Note on Act No. 64 of 2000

Commencement Date

Act No. 64 of 2000 which has been designated Ch. 46:10 has only been partially proclaimed (See LN 187/2008). It has, however, been amended by Act No. 8 of 2003 [The Children's Authority (Amendment) Act, 2003] which changed the definition of Court to mean "the Court with jurisdiction for family matters" and Act No. 14 of 2008 which made substantial changes to Parts II and III.

In addition, Act No. 64 of 2000 contains references to other pieces of legislation, such as the Children's Community Residences, Foster Care and Nurseries Act, 2000 (No. 65 of 2000) which up to the date of this Revision, i.e., 31st December 2009, had not yet been proclaimed.

CHAPTER 46:10

CHILDREN'S AUTHORITY ACT

64 of 2000. An Act to establish a Children's Authority of Trinidad and Tobago to act as the guardian of the children of Trinidad and Tobago.

[ASSENTED TO 2ND NOVEMBER 2000]

Preamble. WHEREAS it is enacted by section 13(1) of the Constitution that an Act of Parliament to which that section applies may expressly declare that it shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution, and if any Act does so declare it shall have effect accordingly:

And whereas it is provided in subsection (2) of the said section 13, that an Act of Parliament to which that section applies is one the Bill for which has been passed by both Houses of Parliament and at the final vote thereon in each House has been supported by the votes of not less than three-fifths of all members of that House:

And whereas it is necessary and expedient that this Act shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution:

PART I

PRELIMINARY

65 of 2000.

UNOFFICIAL VERSION

UPDATED TO DECEMBER 31ST 2012

- (f) monitor community residences, foster homes and nurseries and conduct periodic reviews to determine their compliance with such requirements as may be prescribed;
- (g) issue, suspend and revoke licences of community residences and nurseries as provided under the Children's Community Residences, Foster Care and Nurseries Act, 2000; 65 of 2000.
- (h) advise the Minister on matters relating to the operation of this Act; and
- (i) do all such things as may be necessary or expedient for the proper performance of its duties.

(2) In the course of exercising its powers under subsection (1), the Authority may provide the following services to children assessed by the Authority to be in need of those services while they are living with their families:

- (a) advice, guidance and counselling;
- (b) occupational, social, cultural or recreational activities;
- (c) home help; and
- (d) facilities for or assistance with travelling to and from home for the purpose of accessing any other service provided by the Authority or any similar service.

5A. In exercising its powers in relation to the adoption of children, the Authority shall—

- (a) receive applications from parents, guardians and prospective adopters in respect of the adoption of children;
- (b) make such investigations concerning the adoption of children for the consideration of the Court as may be prescribed;
- (c) make recommendations to the Court as to whether in its view the adoption is in the best interest of the child whose adoption is sought;
- (d) advise the Minister regarding adoption matters generally; and
- (e) listen to the views of the child.

Powers of Authority in relation to adoptions. [14 of 2008].

Duties of the Authority.
[14 of 2008].

6. (1) It shall be the duty of the Authority to—
- (a) promote the well being of the child;
 - (b) recognise and give effect to the right of the parent to be heard and the right of the parent to a fair hearing;
 - (c) act as an advocate to promote the rights of all children in Trinidad and Tobago;
 - (d) take all reasonable steps to ensure the availability of accommodation necessary for compliance with this Act;
 - (e) take all reasonable steps to ensure the availability of staff required for proper implementation of the Act, inclusive of programmes for training;
 - (f) take all reasonable steps to prevent children from suffering ill-treatment or neglect;
 - (g) promote contact between the child and—
 - (i) his parents;
 - (ii) any person who is not his parent but who has parental responsibility for him; or
 - (iii) any relative, friend or other person connected with him, except where it is not reasonably practicable or is prejudicial to the welfare of the child;

- (h) exercise such powers as are conferred on it by this Act and as may be necessary with respect to any child so as to serve the best interests of that child;
- (i) make use of such facilities and services available for children that are provided by other agencies or institutions, as appears reasonably necessary to the Authority.

(2) When determining what is in the best interest of a child, the Authority shall take into consideration—

- (a) the love, affection, and other emotional ties existing between the parties involved and the child;

- (b) the capacity and disposition of the parties involved to—
 - (i) give the child love, affection and guidance and to continue the education and raising of the child in his or her religion, if any; and
 - (ii) provide the child with food, clothing, medical care or other remedial care;
- (c) the length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory environment, and the desirability of maintaining the status quo;
- (ca) where appropriate, preserving the family unit and reuniting the child with his relatives at the earliest opportunity;
- (cb) the right of the child to the enjoyment of family life;
- (cc) the right of the child to be heard;
- (cd) the right of the child to representation and a fair hearing; and
- (ce) any other relevant support necessary for the well being of the child;
- (d) the permanence of the family unit;
- (e) the home, school and community record of the child;
- (f) the willingness and ability of each parent to facilitate and encourage a close parent-child relationship between the child and the other parent or the child and the parents;
- (g) the willingness and ability of relatives to facilitate and encourage familial relationships between the child and other family members;
- (h) domestic violence or any other form of abuse, regardless of whether the violence was directed against or witnessed by the child;
- (i) the reasonable preference of the child, if the Authority considers the child to be of an age and maturity to express such preference; and
- (j) any other factor that the Authority may consider relevant to the particular child.

Board of Management.
[14 of 2008].

7. (1) The Authority shall be managed by a Board of Management (hereinafter referred to as the "Board") which will be in charge of the administration of the Act.

(2) The Board shall consist of no more than eleven persons and no less than seven persons who shall be appointed by the President and have the following professional qualifications and skills:

- (a) child psychology; or
- (b) child psychiatry;
- (c) social work;
- (d) paediatrics;
- (e) education;

(2A) The persons selected under subsection (1) shall include—

- (a) a person under the age of twenty-five years representing the youth appointed by the President;
- (b) a person nominated by the Tobago House of Assembly with experience in children's issues appointed by the President;
- (c) the Director of the Authority appointed under section 10 who shall be an ex officio member of the Board; and
- (d) a representative of a Non-Governmental Organisation which promotes the welfare and protection of children.

(3) The President shall appoint from among the persons mentioned in subsection (2), one member to be the Chairman of the Board.

(4) A member of the Board shall hold office for such period as stated in his instrument of appointment and shall be eligible for reappointment.

(5) The Board at its first meeting shall, subject to the approval of the Minister, select from among its members a Deputy Chairman.

(6) A member of the Board may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Chairman, who shall forthwith cause it to be forwarded to the Minister, and the Chairman may resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister.

(7) The President may terminate the appointment of a member of the Board where the member—

- (a) is of unsound mind or is incapable of carrying on his duties;
- (b) becomes bankrupt or compounds with his creditors;
- (c) is convicted of any offence which brings his office into disrepute;
- (d) is guilty of misconduct in relation to his duties;
- (e) is absent, except on leave granted by the Board, during three consecutive, duly constituted meetings of the Board; or
- (f) fails to carry out any of the duties or functions conferred on or assigned to him under this Act.

(8) The names of the members of the Board as constituted under this Act and every change thereof, shall be published in the Gazette.

(9) The Board may meet as often as required, but shall meet at least once a month.

(10) The quorum for a meeting of the Board shall be five inclusive of the Chairman or Deputy Chairman.

(10A) Where a decision is to be made by the Board and the number of members sitting to vote is even, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

(10B) Where members are temporarily unable to perform their duties, the President may appoint other persons to act in their stead.

(11) The Board may by way of rules or resolutions regulate its own procedure for the conduct of its business.

7A. (1) Where a decision with respect to the adoption of a child arises, a committee of the Board to be known as the Adoption Committee shall sit to take such decision.

[14 of 2008].

10. (1) Subject to section 7, the Board shall appoint a Director who shall be responsible for the day-to-day functions of the Authority who shall also be the co-ordinator of all the units created in section 11.

(1A) The Board shall appoint at least one Deputy Director who shall assist the Director with the day-to-day functions of the Authority.

(1B) The Board shall appoint a Secretary on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.

(2) The Board may delegate any of its functions to the Director or to the Deputy Director.

11. For the effective management of its duties and functions, the Authority shall have such units and centres including an Adoption Unit and a Foster Care Unit as may be prescribed by the Minister on the advice of the Board.

Composition of Authority.
[14 of 2008].

12. }
13. } (Repealed by Act No. 14 of 2008).

14. (1) The Authority shall maintain Assessment and Support Centres and Reception Centres.

Assessment and Support Centres and Reception Centres.
[14 of 2008].

(2) An Assessment and Support Centre shall be responsible for—

- (a) the initial assessment and referral of children coming to the attention of the Authority; and
- (b) where necessary, shall liaise with support services and agencies for counselling, investigations and continued management of cases, and shall be staffed with social workers with experience in children's issues.

(3) A Reception Centre shall be responsible for the temporary care of children received by the Authority.

(4) A Reception Centre shall have available to them qualified social workers, a child psychologist, medical and other qualified personnel, including a child psychiatrist who shall—

- (a) carry out initial medical examinations, diagnostic assessments and formulate treatment plans;

- (b) make recommendations to the Board on the child's placement; and
- (c) implement plans in respect of any child in the care of a Reception Centre.

(4A) The Authority may also make other arrangements for the availability of such qualified personnel as it may need from time to time.

(5) A Reception Centre may source any support services it may require with respect to any child referred by the Intake Centre.

(6) A child received by the Authority shall not remain in a Reception Centre for a period exceeding twelve weeks.

15. (Repealed by Act No. 14 of 2008).

Staff of the Authority.

16. The Authority shall appoint on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and subject to such maximum limits of remuneration as the Minister may determine, such staff as it considers necessary for the efficient exercise and performance of its functions under this Act.

Transfer on secondment. [14 of 2008].

17. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and to the approval of the Authority, the appropriate Service Commission and the officer, any officer in the public service may be on secondment to the service of the Authority or from the service of the Authority to the public service.

(2) Where secondment referred to in subsection (1) is effected, arrangements shall be made to preserve the rights of the officers seconded to any pension, gratuity or other allowance for which he would have been eligible had he not been seconded.

(3) A period of secondment shall be for three years and may only be extended once for a further period of up to two years.

Transfer of public affairs to Authority. [14 of 2008].

18. An officer in the public service may with the approval of the appropriate Service Commission consent to be transferred to the service of the Authority.

Pension rights and schemes. [14 of 2008].

19. (1) The Authority shall provide for the establishment and maintenance of a pension plan or arrange for membership in a plan for its employees.

(2) A member of the public service who transfers to the Authority shall become a member of any pension plan operated for the benefit of employees of the Authority.

(3) Superannuation benefits which have accrued to any person who was transferred from the public service to the Authority under section 18, shall be preserved at the date of his transfer to the Authority and such person shall continue to accrue such benefits under the relevant pensions legislation up to the date—

- (a) of the establishment of a pension plan under this section; or
- (b) that arrangements are made for membership in a plan.

(4) Superannuation benefits accrued under subsection (3) shall be calculated on the basis of pay, pensionable emoluments or salary applicable to the office which the person held immediately prior to his employment by the Authority.

(5) Where a person who transferred from the public service to the Authority dies or retires before—

- (a) the establishment of a pension plan under this section; or
- (b) arrangements could be made for membership in a plan, and at the date of his death or retirement was in receipt of a salary higher than the pay, pensionable emoluments or salary applicable to the office which he held immediately prior to his employment by the Authority, the difference in superannuation benefits payable on the basis of the higher salary and those payable under the relevant pension legislation on the basis of the salary referred to in subsection (4) shall be paid by the Authority.

(6) Where a person who transferred from the public service to the Authority dies or retires while being a member of any pension plan—

- (a) established by the Authority under this section; or
- (b) in respect of which arrangements have been made for membership, he shall be paid superannuation benefits at the amount which when combined with the superannuation benefits payable under subsection (3) is the equivalent to the benefits based on his pensionable service in the public service combined with his service in the Authority and calculated at the pensionable salary applicable to him on the date of his retirement or death.

Employment of persons for specific tasks.

20. The Authority may employ, on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and subject to such maximum limits of remuneration as the Minister may determine, persons to perform specific tasks that the Authority considers necessary for the due performance of its functions under this Act.

Authority subject to directions of the Minister. [14 of 2008].

21. The Minister may give in writing, general or special directions to the Board, on policy matters, in the exercise of its duties and powers under the Act which the Authority shall follow.

PART III

CHILDREN IN NEED OF CARE AND PROTECTION

Power of the Authority to provide for children. [14 of 2008].

22. (1) Where the Authority is of the view that a child is in need of care and protection and that its intervention is necessary in the best interest of the child, it shall investigate the matter and it shall be lawful where appropriate, for the Authority to receive the child into its care.

(1A) A child is in need of care and protection where the child—

- (a) has neither parent nor guardian who is fit to exercise care and guardianship;
- (b) is lost or has been and remains abandoned by his parent or guardian;
- (c) whose parent or guardian is prevented by—
 - (i) reason of mental or bodily disease;
 - (ii) infirmity or other incapacity; or
 - (iii) any other circumstances,
 from providing for his up-bringing, and there is no available person or persons capable, fit or willing to undertake the care of such child;
- (d) is exposed to moral danger;
- (e) is beyond the control of his parent or guardian;

- (f) is ill-treated or neglected in a manner likely to cause him suffering or injury to health;
- (g) is destitute or is wandering without any settled place of abode and without visible means of subsistence;
- (h) is begging or receiving alms;
- (i) is found loitering for the purpose of begging or receiving alms;
- (j) frequents the company of any criminal; or
- (k) frequents the company of any common or reputed prostitute not being the mother of the child.

(2) A police officer or any other person having reasonable grounds for believing that a child is in need of care or protection may seek the assistance of the Authority for care or protection of such child.

(3) In this section a child is deemed to be abandoned where he has no parent or other person willing and able to take care of him.

23. (1) Where the Authority receives a child into its care under section 22, it shall immediately make an application to the Court for—

Wardship of children in the care of the Authority. [14 of 2008].

- (a) a Wardship Order under the Family Law (Guardianship of Minors, Domicile and Maintenance) Act to be made in respect of the child and any other Order; or
- (b) an Order including an interim Order under section 25 that the Authority determines necessary.

Ch. 46:08.

(2) Where the Authority makes an application for a Wardship Order in pursuance of subsection (1), the Authority shall join the parent or guardian of the child in the application.

(3) An application for an interim Order under subsection (1) may be made ex parte.

24. (Repealed by Act No. 14 of 2008).

Powers of Court in respect of children in need of care and protection. [14 of 2008].

Ch. 46:01.

Family Assistance Order. [14 of 2008].

Secure Accommodation Order. [14 of 2008].

Care Order. [14 of 2008].

25. Where the Court is satisfied that a child brought before it by the Authority is a child in need of care and protection, the Court may make the following:

- (a) a Family Assistance Order;
- (b) a Secure Accommodation Order;
- (c) a Care Order;
- (d) a Child Assessment Order;
- (e) an Emergency Protection Order;
- (f) a Recovery Order;
- (g) a Fit Person Order under the Children Act;
- (h) a Recognisance Order;
- (i) a Foster Care Order;
- (j) an Order freeing a child for adoption;
- (k) a Contribution Order under section 44; or
- (l) any other Order including an interim Order as the Court thinks fit.

25A. A Family Assistance Order made under section 25(a) shall be for the purpose of counselling and any other relevant assistance deemed necessary for the well being of the child.

25B. A Secure Accommodation Order made under section 25(b) shall be for the purpose of restricting the liberty of the child where it appears to the Court that the child has a history of absconding and is likely to abscond from another type of accommodation where the child is likely to—

- (a) suffer significant harm if he absconds; or
- (b) injure himself or other persons if he is kept in any other kind of accommodation.

25C. (1) A Care Order made under section 25(c) shall be for the purpose of placing a child under the care of the Authority or a community residence.

(2) A Care Order under this section may be made on the application of the Authority, a probation officer or an officer of the National Family Services Division of the Ministry with responsibility for the delivery of social services.

25D. (1) A Child Assessment Order made under section 25(d) shall be for the purpose of assessing—

Child
Assessment
Order.
[14 of 2008].

- (a) the state of a child's health;
- (b) the child's development; or
- (c) the manner in which the child has been treated.

(2) The Court may make a Child Assessment Order where it is satisfied that—

- (a) the applicant has reasonable cause to suspect that the child is suffering or is likely to suffer physical, emotional, mental or psychological harm;
- (b) such an assessment is required to enable the applicant to determine whether or not the child is suffering or is likely to suffer harm; and
- (c) it will be unlikely that an assessment will be made or be satisfactory in the absence of the Order.

(3) A Child Assessment Order—

- (a) shall specify the period of assessment and the date on which the assessment is to begin; and
- (b) may require the medical, psychiatric and psychological examination of the child.

(4) Where a Child Assessment Order states that a child shall be kept away from his home, it shall specify the conditions under which the child may be so kept, including the degree of contact with other persons that he may be allowed during that period.

(5) Where the Court makes a Child Assessment Order, the person who is in de facto control of the child or who is in a position to produce the child, shall comply with any direction in the Order and produce the child to the person named in the Order.

25E. (1) An Emergency Protection Order under section 25(e) shall be made where the Court is of the view that—
