

No. 17.—1876.

1st December.

AN ORDINANCE for further amending the Law
with regard to Wardens.

(L.S.) HENRY T. IRVING.

5th December, 1876.

Preamble.
Cites Ordinances 13 of 1852 and 14
of 1854.

WHEREAS an Ordinance, No. 13 of 1852, was passed in Council on the first day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, intituled "An Ordinance for amending and consolidating the law with regard to the appointment of wardens and the powers and duties of such wardens;" and whereas another Ordinance, No. 14 of 1854, was passed in Council on the twenty-second day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, intituled "An Ordinance to make certain amendments and alterations in an Ordinance entitled 'An Ordinance for amending and consolidating the law with regard to the appointment of Wardens and the powers and duties of such Wardens;'" and whereas it is expedient further to amend and alter the law with regard to wardens and wards: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, as follows:—

Construction. 1. This Ordinance shall be read and construed with the said Ordinances No. 13 of 1852, and No. 14 of 1854, as one Ordinance.

Repeals Clause 5 of Ordinance 14
of 1854.

2. The fifth Clause of the said Ordinance No. 14 of 1854 is hereby repealed, and all moneys which are now standing to the credit of each ward in any ward union, and all moneys which shall hereafter be levied and raised therein, and all moneys which are directed by any order rule or law to be carried to the credit or applied to the uses of any ward shall be carried to the credit and be applied to the uses of the ward union comprising such ward.

3. The sixty-first, sixty-second, sixty-third and sixty-fifth Clauses of the said Ordinance, No. 13 of 1852, are also hereby repealed, provided that

Repeals
Clauses 61, 62, 63, and
65 of Ordinance 13 of 1852.

Such repeal shall not affect any right accrued or any penalty or forfeiture incurred before the coming into operation of this Ordinance or any remedy for the same.

4. The annual rate to be made, assessed and levied under and by virtue of the said Ordinance No. 13 of 1852, shall be a fixed percentage of seven and a half per centum of the rent or annual value of houses, mines and quarries, and sixpence in the pound of the value of lands to be taken and estimated as is directed by the last-mentioned Ordinance, or any other Ordinance in force on the subject.

Annual rate.

5. All moneys which may be paid to the Receiver General by the warden of any ward union or which may be issued or paid by the Receiver General on account or for the uses of any ward union shall be carried by the Receiver General to a separate account to be opened in a book to be kept by him in the name of such ward union, and an annual account showing the amount of all moneys received and payments made in respect of each ward union shall be laid before the Legislative Council.

Receipt and payment of ward moneys
by Receiver-
General.
