for consumption on the premises at such hours as are prescribed under the Shop (Hours of Opening and Employment) Act and not at any other time.

42. Upon being satisfied that any premises are kept for the bona fide entertainment of the public and that such premises are suitable, a licensing committee may, at its discretion, grant a certificate for the issue or renewal of a night bar licence which shall authorise the retailing of spirits to be consumed on the premises at such hours as prescribed under the Shop (Hours of Opening and Employment) Act and not at any other time. In determining whether the premises are suitable for the purpose, the committee shall take into consideration the nature and locality of the premises, and the nature of the amenities provided for the entertainment of persons resorting thereto. - (b) no such licence shall be granted in any case to extend beyond the occasion in respect of which it is granted; and
- (c) such licence shall not, unless specially permitted therein, be held to permit any sale of intoxicating liquors except between the hours and on the days during which the same may be by law allowed to be sold on the premises of the applicant; but, if so specially permitted, the holder of any such licence shall not be held to have committed an offence against the Shop (Hours of Opening and Employment) Act, in respect of the sale of intoxicating liquors in accordance with the terms of such licence; and
- (d) in the case of a race meeting, the written permission of at least two of the stewards is first obtained.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the expression “public entertainment, festivity or meeting” means an entertainment, festivity or meeting to which the general public are admitted, whether without charge, or on payment of money.

(3) (a) Subject to the same conditions as are set out in subsection (1)(b) and (c), a licensing committee may, in like manner on the certificate of approval of a First Division Police Officer of the Police division in which the entertainment is to be conducted, grant an occasional licence to any person to sell intoxicating liquor at any entertainment conducted by any association of persons for the purposes of the association. Every such occasional licence shall be issued subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in the certificate of approval.

(b) Where the person who is granted the licence is not a licensed grocer or retailer of spirits, wine or beer as the case may be, he shall obtain all the intoxicating liquor to be supplied at such entertainment from a licensed grocer or retailer not earlier than the day of the entertainment, and shall return any balance unsold into the stock of the licensed person who supplied the same within forty-eight hours of the conclusion of the entertainment.

- (c) An account showing such particulars as such officer shall require, including the cost of all intoxicating liquor supplied under such licence, the amounts received from the sale thereof, and the particulars of the intoxicating liquor returned as mentioned above, shall be furnished to such officer within three days of the conclusion of the entertainment.
- (d) Any person to whom an occasional licence is granted under this subsection who fails to comply with the provisions hereof, or to carry out the conditions mentioned above, shall incur a penalty of three thousand dollars.

45. (1) The Comptroller may, on the direction of the Minister and on payment to him of such duty, if any, as the Minister may in each case determine, issue a special licence to—

(3) The officer in charge of the Police Station may object to the granting of a special event licence and his objection shall be submitted to the Licensing Authority not more than two days after the date of the receipt of the copy of the application.

Licensing Authority to grant licence where there is no objection. [3 of 1998].

47G. (1) Where there is no objection by the police, the Licensing Authority may, within four days of the receipt of the application, grant a special event licence to the applicant in respect of the premises referred to in the application.

(2) Where an objection has been submitted by the police, the Licensing Authority shall set the matter down for hearing for the day following the day on which the objection was received and such objection shall be heard and determined by a Magistrate within a reasonable time before the day on which the special event is celebrated.

Special event licence to be in the form of occasional licence with modification. [3 of 1998].

47H. A special event licence shall be in the form of the occasional licence with the words “special event licence” substituted for the words “occasional licence”.

Restriction. [3 of 1998 10 of 2021].

47I. (1) An applicant may not apply for more than one special event licence in respect of each special event.

(2) An applicant who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars.

PART VI
OFFENCES

48. (1) Save as in this Act expressly provided to the contrary, no person shall deal in, retail, sell, expose for sale, offer for sale or have in his possession or on his premises for purpose of sale, any intoxicating liquor, unless duly authorised by a licence under an Act relating to the sale of intoxicating liquor, or contrary to the terms of any such licence, or to any of the provisions of any such Act, whether specifically mentioned in any such licence or not, and any person so offending shall for each such offence incur a penalty of thirty thousand dollars in the case of spirits, or fifteen thousand dollars in any other case, and all such intoxicating liquor shall be forfeited and, if such person is the holder of a licence granted under any such Act, or, if any holder of a licence under any such Act is charged with aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of any such offence, then such holder of a licence may, on the first conviction, at the discretion of the Magistrate, and shall, on the second conviction, have his licence cancelled.

Ch. 87:54.
[6 of 1991
6 of 2014
10 of 2021].

50. Except as provided in section 44(3), no person licensed to sell spirits shall receive any spirits save by lawfully importing the same, or from a warehouse as defined in the Spirits and Spirit Compounds Act, or from some other person licensed to sell spirits, nor in any quantity less than 3.4 litres at a time of the same denomination from the same person, and any person who shall receive any spirits contrary to this section shall incur a penalty of fifteen thousand dollars.

Certificate
book.
[6 of 1991
6 of 1993].

51. (1) Every person licensed to sell spirits shall, by written request and on payment of the fee referred to in subsection (1A), obtain from an Officer a certificate book containing the prescribed forms of certificates and counterfoils, for which he must give a receipt.

(1A) The fee for a certificate book is—

- (a) fifty dollars for a book containing fifty certificates; and
- (b) one hundred dollars for a book containing one hundred certificates.

(2) Before sending out or delivering any spirits in quantity not less than 4.5 litres of the same denomination at a time for the same person, he shall enter, in one of these certificates and its counterfoil, the prescribed particulars.

(3) He shall deliver the certificate with the spirits to the person in whose name the spirits are entered in the certificate or to his servant or agent.

(4) He shall use the certificates in the order in which they are numbered in the certificate book.

(5) He shall keep the certificate book in his premises open to inspection by any Officer, and shall allow any such Officer to make entry therein, or take any extract therefrom.

(6) He shall return the certificate book when it is exhausted, or on request, to the proper Officer, who shall give a receipt for it.

52. (1) Every person licensed to sell spirits shall provide himself with and keep a stock book to be obtained on application accompanied by the fee referred to in subsection (1A) to an Officer, and shall, on receiving any spirits, and also on sending out and delivering any spirits enter in his stock book the prescribed particulars.

Stock books to be kept by licensees. [6 of 1993].

(1A) The fee for a stock book is ten dollars.

(2) He shall make the entries at such times as an Officer directs, or, in the absence of any such directions, before the expiration of the day on which the spirits are received, sent out or delivered.

(3) He shall keep the stock book on his premises open to inspection by any Officer, and shall allow any such Officer to make any entry therein or take any extract therefrom.

(4) He shall keep such stock book open to such inspection for not less than twelve months after it is filled up.

53. If a licensed person—

- (a) fails to obtain, provide, keep, produce or return a certificate book, or a stock book as by this Act required, or to make therein respectively the entries by this Act required; or
- (b) hinders or obstructs any Officer in examining a certificate book or a stock book, or in making any entry therein or extract therefrom; or
- (c) cancels, alters, obliterates or destroys any part of a certificate book or a stock book or any entry therein; or
- (d) makes a false entry in a certificate book or a stock book; or
- (e) separates any certificate, or form of certificate, from its counterfoil without properly filling up the certificate and counterfoil, or except on the occasion of sending out or delivering spirits therewith; or Penalties for removal without certificate. [6 of 2014 10 of 2021].

54. (1) If any person licensed to sell spirits sends out, delivers or receives any spirits required to be accompanied by a certificate without a certificate, or accompanied by an inaccurate certificate, he shall for each offence incur a penalty of fifteen thousand dollars, and all spirits sent out, delivered or received in contravention of this section together with all animals, vehicles, vessels and boats made use of in conveying the same shall be forfeited.

(2) A penalty shall not be incurred under this section by reason only of the spirits being in strength not more than one per cent above or two per cent below the strength expressed in the certificate.

(3) If any question arises as to the accuracy of the description of spirits in a certificate, the proof that the spirits correspond to the description shall lie on the owner or claimant of the spirits, who shall prove the same by the oath of two credible witnesses, being skilful and experienced persons competent to decide by examination thereof.

Fraudulent use of certificates. [6 of 2014 10 of 2021].

55. (1) If any person uses, or suffers to be used, any certificate taken from his certificate book, except for the removal of spirits from his own stock, or delivers or parts with any form of certificate without filling it up as required by this Act, he shall incur a penalty of fifteen thousand dollars.

(2) If any person uses a certificate or form of certificate, whether filled up or not, so that the account of spirits kept or checked by an Officer, or any examination of spirits by an Officer, is or may be frustrated or evaded, he shall incur a penalty of fifteen thousand dollars.

(3) If any person produces or suffers to be produced to any person any certificate as having been received with spirits other than those therein described, he shall incur a penalty of fifteen thousand dollars.

(4) If any person is convicted of an offence under this section, he shall forfeit his licence.

56. (1) Every licensed person shall, on receiving spirits accompanied by a permit or certificate, immediately cancel the permit or certificate, and shall deliver the cancelled permit or certificate to the Officer who first inspects his premises after the receipt thereof.

64. Any licensed wine retailer or wine merchant who has in his possession in any part of the licensed premises any spirits, shall forfeit such spirits and the vessels containing the same, and shall incur a penalty of fifteen thousand dollars.

PART VII

POWERS OF OFFICERS AND LICENSING COMMITTEES

Officers may enter licensed premises.

65. Any Officer may at any time enter into any house, premises, building, room or other place, entered, licensed, or used for the keeping, storing or selling of intoxicating liquors and examine any intoxicating liquor found therein, and may search for and take samples of any such intoxicating liquors, paying for any samples the usual price, and may inspect all books, invoices, permits and certificates relating to the trade, and may also search for and seize any intoxicating liquor for the sale of which a licence is not held.

Penalty for obstruction, etc.
[6 of 2014
10 of 2021].

66. Any person in the occupation of any house, premises, building, room or other place, or any servant or other person in his employment, or any person by his direction who refuses or fails to admit any such Officer into or upon such house, premises, building, room or other place, or wilfully impedes, resists or obstructs such Officer in such inspection, shall incur a penalty of three thousand dollars.

67. (1) If upon information given on oath it appears to any Justice that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that any intoxicating liquor is kept for the purpose of sale by any person not duly licensed in that behalf, or by any licensed person in any premises not specified in his licence, or in any manner not authorised by his licence, such Justice may by warrant under his hand directed to any Officer, authorise such Officer to enter and search such premises, and, by the said warrant, may, if he thinks fit, specially authorise such Officer to enter and search such premises at any time of the day or night, and, moreover, if he thinks fit, may specially authorise such Officer, with or without assistance, to break open or otherwise use force in order to effect an entry to such premises.

Officer may enter suspected premises.
[6 of 2014
10 of 2021].

(2) If, upon search under this section, any such intoxicating liquor, or any vessel used for holding or measuring the same is found, the Officer executing the warrant may take possession of and secure such liquor or vessel; and he may apprehend and bring before a Magistrate, not only the person in whose premises the same are found, but also every other person found in such premises, who appears to have been employed or assisting in the selling of intoxicating liquor, and unless it appears to such Magistrate that such intoxicating liquor was not deposited for the purpose of being sold in such premises, the person in whose premises such intoxicating liquor is found, and every person so appearing to have been employed or assisting in the selling thereof in such premises, shall incur a penalty of fifteen thousand dollars.

(3) All intoxicating liquor found on any search under this section together with all vessels used for holding or measuring the same, or in any way in and about the selling thereof shall, upon any conviction in respect thereof, be forfeited to the State.

(4) Every warrant under this section shall remain in force for one month from the date thereof, and it shall be no defence to any charge that the liquor found on the premises was deposited or brought thereon after the issue of the warrant.

Power of Officers as to sampling, etc.

68. Any Officer shall at all times, in relation to intoxicating liquors and to any substance, liquor, or ingredient which may be mixed with intoxicating liquors, and the use or possession of which shall have been prohibited by the Minister, have the same powers as if he had been one of the functionaries mentioned in section 20 of the Food and Drugs Act.

Ch. 30:01.

Members of licensing committees may enter licensed
premises.
[6 of 2014
10 of 2021].

69. (1) Any member of a licensing committee may at any time enter into any premises in respect of which an application for a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquors, wine or beer or for a renewal of such a licence has been made and inspect such premises for the purpose and the advisability of granting or renewing the licence.

(2) If any person in occupation of such premises, or any servant or other person in his employment, or any person by his direction, refuses or fails to admit any such member into such premises, or wilfully impedes, restricts or obstructs such member in his inspection, he shall incur a penalty of three thousand dollars.

PART VIII

PROCEDURE

Procedure.

70. Subject to the express provisions of any Excise Act, any offence under this Act may be prosecuted, and any penalty or forfeiture incurred may be sued for, prosecuted and recovered in the manner provided by the Summary Courts Act on the complaint of any Officer.

Ch. 4:20.

Mode of describing offence of unlicensed sale.

71. In the recovery of any penalty under this Act for selling or supplying on sale intoxicating liquors without a licence or in a manner unauthorised by a licence, it shall be sufficient to allege that the defendant sold either beer, spirits or wine, without having in force a licence authorising him so to do; and it shall not be necessary further or otherwise to describe the offence.

72. (1) In proving the sale of intoxicating liquor it shall not be necessary to show that any money actually passed, if the Magistrate be satisfied that a transaction in the nature of a sale took place.

Evidence of sale or consumption of intoxicating liquors.

(2) In proving consumption of intoxicating liquor, it shall be sufficient to show that consumption was about to take place.

(3) Proof of consumption or intended consumption of intoxicating liquor on licensed premises by some person, other than the occupier or a member of his family or a servant in such premises, shall be evidence that such liquor was sold to the person consuming or carrying away or being about to consume or carry away the same.

73. (1) Where a trade or business for the carrying on of which a licence is required under any Excise Act is carried on without licence by a partnership or by a company the partners or the company, as the case may be, and also the directors or members of the governing body of the company by whatever name called, or any of them, shall be liable to all fines and penalties imposed by any Excise Act in relation to the trade or business so carried on.

Liability of partners, etc., for unauthorised sale.

(2) If any intoxicating liquor, for the sale of which a licence is required, is sold in any premises by any person who is unknown or is not licensed for that purpose, the occupier of the premises, if privy or consenting to the sale, shall be deemed to be the seller of the same, and if such sale is not authorised by a licence, shall be liable to the penalties imposed by this Act in respect of such sale.

Liability of occupier for unauthorised sale.

74. Where a pecuniary penalty is imposed by this Act the Magistrate shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 68(2) of the Interpretation Act, impose the full penalty in any case for a third or subsequent offence, or for any offence committed by a person who has previously been licensed and whose licence has been cancelled.

PART IX
GENERAL

Sign boards.
[6 of 2014
10 of 2021].

75. (1) Every licensed person shall paint or place and fix or cause to be painted or placed and fixed upon the outside of the front of his premises, in letters publicly visible and legible and of the size and colour prescribed, his full name, and also, where the trade is carried on by a company, the name of the company, and after the name the word “licensed” adding thereto the words necessary to express the trade for which the licence has been granted.

(2) If any person does not paint or place and fix such letters as mentioned above, or does not keep the same so painted or placed and fixed, he shall incur a penalty of fifteen thousand dollars.

(3) If any person puts or has any such letters as mentioned above upon his premises falsely importing that he is licensed to carry on any such trade, or that he is licensed to carry on any trade other than that which he is in truth licensed to carry on, he shall incur a penalty of thirty thousand dollars.

Persons licensed to make entry.
[6 of 2014
10 of 2021].

76. (1) Every person licensed under this Act, except in the case of licences granted under sections 44 and 45, shall in accordance with the prescribed regulations and in the prescribed form, make with an Officer, entry in duplicate in writing signed by him of every house, building, room and of every fixed cask, vessel or utensil intended to be used by him for the keeping or storing of or dealing in or retailing of intoxicating liquor.

(2) One copy of every such entry shall be given to the Officer by the licensed person and the other copy thereof shall be retained by the licensed person and shall be produced by him on the demand of an Officer.

(3) Any person who—

- (a) commences or carries on business without making such entry;
- (b) includes in such entry any part of any premises not bona fide occupied by him for the purposes of his business; or

(c) fails or refuses to produce the copy of such entry so retained by him on the demand of an Officer, shall incur a penalty of nine thousand dollars.

77. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to impose any penalty —

Soliciting or taking orders for goods, etc.

- (a) on any person in the employment of any licensed person soliciting or taking orders for intoxicating liquor to be sold by the employer in the manner authorised by any Act regulating his trade; or
- (b) on any person certified under the hand of the Comptroller to be the travelling agent of some person resident outside Trinidad and Tobago soliciting or taking orders for the supply of intoxicating liquor by such person resident outside Trinidad and Tobago to any licensed person or registered club within Trinidad and Tobago; or
- (c) on any auctioneer selling, or offering for sale, by auction, any intoxicating liquor on behalf of a licensed person on the licensed premises of such person, or, subject to the express permission in writing of the Comptroller, any intoxicating liquor legally and bona fide purchased by an unlicensed person for his own domestic consumption, on behalf of such person; or
- (d) subject to the express permission in writing of the Comptroller, on any unlicensed person selling any intoxicating liquor that has been legally and bona fide purchased by him for his own domestic consumption; or
- (e) on any bailiff, auctioneer or other person selling, or offering for sale, by auction, any intoxicating liquor seized under or by virtue of any warrant of distress issued by a competent authority, or under any Customs or Excise Act; or
- (f) on any person selling or offering for sale any intoxicating liquor certified by the Comptroller to be unfit for consumption as a beverage and used solely as a flavouring agent, provided the same is sold under a trade name and in the original containers as supplied by the manufacturers.

Exceptions. 78. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to make illegal any sale or delivery of or dealing in any intoxicating liquors by a licensed distiller or licensed compounder or licensed brewer in the manner authorised by any Act regulating the trade of such person.

Medicines. 79. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to make illegal any lawful dispensing of spirits in the preparation of medicines, or any sale or delivery of a bona fide medicine or medicinal or toilet preparation.

Action to recover debts for intoxicating liquor. 80. No action or suit shall be maintainable to recover any debt or sum of money alleged to be due in respect of the sale of any intoxicating liquor which was delivered for consumption on the premises where sold or supplied.

Supply on premises compulsory. 81. Subject to the provisions of section 62(1), no holder of a spirit or wine retailer's licence may refuse to supply spirits, wine or beer for consumption on the licensed premises on the demand of any person at any hour at which the same may lawfully be supplied unless he has reasonable grounds for believing that such person is likely under the influence of intoxicating liquor to behave in an unseemly or objectionable manner.

Rewards. 82. The Comptroller may, with the approval of the Minister, reward any person who informs him of any offence against this Act, or assists in the recovery of any fine or penalty.

Regulations and forms. 83. The Comptroller may, with the approval of the Minister, make Regulations—

- (a) for the conduct of business in his department under the provisions of this Act;
- (b) prescribing forms to be used in respect of any application, certificate, notice, licence or other

- document relating to any matter or thing to be done under the provisions hereof, including the forms to be used in respect of any application to the licensing committee at licensing sessions; and
- (c) prescribing any matter which is to be or may be prescribed under the provisions of this Act.

83A. The Minister may make Regulations, subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament for the effective carrying out of section 21A.

Regulations to give effect to section 21A. [13 of 1997].

84. The duties and fees chargeable under this Act, and specified in the Second Schedule, may at any time be varied by Order of the Minister, subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament.

Duties may be altered by resolution. Second Schedule.

85. All evidence given before a licensing committee under this Act shall be on oath which the committee or any member thereof is hereby authorised to administer.

Evidence to be on oath.

86. Where licensed premises have been destroyed or have ceased to be used for the purpose for which they were licensed, the licensee may, on the certificate of the Comptroller, be granted a refund of a proportionate part of the licence duty paid in respect of his licence as follows:

Refund of licensed duty.

- (a) if the premises have been destroyed or have ceased to be used as mentioned above during the first quarter of the year, three-fourths of the licence duty;
- (b) if the premises have been destroyed or have ceased to be used as mentioned above during the second quarter of the year, one half of the licence duty;
- (c) if the premises have been destroyed or have ceased to be used as mentioned above during the third quarter of the year, one quarter of the licence duty.

87. Any person to whom a licence has been granted under this Act may surrender the same to the authority by whom it was issued.

Surrender of licence.
