

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO.

No. 6—1927.

I ASSENT,

[L.S.]

W. E. JACKSON,
Acting Governor.

9th May, 1927.

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Agricultural Bank Ordinance.

[9th May, 1927.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

Short title.

Construction.

Cap. 132.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Agricultural Bank (Amendment) Ordinance, 1927, and shall be read as one with the Agricultural Bank Ordinance, hereinafter called the Principal Ordinance.

Board may grant pension and gratuities to officers and servants.

2. The following section shall be inserted in the Principal Ordinance as section 7A:—

7A.—(1) The Board may, subject to the provisions of this section and to the approval of the Governor in Executive Council, grant pensions, gratuities and allowances to officers and servants employed by the Board.

(2) The Board may recommend to the Governor in Executive Council that any office under the Board shall be declared to be pensionable, and the Governor in Executive Council may thereupon, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, by a notification published in the Royal Gazette, declare such office to be pensionable.

(3) Whenever any office under the Board existing on the date on which this section comes into operation has been declared to be pensionable, the notification shall for the purpose of computing the pension of a person holding such office on the said date have effect as if it had been published on or before the date on which such person was appointed to the said office.

(4) The grant of pensions, gratuities and allowances shall be governed by provisions similar to those contained in the law for the time being in force relating to the granting of pensions and allowances to persons who have been in the service of the Colony.

(5) All such pensions, gratuities and allowances shall be a charge against the funds of the Bank.

~~(6) The Governor may, subject to such conditions as he may impose, approve of the appointment of any officer in the service of the Colony to any office under the Board. Provided that in relation to pension, gratuity, allowances and to other rights as a public officer, such officer shall be deemed to be in the service of the Colony while so employed; and provided further that, whenever any pension, gratuity or allowance is granted to any such officer, the Board shall pay from the funds of the Bank to the Government an annual or lump sum, as the case may be, which shall bear the same proportion to such pension, gratuity or allowance as the period during which such officer has been in the employment of the Board bears to his total pensionable service in the Colony.~~ *see § 2 of 15/1927

for new §§ (6)*

Passed in Council this twenty-ninth day of April, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven.

E. F. AANENSEN,
Acting Clerk of the Council.
