No. 3.—1916.

Repealed by 10/1923

I ASSENT,

[L.S.]

S. W. KNAGGS,
Acting Governor.

15th March, 1916.

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Marriage Ordinance,
No. 59.

[15th March, 1916.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Marriage Short Title.
(Amendment) Ordinance, 1916.

2.—(1.) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnized or contracted in the Colony between a British subject resident in the Colony and a British subject resident in the United Kingdom, a certificate for marriage lawfully issued in England, Scotland or Ireland, as the case may be, shall have the same effect as a certificate of notice of marriage issued by a District Registrar in the Colony. Facilities for marriages between British subjects resident in the United Kingdom and British subjects resident in the Colony.

(2.) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnized or contracted in the United Kingdom between a British subject resident in the Colony and a British subject resident in England, Scotland or Ireland, a certificate of notice of marriage may be issued in the Colony by a District Registrar in the like manner as if the marriage was to be solemnized or contracted under circumstances requiring the issue of such certificate and as if both such British subjects were resident in the Colony.

(3.) For the purposes of Sub-section (1) of this section the expression "certificate for marriage lawfully issued" means:

- (a.) In the case of England, a certificate for marriage issued by a superintendent registrar;
- (b.) In the case of Scotland, a certificate for marriage issued by a registrar or a certificate of proclamation of banns;
- (c.) In the case of Ireland, a certificate for marriage issued by a registrar.

Passed in Council this Third day of March, in the year of Our Lord One thousand nine hundred and sixteen.

J. M. FARFAN,
Acting Clerk of the Council.
