

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO.

No. 24.—1912.

10th April.

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Pensions Ordinance,
No. 175.

[L.S.]

GEORGE R. LE HUNTE,

GOVERNOR.

19th April, 1912.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Pensions (Amend- Short Title.
ment) Ordinance, 1912, and shall be read as one with the Pensions Ordinance, No. 175, hereinafter called the principal Ordinance, and also with the Pensions (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 29—1905, the Pensions Ordinance, No. 37—1907 and the Pensions Ordinance No. 42—1908.

2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 11 of the Principal Ordinance, the following provisions shall apply to a pension granted under the Principal Ordinance, that is to say:— Pensions attachable in certain cases.

(a.) Where under the Maintenance of Wives and Children Ordinance, No. 4, or any other Ordinance amending or substituted therefor, an order of maintenance shall have been made against any person to whom a pension has been granted, it shall be lawful for the Governor on its being proved to him that there is no reasonable probability of such order being satisfied, from time to time to deduct from the moneys payable to such person by way of pension such sum or sums as the Governor may deem expedient and to apply the same to satisfy wholly or in part the said order.

- (b.) Where any person to whom a pension has been granted has left the Colony and deserted and left his wife or child within the Colony without sufficient means of support, the Governor, on being satisfied that such wife or child is by reason of such person's absence from the Colony unable and would but for such absence be able to obtain an order of maintenance, may from time to time deduct from the moneys payable to such person by way of pension such sum or sums as the Governor may deem expedient and apply the same for the maintenance and support of such wife or child.

Passed in Council this Tenth day of April, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

HARRY L. KNAGGS,

Clerk of the Council.
