(2) The state of the art in the case of an invention to which an application for a patent or a patent relates shall be taken to comprise all matter (whether a product, a process, information

PART V

RIGHT TO APPLY FOR AND OBTAIN A PATENT

13. Any person may make an application for a patent either alone or jointly with another.

Right to patent.

(2) Subject to section 15, a person who makes an application for a patent shall be taken to be the person who is entitled under subsection (1) to be granted a patent and two or more persons who make such an application jointly shall be taken to be the persons so entitled.

(3) Where two or more persons have made the same invention independently of each other, the person whose application has the earliest filing date or, if priority is claimed, the earliest validly claimed priority date shall have the right to the patent as long as the said application is not withdrawn, abandoned or rejected.

Invention made by an employee or pursuant to a commission.

15. (1) In the absence of any provisions to the contrary in any contract of employment or for the execution of work, the right to a patent for an invention made in the performance of such contract of employment or in the execution of such work shall, notwithstanding section 14, be deemed to accrue to the employer, or the person who commissioned the work, as the case may be.

(2) Where an invention referred to in subsection (1) acquires an economic value much greater than the parties could reasonably have foreseen at the time of concluding the contract of employment or for the execution of work, as the case may be, the inventor shall be entitled to equitable remuneration which may be fixed by the Court in the absence of agreement between the parties.

(3) Where an employee whose contract of employment does not require him to engage in any inventive activity makes, in the field of activities of his employer, an invention using data or means placed at his disposal by his employer, the right to the patent for such invention shall be deemed to accrue to the employer, in the absence of any provision to the contrary in the contract of employment, provided that the employee shall be entitled to equitable remuneration which, in the absence of agreement between the parties, may be fixed by the Court taking into account his emoluments, the economic value of the invention and any benefit derived from it by the employer.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that when an invention is made by an employee whose contract of employment does not require him to engage in inventive activity, or in a field of activity different to that of his employer and without using information or means put at his disposal by the employer, the right to the patent for such invention shall accrue to the employee.

(5) The rights conferred on the inventor under subsections (1), (2), (3) and (4) shall not be restricted by contract.

(6) This section shall not apply to an invention made before the appointed day.

16. (1) Where the essential elements of the invention claimed in a patent application or patent have been unlawfully derived from an invention for which the right to the patent belongs to another person, such other person may apply to the Court for an order that the said patent application or patent be assigned to him.

(2) The Court upon receipt of such application may make such Order as it sees fit.

(3) No application for the assignment of a patent under subsection (1) shall be entertained by the Court after the expiry of Mention of inventor.

17. (1) The inventor or joint inventors of an invention shall have a right to be mentioned as such in any patent granted for the invention, unless in a written declaration addressed to the Controller he indicates or in the case of joint inventors, they indicate a wish not to be named.

(2) Any promise or undertaking by the inventor made to any person to the effect that he will make such a declaration shall be void.

PART VI

APPLICATIONS FOR PATENT

Making of application.

18. (1) Every application for a patent shall be made in the prescribed form, and shall be filed at the Intellectual Property Office in the prescribed manner under this Act. Such an application shall be accompanied by the prescribed filing fee.

(2) Every application for a patent shall contain—

- (a) a request for the grant of a patent;
- (b) a specification containing a description of the invention, a claim or claims and any drawings referred to in the description or any claim;
- (c) an abstract;
- (d) where the applicant's ordinary residence or principal place of business is outside of Trinidad and Tobago, an address within Trinidad and Tobago for service; and
- (e) where the applicant is not the sole inventor or the applicants are not the joint inventors, a statement justifying his or their right to be granted the patent.

(3) The specification of an application shall disclose the invention in a manner which is clear and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the art, and shall, in particular, indicate at least one mode known to the applicant for carrying out the invention.

- (4) The claim or claims shall—
- (a) define the matter for which the applicant seeks protection;
  - (b) be clear and concise;
  - (c) be supported by the description; and
  - (d) relate to one invention or to a group of inventions which are so linked as to form a single general inventive concept.

(5) The purpose of the abstract is to give technical information and, upon publication, it shall not form part of the state of the art by virtue of section 9(2), and the Controller may determine whether the abstract adequately fulfills its purpose and, if it does not, may reframe it so that it does.

(6) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsections (3) and (4), rules may be made prescribing the circumstances in which the specification of an application which requires for its performance the use of a micro-organism is to be treated for the purposes of this Act as complying with subsection (3).

19. (1) The date of filing an application for a patent shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be the earliest date on which the following conditions are satisfied in relation to the application, that is to say:

Date of filing application.

- (a) the documents filed contain an indication that a patent is sought in pursuance of the application;
- (b) those documents identify the applicant or applicants for the patent;
- (c) those documents contain a description of the invention for which a patent is sought whether or not the description complies with the other provisions of this Act and the relevant rules.

(2) If the Controller finds that the application does not comply with subsection (1) he shall invite the applicant to file the required correction, and shall accord as the filing date the date of receipt of the required correction, but if no correction is made, the application shall be treated as if it had not been filed.

(3) Where the application refers to drawings which in fact are not included in the application, the Controller shall invite the applicant to furnish the missing drawings, and if the applicant complies, the Controller shall accord as the filing date the date of receipt of the missing drawings. If the applicant does not comply, the Controller shall accord as the filing date the date of receipt of the application and shall treat any reference to the said drawings as non-existent.

(4) (a) The applicant may, up to the time when the application is in order for grant, divide the application into two or more applications (“divisional applications”), provided that each divisional application shall not go beyond the disclosure in the initial application.

(b) Each divisional application shall be entitled to the filing date and, where applicable, the priority date of the initial application.

(5) The fact that a patent has been granted on an application that did not comply with the requirement of unity of invention under section 18(4)(d) shall not be a ground for the invalidation of the patent.

Priority date. → 20. (1) A patent application may contain a declaration claiming priority of one or more earlier applications filed by the applicant or his predecessor in title in a country that is a party to the Paris Convention.

(2) Where the application contains a declaration under subsection (1), the Controller may require that the applicant furnish within the prescribed time a copy of the earlier application certified as correct by the office with which it was filed, or where the earlier application is an international application filed under the Patent Co-operation Treaty, by the office with which the international application was filed, and if the earlier application is not in English, a translation thereof in English verified by the translator that the translation is to the best of his knowledge complete and faithful.

(3) The effect of the declaration referred to in subsection (1) shall be as provided in the Convention referred to therein.

(4) Where any of the requirements of this section or any rules pertaining thereto have not been complied with, the declaration referred to in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be invalid.

21. (1) The applicant shall, at the request of the Controller, furnish the Controller with the date and number of any other application for a patent or other title of protection made in an industrial or intellectual property office of any other country, or within a regional industrial or intellectual property office (hereafter in this section referred to as a “foreign application”), relating to the same or essentially the same invention as that claimed in the application filed with the Controller.

foreign applications.

(2) The applicant shall upon request furnish the Controller with the following documents relating to one of the foreign applications referred to in subsection (1):

- (a) a copy of any communication received by the applicant concerning the result of any search or examination carried out in respect of the foreign application;
- (b) copy of the patent or other title of protection granted on the basis of the foreign application;
- (c) a copy of any final decision rejecting the foreign application or refusing the patent requested in the foreign application;
- (d) a copy of any final decision invalidating the patent or other title of protection granted on the basis of the foreign application referred to in subsection (2).

(3) Documents furnished pursuant to subsections (1) and (2)—

(a) shall, if not in English, be accompanied by a translation thereof in English verified by the translator that the translation is to the best of his knowledge complete and faithful; and

(b) may be used only for facilitating the evaluation of the novelty and inventive step of the invention for which the patent application is made.

(4) The applicant for a patent may submit comments on any documents furnished by him under subsections (1) and (2).

Disclosure of matter, etc., between earlier and later applications.

22. Where an application is made for a patent under section 19 and a declaration is made in accordance with section 20(2) in or in connection with that application specifying an earlier application, the first-mentioned application and any patent granted in pursuance thereof shall not be invalidated by reason only of the fact that any subject matter disclosed in the earlier application was made available to the public at any time after the date of filing of the said earlier application.

Examination as to form.

23. (1) Where an application for a patent has a date of filing and is not withdrawn, upon the payment by the applicant of the prescribed fee, the Controller shall conduct a formalities examination.

(2) On such formalities examination the Controller shall determine whether the application complies with the provisions of this Act and rules made thereunder relating to such examination.

(3) If the Controller determines that all the formal requirements have not been complied with, he shall give the applicant an opportunity to make observations on the report and to amend the application within a specified period so as to comply with those requirements and if the applicant fails to do so the Controller may refuse the application.

(4) If the Controller refuses the application under subsection (3), he shall inform the applicant in writing of his decision and the reason therefor.

24. (1) Where the Controller is of the opinion that the application complies with the requirements of section 23, he shall, upon payment by the applicant of the prescribed fee, cause the application to be examined as to whether there has been compliance with the requirements of sections 8 to 12 and 18(3) and (4) and the rules relating thereto.

Search and substantive examination.

(2) For the purposes of the examination under this section, the Controller may transmit the application to a duly authorised authority with which an arrangement to that effect has been made.

25. (1) If the Controller determines that any of the requirements of this Act or the rules made thereunder are not complied with, he shall so inform the applicant and shall give him an opportunity within a specified period to make observations on the determination and, subject to section 26(2), to amend the application so as to comply with those requirements, and if the applicant fails either to satisfy the Controller that the said requirements are complied with, or to amend the application so as to comply with them, the Controller shall, subject to section 7, refuse the application.

Refusal or grant of patent.

(2) If the Controller determines that the application, whether as originally filed or as amended in pursuance of section 23, this section, or section 26, complies with the requirements of this Act and the relevant rules made thereunder, he shall notify the applicant of that fact and on payment within the prescribed period of the fee prescribed for the grant, grant him a patent, and if the said fee is not so paid, the application shall be deemed to be withdrawn.

(3) Where two or more patent applications for the same invention, having the same date of filing or the same date of priority, are filed by the same applicant or his successor-in-title, the Controller may on that ground refuse to grant a patent in pursuance of more than one of the applications.

(4) If the Controller refuses the application under subsection (1) or (3), he shall inform the applicant in writing of his decision and of the reasons for his decision.

(5) The patent shall be deemed to be granted on the date the Controller publishes under section 28(1) a notice of the grant of the patent.

Amendment of application; time limit for grant; changes in patent.

26. (1) At any time before a patent is granted under this Act, the applicant may, in accordance with the prescribed conditions and subject to subsection (2), amend the application of his own volition.

(2) No amendment of an application shall be allowed under section 23(3) or 25(1) or this section if such amendment extends the matter disclosed in the application as filed.

(3) The Controller shall, whenever possible, reach a final decision on the application not later than two years after the commencement of the examination referred to in section 24.

(4) The Controller shall, upon request of the owner of the patent, make changes in the text or drawings of the patent in order to limit the extent of the protection conferred thereby, provided that the change would not result in the disclosure contained in the patent going beyond the disclosure contained in the initial application on the basis of which the patent was granted.

Withdrawal of application.

27. At any time before a patent is granted under this Act, the applicant may, in the prescribed manner, withdraw his application and any such withdrawal may not be revoked.

Notification of grant and publication of specification.

28. (1) The Controller shall as soon as practicable after a patent has been granted under section 25(2) publish a notice of the grant in a periodical.

(2) At the same time as the publication under subsection (1) of the notice of a grant, the Controller shall publish in the prescribed manner particulars of the patent and also such matters and information as appeared to him to be useful or important.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply when the means referred to therein are staple commercial products, except when the person induces the person supplied to commit acts which the proprietor of the patent is entitled to prevent by virtue of section 40.

(3) Persons performing acts referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of section 42 shall not be considered to be persons entitled to engage in commercial working of the invention for the purposes of subsection (1).

PART XI

VOLUNTARY AND NON-VOLUNTARY LICENCES

45. (1) Subject to section 33, a proprietor of a patent application or patent may grant a licence in respect of the relevant invention.

Voluntary licences.

(2) A licence contract shall be in writing and may, on payment of the prescribed fee, be recorded in the register and the relevant notice published in a periodical as prescribed by the Rules. Until such contract has been so recorded, the licence shall have no effect against third parties, unless otherwise decided by the Court.

(3) In the absence of any provision to the contrary in the terms of a licence contract, a licensee may not extend to another person the authorisation conferred on him by the proprietor in accordance with subsection (1), nor may he assign or mortgage his licence.

(4) In the absence of any provision to the contrary in the terms of a licence contract, the proprietor may continue to enjoy the rights conferred on him by sections 40 and 41.

(5) To the extent that the licence has been granted as an exclusive licence, the proprietor may not grant a licence in respect of the invention to a third person and may not himself do any of the acts referred to in sections 40 and 41.

(6) If before the expiration of the licence contract, any of the following events occur with respect to any patent application or patent, the subject of that contract:

- (a) the patent application is withdrawn or is deemed to be withdrawn;
- (b) the patent application is treated as if it had not been filed;
- (c) the grant of a patent is refused; or
- (d) the patent is revoked, the licensee shall, from the date of the event, be no longer bound to make any payment directly relating to that patent application or patent.

(7) In any of the cases referred to in subsection (6), the licensee shall have the right to repayment of the payments already made and directly relating to the patent application or patent in question, provided he has not, or practically has not, benefitted from the licence.

Non-voluntary
[18 of 2000].

46. (1) At any time after the expiration of three years from the date of grant of a patent under this Act or four years from the date of the filing, whichever is later, any person interested may apply to the Court for the grant of a licence under the patent on any of the following grounds, namely, that a market for the patented invention is not being supplied, or is not being supplied on reasonable terms in Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) Subject to subsections (4), (5), (6) and (7), if the Court is satisfied that either of the grounds referred to in subsection (1) is established, the Court may make an Order for the grant of the licence in accordance with the application on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(3) A licence granted under this section—

- (a) is not exclusive;
- (b) shall not be assigned otherwise than in connection with the goodwill of the business in which the patented invention is used; and

(c) is limited to the supply of the patented invention predominantly in Trinidad and Tobago.

(4) Where the Court is satisfied that the grounds on which any licence granted under this section have ceased to exist, it may, on the application of any interested party, terminate such licence.

(5) Any person to whom a licence is granted under this section shall pay such remuneration to the patentee as may be agreed, or as may be determined by a method agreed upon between that person and the patentee, or in default of agreement, as the Court may, taking into account the economic value of the licence, determine on the application of either party.

(6) Before a licence is granted under subsection (1), the Court must be satisfied that the person applying for the licence has made efforts to obtain a licence from a patentee on reasonable commercial terms and conditions within a reasonable time, but has failed to do so.

(7) A licence shall not be granted under this section in respect of a patent relating to semiconductor technology except for public non-commercial use or to remedy a practice determined after judicial or administrative process to be anti-competitive.

47. The powers of the Court on an application under section 46 shall be exercised with a view to securing that the inventor or other person beneficially entitled to a patent shall receive reasonable remuneration having regard to the economic value of the licence.

Exercise of powers on applications under section 46.

48. (1) Where the public interest so requires, or where the Minister decides that the manner of exploitation by the owner of a patent or his licensee is anti-competitive, then subject to subsection (2) the Minister may authorise a State agency or any person in writing, to make use, exercise or vend the patented invention for the services of the State subject to the payment of adequate compensation to the owner thereof, taking into account the economic value of the exploitation, and anything done by virtue of this subsection shall not amount to an infringement of the patent.

Use of patented invention for services of the State.

(2) Before issuing his authorisation under subsection (1), the Minister shall hear the owner of the patent and any other interested party who may wish to be heard.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply in the case of a national emergency.

(4) The Minister may, upon the request of any of the parties, vary the terms of the authorisation.

(5) (a) Upon the request of the owner of the patent, the Minister shall terminate the authorisation if he is satisfied that the circumstances which led to his decision have ceased to exist and are unlikely to recur, or that the State agency or person authorised by him has failed to comply with the terms of the authorisation;

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the Minister shall not terminate the authorisation if he is satisfied that the need for adequate protection of the legitimate interests of the State agency or the person authorised by him justifies maintaining the decision.

(6) An authorisation granted to a person other than a State agency shall be subject to the conditions prescribed by subsection (3) of section 46.

(7) (a) Before an authorisation is granted under subsection (1), the Minister must be satisfied that the proposed user has made efforts to obtain a licence from the patentee on reasonable commercial terms and conditions within a reasonable time, but has failed to do so.

(b) Paragraph (a) shall not apply in cases of national emergency or other circumstances of extreme urgency, provided however, that in such cases the owner of the patent shall be notified of the Minister's decision as soon as is reasonably practicable.

(8) Any decision of the Minister under subsection (1), (4) or (5) may be subject to judicial review.

PART XII
INFRINGEMENT

49. Subject to the provisions of sections 42, 43, 44, 46 and 48, the performance of any of the acts referred to in sections 40 and 41, in relation to a patent while it is in force, without the authorisation of the proprietor of the patent, shall constitute an infringement. Infringement.

50. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, civil proceedings may be brought in the Court by the proprietor of a patent in respect of any act alleged to infringe the patent and (without prejudice to any other jurisdiction of the Court) in those proceedings a claim may be made— Action for infringement.

- (a) for an injunction restraining the defendant from any apprehended act of infringement;
- (b) for an order for him to deliver up or destroy any patented product in relation to which the patent is infringed or any article in which that product is inextricably comprised;
- (c) for damages in respect of the infringement;
- (d) for an account of the profits derived by him from the infringement;
- (e) for a declaration that the patent is valid and has been infringed by him.

(2) The Court shall not, in respect of the same infringement, both award the proprietor of a patent damages and order that he shall be given an account of the profits.

51. (1) In proceedings for infringement of a patent damages shall not be awarded, and no order shall be made for an account of profits, against a defendant who proves that at the date of the infringement he was not aware, and had no reasonable grounds for supposing that the patent existed; and, a person shall not be taken to have been so aware or to have had reasonable grounds for so supposing by reason only of the application to a product of Restrictions on recovery of damages for infringement.

the word “patent” or “patented”, or any word or words expressing or implying that a patent has been obtained for the product, unless the number of the patent accompanied the word or words in question.

(2) Where an amendment of the specification of a patent has been allowed under any of the provisions of this Act, no damages shall be awarded in proceedings for an infringement of the patent committed before the decision to allow the amendment, unless the Court is satisfied that the specification of the patent as published was framed in good faith and with reasonable skill and knowledge.

Relief for infringement of partially valid patent.

52. (1) If the validity of a patent is put in issue in proceedings for infringement of the patent and it is found that the patent is only partially valid, the Court may, subject to subsection (2), grant relief in respect of that part of the patent which is found to be valid and infringed.

(2) Where in any such proceedings it is found that a patent is only partially valid, the Court shall not grant relief by way of damages, costs or expenses, except where the plaintiff proves that the specification for the patent was framed in good faith and with reasonable skill and knowledge and in that event the Court may grant relief in respect of that part of the patent which is valid and infringed, subject to the discretion of the Court as to costs or expenses and as to the date from which damages should be reckoned.

(3) As a condition of relief under this section, the Court may direct that the specification of the patent shall be amended to its satisfaction upon an application made for that purpose under section 63, and an application may be so made accordingly, whether or not all other issues in the proceedings have been determined.

Certificate of contested validity of patent.

53. (1) If in any proceedings before the Court the validity of a patent to any extent is contested and that patent is found by the Court to be wholly or partially valid, the Court may certify the finding and the fact that the validity of the patent was so contested.

(2) Where a certificate is granted under this section, then, if in any subsequent proceedings before the Court for infringement of the patent concerned or for revocation of the patent a final order or judgment is made or given in favour of the party relying on the validity of the patent as found in the earlier proceedings, that party shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, be entitled to his costs or expenses as between Attorney-at-law and client (other than the costs of expenses of any appeal in the subsequent proceedings).

54. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the holder of an exclusive licence under a patent shall have the same right as the proprietor of the patent to bring proceedings in respect of any infringement of the patent committed after the date of the licence; and, references to the proprietor of the patent in this Act relating to infringement shall be construed accordingly.

Proceedings for
licensee.

(2) In awarding damages or granting any other relief in any such proceedings, the Court shall take into consideration any loss suffered or likely to be suffered by the exclusive licensee as such as a result of the infringement, or, as the case may be, the profits derived from the infringement, so far as it constitutes an infringement of the rights of the exclusive licensee as such.

(3) In any proceedings taken by an exclusive licensee by virtue of this section, the proprietor of the patent shall be made a party to the proceedings, but if made a defendant shall not be liable for any costs or expenses unless he enters an appearance and takes part in the proceedings.

55. Where, by virtue of a transaction, instrument or event to which section 35 applies, a person becomes the proprietor or one of the proprietors or an exclusive licensee of a patent and the patent is subsequently infringed, the Court shall not award him damages or order that he be given an account of the profits in respect of such a subsequent infringement occurring before the transaction, instrument or event is registered, unless—

registration on
infringement
proceedings.

- (a) the transaction, instrument or event is registered within the period of six months beginning with its date; or

(b) the Court is satisfied that it was not practicable to register the transaction, instrument or event before the end of that period and that it was registered as soon as was practicable thereafter.

Remedy for
threats of

56. (1) Where a person (whether or not the proprietor of, or entitled to any right in, a patent) by circulars, advertisements or otherwise threatens another person with proceedings for any infringement of a patent, a person aggrieved by the threats (whether or not he is the person to whom the threats are made) may, subject to subsection (4), bring proceedings in Court against the person making the threat, claiming any relief mentioned in subsection (3).

(2) In any such proceedings the plaintiff shall, if he proves that the threats were so made and satisfies the Court that he is a person aggrieved by them, be entitled to the relief claimed, unless—

(a) the defendant proves that the acts in respect of which proceedings were threatened constitute or, if done, would constitute an infringement of a patent; and

(b) the patent alleged to be infringed is not shown by the plaintiff to be invalid in a relevant respect.

(3) The said relief is—

(a) a declaration to the effect that the threats are unjustifiable;

(b) an injunction against the continuance of the threats; and

(c) damages in respect of any loss which the plaintiff has sustained by the threats.

(4) Proceedings may not be brought under this section for a threat to bring proceedings for an infringement alleged to consist of making or importing a product for disposal or of using a process.

(5) It is hereby declared that a mere notification of the existence of a patent does not constitute a threat of proceedings within the meaning of this section.

57. (1) Without prejudice to the Court's jurisdiction to make a declaration apart from this section, a declaration that an act (that is to say, the use by any person of any process, or the making or use or sale by any person of any product) does not, or a proposed act would not, constitute an infringement of a patent, may be made by the Court in proceedings between the person doing or proposing to do the act and the proprietor of the patent, notwithstanding that no assertion to the contrary has been made by the proprietor, if it is shown—

Power of Court to make declaration as to non-infringement.

- (a) that that person has applied in writing to the proprietor for a written acknowledgement to the effect of the declaration claimed, and has furnished him with full particulars in writing of the act in question; and
- (b) that the proprietor has refused or failed within a reasonable time to give any such acknowledgement.

(2) No declaration under subsection (1) shall be made if the act in question is already the subject matter of an infringement proceeding.

58. (1) Where a patent is granted for an invention, a person who before the date of filing of the patent application or, if priority was claimed, before the date of priority, does in good faith in Trinidad and Tobago an act which would constitute an infringement of the patent if it were then in force, or makes in good faith effective and serious preparation to do such an act, shall have the rights specified in subsection (2).

Right to continue use begun before date of filing or priority.

- (2) Any such person shall have the right—
- (a) to continue to do or, as the case may be, to do that act himself; and
  - (b) if the act was done or preparations had been made to do it in the course of a business—
    - (i) to assign the right under paragraph (a);
    - (ii) to transmit the right under paragraph (a) to his heirs on his death or, in the case of a body corporate on its dissolution, to any person who acquires that part of the business in the course of which the act was done or preparations had been made to do it; or

(iii) to authorise the act to be done by any partners of his for the time being in that business, and the doing of that act by virtue of this subsection shall not amount to an infringement of the patent concerned.

(3) The rights specified in subsection (2) shall not include the right to grant a licence to any person to do an act referred to in subsection (1).

(4) Where a product which is the subject of a patent is disposed of by any person to another in exercise of a right conferred by subsection (2), that other and any person claiming through him shall be entitled to deal with the product in the same way as if it had been disposed of by a sole proprietor of the patent.

PART XIII

REVOCATION OF PATENT

Application for revocation of patent.

59. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and section 60, any person may apply to the Court for revocation of a patent.

(2) An application for the revocation of a patent on the ground mentioned in section 60(e) may be made only by a person found by the Court pursuant to section 16 to be entitled to be granted that patent or to be granted a patent for part of the matter covered by the patent, or, in case more than one person is found to be so entitled, by all those persons.

(3) An application under this section may be filed even if the patent has lapsed.

Grounds for revocation.

60. An application for revocation of a patent may be made only on any of the following grounds, that is to say:

- (a) the subject matter of the patent is not patentable under Part IV;
- (b) the specification of the patent does not disclose the invention in a manner sufficiently clear and complete for it to be carried out by a person skilled in the art;

- (c) the subject matter of the patent extends beyond the content of the patent application as filed or, if the patent was granted on a divisional application, it extends beyond the content of the relevant earlier application as filed;
- (d) the protection conferred by the patent has been extended by an amendment which should not have been allowed;
- (e) the patent was granted to a person who was not entitled thereto under section 14 or section 15, as the case may be.

61. (1) If on an application for revocation of a patent the Court considers that the grounds for revocation mentioned in section 60 prejudice the maintenance of the patent, the Court may by order unconditionally revoke the patent.

Examination of application for revocation.

(2) If on an application for revocation of a patent the Court considers that the grounds for revocation mentioned in section 60 affect the patent only partially, the Court may make an Order for the revocation of the patent unless within a time specified by the Court the relevant specification is amended to the satisfaction of the Court.

(3) If required by the Court the proprietor of the patent shall furnish to the Court such information as may be required in regard to foreign applications filed for protection of the invention or documents filed with any other national or regional industrial property office or in connection with any proceedings relating to an application, a patent or other title of protection for the same or essentially the same invention.

PART XIV

PUTTING VALIDITY IN ISSUE

62. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the validity of a patent may be put in issue before the Court only:

Circumstances in which validity of patent may be put in issue.

- (a) by way of defence in proceedings for infringement under section 50 or 54;
- (b) in proceedings under section 48, 56, 57 or 59.

(2) The validity of a patent may not be put in issue in any other proceedings and, in particular, no proceedings may be instituted (whether under this Act or otherwise) seeking only a declaration as to the validity or invalidity of a patent.

(3) The only grounds on which the validity of a patent may be put in issue (whether in proceedings for revocation under section 59 or otherwise) are the grounds on which the patent may be revoked under that section.

(4) No determination shall be made in any proceedings mentioned in subsection (1) on the validity of a patent which any person puts in issue on the ground specified in section 60(e) unless—

(a) it has been determined, either in entitlement proceedings commenced by that person or in the proceedings in which the validity of the patent is in issue, that the patent should have been granted to him and not some other person; and

(b) except it has been so determined in entitlement proceedings, the proceedings in which the validity of the patent is in issue are commenced before the end of the period of two years beginning with the date of the grant of the patent or it is shown that any person registered as a proprietor of the patent knew at the time of the grant or of the transfer of the patent to him that he was not entitled to the patent.

(5) Where the validity of a patent is put in issue by way of defence, the Court shall, if it thinks just to do so, give the defendant an opportunity to comply with the condition in subsection (4)(a).

(6) In subsection (4) “entitlement proceedings”, in relation to a patent, means proceedings to determine the question whether a patent was granted to a person not entitled to it.

Amendment of patent in infringement or revocation proceedings.

63. (1) Subject to subsection (5), in any proceedings before the Court in which the validity of a patent is put in issue, the Court may allow the proprietor of the patent to amend the patent in such manner, and subject to such terms as to advertising the proposed amendment and as to costs, expenses or otherwise, as the Court thinks fit.

(2) A person may give notice to the Court of his opposition to an amendment proposed by the proprietor of the patent under this section, and if he does so the Court shall notify the proprietor and consider the opposition in deciding whether the amendment or any amendment should be allowed.

(3) An amendment of a specification of a patent under this section shall have effect and be deemed always to have had effect from the grant of the patent.

(4) Where an application for an order under this section is made to the Court, the applicant shall notify the Controller who shall be entitled to appear and be heard and shall appear if so directed by the Court.

(5) No such amendment shall be allowed if it discloses matter which extends beyond that disclosed in the specification of the granted patent or extends the scope of the protection conferred by the patent.

PART XV

Grounds for revocation.

67. An application for revocation of a utility certificate may be made only on the grounds—

- (a) that the subject matter of the utility certificate may not be protected by a utility certificate under Part IV and this Part; and
- (b) mentioned in section 60(b), (c), (d) or (e).

Conversion of application.

68. (1) At any time before a patent is granted or before the refusal of a patent application is notified under this Act, an applicant for a patent may, in accordance with the prescribed conditions, request that his application be treated as a utility certificate application.

(2) In the same circumstances mentioned in subsection (1), an applicant for a utility certificate may, in accordance with the prescribed conditions and upon payment of the prescribed fee, request that his application be treated as a patent application.

(3) The Controller shall refuse a request under subsection (1) or (2) if the patent application or the utility certificate application has already been the subject of a request under either of those subsections.

Registration of utility certificates.

69. Particulars of utility certificates granted and notice of all matters which are required by or under this Act or rules to be registered, shall be registered in a special part of the register of patents by the Controller.

(6) The Controller shall not grant or refuse to grant a patent on an international application before the expiration of the time limit prescribed in Rule 52 as provided for in Article 28 or in Rule 78 as provided for in Article 41, as the case may be, except with the consent of the applicant in writing.

(7) Where an international application for a patent which purports to designate Trinidad and Tobago is refused an international filing date under the Treaty because—

- (a) it is declared considered withdrawn; or
- (b) the International Bureau has made a finding under Article 12(3) of the Treaty; or
- (c) the receiving office has declared that the designation of Trinidad and Tobago is considered withdrawn, and the Controller determines that such refusal was caused by an error or omission in the Intellectual Property Office or any other institution having functions under the Treaty, he may direct that the application shall be treated as an application under this Act.

Judicial notice of certain treaties and instruments thereunder.

72. (1) Judicial notice shall be taken of the Paris Convention, the Budapest Treaty, the Patent Corporation Treaty and of any bulletin, journal or gazette published under such Convention or Treaty.

(2) Any document mentioned in any such bulletin, journal or gazette shall be admissible as evidence of any instrument or other act thereby communicated, or of any institution established by or having functions under any Convention or Treaty mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply where the representation is made in respect of a product after the patent for that product or, as the case may be, the process in question has expired or been revoked and before the end of a period which is reasonably sufficient to enable the accused to take steps to ensure that the representation is not made (or does not continue to be made).

(4) In proceedings for an offence under this section it shall be a defence for the accused to prove that he used due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

75. (1) If a person represents that a patent has been applied for in respect of any article disposed of for value by him, and—

(a) a decision falling within section 19(5);

(b) a decision under rules which is excepted by rules from the right of appeal conferred by this section.

(2) In any such appeal or other proceedings before the Court, the Controller shall be entitled to appear or be represented and shall appear if so directed by the Court.

(3) In any appeal or other proceedings under this Act, the Court may exercise any power which could have been exercised by the Controller in the proceedings from which the appeal is brought.

and the Court of Appeal may make such final or other order as the circumstances of the matter may require.

82. (1) If the invention for which a patent is granted is a process for obtaining a new product, the same product produced by a person other than the proprietor of the patent or a licensee of his shall, unless the contrary is proved, be taken in any proceedings to have been obtained by that process.

(2) In considering whether a party has discharged the burden imposed upon him by this section, the Court shall not require him to disclose any manufacturing or commercial secrets if it appears to the Court that it would be unreasonable to do so.

(3) Any order made under subsection (1) for the payment of costs may be enforced as if it were a money judgment passed by a Petty Civil Court if within the pecuniary jurisdiction of that Court, or, failing that, by the Court.

(2) The manner and order specified in paragraph (1) shall be followed except when, because of the nature of the invention, a different manner or a different order would result in a better understanding and a more concise presentation.

Micro-organisms.

11. (1) To the extent that the contents of an application for a patent or of a patent discloses an invention which requires for its performance the use of a micro-organism which is not available to the public at the date of filing, these contents shall, pursuant to section 18(6) and this rule, be treated as disclosing the invention in a manner which is clear and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the art if the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) a culture of the micro-organism has been deposited in a culture collection not later than the date of filing the application;
- (b) the application as filed gives such relevant information as is available to the applicant on the characteristics of the micro-organism; and
- (c) the name of the culture collection, the date when the culture was deposited and the accession number of the deposit are given in the description of the application.

(2) The giving of the information specified in subrule (1)(c) shall be considered as constituting the unreserved and irrevocable consent of the applicant to the culture deposited being made available to any person who, on or after the date of publication of the application, makes a valid request therefor to the culture collection with which the micro-organism is deposited and a request shall be valid if it is accompanied by the Controller's certificate authorising the release of the sample to that person.

(3) An application for a certificate referred to in subrule (2) shall be submitted to the Controller, accompanied by the prescribed fee, together with—
