(2.) The registrar shall be appointed by and shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Governor.

(3.) The registrar shall be a Barrister or Solicitor of not less than five years standing.

4. The registrar shall every year make a return to the Governor containing in respect of every society the following particulars:—

Annual return
by Registrar.

- (a.) The date of registration and the objects of the society;
- (b.) The number of members on the roll of the Society and the amount of money invested on real security or deposited in a Savings Bank or in the Treasurer's hands on the thirty-first day of December previous;
- (c.) A statement as to whether or not the society is in receipt of assistance from the Government;
- (d.) Such other matters as may be prescribed.

REGISTRY OF SOCIETIES.

5. The following societies shall be societies to which this Ordinance applies:—

Societies to which this Ordinance applies.

- (1.) Societies (in this Ordinance called friendly societies) for the purpose of providing by voluntary subscriptions of the members thereof, with or without the aid of donations, for—
  - (a.) The relief or maintenance of the members, their husbands, wives, children, fathers, mothers, brothers or sisters, nephews or nieces, or wards being orphans, during sickness or other infirmity, whether bodily or mental, in old age (which shall mean any age after fifty) or in widowhood, or for the relief or maintenance of the orphan children of members during minority; or
  - (b.) insuring money to be paid on the birth of a member's child, or on the death of a member, or for the funeral expenses of the husband, wife, or child of a member, or of the widow of a deceased member; or
  - (c.) the relief or maintenance of the members when on travel in search of employment, or when in distressed circumstances, or in case of shipwreck, or loss or damage of or to boats or nets; or

- (d.) the endowment of members or nominees of members at any age : or
- (e.) the insurance against fire, to any amount not exceeding fifteen pounds, of the tools or implements of the trade or calling of the members :

Provided that this Ordinance shall not apply to a friendly society which contracts with any person for the assurance of an annuity exceeding fifty pounds per annum, or of a gross sum exceeding two hundred pounds

- (2.) Societies (in this Ordinance called cattle insurance societies) for the purpose of insurance to any amount against loss of neat cattle, sheep, lambs, swine, horses, and other animals by death from disease or otherwise :
- (3.) Societies (in this Ordinance called benevolent societies) for any benevolent or charitable purpose :
- (4.) Societies (in this Ordinance called working-men's clubs) for purposes of social intercourse, mutual helpfulness, mental and moral improvement and rational recreation :
- (5.) Societies (in this Ordinance called specially authorised societies) for any purpose which the Governor may authorise as a purpose to which the provisions of this Ordinance, or such of them as are specified in the authority, ought to be extended :

Provided that where any provisions of this Ordinance are so specified those provisions only shall be so extended.

Societies to be registered. 6.—(1.) Every society to which this Ordinance applies shall be registered under this Ordinance .

Provided always that it shall be deemed to be a sufficient compliance with the provisions of this section if, before any subscriptions or fees are collected from any member, the Registrar of Friendly Societies by writing under his hand permits any person named therein to take the necessary steps for the formation of a society and if such society is in fact registered within six months of such permission being given as aforesaid.

(2.) In the event of any contravention of the provisions of this section, every secretary, trustee, member of the committee or other officer of an unregistered society is liable to a penalty not exceeding £1 for every day during which such society remains unregistered, and, in default of payment, to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding three months.

7.—(1.) A society shall not be registered under this Ordinance unless it consists of seven persons at least. Conditions of registration.

(2.) For the purpose of registry there shall be sent to the Registrar an application to register the society, signed by seven members and the secretary, and copies of the rules, together with a list of the names of the secretary, of every member of the committee and of every trustee or other officer intended to be authorised to sue and be sued on behalf of the society.

(3.) The rules of the society so sent shall, according to the class in which the society is to be registered, contain provisions in respect of the several matters mentioned in the First Schedule to this Ordinance.

8. A society shall not be registered under a name identical with that under which any other existing society is registered, or so nearly resembling that name as to be likely, or in any name likely, in the opinion of the Registrar, to deceive the members or the public as to its nature or its identity. Name of society.

9. The Registrar, on being satisfied that a society has complied with the provisions of this Ordinance as to registry, shall issue to that society an acknowledgment of registry specifying the designation of the society, according to the classification set forth in this Ordinance, and this acknowledgment shall be conclusive evidence that Acknowledgment of registry the society therein mentioned is duly registered, unless it is proved that the registry of the society has been suspended or cancelled.

Appeals from refusal to register.

10.—(1.) From a refusal to register a society an appeal shall lie by the society to a Judge of the Supreme Court.

(2.) If the refusal to register is overruled on appeal, the Registrar shall give an acknowledgment of registry to the society.

Registry of amendments
of rules.

11.—(1.) An amendment of a rule made by a society shall not be valid until the amendment has been registered under this Ordinance, for which purpose copies of the amendment, signed by three members and the secretary, shall be sent to the Registrar.

(2.) The Registrar shall, on being satisfied that any amendment of a rule is not contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, issue to the society an acknowledgment of registry of the amendment, and that acknowledgment shall be conclusive evidence that the amendment is duly registered.

(3.) The provisions of this Ordinance as to appeals from a refusal to register a society shall apply to a refusal to register an amendment of a rule.

societies.

12. A society (other than a benevolent society or working-men's club) shall not be disentitled to registry by reason of any rule for or practice of dividing any part of the funds thereof if the rules of the society contain distinct provision for meeting all claims upon the society existing at the time of division before any such division takes place.

Registry of
societies
assuring annuities.

13. A society assuring a certain annuity shall not be entitled to registry, unless the tables of contributions for the assurance, certified by some actuary approved by the Governor, who has exercised the profession of actuary for at least five years, are sent to the Registrar with the application for registry.

SOCIETIES WITH BRANCHES.

14.—(1.) Where a society has branches, the application for registry shall be accompanied with— Registry of societies with branches.

- (a.) a list of all the branches, and notice of the place where the registered office of each branch is situate; and
- (b.) if any branch is to have trustees or officers authorised to sue and be sued on its behalf, other than the trustees or officers authorised to sue and be sued on behalf of the society, a list of the names of all such trustees or officers, distinguishing the branches for which they are authorised to sue and be sued; and
- (c.) if the rules of all the branches (in this Ordinance called branch rules) are or are intended to be identical, a statement to that effect, and copies of those rules; and
- (d.) if the branch rules are not or are not intended to be identical, a statement to that effect, and copies of all branch rules.

(2.) A society having a fund under the control of a central body to which every branch is bound to contribute may be registered as a single society.

15.—(1.) There shall be sent under the hand of the secretary of a society to the Registrar— Establishment of new branches.

- (a.) notice of the establishment of every new branch of the society; and
- (b.) notice of the place where the registered office of the branch is situate; and
- (c.) if the branch is to have trustees or officers authorised to sue and be sued on its behalf other than the trustees or officers authorised to sue and be sued on behalf of the society, a list of the names of such trustees or officers; and
- (d.) a statement whether or not the rules of the branch are identical with those of the other branches of the society, and, if not so, a copy of the rules of the branch.

Application of previous provisions to branches.

16. The provisions of this Ordinance as to—

- (a.) the acknowledgment of registry of societies and amendments of rules; and
- (b.) appeals from refusals to register societies and amendments of rules and the result thereof; and
- (c.) the registry of the amendments of rules; and
- (d.) evidence of registry and of the appointment of trustees and officers;

shall apply to branches and amendments of branch rules.

Requisites for registry of branches as
societies.

17.—(1.) A body which has been registered as a branch of a society shall not be registered as a society except on production to the Registrar of a certificate under the hand of the chief secretary or other principal officer of the society of which it was a branch, that the body has wholly seceded or has been expelled from the society.

(2.) An appeal shall lie from the refusal of the chief secretary or other principal officer of the society, or his omission after three months from the receipt of a request in writing made on behalf of the body to grant a certificate, to a Judge of the Supreme Court.

seceding or expelled
branch.

18. A body which, having been a branch of a society, has wholly seceded or been expelled from that society shall not thereafter use the name of that society or any name implying that it is a branch thereof, or the number by which it was designated as such branch.

Contributions from one society to another.

19. A society or branch may contribute to the funds and take part by delegates or otherwise in the government of any other society or branch of a society, as provided in the rules of that first-named society or branch, without becoming a branch under this Ordinance of that other society or branch.

CONSEQUENCES OF REGISTRY.

Subscriptions not recoverable at law.

20. Save as provided by section 31 of this Ordinance, the subscription of a person being or having been a member of a society or branch shall not be recoverable at law.

society or branch, or made in a book kept at that office, nominate a person to whom any sum of money payable by the society or branch on the death of that member, not exceeding fifty pounds, shall be paid at his decease.

(2.) The sum of money payable by the society or branch on the death of a member, shall include sums of money contributed to or deposited in the separate loan account and the sums of money accumulated for the use of the member under the provisions of this Ordinance with interest thereon.

(3.) The person so nominated must not be an officer or servant of the society or branch, unless that officer or servant is the husband, wife, father, mother, child, brother, sister, nephew, or niece of the nominator.

(4.) A nomination so made may be revoked and varied by any similar document under the hand of the nominator, delivered, sent, or made as aforesaid.

(5.) The marriage of a member of a society or branch shall operate as a revocation of any nomination theretofore made by that member under this section.

(6.) A nomination or a variation or revocation of a nomination by writing under the hand of a member of a branch and delivered at or sent to the registered office of that branch, or made in a book kept at that office, shall be effectual notwithstanding that the money to which the nomination relates or some part thereof is not payable by that branch, but is payable by the society or some other branch.

Proceedings
on death of a nominator.

53.—(1.) On receiving satisfactory proof of the death of a nominator, the society or branch shall pay to the nominee the amount due to the deceased member, not exceeding the said sum of fifty pounds.

(2.) The receipt of a nominee over sixteen years of age for any amount so paid shall be valid.

Intestacy.

54.—(1.) If any member of a society or branch entitled from the funds thereof to a sum not exceeding fifty pounds, dies intestate and without having made any nomination thereof then subsisting, the society or branch may, without letters of administration, distribute the sum among such persons as appear to a majority of the trustees, upon such evidence as they may deem satisfactory, to be entitled by law to receive that sum.

(2.) If any such member is illegitimate, the trustees may pay the sum of money which that member might have nominated to or among the persons who, in the opinion of a majority of them, would have been entitled thereto if that member had been legitimate, or if there are no such persons, the society or branch shall deal with the money as the Governor may direct.

55.—(1.) A payment made by a society or branch, under the foregoing provisions of this Ordinance with respect to payments on death generally to the person who at the time appears to a majority of the trustees to be entitled thereunder, shall be valid and effectual against any demand made upon the trustees or the society or branch by any other person, but the next of kin or lawful representative of the deceased member shall have remedy for recovery of the money, so paid as aforesaid, against the person who has received that money. Validity of payments.

(2.) Where the society or branch has paid money to a nominee in ignorance of a marriage subsequent to the nomination, the receipt of the nominee shall be a valid discharge to the society or branch.

56.—(1.) A society or branch shall not pay any sum of money upon the death of a member or other person whose death is or ought to be entered in any register of deaths, except upon the production of a certificate of that death under the hand of the registrar of deaths or other person having care of the register of deaths in which that death is or ought to be entered. Certificates death.

(2.) This section shall not apply to deaths at sea, nor to any death certified by a coroner to be the subject of a pending inquest.

PAYMENTS ON DEATH OF CHILDREN.

57. A society or branch shall not insure or pay on the death of a child under five years of age any sum of money which, added to any amount payable on the death of that Limitation of amount payable.

child by any other society or branch, exceeds six pounds, or on the death of a child under ten years of age any sum of money which, added to any amount payable on the death of that child by any other society or branch, exceeds ten pounds.

Person to whom payment may be made.

58. A society or branch shall not pay any sum on the death of a child under ten years of age except to the parent of the child, or to the personal representative of the parent, and upon the production by the parent or his personal representative of a certificate of death issued by the registrar of deaths, or other person having the care of the register of deaths, containing the particulars mentioned in this Ordinance.

Particulars of certificates.

59.—(1.) Where application is made for a certificate of the death of a child for the purpose of obtaining a sum of money from a society or branch, the name of the society or branch, and the sum sought to be obtained therefrom shall be stated to the registrar of deaths.

(2.) The registrar of deaths shall write on or at the foot of the certificate the words "to be produced to the society or branch (naming the same) said to be liable for payment of the sum of £ (stating the same)."

(3.) All certificates of the same death shall be numbered in consecutive order.

(4.) A fee not exceeding one shilling shall be charged by the registrar of deaths for each such certificate.

Cases in which certificates may be given.

60.—(1.) A registrar of deaths shall not give any one or more certificates of death for the payment in the whole of any sum of money exceeding six pounds on the death of a child under five years, or for the payment in the whole of a sum exceeding ten pounds on the death of a child under ten years.

(2.) A registrar of deaths shall not grant any such certificate unless the cause of death has been previously entered in the register of deaths on the certificate of a coroner, or of a member of the Medical Board who attended the deceased child during its last illness, or except upon the production of a certificate of the probable cause of death under the hand of a member of the Medical Board, or of other satisfactory evidence thereof.

61. A society or branch to which is produced a certificate of the death of a child which does not purport to be the first shall, before paying any money thereon, inquire whether any and what sums of money have been paid on the same death by any other society or branch.

Inquiries by societies.

62. Nothing in this Ordinance respecting payments on the death of children shall apply to insurances on the lives of children of any age, where the person insuring has an interest in the life of the person insured.

Saving as to insurable interest, &c.

DISPUTES.

63.—(1.) Every dispute between—

- (a.) a member or person claiming through a member or under the rules of a society or branch, and the society or branch or an officer thereof; or
- (b.) any person aggrieved who has ceased to be a member of a society or branch, or any person claiming through such person aggrieved, and the society or branch, or an officer thereof; or
- (c.) any branch of any society or branch and the society or branch of which it is a branch; or
- (d.) an officer of any such branch and the society or branch of which that branch is a branch; or
- (e.) any two or more branches of any society or branch, or any officers thereof respectively,

Decision of disputes.

shall, subject to the express provisions of this section, be decided in manner directed by the rules of the society or branch, and the decision so given shall be binding and conclusive on all parties without appeal, and shall not be removable into any court of law or restrainable by injunction; and application for the enforcement thereof may be made to any Magistrate.

(2.) Any party to a dispute in a society or branch may apply to the Registrar to hear and determine the same, and the Registrar may, if he thinks fit and after proper notice given to the other parties to such dispute, hear and determine such dispute, and shall have power to order the expenses of determining the dispute to be paid either out of the funds of the society or branch, or by such parties to the dispute as he may think fit, and his determination and order shall have the same effect and be enforceable in like manner as a decision made in the manner directed by the rules of the society or branch.

(3.) For the purpose of hearing and determining any such dispute the Registrar to whom a dispute is referred may administer oaths, and may require the attendance of all parties concerned, and of witnesses, and the production of all books and documents relating to the matter in question.

(4.) Where the rules contain no direction as to disputes, or where no decision is made on a dispute within forty days after application to the society or branch for a reference under its rules, or where the Registrar refuses to hear and determine a dispute, the member or person aggrieved may apply to a Magistrate, who may hear and determine the matter in dispute; but in the case of a society with branches the said forty days shall not begin to run until application has been made in succession to all the bodies entitled to determine the dispute under the rules of the society or branch, so however that no rules shall require a greater delay than three months between each successive determination.

(5.) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Arbitration Ordinance (No. 41) or in any other Ordinance, the Magistrate and the Registrar or any arbitrator or umpire to whom a dispute is referred under the rules of a society or branch shall not be compelled to state a special case on any question of law arising in the case, but the Magistrate or Registrar may, at the request of either party, state a case for the opinion of the Supreme Court, on any question of law, and may also grant to either party such discovery as to documents and otherwise, or such inspection of documents, as might be granted by the Supreme Court, and the discovery shall be made on behalf of the society or branch by such officer thereof as the Court or Registrar may determine.

(6.) In this section the expression "dispute" includes any dispute arising on the question whether a member or person aggrieved is entitled to be or to continue to be a member or to be reinstated as a member, but, save as aforesaid, in the case of a person who has ceased to be a member, does not include any dispute other than a dispute on a question between him and the society or branch or an officer thereof which arose whilst he was a member, or arises out of his previous relation as a member to that society or branch.

CHANGE OF NAME, AMALGAMATION, AND CONVERSION OF SOCIETIES.

64.—(1.) A society may, by special resolution, with the approval in writing of the Registrar, change its name, and shall not change its name in any other manner. Power to change name.

(2.) Any such change of name shall not affect any right or obligation of the society, or of any member thereof, and any pending legal proceedings may be continued by or against the trustees of the society, or any other officer who may sue or be sued on behalf of the society, notwithstanding its new name.

65.—(1.) Any two or more societies may, by special resolution of both or all such societies, become amalgamated together as one society, with or without any dissolution or division of the funds of those societies or either of them. Amalgamation and transfer of engagements.

(2.) A society may, by special resolution, transfer its engagements to any other society which may undertake to fulfil the engagements of that society.

(3.) A special resolution by a friendly society for an amalgamation or transfer of engagements under this Ordinance shall not be valid without—

(a.) the assent thereto of five-sixths in value of the members, given either at the meetings at which the resolution is, according to the provisions of this Ordinance, passed and confirmed, or at one of them, or, if the members were not present thereat, in writing; and

(b.) the written consent of every person receiving or entitled to any relief, annuity, or other benefit from the funds of the society, unless the claim of that person is first duly satisfied, or adequate provision is made for satisfying that claim.

(4.) Provided that on application of the trustees or committee of a friendly society desiring to amalgamate or transfer its engagements, and upon notice of that application being published in the Royal Gazette, the Registrar, after hearing the trustees or committee and any other persons whom he considers entitled to be heard upon the application, may, with the consent of a Judge, order that any of the assents, consents, and conditions required by this Ordinance, or by any regulations made under this Ordinance, be dispensed with, and may confirm the amalgamation or transfer.

(5.) A society consisting wholly of members under twenty-one years of age, and a society or branch or branches of a society having members above twenty-one years of age, may, by resolutions registered in the manner required for the registration of an amendment of rules, become amalgamated together as one society or branch, or provide for distributing among several branches the members of a society consisting wholly of members under twenty-one years of age, and the other provisions of this section shall not apply to that amalgamation.

(6.) The value of members shall be ascertained by giving one vote to every member, and an additional vote for every five years that he has been a member, but to no one member more than five votes in the whole.

(7.) If any member of a friendly society which has amalgamated or transferred its engagements, or if any person claiming any relief, annuity, or other benefit, from the funds thereof, is dissatisfied with the provision made for satisfying his claim, that member or person may apply to the Magistrate of the district within which the chief or any other place of business of the society is situate for relief or other order, and such Magistrate shall have the same powers in the matter as in regard to the settlement of disputes under this Ordinance

66.—(1.) A registered society may, by special resolution, determine to convert itself into a company under the Companies Ordinances, or to amalgamate with or transfer its engagements to any such company. Conversion of society into company.

(2.) If a special resolution for converting a society into a company contains the particulars required by the Companies Ordinances to be contained in the memorandum of association of a company, and a copy thereof has been registered with the Registrar, a copy of that resolution under the hand of the Registrar shall have the same effect as a memorandum of association duly signed and attested under the said Ordinances.

(3.) If a society is registered as, or amalgamates with, or transfers all its engagements to, a company, the registry of the society under this Ordinance shall thereupon become void, and shall be cancelled by the Registrar; but the registration of a society as a company shall not affect any right or claim subsisting against that society, or any penalty incurred by that society; and for the purpose of enforcing any such right, claim, or penalty, the society may be sued and proceeded against in the same manner as if it had not become registered as a company; and every such right or claim, or the liability to any such penalty, shall have priority, as against the property of the company, over all other rights or claims against or liabilities of the company.

67. An amalgamation or transfer of engagements in pursuance of this Ordinance shall not prejudice any right of a creditor of either or any society party thereto. Saving for right of creditors.

68. For the purposes of this Ordinance a special resolution shall mean a resolution which is— Meaning of special resolution.

(a.) passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of such members of a society, entitled under the rules to vote as may be present in person or by proxy (where the rules allow proxies) at any general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose that resolution has been duly given according to the rules; and

- (b.) confirmed by a majority of such members entitled under the rules to vote as may be present in person or by proxy (where the rules allow proxies) at a subsequent general meeting of which notice has been duly given, held not less than fourteen days nor more than one month from the day of the meeting at which such resolution was first passed.

At any meeting mentioned in this section a declaration by the Chairman that the resolution has been carried shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

Registration of special resolutions.

69. A copy of every special resolution for any of the purposes mentioned in this Ordinance, signed by the Chairman of the meeting and countersigned by the Secretary, shall be sent to the Registrar's office and registered by him, and until that copy is so registered the special resolution shall not take effect.

INSPECTION: CANCELLING AND SUSPENSION OF REGISTRY: DISSOLUTION.

Inspection
of books.

70.—(1.) The Registrar may, if he thinks fit, appoint an accountant to inspect the books of a society and to report thereon at the costs and charges of the society.

(2.) In case any member of a Society applies to the Registrar to direct an inspection of the books of such Society, the Registrar may, in his absolute discretion, make it a condition of granting the application that such member deposit such sum as will be, in the opinion of the Registrar, sufficient to cover the costs and charges of such inspection.

(3.) The Registrar may after the inspection is over and in his absolute discretion, either return such sum to the member or cause to be repaid to the Society the costs to which it has been put in and over such inspection out of such sum, the balance, if any, being returned to the member so depositing as aforesaid.

(4.) A person appointed under this section shall have power to make copies of any book of the society, and to take extracts therefrom, at all reasonable hours, at the registered office of the society or at any place where the books are kept.

(5.) Any person, whether connected with the society or not, who hinders, obstructs or molests any person appointed by the Registrar to inspect the books of such society is liable to a fine not exceeding £10, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding one month or to both.

71.—(1.) The Registrar may—

Cancelling and suspension of registry.

- (a.) if he thinks fit, at the request of a society, to be evidenced in such manner as he may direct: or
- (b.) with the approval of a Judge of the Supreme Court, on proof to his satisfaction that an acknowledgment of registry has been obtained by fraud or mistake, or that a society exists for an illegal purpose, or has wilfully and after notice from the Registrar violated any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or has ceased to exist, by writing under his hand cancel the registry of a society.

(2.) The Registrar, in any case in which he might, with the approval of a Judge, cancel the registry of a society, may, by writing under his hand, suspend the registry for any term not exceeding three months, and may, with the approval of a Judge, renew the suspension for the like period.

(3.) Unless the Registrar has given to a registered society not less than two months previous notice in writing, specifying briefly the ground of any proposed cancelling or suspension, the registry of the society shall not be cancelled (except at its request) or suspended.

(4.) Where the registry of a society has been cancelled or suspended, notice thereof shall forthwith be published in the Royal Gazette.

(5.) Where the registry of a society has been suspended or cancelled, the society shall from the time of the suspension or cancelling (but if suspended, only while the suspension lasts, and subject also to the right of appeal given by this section) absolutely cease to enjoy as such the privileges of a society, but without prejudice to any liability actually incurred by the society, and any such liability may be enforced against the society as if the suspension or cancelling had not taken place.

(6.) A society may appeal from the cancelling of its registry, or from any suspension thereof which is renewed after six months, to a Judge of the Supreme Court.

Dissolution of societies.

72.—(1.) Subject to the provision of this Ordinance as to the dissolution of societies with branches, a society or branch may terminate or be dissolved in any of the following ways :—

- (a.) upon the happening of any event declared by the rules to be the termination of the society or branch ; or
- (b.) as respects societies or branches other than friendly societies or branches, by the consent of three-fourths of the members, testified by their signatures to the instrument of dissolution ; or
- (c.) as respects friendly societies or branches, by the consent of five-sixths in value of the members (including honorary members, if any), testified by their signatures to the instrument of dissolution, and also by the written consent of every person receiving or entitled to receive any relief, annuity, or other benefit from the funds of the society or branch, unless the claim of that person is first duly satisfied, or adequate provision made for satisfying that claim, and, in the case of a branch, with the consent of the central body of the society, or in accordance with the general rules of the society ; or
- (d.) by the award of the Registrar in the cases specified in this Ordinance.

(2.) The provisions of this Ordinance as to the method of calculating the value of members and the remedy of members and persons dissatisfied with the provisions made for satisfying their claims in the case of the amalgamation or transfer of engagements of a friendly society shall apply to the dissolution of a friendly society or branch.

73. When a society or branch is terminated by an Instrument of dissolution. instrument of dissolution :—

- (1.) the instrument shall set forth—
  - (a.) the liabilities and assets of the society or branch in detail ; and
  - (b.) The number of members and the nature of their interests in the society or branch ; and
  - (c.) The claims of creditors (if any), and the provision to be made for their payment ; and
  - (d.) the intended appropriation or division of the funds and property of the society or branch, unless the appropriation or division is stated in the instrument of dissolution to be left to the award of the Registrar.
- (2.) Alterations in the instrument of dissolution may be made with the like consents as are in this Ordinance required for the dissolution of a society or branch, testified in the same manner.
- (3.) A statutory declaration shall be made by one of the trustees, or by three members and the Secretary of the society or branch, that the provisions of this Ordinance have been complied with, and shall be sent to the Registrar with the instrument of dissolution.
- (4.) The instrument shall not in the case of a friendly society or branch direct or contain any provision for a division or appropriation of the funds of the society or branch, or any part thereof, otherwise than for the purpose of carrying into effect the objects of the society or branch as declared in the rules thereof, unless the claim of every member or person claiming any relief, annuity, or other benefit from the funds thereof is first duly satisfied, or adequate provisions are made for satisfying those claims.
- (5.) The instrument of dissolution and all alterations therein shall be registered in manner in this Ordinance provided for the registry of amendments of rules, and shall be binding upon all the members of the society or branch.

(6.) The Registrar shall cause a notice of the dissolution to be published in the Royal Gazette at the expense of the society or branch, and, unless within three months from the date of the Gazette in which the advertisement appears, a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the society or branch commences proceedings to set aside the dissolution of the society or branch, and the dissolution is set aside accordingly, the society or branch shall be legally dissolved, from the date of that advertisement, and the requisite consents to the instrument of dissolution shall be considered to have been duly obtained without proof of the signatures thereto.

award.

74.—(1.) Upon the application made in writing under their hands—

- (a.) of one-fifth of the whole number of members of a society or branch ; or
  - (b.) in the case of a society or branch of one thousand members and not exceeding ten thousand, of one hundred members ; or
  - (c.) in the case of a society or branch of more than ten thousand members, of five hundred members,
- the Registrar may by himself, or by any actuary or public auditor whom the Registrar may appoint in writing under his hand, investigate the affairs of the society or branch, but shall give not less than one month's previous notice in writing to the society or branch whose affairs are to be investigated.

(2.) The application shall—

- (a.) state that the funds of the society or branch are insufficient to meet the existing claims thereon, or that the rates of contribution fixed in the rules of the society or branch are insufficient to cover the benefits assured ; and
- (b.) set forth the grounds on which the insufficiency is alleged ; and
- (c.) request an investigation into the affairs of the society or branch with a view to the dissolution thereof.

(3.) If upon the investigation it appears that the funds of the society or branch are insufficient to meet the existing claims thereon, or that the rates of contribution fixed in the rules of the society or branch are insufficient to cover the benefits assured to be given by the society or branch, the Registrar may, if he considers it expedient so to do, award that the society or branch be dissolved, and its affairs wound up, and shall direct in what manner the assets of the society or branch shall be divided or appropriated: Provided always, that the Registrar may suspend his award for such period as he may deem necessary to enable the society or branch to make such alterations and adjustment of contributions and benefits as will in his judgment prevent the necessity of the award of dissolution being made.

(4.) The Registrar proceeding under this section shall have all the same powers and authorities, enforceable by the same penalties, as in the case of a dispute referred to him under this Ordinance.

(5.) Every award under this section, whether for dissolution or distribution of funds, shall be final and conclusive on the society or branch in respect of which the award is made, and on all members of the society or branch and on all other persons having any claim on the funds of the society or branch, without appeal, and shall be enforced in the same manner as a decision on a dispute under this Ordinance.

(6.) The expenses of every investigation and award, and of publishing every notice of dissolution, shall be paid out of the funds of the society or branch before any other appropriation thereof is made.

(7.) Notice of every award for dissolution shall, within twenty-one days after the award has been made be published by the Registrar in the Royal Gazette; and unless, within three months from the date on which that advertisement appears, a member or person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the society or branch commences proceedings to set aside the dissolution of the society or branch consequent upon such award, and the dissolution is set aside accordingly, the society or branch shall be legally dissolved from the date of the advertisement, and the requisite consents to the application to the Registrar shall be considered to have been duly obtained without proof of the signatures thereto.

Dissolution of societies having branches.

75. The provisions of this Ordinance respecting the dissolution of societies shall not apply to any society having branches except with the consent of the central body of the society.

Notice of proceedings or order to set aside dissolution.

76.—(1.) Where a person takes any proceeding to set aside the dissolution of a society or branch, he shall give notice of the proceeding to the Registrar not less than seven days before the proceeding is commenced.

(2.) Where an order is made setting aside the dissolution of a society or branch, the society or branch shall give notice of the order to the Registrar within seven days after the order has been made.

OFFENCES, PENALTIES, AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

Offences.

77. It shall be an offence under this Ordinance if—

- (a.) a society or branch or an officer or member thereof fails to give any notice, send any return or document, do or allow to be done any thing which the society, branch, officer, or person is by this Ordinance required to give, send, do, or allow to be done : or
- (b.) a society or branch or an officer or member thereof wilfully neglects or refuses to do any act or to furnish any information required for the purposes of this Ordinance by the Registrar or by any other person authorised under this Ordinance, or does anything forbidden by this Ordinance : or
- (c.) a society or branch or an officer or member thereof makes a return or wilfully furnishes information in any respect false or insufficient :
or

- (d.) an officer or member of a body which, having been a branch of a society, has wholly seceded or been expelled from that society, thereafter uses the name of that society or any name implying that the body is a branch of that society, or the number by which that body was designated as such branch: or
- (e.) where a dispute is referred under this Ordinance to the Registrar, a person refuses to attend or to produce any documents, or to give evidence before the Registrar: or
- (f.) a society or branch whether registered or unregistered pays money on the death of a child under ten years of age otherwise than is provided by this Ordinance: or
- (g.) a parent or personal representative of a parent claiming money on the death of a child produces a certificate of the death other than is in this Ordinance provided to the society or branch from which the money is claimed, or produces a false certificate, or one fraudulently obtained, or in any way attempts to defeat the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to payments upon the death of children.

78.—(1.) No person who is an undischarged bankrupt or Bankrupt, &c., not to be officer of a society. has compounded with his creditors or has made an arrangement or composition with his creditors under the Bankruptcy Ordinance, 1907, or the Bankruptcy Ordinance, 1916, shall be appointed, or if appointed, shall act as the president, secretary, treasurer or trustee of a registered society.

(2.) Any person acting in contravention of the provisions of the preceding sub-section is liable to a fine not exceeding £20.

79. No person holding any other office therein shall be, Medical officer not to hold
other office. or act as, the Medical Officer of any society, and any person contravening the provisions of this section is liable to a fine not exceeding £20.

Offences by societies to be also offences by officers, &c. 80. Where a society or branch is guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, every member of the committee, unless that member is proved to have been ignorant of or to have attempted to prevent the commission of the offence, shall be liable to the same penalty as if he had committed the offence.

Continuing offences. 81. Every default under this Ordinance constituting an offence, if continued, shall constitute a new offence in every week during which the default continues.

Punishment of fraud, false declarations and misappropriations. 82.—(1.) If any person with intent to mislead or defraud, gives to any other person a copy of any rules, laws, regulations, or other documents, other than the rules of a society or branch, on the pretence that they are the existing rules of that society or branch, or that there are no other rules of the society or branch, or gives to any person a copy of any rules on the pretence that those rules are the rules of a registered society or branch when the society or branch is not registered, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

(2.) If any person knowingly makes a false or fraudulent statement in any statutory declaration required by this Ordinance, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

(3.) If any person obtains possession by false representation or imposition of any property of a society or branch, or withholds or misapplies any such property in his possession, or wilfully applies any part thereof to purposes other than those expressed or directed in the rules of the society or branch and authorised by this Ordinance, he shall, on such complaint as is in this section mentioned, be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, and costs, and to be ordered to deliver up all such property, or to repay all sums of money applied improperly, and in default of such delivery or repayment, or of the payment of such fine and costs as aforesaid, to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months.

Provided that where on such a complaint against a person of withholding or misapplying property, or applying it for unauthorised purposes, it is not proved that that person acted with any fraudulent intent, he shall not be liable to conviction but may be ordered to deliver up all such property or may be ordered to repay any sum of money applied improperly with costs, and in default of such delivery or repayment or of the payment of such costs as aforesaid to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding three months.

(4.) Complaint under this section may be made—

(a.) in the case of a society, by the society or any member authorised by the society, or the trustees or committee of the society; or

(b.) in the case of a branch, by

(i) the branch or any member authorised by the branch or the trustees or committee thereof; or

(ii) the central body of the society of which the branch forms part; or

(iii) any member of the society or branch authorised by the central body; or

(c.) in any case, by the Registrar or by any person authorised in writing by the Registrar.

(5.) Nothing in this Ordinance shall prevent any such person from being proceeded against by way of indictment, if not previously convicted of the same offence under the provisions of this Ordinance.

83. If any person wilfully makes, orders, or allows to be made, any entry, erasure in, or omission from a balance sheet of a society or branch, or a return or document required to be sent, produced, or delivered, for the purposes of this Ordinance, with intent to falsify the same, or to evade any of the provisions of this Ordinance, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds. Fine for falsification.

84. A society or branch, and an officer or member of a society or branch, or other person guilty of an offence under this Ordinance for which a fine is not expressly provided shall be liable to a fine of not more than twenty pounds. Fine for ordinary offences.

Special offences in the case of friendly
societies

85. If an officer or person aids or abets in the amalgamation or transfer of engagements or in the dissolution of a friendly society otherwise than as in this Ordinance provided he shall be liable on summary conviction to the fine imposed by this Ordinance for offences thereunder, or to be imprisoned with hard labour for a term not exceeding three months.

Recovery of fines and penalties.

86.—(1.) A fine or penalty imposed by this Ordinance or by any regulations thereunder, or by the rules of a society or branch, shall be recoverable before a Magistrate in the manner provided in the Summary Conviction Offences (Procedure) Ordinance (No. 1.)

(2.) Any such fine or penalty shall be recoverable at the suit of the Registrar or of any person authorised in writing by the Registrar or of any person aggrieved.

(3.) The form and manner of procedure in all cases arising under the provisions of this Ordinance, and not otherwise expressly provided for by this Ordinance, shall be as nearly as practicable the form and manner of procedure prescribed by the Summary Conviction Offences (Procedure) Ordinance, No. 1.

Limitation.

87. In every case where no time is specially limited for making a complaint for an offence under this Ordinance, such complaint shall be made within eighteen months from the time when the matter of such complaint arose, and not after.

Legal
proceedings.

88.—(1.) The trustees of a society or branch, or any other officers authorised by the rules thereof, may bring or defend, or cause to be brought or defended, any action or other legal proceeding in any court whatsoever, touching or concerning any property, right, or claim of the society or branch, and may sue and be sued in their proper names, without other description than the title of their office.

(2.) In legal proceedings brought under this Ordinance by a member, or person claiming through a member, a society or branch may also be sued in the name, as defendant, of any officer or person who receives contributions or issues policies on behalf of the society or branch within the jurisdiction of the court in which the legal proceeding is brought, with the addition of the words "on behalf of the society or branch" (naming the same).

(3.) A legal proceeding shall not abate or be discontinued by the death, resignation, or removal from office of any officer or by any act of any such officer after the commencement of the proceedings.

(4.) The summons, writ, process, or other proceeding, to be issued to or against the officer or other person sued on behalf of a registered society or branch, shall be sufficiently served by personally serving that officer or other person, or by leaving a true copy thereof at the registered office of the society or branch, or at any place of business of the society or branch within the jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is brought, or, if that office or place of business is closed, by posting the copy on the outer door of that office or place of business.

(5.) In all cases where the said summons, writ, process, or other proceeding is not served by means of such personal service or by leaving a true copy thereof at the registered office of the society or branch as aforesaid, a copy thereof shall be sent in a registered letter addressed to the committee at the registered office of the society or branch, and posted at least six days before any further step is taken on the proceeding.

(6.) Where proceedings are taken against a society or branch for the recovery of any fine under this Ordinance the summons or other process shall be sufficiently served by leaving a true copy thereof at the registered office of the society or branch, or at any place of business of the society or branch, within the jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is brought, or, if that office or place of business is closed, by posting the copy on the outer door of that office or place of business.

(7.) Where the person against whom the proceedings are to be taken is himself a trustee of a society or branch the proceedings may be brought by the other trustees or trustee of the society or branch.
