- (f) review—
 - (i) legislation affecting the financial system; and
 - (ii) developments in the field of banking and financial services,which appear to it to be relevant to the exercise of its powers and the discharge of its duties; and
- (g) generally, have the powers and undertake the duties and responsibilities assigned to it by any other law.

(4) Neither the Bank, a director, an officer, an employee nor any person acting on behalf of the Bank is liable for any action, claim or demand or any liability in damages or any other remedy whatever including costs, for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of the functions of the Bank under this Act or any other written law, unless it is shown that the act or omission was reckless or in bad faith.

Place of business.

4. (1) The Bank shall have its head office in the City of Port-of-Spain in the Island of Trinidad.

(2) The Bank may establish branches and agencies and appoint agents and correspondents in Trinidad and Tobago and elsewhere.

Board of Directors.
[23 of 1994].

5. The Bank shall be managed by a Board of Directors comprised of a Governor, not more than two Deputy Governors and not less than six other directors, two of whom may be public service directors.

6. (1) The seal of the Bank shall be kept in the custody of the Governor or a Deputy Governor and shall be authenticated by the Governor or a Deputy Governor and a director authorised by the Board to act in that behalf.

Custody and use of seal. [23 of 1994].

(2) All documents, other than those required by law to be under seal, made by, and all decisions of, the Board may be signified under the hand of the Governor or a Deputy Governor.

7. (1) The Governor, Deputy Governors and the other directors shall be appointed by the President by instrument in writing.

Appointment and tenure of office of Governor, Deputy Governors and other directors. [23 of 1994 25 of 2020].

(2) The Governor shall be appointed for a term of not less than three years but no more than five years.

(3) The term of office of a Deputy Governor shall be for such period as the President may fix in the instrument of appointment.

(4) The ordinary directors and the public service directors shall be appointed for a term of three years.

(5) All directors shall be eligible for reappointment.

8. (1) The Governor and Deputy Governors shall be men of proven financial experience and each shall devote the whole of his time to the service of the Bank and while holding office shall not occupy any other office of employment whether remunerated or not.

Qualifications of Governor, Deputy Governors and directors. [23 of 1994].

(2) The ordinary directors shall be selected from amongst persons drawn from diverse occupations appearing to the President to be qualified by reason of their experience and capacity in matters relating to finance, economics, accountancy, industry, commerce, law or administration.

(2A) The public service directors shall be—

(a) an officer of the Ministry of Finance; and

(b) an officer of the Ministry or appropriate department of Government responsible for economic planning.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Governor and the Deputy Governor of the Bank may, with approval of the Minister—

- (a) act as members of any committee or commissions appointed by the Government to enquire into any matter affecting currency, banking or economic or financial matters relating to Trinidad and Tobago;
- (b) become governors, directors or members of the Board of any international bank, monetary authority or other agency to which the Government subscribes, contributes or gives support;
- (c) become directors of any company or corporation or other body in which the Government or the Bank holds stock, shares or otherwise participates.

15. (1) The Governor shall be the Chairman of the Board and shall preside at the meetings of the Board.

Meetings.

(2) The Board shall meet for the transaction of the business of the Bank as may be necessary or expedient, but at least once in every two months and not less than nine times in any calendar year.

Special meetings.

(3) The Chairman may at any time call a special meeting of the Board.

(4) The Chairman shall, within seven days of the receipt by him of a request in writing addressed to him by any member of the Board, call a special meeting of the Board.

Quorum.

(5) The quorum of the Board shall consist of the Chairman and three other members of the Board.

(6) The decisions of the Board shall be adopted by a majority of the votes and in addition to an original vote, in any case in which the voting is equal, the Chairman presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote.

Decisions of the Board.

16. (1) Any member of the Board, whose interest is likely to be affected whether directly or indirectly by a decision of the Board on any matter whatsoever, shall disclose the nature of his interest at the first meeting of the Board at which he is present after the relevant facts have come to his knowledge.

Directors to declare their interest. [23 of 1994].

(2) A disclosure under subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board and after the disclosure the member making the disclosure shall, unless the Board otherwise directs, not be present or take part in the deliberations or vote at any meeting during the time when such matter is being decided by the Board.

(3) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of six thousand dollars and imprisonment for two years.

17. (1) The Bank may appoint, at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions, such officers and employees as it considers necessary or appropriate for the efficient conduct of the business of the Bank.

Power to employ and train. [GN 51/1980 2 of 1986].

(2) (Repealed by Act No. 2 of 1986).

(3) The Bank may provide out of its funds and make such arrangements for the training of any of its officers or employees or other persons as it may consider expedient for the efficient conduct of the business of the Bank.

(4) Nothing contained in the Pensions Extension Act shall apply or be deemed to apply to officers and employees appointed by the Bank under subsection (1).

Ch. 23:53.

18. The Bank shall provide pension benefits for officers and employees of the Bank.

Pension benefits. [23 of 1994].

Transfer on secondment.
[23 of 1994].

19. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Minister and the Bank may make appropriate arrangements for the transfer on secondment of any officer in the service of the Government to the service of the Bank or from the service of the Bank to the service of the Government.

(2) Where a transfer on secondment contemplated by subsection (1) is effected, the Government or the Bank, as the case may require, shall make such arrangements as may be necessary to preserve the rights of the officer so transferred to any pension, gratuity or other allowance for which he would have been eligible had he remained in the service of the Government or of the Bank, as the case may be.

(3) A period of transfer on secondment shall not in any case exceed five years.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law to the contrary, an officer or employee appointed by the Bank under section 17(1) or an officer transferred on secondment to the service of the Bank from the service of the Government shall not during the period of such appointment or transfer on secondment, as the case may be, be regarded as the holder of an office in the service of the Government.

(5) The Bank may make appropriate arrangements for the transfer on secondment of any person—

(a) in its employ to an organisation; or

(b) from an organisation to its employ,

on such terms and conditions as may be acceptable to the Bank, the person concerned and the organisation.

(6) In this section, “organisation” means the Tobago House of Assembly, a statutory authority and a company registered under the Companies Act.

Ch. 81:01.

Transfer of officers of Government to the Bank.

20. (1) An officer in the service of the Government may, with the approval of the Minister, be transferred to the service of the Bank and upon such transfer shall become a member of the Pension Scheme referred to in section 18, or if such officer’s transfer becomes effective before the establishment of that Scheme, he shall become a member within one year of its establishment.

(2) A transfer described in subsection (1) shall be on such terms as may be acceptable to the Government, the Bank and the officer concerned.

Ch. 23:01.

Ch. 88:01.

Consultation and negotiation
with the Bank.
[23 of 1994].

20B. (1) The Bank shall provide for and establish procedures for consultation and negotiation between the Bank and—

- (a) in the case of employees other than estate constables, a recognised association; and
- (b) in the case of employees who are estate constables, the Estate Police Association, in respect of—

- (c) the classification of jobs;
- (d) the terms and conditions of employment;
- (e) the rights, privileges or duties of the Bank, the recognised association, the Estate Police Association employees or estate constables;
- (f) the regulation of the mutual relationship between the Bank and the recognised association or the Estate Police Association; and
- (g) grievances connected with or arising out of the employment relationship between the Bank and the employees, including grievances related to the termination or suspension of employment of any employee.

(2) The Bank shall from time to time consult and negotiate with representatives of a recognised association or the Estate Police Association with respect to the matters specified in subsection (1)—

- (a) at the request of those representatives; or
- (b) whenever in the opinion of the Bank such consultation is necessary or desirable.

(3) Sections 40 to 43 of the Supplemental Police Act shall apply to consultations, negotiations, disputes and agreements between the Bank and the Estate Police Association. Ch. 15:02.

20C. (1) Where the Bank and the recognised association reach agreement on any of the matters specified in section 20B(1) after consultation and negotiation in accordance with section 20B(2), the agreement shall be recorded in writing and shall be signed by the Bank and by the recognised association. Where agreement reached. [23 of 1994].

(2) Subject to such modifications as may be necessary, the registration of an agreement shall be governed by Part IV of the Industrial Relations Act. Ch. 88:01.

(3) An agreement recorded and signed in accordance with subsection (1) is binding upon the Bank and the employees to whom the agreement relates.

20D. (1) Where the Bank consults and negotiates with a recognised association under section 20B(2) and the Bank and the recognised association are, within twenty-one days of the commencement of the consultation and negotiation, or within such further period as may be agreed upon, unable to reach agreement on any matter, the Bank or the recognised association shall report the matter on which no agreement has been reached to the Minister, and on the report being made, a dispute shall be deemed to exist as to such matter. Where no agreement reached. [23 of 1994].

(2) The Minister shall as soon as possible after a dispute has been reported to him, take such steps as he may consider advisable to secure within fourteen days next after the date of the report, a settlement of the dispute by means of conciliation.

(3) The Bank and the appropriate recognised association may agree in writing to extend the time specified in subsection (2), including any further extension of time under this subsection, within which the Minister may take steps to secure a settlement of the dispute by means of conciliation.

Disputes to be referred to Special Tribunal. [23 of 1994].

20E. (1) Where in pursuance of section 20D(3) it is agreed to extend the time within which the Minister may secure by means of conciliation, a settlement of the dispute, he may continue to take such steps.

(2) Where the Minister is satisfied—

(a) that no useful purpose would be served by continuing to conciliate; or

(b) that either the Bank or the appropriate recognised association or the Estate Police Association refuses to enter into conciliation in good faith, he shall refer the dispute to the Special Tribunal within twenty-one days from the date on which the dispute was reported to him.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, the parties to a dispute are the Bank and the recognised association.

Powers of Special Tribunal. [23 of 1994].

Ch. 88:01.

20F. (1) The Special Tribunal shall hear and determine any dispute referred to it under section 20E and, for that purpose, has all the powers and duties of the Essential Services Division of the Industrial Court that are vested therein by the Industrial Relations Act.

(2) An award, order or other determination of the Special Tribunal is final.

Awards to be binding on parties for fixed period. [23 of 1994].

20G. (1) An award of the Special Tribunal under section 20F is binding on the parties to the dispute and all employees to and on all employees to whom the award relates and continues to be binding for a period, to be specified in the award, not less than five years from the date upon which the award takes effect.

(2) The Special Tribunal may, with the agreement of the parties to an award, review the award at any time after the expiry of the third year.

Association to make Rules. [23 of 1994].

20H. (1) Every recognised association shall make Rules providing for the good government of the association and for carrying out the objects of the association and, with respect to such Rules, the following shall have effect:

(a) the Rules shall contain provisions in respect of the several matters mentioned in the Schedule;

Schedule.

(b) a copy of the Rules and every amendment thereto shall be delivered by the association to every financial member of the association, on payment of the prescribed sum.

(2) The Rules of the association and every amendment thereto shall be filed by the association with the Registrar General and shall have effect from the date of filing, unless a later date is specified from which they shall have effect.

PART II

CURRENCY AND LEGAL TENDER

21. (1) The currency of Trinidad and Tobago are the notes and coins issued by the Bank under this Act. Currency of Trinidad and Tobago. [23 of 1994].

(2) The Bank has the sole right to issue notes and coins in Trinidad and Tobago and such notes and coins are legal tender in Trinidad and Tobago.

(3) (Repealed by Act No. 23 of 1994).

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), currency notes and coins issued by the Currency Board under section 4(1)(a) of the repealed Currency Ordinance shall be deemed to continue to be legal tender in Trinidad and Tobago until the 1st January 1966 or at such earlier date as the Minister may determine by notice published in the Gazette; but the holders of any such notes or coins are entitled to claim from the Bank payment of the face value of those notes or coins within one year after the 1st December 1994. 15 of 1959.

22. The unit of currency is the Trinidad and Tobago dollar which shall be divided into one hundred cents. Unit of currency.

23. (1) The par value of the Trinidad and Tobago dollar shall be determined on such basis as the President may, by Order declare. Par value of Trinidad and Tobago dollar. [10 of 1993].

(2) An Order made under this section is subject to negative resolution of the House of Representatives.

(3) In this section “standard” means a unit of account accepted by international financial organisations for the purpose of settling international financial transactions.

Notes and coins exempt from taxation. [23 of 1994].

24. Notes and coins issued by the Bank are exempt from the payment of stamp duties and from all levies, taxes and other impositions, both before and after issue.

Issue of currency.

25. The Bank shall—

- (a) arrange for the printing of notes and minting of coin for circulation in Trinidad and Tobago;
- (b) issue, re-issue and exchange notes and coins at the Bank’s offices and at such branches and agencies as the Bank may from time to time establish or appoint;
- (c) arrange for the safe custody of unused stocks of currency and for the preparation, safe custody and destruction of plates and paper for the printing of notes and of dies for the minting of coins.

Denominations and form of notes and coins. [23 of 1994].

26. (1) Notes and coins issued by the Bank—

- (a) shall be in such denominations of the dollar or fractions thereof as may be approved by the Minister;
- (b) shall be of such forms and designs and bear such devices as may be approved by the Minister.

(2) Coins issued by the Bank shall be of such standard weight and composition and the amount of remedy or variation from the standard weight or composition as may be prescribed by the Minister.

(3) Subject to subsections (5) and (6) and section 27(2), a tender of payment of money is legal if made as follows:

- (a) in the case of notes, for the payment of any amount;
- (b) in the case of coins of a denomination of one dollar or over, for the payment of an amount not exceeding five hundred dollars;

- (c) in the case of coins of a denomination of twenty-five cents and over, for the payment of an amount not exceeding two hundred dollars;
- (d) in the case of coins of a denomination of under twenty-five cents, for the payment of an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars.

(4) The Minister may by Order vary the amounts referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subsection (3).

(5) A note that is mutilated, defaced or impaired or that has been reduced in size so that the identification marks have become unrecognisable is not legal tender.

(6) A coin that is bent, mutilated or defaced, or that has been reduced in weight, otherwise than by abrasion through ordinary use, is not legal tender.

27. (1) The Bank, with the approval of the Minister, may on giving three months' notice published in the Gazette call in any of its notes and coins on payment of the face value thereof and any such notes or coins with respect to which a notice has been given under this section shall, on the expiration of the notice, cease to be legal tender, but shall be redeemed at face value by the Bank upon such conditions as may be prescribed.

Redemption of notes and coins.

(2) A person is not entitled to recover from the Bank the value of any lost, stolen, mutilated or impaired note, or the value of any coin lost, stolen or tampered with.

Refund of lost and stolen coins.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Bank may in its absolute discretion as an act of grace refund the value of a mutilated or impaired note or a coin which has been tampered with.

Discretion of the Bank to refund mutilated or impaired notes and coins.

27A. (1) In addition to the powers of the Bank under section 27, the Minister may direct the Bank to cancel any note issued by it by giving not less than fourteen days' notice published in the Gazette of the date of cancellation.

Redemption and cancellation of notes. [22 of 2019].

(2) On or from the appointed date the specified notes shall cease to be the currency of or be legal tender in Trinidad and Tobago and subject to subsection (4), shall for all purposes be cancelled and be of no value.

(3) The Bank shall redeem at face value any specified notes which are presented for redemption prior to the appointed date.

(4) The Bank shall redeem at face value any of the specified notes that are presented within the period of three months after the appointed date if it is satisfied that the failure to present the notes for redemption prior to the appointed date resulted from circumstances beyond the control of the true owner of the notes or that there was some other good or sufficient reason for the failure.

(5) The Minister may by Order extend the date or period in subsections (1) and (4) in any case or class of cases where he considers it appropriate to do so.

(6) The Bank, with the approval of the Minister, may prescribe such conditions and procedures as it considers appropriate for the redemption of specified notes in accordance with subsections (3) and (4).

(7) In accordance with sections 21 and 26, the Bank may with the approval of the Minister issue notes of the same face value to replace the specified notes, provided that the replacement notes are of a different design.

(8) For the purposes of this section—
“appointed date” in relation to any note means the date of cancellation specified in the notice published in accordance with subsection (1);

“specified notes” means the notes specified in the notice published in accordance with subsection (1).

Bills and notes payable on demand. [23 of 1994].

28. (1) Except as provided by subsection (2), no person shall for the purpose of putting such instrument into circulation draw, accept, make or issue any bill of exchange, promissory note or engagement for the payment of money payable to bearer on demand or borrow, owe or take up any sum or sums of money, or any bill of exchange, promissory note or engagement for the payment of money payable only to bearer on demand of any such person.

(2) Cheques or drafts payable to bearer on demand, may, in the usual course of commercial practice, be drawn on bankers or agents by their customers.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to bank notes issued before the coming into operation of this Act by banks duly authorised to issue such notes.

(4) Any person contravening subsection (1) is, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law, liable on summary conviction to a fine of thirty thousand dollars and to a term of imprisonment for four years.

(5) A prosecution under this section shall not be instituted except with the approval of the Board.

29. (1) Subject to subsection (2), any person who makes or causes to be made or uses for any purpose whatsoever, or utters any document purporting to be or in any way resembling or so nearly resembling as to be calculated to deceive, any currency note or any part thereof, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars and to a term of imprisonment for seven years; and the Court shall order the document in respect of which the offence was committed and any copies of that document and any plates, dies or other instruments used for or capable of being used for printing or reproducing any such documents, which are in the possession of the offender to be delivered to the Bank.

Imitation of currency notes.
[23 of 1994].

(2) A person who, with the prior approval of the Bank, reproduces a currency note or part thereof that resembles a currency note issued by the Bank, is not liable for that reproduction.

(3) In this section, “document” includes any form or manner of reproduction.

30. Any person who wilfully and without lawful authority or excuse (the onus of proof of such lawful authority shall be on the person accused) mutilates, cuts, tears or perforates with holes any note issued by the Bank under this Act or in any way defaces a note whether by writing, printing, drawing or stamping thereon, or by attaching or affixing thereto anything in the nature of an advertisement, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of two thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months.

PART III

CAPITAL AND RESERVE

34. (1) The authorised capital of the Bank is one hundred million dollars.

Capital of the Bank.
[2 of 1986
23 of 1994].

(2) (Repealed by Act No. 23 of 1994).

(3) The paid-up portion of the authorised capital may be increased by such amount as the Minister may from time to time approve and the Government shall subscribe and pay the amount of such increase to the Bank from the Consolidated Fund.

(4) The authorised capital of the Bank may, with the approval of the Minister, be increased by resolution of the Board and any such resolution shall be ratified by Parliament.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the paid-up portion of the authorised capital shall be increased each year by not less than fifteen per cent of the amount to be paid into the Consolidated Fund until the paid-up portion of the authorised capital is equal to the authorised capital.

35. (1) The Bank shall establish and maintain a General Reserve Fund.

General and Special Reserve Funds.
[23 of 1994].

(2) The Bank may, with the approval of the Minister, establish Special Reserve Funds of specified amounts.

(3) The Bank may place in the General Reserve Fund or the Special Reserve Funds, or in both the General Reserve Fund and the Special Reserve Funds, an amount that does not exceed ten per cent of the net profit of the Bank for a financial year.

(4) The net profit of the Bank for a financial year shall be determined after—

- (a) allowing for the expenses of operations, including replacement and acquisition of assets for the operations of the Bank;
- (b) provision has been made for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation in assets, contribution to staff pension benefits and other contingencies.

(5) Subject to subsection (7), at the end of each financial year, after allowing for the amount referred to in subsection (3), the net profit of the Bank shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

(6) When the sum standing to the credit of the General Reserve Fund equals the authorised capital of the Bank, no further contribution to the General Reserve Fund shall be made.

(7) Any loss incurred by the Bank during a financial year may be met from the General Reserve Fund or from the Special Reserve Funds where the General Reserve Fund is insufficient.

(8) Where the General Reserve Fund and the Special Reserve Funds are insufficient for the purpose referred to in subsection (7), the Bank, with the approval of the Minister, may carry forward and recoup the losses from future profits before further payment is made into the Consolidated Fund.

 - (ix) in the case of an insurance company, to make an application to the High Court for an order to amend or suspend terms of contracts of insurance when a course of resolution action is pursued which involves a restructuring or transfer of business and, where in the opinion of the Central Bank, it is most advantageous to the general interests of the policyholders and the financial condition of the insurance company.

(2) The powers of the Bank under subsection (1) shall not be exercised unless the Bank is also of the opinion that the financial system of Trinidad and Tobago is in danger of disruption, substantial damage, injury or impairment as a result of the circumstances giving rise to the exercise of such powers.

(3) Pursuant but without prejudice to its powers under subsection (1), the Bank may appoint any person or persons to act as Receiver or Manager and such appointment shall take effect as though made by the depositors and other creditors of the Company pursuant to a charge over all the fixed and floating assets of the institution and without prejudice to any other powers vested in such Receiver or Manager the Receiver or Manager shall have power—

- (a) to take possession of, collect and get in any property of the institution and for that purpose to take any proceedings in the name of the institution or otherwise as may seem expedient;

- (b) to carry on, manage or concur in carrying on and managing the business of the institution or any part thereof and for any of those purposes to raise or borrow any money that may be required on the security of the whole or any part of the property of the institution;
- (c) forthwith to sell or concur in selling (but where necessary with the leave of the Court) and to let or concur in letting and to accept surrenders of leases or tenancies of all or any of the property of the institution and to carry any such sale, letting or surrender into effect by conveying, leasing, letting or accepting surrenders in the name and on behalf of the institution; and any such sale may be for cash, debentures, other obligations, shares, stock or other valuable consideration and may be payable in a lump sum or by instalments spread over such period as the Bank shall think fit and plant machinery and other fixtures may be severed and sold separately from the premises containing them without the consent of the institution being obtained thereto;
- (d) to make any arrangement or compromise which he shall think expedient;
- (e) to make and effect or repair renewals and any improvements of the institution's equipment and effects and to maintain or renew all insurances;
- (f) to appoint managers, agents, officers, servants and workmen for any of the aforesaid purposes at such salaries and for such periods as he may determine;
- (g) to do all such other acts and things as may be considered to be incidental or conducive to any of the matters or powers aforesaid and which he or they lawfully may or can do as agent for the Company.

(4) In the event of a natural disaster, internal disorder or, where in the opinion of the Governor a financial crisis exists in the country, the Governor, with the approval of the Minister, may take such action with respect to the operations of financial institutions and monetary policy as he deems to be necessary in the interest of the financial system.

(5) If the Governor is unable to obtain prior approval of the Minister because of any of the events mentioned in subsection (1), he shall notify the Minister and the Board of the action taken as soon as possible thereafter.

(6) The Board shall designate the following persons to exercise the powers of the Governor under subsections (4) and (5) in the event that the Governor is absent or otherwise unable at the appropriate time to do so:

- (a) a Deputy Governor and in the event of the absence or inability of that Deputy Governor, the other Deputy Governor; and
- (b) in the event of the absence or inability of the Deputy Governors, a director.

(7) Within fourteen days of taking action under subsection (4), or as soon as possible thereafter, the Governor shall submit to the Minister, a statement setting out the reasons on which his decision to act under subsection (4) was based.

(8) The Minister shall cause a copy of the statement referred to in subsection 7 to be laid before Parliament as soon as possible after his receipt of the statement.

44E. (1) Where the Bank proposes to exercise powers under section 44D(1)(ii), it shall publish in the Gazette and in such newspapers as it thinks appropriate a notification to that effect.

(2) The notification shall state—

- (a) the property and undertaking it proposes to take over;
- (b) the powers to control it proposes to exercise, and shall give such particulars as the Bank considers necessary for the information of persons having business dealings with the institution.

(3) Upon the publication of the notification the property and the powers of control stated therein shall vest in the Bank.

(4) A notification under this section may be amended or supplemented from time to time by subsequent notification in the Gazette and the notification shall have effect as so amended or supplemented.

Notification of takeover of property and control, and stay
of proceedings.
[2 of 1986
18 of 2011
2 of 2012].

(5) On and after the publication of a notification under subsection (1)—

- (a) no creditor, shareholder, depositor, policyholder or any other person shall have any remedy against the institution in respect of any claim, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, no creditor, shareholder, depositor, policyholder or any other person shall commence or continue any action, execution or other proceedings or seek to enforce in any way whatsoever without limitation in Trinidad and Tobago, any judgment or order obtained in Trinidad and Tobago or any other jurisdiction, against the institution or its successor or the transferee of the whole or any part of any property, assets or undertaking of the institution for the recovery of any claim or in respect of any other liability, until the publication of a notification under paragraph (b) or section 44G(1) in relation to the institution;
- (b) where the Bank has not yet published a notification under section 44G(1) in relation to an institution, the Bank may where it deems appropriate publish a notification to lift the stay under paragraph (a), (d) or (e), except that no person shall take any steps to institute winding up, receivership, administration or any other related proceedings in relation to that institution;
- (c) no creditor, shareholder, depositor, policyholder or any other person shall commence or continue any claim, action, execution or other proceedings or seek to enforce in any way whatsoever without limitation in Trinidad and Tobago, any judgment or order obtained in Trinidad and Tobago or any other jurisdiction, against the Bank, its directors, officers, employees or any person acting on behalf of the Bank or appointed by the Bank under section 44D in respect of any act, omission, claim, fact or matter connected with or arising out of the acts or omissions of the Bank in respect of the institution, until the publication of a notification under section 44G(1) in relation to the institution;

- (d) no provision of a security agreement, lease or licence between the institution and a secured or other creditor that provides, in substance, that on—
- (i) the winding up of the institution or any related entity or any insolvency restructuring or reorganisation proceedings being commenced, continued or ordered in respect of the institution or any related entity; or
 - (ii) the default by the institution of an obligation under the security agreement, lease or licence, the institution ceases to have such rights to use or deal with assets secured or dealt with under the agreement, lease or licence as the institution would otherwise have, or is given lesser rights or priorities in respect of any assets or property as the institution would otherwise have, has any force or effect until the publication of a notification under paragraph (b) or section 44G(1) in relation to the institution; and

- (e) no provision in any contract or agreement or any other document whatsoever without limitation which gives any party a right to acquire any property or assets of the institution on the grounds of any change of control or on any analogous ground or on the grounds of insolvency shall have any effect until the publication of a notification under paragraph (b) or section 44G(1) in relation to the institution.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5)—
- (a) the rights, property and assets referred to in this section are taken to be the rights, property and assets located in Trinidad and Tobago or in any other jurisdiction; and
 - (b) the agreement, lease or licence referred to in this section are taken to be, not only an agreement or lease or licence governed under the laws of Trinidad and Tobago, but also an agreement, lease or licence governed by any other law.

(7) The Bank shall report quarterly to the High Court and to Parliament on—

(a) the proposals to restructure an institution in relation to which a notification has been published under subsection (1); and

(b) the progress of the proposals referred to in paragraph (a), until a notification under subsection (5)(b) or section 44G(1) has been published in relation to that institution.

Sub. Leg.

(8) Where, prior to the coming into force of the Central Bank (Amendment) Act, 2011—

(a) a notification under subsection (1) was published in relation to an institution; and

(b) a notification under section 44G(1) has not been published in relation to that institution since the publication of the notification referred to in paragraph (a), the provisions of subsection (5) shall apply in relation to that institution with effect from 20th September 2011.

Ch. 7:09.

(9) No time shall run in relation to any period of limitation prescribed by the Limitation of Certain Actions Act or any other written law relating to the limitation of actions, proceedings or the enforcement of any judgment or order, from the date of the publication of a notification under section 44E(1) to the date of the publication of a notification under section 44G(1) or section 44E(5)(b), whichever is the earlier.

Duty to assist where Bank assumes control. [2 of 1986 15 of 2004].

44F. (1) Where the Bank has under section 44D assumed control of an institution, it may terminate or retain the services of any or all of the directors, officers and employees of the institution and the directors so retained shall manage the affairs of the institution subject, however, to any directions of the Bank; and no acts done or resolution, rules, Bye-laws or decisions made or conveyances, transfers, assignments or instruments executed during such period relating to the business affairs, property, undertaking or management of the institution shall have effect unless they are approved by or are in conformity with the directions of the Bank.

(2) Where the Bank is exercising powers under section 44D in relation to any institution, that institution, its affiliated institutions and their directors, officers and agents other than its auditors shall give every assistance to the Bank for the purpose of facilitating the performance of functions under section 44D, including the supply of information or explanation in such form as may be required, the production of books, documents, minutes, cash, securities and vouchers, and generally the provision of all necessary facilities required for the performance of any function under section 44D, save that in the case of its auditors they shall only be required to supply any information which is in their possession or knowledge other than their internally generated working papers.

(3) Any person appointed under section 44D shall have all the powers of a commissioner under the Commissions of Enquiry Act to summon and examine persons required under subsection (2) to assist the Bank in the performance of its functions, and the provisions of section 12 of the Commissions of Enquiry Act, including the provisions imposing penalties, shall apply in all respects to persons summoned under this subsection. Ch. 19:01.

(4) In any particular case, the Bank may appoint the Inspector of Financial Institutions to perform any or all of its functions under section 44D subject to such conditions as may be specified in the appointment.

(5) In the performance of its functions and in the exercise of its powers under section 44D the Bank shall comply with any general or special directions of the Minister and shall act only after due consultation with the Minister.

44G. (1) Where the Bank has under section 44D assumed control of an institution, the Bank shall, subject to subsection (2), remain in control of, and may continue to carry on the business of that institution until such time as the Bank publishes in the Gazette and in such newspapers as it thinks appropriate a notification that it has ceased to be in control of the institution. Termination of control. [2 of 1986].

(2) The Bank shall relinquish control and shall not continue to carry on the business of an institution where—

- (a) the circumstances on the basis of which the Bank assumed control of the institution under section 44D have ceased to exist;

- (b) the Bank is of opinion that it is no longer necessary for it to remain in control of the business of the institution; or
- (c) the Bank has sold or otherwise disposed of the property, assets and undertakings of the institution.

(3) Upon publication of a notification under subsection (1) and subject to such conditions as may be specified therein, all property not sold or otherwise disposed of by the Bank and all powers of control over the affairs of the institution vested in the Bank by or in consequence of the previous notification published under section 44E(1) shall vest in the institution if it still subsists as a corporate entity and be deemed to have been transferred from the Bank to the institution.

(4) Where the Bank has, in pursuance of section 44D, assumed control of an institution, the High Court may, upon the application of the directors of the institution acting independently of the Bank, if it is satisfied that it is no longer necessary for the protection of the depositors or creditors of the institution that the Bank should remain in control of the business of that institution, order that the Bank cease to control the business of that institution as from a date specified in the Order.

Protection of persons acting under this Part.
[26 of 2008].

44H. Neither the State, the Minister, the Bank, its directors and officers, any person acting on behalf of the Bank nor any person appointed by the Bank under section 44D is liable to any action, claim or demand or any liability in damages or any other remedy whatever including costs, for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of the functions of the Bank under this Part, unless it is shown that the act or omission was reckless or in bad faith.

Offences.
[2 of 1986].

44I. (1) Any person to whom section 44F(2) applies who—

- (a) fails to assist or to facilitate the Bank in any function conferred by section 44D; or
- (b) obstructs the Bank in the performance of any such function; or
- (c) in the performance of his obligations under section 44F(2), provides any false or misleading information, is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars or five years imprisonment or both.

(2) While the Bank is in control of the business of an institution, any person who, without the approval or authority of the Bank or in a manner contrary to the directions of the Bank, receives, disposes of or otherwise deals with any assets of the institution, or who tampers whether by making entries in or otherwise, with any books, records or documents of the institution is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment for five years or both and on conviction on indictment to a fine of five hundred thousand dollars or ten years imprisonment or both.

(3) Any person to whom section 44F(2) applies who fails to comply with a requirement or demand by the Bank to do or refrain from doing any act or to assist or to facilitate the Bank in any function vested in it by section 44D is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars or five years imprisonment or both.

PART VB

DEPOSIT INSURANCE

44J. In this Part—

“Board of Management” means the Board of Directors of the Corporation;

“Chairman” means the Chairman of the Board of Management;

“deposit” means—

- (a) the unpaid balance of money or its equivalent received or held by an institution from or on behalf of a person in the usual course of business and for which the institution has given or is obliged to give credit to that person’s checking, savings, demand or time account, or for which the institution has issued a certificate, receipt, cheque, money order, draft or other instrument in respect of which it is primarily liable; but shall not include letters of credit, standby letters of credit or instruments of a similar nature, interbank deposits and deposits from affiliated companies; and

- (b) such other deposits as may be prescribed by the Minister on the recommendation of the Bank.

Definitions.
[2 of 1986
23 of 1994].

Establishment of Deposit
Insurance Fund.
[2 of 1986].

44K. There is established for the protection of depositors a Deposit Insurance Fund (hereinafter referred to as “the Fund”).

Membership
Fund.
[26 of 2008].
Ch. 79:09.

44L. Membership in the Fund is compulsory for every institution licensed under the Financial Institutions Act, including a licensed foreign financial institution in respect of its deposits held in Trinidad and Tobago.

Financing of the Fund.
[2 of 1986].

44M. (1) A compulsory initial contribution shall be paid to the Fund at a time to be designated by the Minister, by every bank or other institution; such contribution shall be based on a percentage rate of deposits to be prescribed by the Minister by Order after consultation with the Bank.

(2) Every member of the Fund shall pay an annual premium to the Fund, such premium shall be based on a percentage rate of deposits to be prescribed by the Minister by Order after consultation with the Bank.

(3) The first annual contribution shall be levied within one year of the establishment of the Fund.

(4) The Bank shall contribute to the Fund sums equal in amount to the initial contribution made by members of the Fund.

(5) Where in the opinion of the Corporation the Fund has made or is likely to make payment to depositors which have exhausted or are likely to exhaust the Fund, the Corporation shall furnish the Minister with an estimate of the amount necessary to meet the obligations of the Fund in the year next succeeding and the Minister after consultation with the member institutions may by Order, require that special contributions be levied on them.

(6) The Bank shall pay into the Fund an amount equal to the special contributions paid by member institutions.

(7) Where the Corporation determines that the Fund has reached a satisfactory level it may refund any excess moneys to the institutions pro rata, so however, that all amounts so refunded shall be treated as income in the hands of the institution and chargeable to tax.

44N. (1) The Corporation shall insure each deposit in a member institution which is payable in Trinidad and Tobago in Trinidad and Tobago currency.

Insurance cover.
[2 of 1986
237/2007
10/2012
*160/2024].

(2) Deposit Insurance coverage is limited to two hundred thousand dollars or such other amount as the Minister may prescribe by Order save that where a depositor maintains deposits in more than one institution or in different capacities and rights, the limit shall apply to the total amount maintained on deposit in each institution in each capacity and right.

(3) A depositor is protected by deposit insurance only when the member institution in which he has a deposit is closed by or with the approval of the Bank as a result of financial difficulties.

(4) Payment to the person prima facie entitled under this section by the Corporation in respect of any deposit insured discharges the Corporation from liability in respect of that deposit.

(5) When payment is made by the Corporation under this section in respect of a deposit with a member institution the Corporation is subrogated up to the insured limit to all the rights and interests of the depositor as against that member institution and may maintain an action in respect of such rights and interests in the name of the depositor or in the name of the Corporation.

(6) Subject to subsection (7) the benefit of insurance cover shall not be extended to any depositor who is shown to have been a party to or profited from the circumstances giving rise to the member institution's failure.

(7) Subsection (6) does not apply to depositors who are professional advisors of the member institution and whose bona fides are not in question.

(8) Payments to depositors of closed institutions shall commence not later than three months after the closure of the member institution.

(9) The insurance coverage shall only benefit deposits which have been held with an institution for a minimum period of one year after the date this Act comes into operation, save where an institution is or has been closed by or with the approval of the Bank.

*This Order took effect from 1st October 2024.

(10) The Corporation shall in respect of rights to which it is subrogated have priority over other unsecured creditors of a closed institution.

Contributions, etc., allowable
tax deductions.
[2 of 1986].

44O. Contributions, levies and premia to the Fund by member institutions are allowable deductions to such institutions in computing their chargeability to tax.

Management of the Fund.
[2 of 1986].

44P. The Fund shall be managed by a Board of Management which is established a body corporate called the Deposit Insurance Corporation and which shall have a common seal.

Composition of Board.
[2 of 1986].

44Q. (1) The Board of Management shall be appointed by the Minister and shall consist of—

- (a) two members representing the Bank;
- (b) one member representing the Minister;
- (c) two members who have knowledge and experience in banking, commerce, finance, accounting, insurance or law, save that no person may be appointed a member who is a director of a member institution.

(2) There shall be appointed with each member an alternate who shall be qualified for appointment in the same manner as the member to whom he is alternate.

(3) In the absence of a member his alternate shall have and exercise the same powers and enjoy the same privileges as the member to whom he is alternate.

Term of office of members of Board.
[2 of 1986].

44R. Members of the Board shall be appointed for a term of not less than three years and shall be eligible for reappointment.

Chairman of the Board.
[2 of 1986].

44S. (1) The members shall elect a Chairman from among their number.

(2) The Chairman shall in the event of an equality in the voting, in addition to his original vote, have a casting vote.

Procedure.
[2 of 1986].

44T. The Corporation shall determine its own procedure save that the quorum for meetings shall be four members.

44U. No vacancy in the membership of the Corporation or irregularity in the appointment of its members or their alternates shall invalidate its proceedings.

Validity of proceedings.
[2 of 1986].

44V. (1) The authorised capital of the Corporation is one million dollars which may be increased by the Board of Management with the approval of the Minister.

Capital of Corporation.
[2 of 1986].

(2) Upon the establishment of the Corporation, there shall be paid-up by the Bank in respect of the capital a sum of five hundred thousand dollars.

(3) The paid-up portion of the authorised capital may be increased by such amount as the Minister on the recommendation of the Bank may approve.

(4) Any increase in the authorised or paid-up capital shall be notified by publication in the Gazette.

44W. For the proper management and administration of the Fund, the Corporation shall have power—

Powers of the Corporation.
[2 of 1986].

- (a) to appoint and employ such number of managers, employees and officers and other employers as it considers necessary or desirable for the efficient performance of its functions and upon such terms and conditions as agreed after consultation with the Bank;
- (b) to enter into agreement with the Bank for the secondment of staff and the provision of services;
- (c) to establish committees;
- (d) to levy authorised contributions and premia from member institutions;
- (e) to recommend to the Bank the suspension of business or closure of any member where that member is in financial difficulty;
- (f) in the event of a member becoming insolvent to act as receiver or liquidator of that member;
- (g) to arrange after consultation with and on the advice of the Bank for the restructuring of a failed member whether by merger with a financially sound member or otherwise;

- (h) to pay off depositors up to the insured limit;
- (i) to accumulate, manage and to invest funds collected, to borrow, lend, give guarantees and acquire the undertaking of any institution which is in financial difficulty;
- (j) subject to prior claims being paid, to deduct from moneys from the Fund due to a depositor, any loans due, call called-in guarantees and overdrafts and to set-off deposits pledged as collateral;
- (k) to require from any director, manager, agent or employee of a member institution or from such person in its holding or parent company or any of its subsidiary companies any information in relation to its business or the production of any document or record under his custody or control.

Insurance payment procedures.
[2 of 1986].

44X. (1) Where the Bank advises the Corporation that a member institution has failed, the Corporation shall notify each depositor in writing that the institution is closed and make public notification of the closure in such newspapers as may be considered appropriate, indicating the duties, times and places at which payment shall be made.

(2) No payment may be made unless a depositor produces satisfactory evidence of his deposit to the Corporation and that evidence shall be surrendered to the Corporation on receipt of payment.

(3) Persons who have deposits in excess of the insured limit shall be paid the insured portion of their deposits and shall be issued with a certificate for the amount in excess of the limit.

(4) Depositors may submit claims for Deposit Insurance up to one year after closure of the institution with which the deposit was made.

(5) Claims made after the time specified in subsection (4) shall be made against the assets of the institution and shall be paid pro rata as the assets of the institution are collected and sold.

(6) Claims shall be supported by evidence of deposit ownership and may be made by depositors in person or in writing supported by affidavit.

44Y. (1) Persons who have borrowed money from institutions that have been closed by the Bank shall make payments to the Corporation on the same terms and conditions attaching to their loan contracts with the institutions.

Business with failed institutions. [2 of 1986].

(2) Subject to subsection (3) demand loans become due as soon as an institution is closed by the Bank.

(3) The Corporation may on the application of a borrower agree to enter into new arrangements for the repayment of a demand loan.

44Z. Where the Bank closes an institution—

(a) all accounts of the institution are frozen forthwith;

(b) interest on deposits immediately ceases to accrue whether or not the date of maturity of the deposit was beyond the date of the closure.

Effect of closure. [2 of 1986].

44AA. (1) Where a member institution of the Fund, or any director, agent, servant or employee (including a former director, agent, servant or employee) of that institution fails to comply with any request by the Corporation for information relating to the affairs of the institution or to co-operate in the inspection or investigation of the institution, that institution or that director, agent, servant or employee is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty thousand dollars or imprisonment for two years or both.

Offences. [2 of 1986].

(2) Where a director, agent, servant, employee (including a former director, agent, servant or employee) of a member institution deliberately conceals from the Corporation any material information regarding the financial affairs of the member institution or provides false or misleading information to the Corporation or falsifies or tampers with the books, records, accounts, papers or documents of the institution, so as to mislead the Corporation, that director, agent, servant or employee is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars or imprisonment for five years or both.

(3) Where a depositor falsifies any passbook, certificate of deposit, bank statement or any document claiming title to a deposit with a failed member institution or where a person fraudulently claims to be a depositor either for payment or for the purpose of claiming an insured deposit, that depositor or person is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars or two years imprisonment or both.

PART VI

RELATIONS WITH THE GOVERNMENT

Bank as banker to the Government.

45. The Bank shall act as banker to the Government and shall be entrusted with such Government banking business in Trinidad and Tobago and abroad as may be assigned to it by the Minister.

Power of Bank to make advances to Government. [15 of 2017].

46. (1) The Bank may make temporary advances to the Government on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Bank and the Minister.

(2) The total amount of outstanding advances made under this section shall not at any time exceed twenty per cent of that portion of the estimates of annual revenue of the Government which comprises the sum of total recurrent revenues and capital receipts (exclusive of local and external loans) for the financial year in which the advances were initially made.

(3) All advances granted under this section shall be repaid as soon as possible and, in the event that any advances made in an earlier financial year remain outstanding in the current financial year, the power of the Bank to make further advances to the Government under this section shall be limited to the amount by which the total amount authorised in the year of the earliest outstanding advance exceeds the unpaid balance thereof.

Maximum assets of Bank. [2 of 1986].

47. Apart from the assets held under section 33 the Bank shall not hold securities (including Treasury Bills) issued or guaranteed by the Government as calculated on the nominal value thereof which at any time exceed seven times the sum of the paid-up capital of the Bank and the amount standing to the credit of its General Reserve Fund.

48. The Bank shall on such terms and conditions as may be agreed between the Minister and the Bank, act as agent for the Government in the payment of principal and interest and generally in respect of the management of the public debt.

Power of Bank to act as agent for the Government. [23 of 1994].

49. The Bank shall keep the Minister informed of the monetary and banking policy pursued or intended to be pursued by the Bank.

Issues of policy. [23 of 1994].

50. The Minister may, after consultation with the Governor, issue to the Bank such written directives of a general nature as may be necessary to give effect to the monetary and fiscal policies of the Government.

Policy directives.

PART VII

ACCOUNTS, REPORTS AND STATISTICS

51. The financial year of the Bank shall coincide with the financial year of the Government.

Bank's financial year.

52. (1) The accounts of the Bank shall be audited annually by auditors who shall be appointed by the Board each year with the approval of the Minister.

Accounts and audits.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Minister may at any time require the Auditor General to examine and report on the accounts of the Bank and the Bank shall provide the Auditor General with all necessary and appropriate facilities for such examination.

53. (1) The Bank shall, within three months after the end of each financial year, cause to be made and to be transmitted to the Minister—

Reports.

- (a) a report dealing generally with the operation of the Bank during the last preceding financial year; and
- (b) a copy of the annual audited statement of accounts certified by the auditors.

(2) The Minister shall as soon as possible after their receipt—

- (a) cause a copy of the report together with the annual audited statement of accounts thereon to be laid before Parliament; and
- (b) cause a copy of the annual audited statement of account to be published in the Gazette.

(3) The Bank shall once in every week cause to be made out and transmitted to the Minister a statement showing its assets and liabilities and every such statement shall be published in the Gazette.

Statistical information from financial institutions. [23 of 1994].

54. The Bank may at any time for the purpose of carrying out its functions under this Act require financial institutions and such persons or classes of persons as may be subject to this Act to furnish such statistical information as the Bank may specify.

PART VIII

GENERAL

Exemption from taxation and stamp duty. [2 of 1986].

55. (1) The Bank and the Corporation are exempt from the provisions of any Act relating to income taxation or company taxation and from the payment of stamp duty.

Ch. 84:01.

(2) The Corporation shall be exempt from the provisions of the Insurance Act.

Secrecy and penalty for disclosing information. [23 of 1994, 15 of 2004, 26 of 2008, 4 of 2018, 13 of 2019, 3 of 2020, 10 of 2020, 25 of 2020]. Ch. 79:09. Ch. 84:01.

56. (1) Except in so far as may be necessary for the due performance of its objects, and subject to section 8 of the Financial Institutions Act and section 16 of the Insurance Act, every director, officer and employee of the Bank shall preserve and aid in preserving secrecy with regard to all matters relating to the affairs of the Bank, any financial institution or person or entity registered under the Insurance Act or of any customers thereof that may come to his knowledge in the course of his duties.

(2) Any such director, officer or employee who communicates any such matter to any person other than the Board or an officer of the Bank authorised in that behalf by the Governor or suffers or permits any unauthorised person to have access to any books, papers or records relating to the Bank, any financial institution, or person registered under the Insurance Act, is liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine of six thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

(2A) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to—

- (a) information which, at the time of disclosure, is or has already been made available to the public from other sources;
- (b) information in the form of a summary or collection of information so framed as not to enable information relating to any particular person to be ascertained from it; or
- (c) the provision of a witness statement to—
 - (i) a police officer of the rank of Superintendent or above for the purposes of any criminal investigation or criminal proceedings; or
 - (ii) the Police Complaints Authority for the purposes of an investigation of criminal offences involving police officers, police corruption and serious police misconduct being conducted by it, where the witness statement—
 - (iii) relates to information disclosed under compulsion of law, this Act or any other written law; and
 - (iv) is requested, in writing, by that police officer or the Police Complaints Authority with the prior written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(2B) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, it shall not be a contravention of any law, or a breach of contract or any duty of confidentiality, for the Bank or a director, officer or employee of the Bank to disclose information pursuant to this section by way of a witness statement referred to in subsection (2A)(c).

(2C) No action or other proceeding shall be brought against the Bank or a director, officer or employee of the Bank with respect to the disclosure by it or him, in good faith, of any information pursuant to this section.

(3) No director, officer or employee of the Bank shall be required to produce in any Court any book or document or to divulge or communicate to any Court any matter or thing coming under his notice in the performance of his duties under this Act except on the direction of the Court or in so far as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act, or for the purposes of any criminal proceedings.

(4) Where the Attorney General or the Director of Public Prosecutions applies to a Court, including the Special Tribunal, and the application is supported by a certificate signed by the Governor that evidence prejudicial to the financial system or to the security of the Bank may be adduced in the course of a hearing before the Court, the Court may order that the hearing or any part thereof be held in camera.

(5) The certificate of the Governor referred to in subsection (4) is conclusive as to its contents.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Bank shall, within seven days of receiving a written request from the Minister, cause to be transmitted to the Minister such information as the Minister may specify in the request regarding—

- (a) the salary and other terms and conditions of employment of the Governor, Deputy Governors, directors, officers and employees of the Bank;
- (b) the organisational structure of the Bank;
- (c) the number of current or former officers and employees of the Bank;
- (d) the number of filled or vacant positions in the organisational structure of the Bank; or
- (e) such other matters relating to the employment of staff as the Minister thinks fit.

(7) A request under subsection (6) may relate to a period before the coming into force of that subsection.

57. Any director, officer or auditor of the Bank who, knowing it to be false in any material particular—

- (a) verifies any statement, account or report of the Bank; or
- (b) causes to be delivered or transmitted any such statement, account or report, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

Transfer of statements, accounts or lists. [23 of 1994].

58. Any officer of a financial institution who, knowing a statement of that financial institution issued pursuant to this Act to be false in a material particular, transmits or causes to be transmitted to the Bank or such financial institution, such statement, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of six thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

Transmission of false information by officers of financial institutions. [23 of 1994].

59. Every notice served under this Act by the Bank may be served by post.

Method of service.

60. (1) The Minister may make such Regulations as are necessary in order to give effect to the provisions of this Act.

Regulations and Rules. [2 of 1986, 23 of 1994, 26 of 2008].

(2) The Bank with the approval of the Minister may from time to time—

- (a) make such Rules as are necessary for its internal administration and management; and
- (b) prescribe a Code of Ethics with which directors, officers and employees of the Bank, including estate constables shall conform.

(3) Any Code of Ethics prescribed under subsection (2)(b) may provide that any breach thereof may result in disciplinary action including dismissal or suspension with or without pay.

(4) The Bank shall consult with the recognised associations and the Estate Police Association before prescribing or amending any Code of Ethics pursuant to this section but shall not so consult in respect of any Code of Ethics relating to directors of the Bank.

Commencement of operations of Corporation.

3. (1) The Corporation shall commence operations on the 17th day of September 1986, (hereinafter referred to as the commencement date).

(2) Within four weeks of the commencement date or such later date as may be allowed by the Bank the Inspector shall transmit to the Corporation in respect of every institution—

- (a) a copy of its memorandum and articles of association;
- (b) a copy of its accounts for the immediately preceding three years or for the period since it was licensed, whichever is the shorter;
- (c) a statement as to its deposit liabilities.

Issue of certificate of insurance to licensed institution.

4. (1) The Corporation shall issue to every institution a certificate of insurance—

- (a) within two weeks of the commencement date; or
- (b) within one week of the notification under Bye-law 6 to the Corporation of the licensing of the institution.

(2) An institution shall display prominently in all of its offices a copy of its certificate of insurance certified by the Corporation.

Assessment of initial contribution and annual premium.

5. (1) The Corporation shall assess the initial contribution and the annual premium to be paid by every institution in accordance with the percentage rate of deposits prescribed by the Minister under section 44M.

(2) Where after the commencement date an institution is licensed for the first time, the assessment in respect of that institution shall be made not earlier than six months after the issue of the licence.

(3) The Corporation shall notify every institution of the initial contribution and annual premium which it is required to pay, the manner of payment and the time within which such payment is to be made.

6. Within one week of the issue of a licence to an institution the Inspector shall notify the Corporation of the same and shall transmit to the Corporation copies of the information which the institution has submitted to the Minister through the Central Bank under section 4 of the Banking Act or section 5 of the Act of 1979.

Inspector of Banks to supply to Corporation information regarding institutions.

Ch. 79:01.

7. The Governor may make available to the Corporation copies of the Inspector's Reports supplied to him or to the Central Bank under the Banking Act or the Act of 1979.

Inspector's Reports to be available to the Corporation.
Ch. 79:01.

8. (1) On or before the 31st day of January in each year every institution shall file with the Corporation a report, certified by a director of the institution, of—

Annual returns by institutions to Corporation.

- (a) its deposit liabilities for each quarter of the preceding year;
- (b) the institution's assessment of the annual premium imposed on it under section 44M for the current year.

(2) An institution which fails to comply with subregulation (1) is guilty of an offence.

9. The public notification of the closure of an institution under section 44X(1) shall indicate the date of closure and shall state that—

Public notification of closure of institution.

- (a) payment of insured deposits will commence within three months from the date of closure;
- (b) if the depositor does not claim his insured deposit from the Corporation within twelve months of the date of closure, all rights of the depositor against the Corporation concerning the insured deposit are barred, but without prejudice to the rights of the depositor against the institution.

Powers of Corporation in relation to closed institution.

10. (1) The Corporation shall in respect of a closed institution—

- (a) balance the books of the institution and update all of its depositors' accounts;
- (b) prepare a list of the assets of the institution;
- (c) prepare a list of all depositors and determine the liability of the institution to each depositor;
- (d) prepare a list of the depositors with loans from the institution and a list of those loans which can be set off against deposits under section 44W(j);
- (e) prepare statements of all depositors' accounts for reconciliation by the depositors prior to the filing of claims for deposit insurance under section 44X;
- (f) prepare a list of depositors with deposits in excess of the insured limit and a list of those depositors to whom certificates for the excess will be given under section 44X;
- (g) prepare a list of other uninsured liabilities of the institution and an estimate of the amount of such liabilities.

(2) The Inspector shall grant all assistance within his power to the Corporation in the discharge of the Corporation's duties under paragraph (1).

Payment by Corporation to depositor.

11. In calculating the sum to be paid to the depositor under section 44W(h), there shall be deducted any moneys due to the institution by the depositor.

Claims for deposit insurance. Schedule. [124/1988].

12. (1) A claim for deposit insurance shall be in the form set out in the Schedule and shall be accompanied by satisfactory evidence of the claimant's ownership of or interest in the deposit.

(2) A separate claim shall be submitted for each deposit in respect of which, in whole or in part, a claim is made.

(3) The claim shall be made by the person in whose name the deposit account is recorded, or by the assignee thereof.

13. (1) For the purpose of payment of deposit insurance, the deposit account records of the institution are prima facie evidence of the deposit, its nature and ownership.

Payment of claims.
[124/1988].

(2) Where the Corporation is satisfied as to the bona fides of the claim and the amount thereof that is due, the Corporation shall authorise the payment of the claim.

(3) Payment shall be made to the claimant or to a person authorised by him in writing to collect the amount due and to sign a receipt therefor on his behalf.

(4) Where payment is made to a person other than the depositor, the Corporation may require that person to execute a contract of indemnity in respect of the amount paid.

14. (1) Deposits maintained by a person in more than one account in the same institution shall be added together and insured up to the prescribed maximum in respect of the aggregate amount in the accounts.

Individual and nominee accounts.
[124/1988].

(2) Funds held by a nominee for the benefit of a principal, ward, minor or patient and deposited in one or more deposit accounts shall be added to any individual accounts of the principal, ward, minor or patient and insured up to the prescribed maximum.

15. (1) Subject to this Bye-law, a trust account shall be insured up to the prescribed maximum.

Trust accounts.
[124/1988].

(2) Trust accounts containing funds from the same settlor shall be aggregated.

(3) Funds held in a trust account shall not be combined with individual accounts of a trustee, settlor or beneficiary under the trust.

(4) Where the amount of the interest of a beneficiary under a trust account is ascertainable from the records of the institution, the interest of the beneficiary shall be insured up to the prescribed maximum, separately from the trust account, and the amount of the beneficiary's interest shall be deducted from the trust account for the purpose of insurance of the trust account.

(5) Where a beneficiary has an interest in more than one trust account, his interest in each such account shall be combined and insurance shall be paid up to the prescribed maximum on the aggregate of such interests.

Personal representative accounts.
[124/1988].

16. Funds of a decedent held in his name, or in the name of the executor or administrator of his estate, and deposited in one or more deposit accounts shall be added together and insured up to the prescribed maximum, separately from the individual accounts of the beneficiaries of the estate or of the executor or administrator.

Joint accounts.
[124/1988].

17. (1) Subject to this Bye-law, deposit insurance is payable in respect of a joint account up to the prescribed maximum.

(2) Joint accounts maintained by the same person are added together.

(3) Where a depositor has an interest in more than one joint account, his interest in each such account shall be combined and insurance shall be paid to the prescribed maximum on the aggregate of such interest.

(4) Unless otherwise stated in the records of the institution, the interest of co-owners in a joint account shall be deemed to be equal.

(5) The receipt for payment of deposit insurance shall be signed by all the joint holders of the account, except where a mandate to the institution authorises any one or more of such holders to sign for the withdrawal of funds.

Ch. 79:09. Ch. 84:01.

Date for determining supervisory costs.

5. The Central Bank shall, on or before the 30th day of September in each year, make a determination of its supervisory costs.

Apportioning supervisory costs.

6. (1) The Central Bank shall apportion the supervisory costs for the banking and insurance sectors on the basis of the time determined by the Central Bank to have been spent during the previous fiscal year in supervising and regulating the banking and insurance sectors in aggregate.

(2) The apportionment referred to in subregulation (1) shall be further apportioned to each of the banking sector and the insurance sector based on the ratio of assets of each such sector to the total assets of the banking and insurance sectors in aggregate.

7. The supervisory costs apportioned to a regulated sector shall be allocated to each regulated person in that sector in the manner set out in regulations 8 to 12 and each such allocation shall represent the supervisory fee payable by that regulated person to the Central Bank. Supervisory fees.

8. A regulated person, other than a pension fund plan and an insurance intermediary, shall pay a supervisory fee which shall be the greater of the amounts, as is provided for in paragraph (a) or (b) hereunder— Calculation of fees.

(a) the sum derived from dividing the total assets of the regulated person (excluding a pension fund plan and an insurance intermediary) by the total assets of the relevant regulated sector and multiplying the resulting figure by the supervisory costs apportioned to the relevant regulated sector, as illustrated hereunder:

$$\frac{\text{Total assets of regulated person}}{\text{Total assets of regulated sector}} \times \text{Supervisory costs apportioned to regulated sector}$$

(b) fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in the case of a registered insurance company or one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in the case of a licensed financial institution, a financial holding company and the Home Mortgage Bank.

9. For the purposes of regulation 8, the total assets of a regulated sector shall be the aggregate of the assets of all regulated persons in that sector. Total assets to be aggregate assets.

Exclusion of assets.
[372/2020].

- 10. For the purposes of regulation 8, the total assets of—
- (a) a financial holding company shall—
 - (i) exclude fifty per cent (50%) of the assets of all foreign regulated subsidiaries; and
 - (ii) exclude the assets for the entities in the group regulated by the Central Bank;
 - (b) a licensed financial institution or registered insurance company that is also a holding company shall—
 - (i) exclude fifty per cent (50%) of the assets of all foreign regulated subsidiaries; and
 - (ii) exclude the assets for the entities in the group regulated by the Central Bank; and
 - (c) a registered insurance company that is also a holding company shall exclude the assets of all entities which must be separated from the registered insurance company as a result of a restructuring for a maximum period of three years commencing on the date of a direction by the Central Bank made pursuant to section 47 of the Insurance Act, 2018.

Total assets based on a two-year average.
[372/2020].

- 11. The supervisory fee payable by a regulated person in operation for one year or less shall be calculated in accordance with regulation 8 save that the total assets of that regulated person shall be based on a projected two-year average of the total assets of that regulated person as provided to the Central Bank.

Difference between supervisory fees and licence fees.
Ch. 79:09.
Ch. 84:01.

- 12. Where the supervisory fee is determined to be more than any annual licence fee, inclusive of annual branch licence fees payable under the Financial Institutions Act, or any annual registration fee payable under the Insurance Act by a regulated person, the regulated person shall only be liable to pay as the supervisory fee, the difference between the licence or registration fee and the supervisory fee.

Flat supervisory fee for pension fund plans.
Schedule II.

- 13. The supervisory fee specified in the Table in Schedule II shall be paid by a pension fund plan and is based on the total assets of the pension fund plan and the corresponding asset range within which the plan falls in the said Table.

14. On or before 31st December of each fiscal year, the Central Bank shall issue to each regulated person a written notice setting out the supervisory fee and licence or registration fees, as well as the regulated person's OFSO costs, payable by the regulated person in respect of that year.

Billing procedure.

15. The fees and costs set out in the notice referred to in regulation 14 shall be paid in two instalments as follows:

Time frame for payments by instalments.

- (a) the first instalment shall be paid by 31st January of each year and shall comprise—
 - (i) one hundred per cent (100%) of licence or registration fees;
 - (ii) fifty per cent (50%) of supervisory fees in excess of licence or registration fees; and
 - (iii) fifty per cent (50%) of the regulated person's OFSO costs; and
- (b) the second instalment shall be paid by 30th June of each year and shall comprise—
 - (i) the remaining fifty per cent (50%) of supervisory fees in excess of licence or registration fees; and
 - (ii) the remaining fifty per cent (50%) of the regulated person's OFSO costs.

16. Notwithstanding regulations 14 and 15, the Central Bank shall within three months of the coming into effect of these Regulations, issue to each regulated person a written notice setting out the supervisory fee payable in respect of the fiscal year ending 30th September 2012, and if applicable, the licence or registration fee and OFSO costs to be paid by a regulated person in respect of that financial year and the said notice shall stipulate the time frame within which such fees and costs shall be paid to the Central Bank.

First payment.

17. A licensed financial institution may authorise the Central Bank to deduct any supervisory fees payable by that institution

Deductions from Reserve Account.

Ch. 79:09. under these Regulations from moneys in its Reserve Account held at the Central Bank pursuant to section 57 of the Financial Institutions Act.

Unpaid fees to be recovered as civil debt.

18. Any fees and costs as set out in the notices referred to in regulations 14 and 16 which are not paid within the time stipulated in the notices shall be subject to a charge at a rate equivalent to the prevailing Central Bank repo rate and shall be recoverable as a civil debt payable to the Central Bank in addition to or in lieu of any action the Central Bank may take under any written law.

Supervisory costs to be introduced on a phased basis.

19. The supervisory costs to be apportioned in accordance with regulations 5 to 12 shall be applied on a phased basis as follows:

- (a) in respect of the first year, the Central Bank shall apportion sixty per cent (60%) of the supervisory costs;
- (b) in the second year, the Central Bank shall apportion seventy per cent (70%) of the supervisory costs;
- (c) in the third year, the Central Bank shall apportion eighty per cent (80%) of the supervisory costs; and
- (d) in respect of the fourth year and continuing thereafter, the Central Bank shall apportion one hundred per cent (100%) of the supervisory costs.

Payments from pension funds.

20. The supervisory fee payable by a pension fund plan under regulation 13 shall be applied on a phased basis as follows:

- (a) in respect of the first year, the Central Bank shall apply sixty per cent (60%) of the applicable supervisory fee specified in the Table in Schedule II for the relevant asset range;

SCHEDULE II.

CENTRAL BANK (WITHDRAWAL, REDEMPTION AND DEMONETISATION OF ONE CENT COINS) REGULATIONS

35/2018.

made under sections 27(1) and 60(1)

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Central Bank (Withdrawal, Redemption and Demonetisation of One Cent Coins) Regulations.

Citation.

2. These Regulations shall come into effect on 3rd July 2018.

Commencement.

3. In these Regulations—

Interpretation.

“Act” means the Central Bank Act, Chap. 79:02;

“cash” means notes and coins issued by the Bank pursuant to its powers under section 21(1) of the Act;

“consumer” means a person or entity obtaining goods or services in Trinidad and Tobago in exchange for valuable consideration;

“round” means adjusting a final cash payment up or down to the nearest five or ten cent in accordance with the Schedules and the term “rounding” shall be construed accordingly;

“rounding difference” has the meaning ascribed to it at regulation 11; and “vendor” means a person providing goods or services in Trinidad and Tobago in exchange for valuable consideration.

4. These Regulations apply only to cash payments.

Application.

5. On the 1st day of April 2018, the Bank shall call in all one cent coins issued by the Bank for the purpose of withdrawing the coins from circulation.

Withdrawal of the one cent coin.

6. From the 3rd day of July 2018, all one cent coins issued by the Bank shall cease to be legal tender for cash payments.

Date and effect of cessation of legal tender.

Redemption of coins at face value.

7. Subject to regulation 8, the Bank shall indefinitely redeem one cent coins for face value.

Conditions of Redemption.

8. (1) One cent coins shall only be accepted for redemption where they are recognisable as one cent coins issued by the Bank.

(2) One cent coins may only be redeemed for cash where they are presented in multiples of five.

Rules for rounding.

9. Where a vendor processes a cash payment and the total does not end in five cents or zero cents, the cash payment shall be discharged in accordance with the rules on rounding set out in Schedule I, utilising the examples set out in Schedule II.

Application of rounding of vendor.

10. (1) Where in any transaction—

- (a) the consumer is unable to tender the exact amount in a cash payment; or
- (b) the consumer is to receive a cash payment from the vendor, the vendor shall apply the rules on rounding set out in Schedule I, utilising the examples set out in Schedule II.

(2) The vendor or consumer is discharged from any obligation to make a cash payment or to return change over the amount payable after the rounding difference has been applied.

Rounding
difference.

11. The difference between a sum total due not ending in five cents or zero cents and the sum to be paid in cash pursuant to regulation 10 is a rounding difference and the rounding difference shall not be deemed to constitute a pecuniary advantage or loss.

Payment by rounding is final.

12. A cash payment made by a consumer or vendor using the rules on rounding set out in Schedule I shall be regarded as final and financially settled.

13. (1) The cost of individual items, fees, taxes or duties shall be calculated to the exact amount required by law or by contract prior to the rounding of the total amount of a bill paid in cash.

Individual items, fees and taxes.

(2) Where any fee, tax or duty is payable on its own, in cash, such payment shall be subject to rounding.

14. A payment made, electronically, by cheque or by any means other than cash by a consumer or vendor shall not be rounded and shall be settled to the exact amount of the payment required.

Non-cash Payments.

15. A person who contravenes these Regulations commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred dollars.

Offence.

SCHEDULE I

RULES ON ROUNDING

The following rules apply for the rounding of cash payments:

(1) Where the total cash payment by any consumer or vendor is of a value, ending in one cent or two cents, it shall be rounded down to the nearest ten cents.

(2) Where the total cash payment by any consumer or vendor is of a value, ending in three cents or four cents, it shall be rounded up to the nearest five cents.

(3) Where the total cash payment by any consumer or vendor is of a value, ending in six cents or seven cents, it shall be rounded down to the nearest five cents.

(4) Where the total cash payment by any consumer or vendor is of a value, ending in eight cents or nine cents, it shall be rounded up to the nearest ten cents.

(5) When the total cash payment by any consumer or vendor is of a value, ending in zero cents or five cents, it shall remain unchanged.
