No. 10.—1872.

1st July.

AN ORDINANCE to make provision for certain Public Holidays and respecting obligations to make Payments and do other acts on such Public Holidays.

(L.S.) J. R. LONGDEN, Governor.

6th July, 1872.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for appointing certain days to be public holidays, and for enabling public holidays to be appointed by proclamation: Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Trinidad, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, as follows:—

1. After the passing of this Ordinance the several days in the schedule to this Ordinance mentioned (and which days are hereinafter referred to as public holidays) shall be kept as close holidays in all the public offices, and in all banks in this Colony.

2. All bills of exchange and promissory notes which are due and payable on any such public holiday shall be payable, and in case of non-payment may be noted and protested on the next following day and not on such public holiday; and any such noting or protest shall be as valid as if made on the day on which the bill or note was made due and payable; and for all the purposes of this Ordinance the day next following a public holiday shall mean the next following day on which a bill of exchange may be lawfully noted or protested.

3. When the day on which any notice of dishonour of an unpaid bill of exchange or promissory note should be given, or when the day on which a bill of exchange or promissory note should be presented or received for acceptance, or accepted or forwarded to any referee or referees, is a public holiday, such notice of dishonour shall be given, and such bill of exchange or promissory note shall be presented or forwarded on the day next following such public holiday.

4. No person shall be compellable to make any payment or do any act upon such public holiday which he would not be compellable to do or make on Christmas Day or Good Friday; and the obligation to make such payment and do such act shall apply to the day following such public holiday, and the making of such payment and doing such act on such following day shall be equivalent to payment of the money or performance of the act on the public holiday.

5. It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, as he may see fit, by proclamation under the public seal of the Colony to appoint a special day to be kept as a close holiday in all public offices and in all banks in the Colony; and every day so appointed shall as regards bills of exchange and promissory notes be deemed to be a public holiday for all the purposes of this Ordinance.

6. This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Public Holidays Ordinance, 1872."

Passed in Council the first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.
