No. 25.—1845.

AN ORDINANCE to regulate the mode of Proceeding
by Scire Facias on Judgments.

(L.S.) H. MACLEOD.

WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the mode of proceeding by scire facias on judgments to be recovered in the Supreme Civil Court: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of the Island of Trinidad and its dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of Government thereof, That in all cases where final judgment in any action shall hereafter be recovered in the Supreme Civil Court of the Island, and a year and a day shall have elapsed after the signing of such judgment, without execution being sued out thereon and without any agreement between the parties for a stay of execution, or the plaintiff or defendant shall die after judgment recovered and before execution sued out thereon, the plaintiff, or if he or she be dead, his or her representative shall and may have such writ of scire facias for the reviving of such judgment against the defendant if living, or if he or she be dead, then against his or her executor or administrator, or his or her heir and terretenants as a plaintiff or his representative would be entitled to in the like case according to the practice of the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster; and if the defendant, or if he or she be dead, his or her executor or administrator, heir or terretenants being summoned shall make default, or it be returned that the defendant, or his or her executor or administrator, or his or her heir could not be found and had no attorney in the Island, the plaintiff or his or her representative, prosecuting such writ of scire facias, shall be entitled to final judgment, with costs and execution thereon; but in case the defendant, or, if he or she be dead, his or her executor or administrator, or his or her heir and terretenants, shall appear, the plaintiff or his or her representative prosecuting such writ of scire facias, shall declare and proceedings shall be had thereupon, and all issues to be joined between the parties thereto shall be tried and determined in the same manner as in ordinary actions.

When a year and a day shall have elapsed after final judgment, or plaintiff or defendant shall die after judgment and before execution, judgment to be enforced by scire facias, as in England.

Where the plaintiff or defendant being a single woman shall marry after judgment recovered and before execution, judgment to be revived by or against the husband by scire facias.

Proviso.
Ordinance not to extend to judgments in suits before the three Judges.

Judges of the Supreme Civil Court to devise writ and make rules—such rules to be approved by the Governor.

Commence-

2. And be it enacted, That if any plaintiff or defendant being a single woman, shall marry after judgment recovered by or against her, and before execution sued out thereupon, such judgment may be revived and enforced by or against the husband of such woman, by writ of scire facias, in the same manner as nearly as circumstances will permit, as is used in the like cases in the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster.

3. Provided always and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained, shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to any judgment to be recovered in the said Supreme Civil Court in any suit before the three Judges of the said Court.

4. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Judges of the said Supreme Civil Court from time to time to devise such form of writ, and to make and establish such rules, orders, and regulations as to them shall seem meet for the purpose of giving effect to and carrying out the objects and provisions of this Ordinance, which rules, orders, and regulations, shall be forthwith transmitted under the seal of the said Court to the Governor for his approval or disallowance, and if approved of, the same shall be promulgated by the Governor, and shall take effect and come into force on the expiration of seven days next after the day of such promulgation.

5. And be it enacted, That this Ordinance shall commence and take effect upon and from and after the <sup>ment of</sup> seventh day of October next. Ordinance.

No. 30.—1845.

AN ORDINANCE to prevent the undue Introduction into this Colony of Persons afflicted with Leprosy.

(L. S.) H. MACLEOD.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Ordinance passed on the second day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, entitled, "An Ordinance for establishing an Asylum for indigent Lepers, and providing for their care, maintenance and support," an asylum has been prepared and opened for the reception of lepers at Cocorite in this Island: And whereas there is reason to believe that persons afflicted with the disease of leprosy have been brought into this Island for the purpose of being admitted into the said asylum, whereby the public charges of the Colony may be increased: For remedy thereof, Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor in and over the Island of Trinidad and its dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of Government thereof, that from and after the commencement of this Ordinance, it shall not be lawful for any person afflicted with the disease of leprosy to come into and land in this Colony

No person afflicted with leprosy to come into and land in the Colony
