

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO.

No. 17.—1912.

*11th March.*AN ORDINANCE to amend the Coroners' Ordinance,
No. 8.

[L.S.]

GEORGE R. LE HUNTE,

GOVERNOR.

20th March, 1912.

*Republished
15/7/19*

BE it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Coroners' (Amendment) Ordinance, 1912, and shall be read as one with the Coroners' Ordinance, No. 8, hereinafter called the principal Ordinance.

Deaths in certain prisons.

2. If at any time the Medical Officer of the Royal Gaol or of the Female Prison at St. James or of the Carrera Convict Depôt is also the District Medical Officer of the district in which any such prison is situated, the powers vested in and the duties imposed on such District Medical Officer by the principal Ordinance as to persons dying while confined as prisoners in such prison shall not be performed or exercised by such District Medical Officer, but by some other Government or Supernumerary Medical Officer or member of the Medical Board appointed for the purpose by the Surgeon-General with the approval of the Governor; and in all such cases the provisions of the said Ordinance shall be read and construed subject to this enactment.

Passed in Council this Eleventh day of March, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

HARRY L. KNAGGS,
Clerk of the Council.
