

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO.

Public Health Amendment.

No. 6.—1895.

18th February.

AN ORDINANCE to authorize the appointment of Sanitary Inspectors in Boroughs.

[L.S.]

F. NAPIER BROOME,

GOVERNOR.

4th March, 1895.

WHEREAS by "The Public Health Ordinance, 1869," (16—1869) Section 5, the Governor is among other things authorized to appoint Sanitary Inspectors for the Boroughs of Port-of-Spain and San Fernando.

And whereas since the commencement of "The Public Health Ordinance, 1869," the Town of Arima has been duly constituted a Borough within the limits defined in its Charter of Incorporation.

And whereas it is expedient to authorize the Governor to appoint Sanitary Inspectors as well for the Borough of Arima as for any other Borough which may hereafter be duly constituted.

No. 6. Public Health Amendment. 1895.

Be it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as “The Public Health Amendment Ordinance, 1895.”

Construction. This Ordinance shall be read and construed as one with “The Public Health Ordinance, 1869,” and the Ordinance No. 9 of 1881, intituled “An Ordinance to amend the Public Health Ordinance, 1869.”

“The Public Health Ordinance, 1869,” and the Ordinance No. 9—1881, and this Ordinance may together for all purposes be cited as “The Public Health Ordinances, 1869, 1881 and 1895.”

Interpretation. 2. In this Ordinance the term “Sanitary Inspector” means and includes Assistant Sanitary Inspector.

Power to appoint Sanitary Inspector. 3. The Governor may from time to time appoint such person as he shall see fit to be a Sanitary Inspector for the Borough of Arima or for any Borough which may at any time hereafter be duly constituted.

Indemnity. 4. All acts heretofore done by any person as Sanitary Inspector of the Borough of Arima under and by virtue of any appointment to such office heretofore made by any Governor are hereby declared to be good, valid and effectual to all intents and purposes in the same manner and to the same extent as if such appointment to such office had been made under the authority of this Ordinance, and every person heretofore appointed shall be held absolutely harmless and indemnified from and against all manner of suits, actions, or liabilities which
