coin so defaced not to be a legal tender, and penalty for uttering the same.

19. Whosoever shall make or counterfeit any kind of coin not being the King's current gold or silver coin, but resembling or apparently intended to resemble or pass for any gold or silver coin of any foreign prince, state, or country, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding ten years, with or without hard labour.

Counterfeiting foreign gold or silver coin.

20. Whosoever, without lawful authority or excuse (the proof whereof shall lie on the party accused), shall bring or receive into the Colony any such false or counterfeit coin resembling or apparently intended to resemble or pass for any gold or silver coin of any foreign prince, state, or country, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding ten years, with or without hard labour.

Penalty for uttering such counterfeit coin.

21. Whosoever shall tender, utter, or put off any such false or counterfeit coin resembling or apparently intended to resemble or pass for any gold or silver coin of any foreign prince, state, or country, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one year, with or without hard labour.

Second offence of uttering counterfeit foreign coin.

22. Whosoever, having been so convicted as in the last preceding section mentioned, shall afterwards commit the like offence of tendering, uttering, or putting off any such false or counterfeit coin as aforesaid, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three years, with or without hard labour; and whosoever, having been so convicted of a second offence, shall afterwards commit the like offence of tendering, uttering, or putting off any such false or counterfeit coin as aforesaid, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term of years, with or without hard labour.

Third offence.

Persons counterfeiting foreign coin other than gold and silver coin.

23. Whosoever shall falsely make or counterfeit any kind of coin not being the King's current coin, but resembling or apparently intended to resemble or pass for any copper coin, or any other coin made of metal or mixed metals of less value than the silver coin of any foreign prince, state, or country, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof shall be liable, for the first offence, to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one year, and for the second offence to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three years, with or without hard labour.

Penalty on persons having more than five pieces of such false or counterfeit coin in their possession.

24. Whosoever, without lawful authority or excuse (the proof whereof shall lie on the party accused), shall have in his custody or possession any greater number of pieces than five pieces of false or counterfeit coin resembling or apparently intended to resemble or pass for any gold or silver coin of any foreign prince, state, or country, or any such copper or other coin as in the last preceding section mentioned, shall, on summary conviction thereof before a Magistrate, forfeit and lose all such false or counterfeit coin, which shall be cut in pieces and destroyed by order of such Magistrate, and shall, for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum of money not exceeding five pounds for every such piece of false or counterfeit coin which shall be found in the custody or possession of such person, or shall be imprisoned for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour.

25. Whosoever, without lawful authority or excuse (the proof whereof shall lie on the party accused), shall knowingly make or mend, or begin or proceed to make or mend, or buy or sell, or have in his custody or possession, any puncheon, counter-puncheon, matrix, stamp, die, pattern, or mould, in or upon which there shall be made or impressed, or which will make or impress, or which shall be adapted and intended to make or impress, the figure, stamp, or apparent resemblance of both or either of the sides of any of the King's current gold or silver coin, or of any coin of any foreign prince, state, or country, or any part or parts of both or either of such sides; or shall make or mend, or begin or proceed to make or mend, or shall buy or sell, or have in his custody or possession, any edger, edging or other tool, collar, instrument, or engine adapted and intended for the marking of coin round the edges with letters, grainings, or other marks or figures apparently resembling those on the edges of any such coin as in this section aforesaid, knowing the same to be so adapted and intended as aforesaid, or shall make or mend, or begin or proceed to make or mend, or shall buy or sell, or shall have in his custody or possession, any press for coinage, or any cutting engine for cutting by force of a screw or any other contrivance, round blanks out of gold, silver, or other metal, or mixture of metals, or any other machine, knowing such press to be a press for coinage, or knowing such engine or machine to have been used or to be intended to be used for or in order to the false making or counterfeiting of any such coin as in this section aforesaid, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term of years, with or without hard labour.

Making, mending, or having possession of any coining tools, felony.

Coin suspected to be diminished or counterfeit may be cut by any person to whom it is tendered.

26. Where any coin shall be tendered as the King's current gold or silver coin to any person who shall suspect the same to be diminished otherwise than by reasonable wearing, or to be counterfeit, it shall be lawful for such person to cut, break, bend, or deface such coin, and if any coin so cut, broken, bent, or defaced shall appear to be diminished otherwise than by reasonable wearing, or to be counterfeit, the person tendering the same shall bear the loss thereof; but if the same shall be of due weight and shall appear to be lawful coin, the person cutting, breaking, bending, or defacing the same is hereby required to receive the same at the rate it was coined for; and if any dispute shall arise whether the coin so cut, broken, bent, or defaced be diminished in manner aforesaid, or counterfeit, it shall be heard and finally determined in a summary manner by a Magistrate, who is hereby empowered to examine on oath as well the parties as any other person, in order to the decision of such dispute.

Provision for the discovery and seizure of counterfeit coin and coining tools, for securing them as evidence, and for ultimately disposing of them.

27.—(1) If any person shall find or discover in any place whatsoever, or in the custody or possession of any person having the same without lawful authority or excuse, any false or counterfeit coin resembling or apparently intended to resemble or pass for any of the King's current gold, silver, or copper coin, or any coin of any foreign prince, state, or country, or any instrument, tool, or engine whatsoever, adapted and intended for the counterfeiting of any such coin, or any filings or clippings, or any gold or silver bullion, or any gold or silver in dust, solution, or otherwise, which shall have been produced or obtained by diminishing or lightening any of the King's current gold or silver coin, it shall be lawful for the person so finding or discovering, and he is hereby required, to seize the same, and to carry the same forthwith before a Magistrate.

(2) Where it shall be proved, on the oath of a credible witness before any magistrate, that there is reasonable cause to suspect that any person has been concerned in counterfeiting the King's current gold, silver, or copper coin, or any such foreign or other coin as in this Ordinance before mentioned, or has in his custody or possession any such false or counterfeit coin, or any instrument, tool, or engine whatsoever adapted and intended for the making or counterfeiting of any such coin, or any other machine used or intended to be used for making or counterfeiting any such coin, or any such filings, clippings, or bullion, or any such gold or silver in dust, solution, or otherwise as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for a Magistrate, by warrant under his hand, to cause any place whatsoever belonging to or in the occupation or under the control of such suspected person to be searched, either in the day or in the night, and if any such false or counterfeit coin, or any such instrument, tool, or engine, or any such machine, or any such filings, clippings, or bullion, or any such gold or silver in dust, solution, or otherwise as aforesaid, shall be found in any place so searched, to cause the same to be seized and carried forthwith before a Magistrate.

(3) Whensoever any such false or counterfeit coin, or any such instrument, tool, or engine, or any such machine, or any such filings, clippings, or bullion, or any such gold or silver in dust, solution, or otherwise as aforesaid, shall in any case whatsoever be seized and carried before a Magistrate, he shall, if necessary, cause the same to be secured for the purpose of being produced in evidence against any person who may be prosecuted for any offence against this Ordinance.

(4) All such false and counterfeit coin, and all instruments, tools, and engines adapted and intended for the making or counterfeiting of coin, and all such machines, and all such filings, clippings, and bullion, and all such gold and silver in dust, solution, or otherwise as aforesaid, after they shall have been produced in evidence, or when they shall have been seized, and shall not be required to be produced in evidence, shall forthwith be delivered up to the Inspector-General of Constabulary, or to any person authorised by him to receive the same.

28. Where, upon the trial of any person charged with any offence against this Ordinance, it shall be necessary to prove that any coin produced in evidence against such person is false or counterfeit, it shall be sufficient to prove the same to be false or counterfeit by the evidence of any credible witness.

What shall be sufficient proof of coin being counterfeit.

Where the counterfeiting coin shall be complete.

29. Every offence of falsely making or counterfeiting any coin, or of buying, selling, receiving, paying, tendering, uttering, or putting off, or of offering to buy, sell, receive, pay, utter, or put off, any false or counterfeit coin, against the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be deemed to be complete, although the coin so made or counterfeited, or bought, sold, received, paid, tendered, uttered, or put off, or offered to be bought, sold, received, paid, uttered, or put off, shall not be in a fit state to be uttered, or the counterfeiting thereof shall not be finished or perfected.

Any person may apprehend offenders against this Ordinance.

30. It shall be lawful for any person to apprehend without warrant any person who shall be found committing any offence against this Ordinance, and to convey or deliver him to any member of the Constabulary Force, in order to his being conveyed as soon as reasonably may be before a Magistrate to be dealt with according to law.

Fine and sureties for keeping the peace; in what cases.

31. Whenever any person shall be convicted of any indictable misdemeanor punishable under this Ordinance the Court may, if it shall think fit, in addition to or in lieu of any of the punishments by this Ordinance authorized, fine the offender, and require him to enter into his own recognizances, and to find sureties, both or either, for keeping the peace and being of good behaviour; and in case of any felony punishable under this Ordinance, the Court may, if it shall think fit, require the offender to enter into his own recognizances, and to find sureties, both or either, for keeping the peace, in addition to any punishment by this Ordinance authorized: Provided that no person shall be imprisoned under this section for not finding sureties for any period exceeding one year.

Repeal.

32. The Coin Ordinance, No. 18, is hereby repealed.

Passed in Council this thirteenth day of March, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.

JOHN DE NOBRIGA,
Clerk of the Council.
