(4A) The Court may dispense with any consent required by subsection (3A) if it is satisfied—

- (a) in the case of a parent or guardian of the child, that he has abandoned, neglected or persistently ill-treated the child;
- (b) in the case of a person liable by virtue of an order or agreement to contribute to maintenance of the child that he has consistently neglected or refused so to contribute;

12. The Court before making an adoption order shall be satisfied—

Matters with respect to which Court to be satisfied.

- (a) that every person whose consent is necessary under this Act and whose consent is not dispensed with has consented to and understands the nature and effect of the adoption order for which application is made, and in particular in the case of any parent, understands that the effect of the adoption order will be permanently to deprive him or her of his or her parental rights;
- (b) that the order if made will be for the welfare of the infant, due consideration being for this purpose given to the religious denomination of the parties and to the wishes of the child, having regard to the age and understanding of the child;
- (c) that the applicant has not received or agreed to receive, and that no person has made or given, or agreed to make or give to the applicant, any payment or other reward in consideration of the adoption except such as the Court may sanction.

Power to make interim orders.

(2) All such consents as are required for an adoption order shall be necessary to an interim order but subject to the power of the Court to dispense with any such consents.

14. The Court in an adoption order may impose such terms and conditions as the Court may think fit and in particular may require the adopter by bond or otherwise to make for the adopted child such provision (if any) as in the opinion of the Court is just and expedient.

Jurisdiction and procedure.

Ch. 46:01.

18. It shall not be lawful for any adopter or for any parent or guardian, except with the sanction of the Court to receive any payment or other reward in consideration of the adoption of any child under this Act or for any person to make or give or agree to make or give to any adopter or to any parent or guardian any such payment or reward.

Provisions as to existing de facto.

Schedule.

(4) The prescribed officer of the Court shall cause every adoption order to be communicated in the prescribed manner to the Registrar General, and upon receipt of such communication the Registrar General shall cause compliance to be made with the directions contained in such order in regard both to marking any entry in the Registers of Births with the word “adopted” and in regard to making the appropriate entry in the Adopted Children Register.

MEMORANDUM TO BE FURNISHED BY BOARD TO PARENT OR GUARDIAN PROPOSING TO PLACE CHILD AT DISPOSITION OF BOARD

ADOPTION OF CHILDREN ACT

If an adoption order is made in respect of your child, all your rights and duties with regard to the child will be transferred permanently to the adopter. If you have taken out an insurance policy against funeral expenses for the child, the insurers will be able to advise you whether the policy can be transferred to the adopters, as is often the case.

It is for the adopters to apply for an adoption order, but unless there is some special reason to the contrary, the Court which deals with the application will not make an order without your consent. The only grounds on which an adoption order can be made without the consent of the child's parents or guardians are that they have deserted the child or cannot be found or are out of their proper senses or otherwise incapable of giving consent. You may have to appear before the Court in private to tell them whether you agree to the adoption.

If you reclaim the child at any time during the period of probation fixed by the Court you will be liable to refund to the adopter through the Adoption Board the expenses incurred by the adopter in maintaining and educating the child.
