

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO.

No. 32.—1918.

I ASSENT,

[L.S.]

J. R. CHANCELLOR,

Governor.

18th December, 1918.

AN ORDINANCE to amend and consolidate certain enactments relating to Crown Lands.

[18th December, 1918.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

- Short Title. 1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1918.
- Interpretation. 2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires:—
- “Warden” includes Assistant Warden, Ward Officer, or any person acting under the authority of any Warden;
- “Material” includes asphalt, earth, sand, gravel, stone, shingle, soil, or shells;
- “Constable” means a member of the Constabulary Force;
- “Animal” includes any horse, mule, ass, ox, or other beast;

“Boat” includes any flat, lighter, canoe, craft or other vessel;

“Cart” includes any carriage whether hung on springs or not, or any wheel-barrow, truck, hand cart or other vehicle on wheels whether drawn or propelled by any animal or not;

3.—(1.) The dominion of the sea shore lying between high ^{Foreshore.} water mark and low water mark belongs to and is vested in His Majesty His Heirs and Successors.

(2.) It shall be lawful for the Governor in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty His Heirs and Successors to grant to such persons such part of the sea shore lying between high water mark and low water mark on such considerations as to the Governor may seem fit, and also to grant if he shall see fit licenses to reclaim land from the sea.

(3.) The dominion in all lands so reclaimed shall belong to and be vested in His Majesty His Heirs and Successors or His or Their grantee or grantees.

Intendant: Sub-Intendant.

4. All powers and authorities vested in or exercised by the Court of Intendant in respect of the administration and disposal of the Crown lands shall be exclusively vested in and exercised by the Governor as Intendant of Crown Lands. vide Sec. 2 of 4/1921 for Section 4

Powers of Intendant.

5. The Sub-Intendant shall under the direction of the Governor have the management of all lands of the Crown and shall be charged with the prevention of squatting and encroachment upon the same and of spoil and injury to the woods and forests on such lands, for which purpose he shall have and exercise such and the same powers and authorities as the Surveyor-General was on the eighth day of March, 1869, empowered to exercise by any Ordinance then in force; and shall superintend the settlement and allotment of Crown lands and the laying out of village lots, in such districts as the Governor from time to time directs.

Duties and powers of Sub-Intendant.

6. The Sub-Intendant shall also take possession of, and shall be charged with the care and letting and the collection of the rents of all lands and hereditaments which may belong or escheat to, or which by virtue of any Ordinance may be forfeited to and become vested in His Majesty His Heirs or Successors. Under Sec. 3 of 14/1921 for Sec. 6.

Care, letting and rents of lands.

Regulations as to documents, &c. in keeping of Sub-Intendant.

7. It shall be lawful for the Governor to make regulations as to the search for, inspection, copying or tracing of any document, plan or diagram in the keeping of the Sub-Intendant, and as to the fees to be paid in respect of the matters aforesaid.

Grants and Leases.

Registration of Crown grants.

8. Every grant or lease of Crown lands under the Public Seal of the Colony shall be registered by the Registrar-General in the same manner as a deed on being tendered to him for that purpose.

Surveys.

Power to enter and survey land adjoining Crown land.

9. It shall be lawful for the Director of Public Works, the Sub-Intendant, any Warden or any surveyor authorised in writing by the Director of Public Works or the Sub-Intendant at any time between the hours of six of the clock in the morning and six of the clock in the evening with all proper assistants, upon giving at the least seventy-two hours previous notice in writing of his intention so to do, to enter upon, view and survey any lands adjoining any lands of the Crown, for the purpose of ascertaining whether lands of the Crown have been encroached upon.

Occupier to answer questions as to boundaries.

10.—(1.) Every occupier of land adjoining any Crown land shall be bound, whenever required by any surveyor authorized in writing by the Director of Public Works or the Sub-Intendant to survey any Crown land next to such adjoining land, to answer according to the best of his knowledge information and belief all questions of such surveyor relating to the boundaries of such adjoining land.

(2.) Any occupier acting in contravention of this section is liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Power to enter and survey private land.

11.—(1.) It shall be lawful for the Director of Public Works, the Sub-Intendant, any Warden or any surveyor or other person authorised in writing by the Director of Public Works or the Sub-Intendant, whenever it may be necessary for public purposes to ascertain or define the boundaries of any private lands, to enter at any time between the hours of six of the clock in the morning and six of the clock in the evening upon any such lands upon giving at the least seventy-two hours previous notice in writing of his intention so to do, and to call upon the proprietor or occupant thereof to show his boundaries.

(2.) Any proprietor or occupant wilfully neglecting or refusing to show such boundaries to any such person as aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £10.

12. Any person who—

Assault or obstruction.

(a.) Assaults, hinders or obstructs any person or any of his assistants mentioned in any of the last two preceding sections ; or

(b.) prevents or attempts to prevent any such person or any of his assistants from entering or re-entering upon any such land as is mentioned in such sections is liable to a fine not exceeding £20, or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding three months.

13.—(1.) Any person wilfully damaging any instrument intended to be used in the survey of any lands duly authorised under the provisions of this Ordinance is liable to a penalty not exceeding £50 or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding six months.

Damaging instruments.

(2.) The Magistrate shall also assess and order the offender to pay the amount of the damage done.

14. The owner of any lands entered upon under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be entitled to receive compensation for all damages sustained by reason of the exercise as regards such lands of the powers granted under this Ordinance.

Compensation
for damage.

15. If any person surveys or commences to survey any Crown land without being directed by the Governor to do so, such person shall forfeit to His Majesty the sum of £100.

Unauthorized survey.

Land Marks.

Adjoining owner to maintain landmarks.

16. Every occupier of land adjoining any Crown land shall be bound to maintain undefaced and in its proper position any landmark which the Sub-Intendant by notice under his hand served upon such occupier certifies to be necessary for indicating the boundaries of any Crown land and requires such occupier to maintain.

Knowledge as to certain landmarks to be presumed.

17. Where any landmark is marked with a triangle containing the letters "C.L." or with a circle containing the letters E.R. and a number, or has inscribed on it the words "Crown landmark," every person shall be presumed until the contrary is proved to know that such landmark is placed upon or for the purpose of defining the boundaries of Crown lands.

Removing or damaging Landmarks.

18. Any person who knowingly and wilfully removes or damages any landmark placed upon or for the purpose of defining the boundaries of any Crown lands, or who knowingly and wilfully defaces any such landmark or obliterates any mark, sign, numeral or inscription thereon, is liable to a penalty not exceeding £50 or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding six months.

Squatting on Crown Lands.

Summons and order for removal of squatter.

19.—(1.) It shall be lawful for any Magistrate on information that any person is in possession without any probable claim or pretence of title, of any Crown lands in this Colony, to issue a summons calling on such person to appear and answer to such information, and if such person, after being duly summoned shall not appear, or appearing shall fail to satisfy such Magistrate that he, or those under whom he claims has or had some probable claim or pretence of title to such lands, such Magistrate shall make order for putting the person in possession of such lands out of possession of the same, and the delivering of the possession thereof to the Warden of the County within which such lands may be situate.

(2.) Unless on the hearing of such information the person against whom such information may be preferred shall prove to the satisfaction of such Magistrate that he holds the possession of such lands by inheritance, devise or purchase from some other person, the Magistrate shall make further order that the person so informed against shall be imprisoned with hard labour for such term not exceeding six months as such Magistrate shall see fit, such term to be computed from the day on which such person shall be delivered into the custody of the keeper of the gaol or place of imprisonment to which he shall be committed.

20.—(1.) Where it shall be made to appear to any Magistrate on information that any person is in possession of any Crown lands for a grant whereof a petition has been filed, but that no part of the purchase money of such lands has been paid, or that some part of the purchase money of such lands is in arrear and unpaid, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate to issue a summons calling on the person in possession of such lands to appear and answer to such information. Where purchase money unpaid or in arrear.

(2.) If such person, after being duly summoned, shall not appear, or appearing shall fail to satisfy such Magistrate that the whole of such purchase money has been paid, such Magistrate shall make order for putting the person in possession of such lands out of possession and delivering possession of the same to the Warden of the County within which such lands may be situate.

(3.) Provided that where in any case the person in possession of such lands shall offer to pay the purchase money of such lands, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate with the consent of the Sub-Intendant or the Warden by whom such information shall be preferred, and on such purchase money and the costs of the grant of such lands, with such sum as the Magistrate may allow for the costs of the information, being paid to the Sub-Intendant, or to the said Warden, to make order that no further proceeding be had on such information, and the Magistrate shall in such case report to the Governor the fact of such purchase money having been paid, and a grant of the lands shall thereupon issue to the person paying such purchase money.

21. On the hearing of any information under either of Evidence the two last preceding sections a copy of any petition to the Governor and of any proceedings on such petition certified under the hand of the Sub-Intendant shall be admissible in evidence of the fact of such petition having been filed and of the proceedings had thereon without any further proof of the same.

Where squatter likely to abscond.

22. Where it appears to any Magistrate on information on oath that any person is in possession without any probable claim or pretence of title of any land in this Colony which may belong to or be vested in His Majesty His Heirs or Successors, and that there is reasonable cause to believe that such person will abscond, such Magistrate may if he thinks fit at once issue a warrant for the apprehension of the person so in possession, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had and such consequences shall ensue as in the case of a warrant issued under Section 42 of the Summary Conviction Offences (Procedure) Ordinance, 1918.

Refund of purchase money and payment of compensation

23. It shall be lawful for any Magistrate, if he shall see fit, on making any order under this Ordinance for putting any person out of possession of any lands, to make further order that any sum of money, which such Magistrate may find to have been paid to the Crown in part payment of the purchase money of such lands, and also such further sum of money as such Magistrate may see fit to allow as the value of any building or growing crops or cultivation on such lands, be allowed to such person, and such sums shall be paid to such person by the Warden of the County within which such lands shall be situate, on possession of such lands being given to such Warden.

Removal of Material from Crown Lands.

Digging or removing material without license.

24. Any person who digs or wins or removes or is in anywise concerned in the digging winning or removing of material on or from any Crown Lands in this Colony without a license in the prescribed form is liable

- (a.) where the material dug won or removed is asphalt, for a first offence to a penalty not exceeding £10, and in default of immediate payment, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months; and for a second or subsequent offence to a penalty not exceeding £50, and in default of immediate payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding six months;

- (b.) where material other than asphalt is dug won or removed, for a first offence to a penalty not exceeding £5, and in default of immediate payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding two months, and for a second or subsequent offence to a penalty not exceeding £10, and in default of immediate payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour; for any term not exceeding six months.

25.—(1.) Any Warden or Constable may without Arrest without warrant. warrant—

- (a.) Seize and detain any material which there shall be reasonable cause to suspect to have been dug won or removed from any Crown Lands without the prescribed License ;
- (b.) Seize and detain any cart, animal or boat having drawing or carrying any such material ;
- (c.) Arrest and detain any person who may be reasonably suspected of having been employed or engaged in digging winning or removing such material ;

(2.) It shall be lawful to make such seizures, detentions and arrests as in this section mentioned whether such material, cart, animal or boat or the person suspected of being employed or engaged in such digging winning or removing as aforesaid, shall be found within or without the limits of any Crown Land.

26. Unless the person—

- (a.) From whom any material may have been seized and detained ; or
- (b.) Whose cart, animal or boat having drawing carrying or removing any material shall have been seized and detained, or the owner thereof ; or
- (c.) Who shall have been arrested as a person suspected of having been engaged or concerned in the digging winning or removing of material from Crown Lands without the prescribed License ;

shall prove to the satisfaction of a Magistrate

- (d.) That the material so seized and detained was not dug won or removed from Crown Lands without a license in the prescribed form ; or
- (e.) That any material for the having carrying or removing of which such animal or boat has been seized and detained was not dug won or removed from Crown Lands without a license in the prescribed form ; or
- (f.) That he was not in truth and in fact engaged or concerned in the digging or removing of material from Crown Lands, or that he had a license in the prescribed form ;

the proof of all which shall be on the person charged, such Magistrate shall declare—

- (g.) All such material, carts, animals or boats forfeited to His Majesty the King, and shall order the same to be sold by the Warden of the County, and the proceeds arising from such sale shall be paid into the Colonial Treasury for the use of His Majesty the King ;
- (h.) That the person so arrested on suspicion as having been concerned in the digging winning or removing of material is guilty of an offence against this Ordinance ;

and such person shall be punished accordingly.

Form of License.

27. All Licenses authorising the digging, winning or removing of material from Crown Lands shall be in such form and issued by such persons as the Governor may from time to time prescribe.

No digging of asphalt
appeal.

28. When any order is made against any person by any Magistrate under the provisions of this Ordinance relating to asphalt, or when any person is convicted by any such Magistrate under Section 24 of this Ordinance of digging or winning asphalt or for being anywise concerned in the digging or winning or removing asphalt from Crown lands without a license, then in any or either of such cases it shall not be lawful for any such person against whom any such order as aforesaid shall have been made or who may have been convicted as aforesaid or his agents or servants or for any other person or persons claiming such lands by through or under them at any time after the date of such order or conviction and before the Supreme Court in the case of an appeal against such order or conviction shall have pronounced final judgment in favour of the appellant, to dig or win or be in anywise concerned in the digging or winning or removing of asphalt on or from any of such lands.

29. Any person contravening the provisions of the last preceding section may be arrested without warrant by any ^{Penalty.} Warden, Assistant Warden, Ward Officer or Constable, and is liable to a penalty of £50, and in default of immediate payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term of six months.

30. No person arrested pursuant to the power of arrest contained in the last preceding section shall be admitted to bail save on his entering into his own ^{Recognizance} recognizance with one surety in the sum of £50 before a Magistrate conditioned for his appearance at the time and place appointed for the hearing of the charge, and further conditioned that neither he, his agents or servants nor any person claiming through by or under him shall dig or win asphalt or be in anywise concerned in the digging or winning or removing of asphalt on or from any such land as aforesaid—

(a.) At any time after the date of such recognizance and before the actual hearing and determination of the case by a Magistrate ;

And in case of an order or conviction against him and appeal by him to the Supreme Court against such order or conviction

(b.) Until the Supreme Court shall have pronounced a final judgment thereon in his favour.

31. If the accused party shall not afterwards appear at the time and place mentioned in such recognizance or shall commit any breach of any or either of the conditions in the recognizance contained, then any Magistrate may thereupon and without any notice, by order in writing to be endorsed thereon, declare the same to be forfeited, and issue his warrant for the recovery of the amount mentioned in such warrant against the party accused making default and his surety. ^{Forfeiture of recognizance.}

General.

- Question of title. 32. It shall be lawful for any Magistrate to hear and determine any case wherein any person may be charged with an offence under this Ordinance, notwithstanding that any question shall or may arise or be set up in any such case as to the title to any lands alleged to be Crown lands or any interest therein or accruing therefrom.
