

Government, That it shall be lawful for the Supreme Civil Court in Equity on any Bill filed for the Partition of any lands, if such Court shall see fit in lieu of ordering a partition to order that such lands or any of them be sold subject to any incumbrances on the same under such terms, and with such directions as the Court shall see fit, and the moneys arising from such sale shall be divided between the several tenants of such lands according to their respective interests in the same.

2. That it shall be lawful for any person, party to any such Bill of Partition, with the leave of the Court, to be granted on such terms and conditions as to the Court shall seem meet, to bid for and become the purchaser of any such lands which may be so ordered to be sold.

3. That where any lands shall be sold under any such order or decree, the same shall be conveyed by the Registrar of the Court to the purchaser of such lands, and every such conveyance shall have the same force and effect as if the same had been executed by the several tenants of such lands, being parties in the cause.

4. That the word "Lands" throughout this Ordinance shall extend to all lands, messuages and hereditaments whether corporeal or incorporeal.

Passed in Council this sixth day of August, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

RICHARD D. CADIZ,
Clerk of Council.

No 9.—1856.

22nd September.

AN ORDINANCE to authorise the Supreme Civil Court in Equity to invest Infants' Moneys on security.

CHARLES ELLIOT.

WHEREAS by an order of Her Majesty in Her Privy Council, bearing date the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, it is amongst other things provided, that where by reason of the infancy of any person entitled to any legacy, or to the residue of any personal estate or any part thereof chargeable with duty by virtue of the said Order, the person or persons having or taking the burthen of any Will or the administration of such personal estate cannot pay such legacy or any part thereof, although he, she, or they may have effects for that purpose, or cannot pay such residue or some part thereof, although he, she, or they may have the same or some part thereof in his, her, or their hands, it shall be lawful for such person or persons to pay such legacy or residue, or any part or parts thereof, respectively, or any sum or sums of money on account thereof, after deducting the duty chargeable thereon into the Colonial Treasury, to be placed to the account of the person or persons for whose benefit the same shall be so paid: And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made to authorise the Supreme Civil Court in Equity to invest such moneys at interest for the benefit of such infants: Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of Government, That it shall be lawful for the Supreme Civil Court in Equity on the petition of any infant who may be entitled to any moneys which may have been, or which may hereafter be paid into the Colonial Treasury to the credit of such infant under the provisions of the said Order of Her Majesty in Council, of the third day of February aforesaid, to order such moneys or any part or parts thereof to be invested at interest for the benefit of such infant on such real securities in this Island, or in the purchase in the name of such infant, or of a trustee or trustees for such infant of any public stock of Great Britain, or of any stock or debentures issued by and under the authority of the Government of this Colony in such manner as to the Court shall seem fit, and also to order that the costs of or attendant upon any such petition, or any such purchase or investment be paid from and out of such moneys.

Passed in Council this twenty-second day of September, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

RICHARD D. CADIZ,
Clerk of Council.