uniform, etc.,
of the Boy Scouts Association.

3. It shall not be lawful for any person, not being under the bye-laws or rules of the Association duly authorised and entitled so to do, publicly to wear, carry, or bear any uniform, badge, token, or emblem, which under the said bye-laws or rules are specifically adopted for use under the authority of the Association, in such style or manner as to convey an impression that such person is, under the said bye-laws or rules, entitled so to wear, carry, or bear such uniform, badge, token, or emblem.

Boy Scout
not to pass
himself off
as member of Police Force.

4. (1) It shall not be lawful for any Boy Scout, not being otherwise thereunto lawfully entitled and authorised, to pretend to be, or to pass himself off as, or to arrogate to himself the authority, position, or powers of, or to claim to be or to act as, a member of the Police Force.

(2) No Boy Scout shall seek or attempt, by virtue of his wearing any uniform, badge, token, or emblem of the Association, or uniform, badge, token, or emblem purporting or appearing to be such, to enforce or exercise authority otherwise than in accordance with and as authorised by the bye-laws or rules of the Association.

5. It shall not be lawful for any person to form, organise, or work in connection with, or be concerned in forming, organising, or in work in connection with, any corps or body which, without due authority granted under the Royal Charter of the Association, claims or purports to be Boy Scouts or otherwise to be connected with the Association, or which hold themselves out as, or pass themselves off as, Boy Scouts or as otherwise connected with the Association.

No person falsely to claim connection with Boy Scouts Association.

6. Any person contravening any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of forty-eight dollars, or to imprisonment for one month, or to both.
