I ASSENT,

B. E. H. CLIFFORD,
Governor.
29th May, 1943.

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Workmen's Compensation Ordinance.

[3rd June, 1943.]

Commencement.

ENACTED by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Workmen's Compensation (Amendment) Ordinance, 1943, and shall be read as one with the Workmen's Compensation Ordinance hereinafter referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

Short title and Construction.

Ch. 22. No. 12.

Insertion of section 3A in the Principal Ordinance.

2. The Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by inserting therein, next after section 3, the following as section 3A :—

Workmen's compensation not to be payable in respect of war injuries.

3A (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance, no compensation shall be payable under this Ordinance in respect of any war injury sustained during the period of the present emergency.

(2) In this section—

“period of the present emergency” means the period beginning with the commencement of the Emergency Powers (Defence) Act, 1939, and ending with such date as His Majesty may by Order in Council declare to be the date on which the emergency that was the occasion of the passing of that Act came to an end;

“war injury” means any physical injury—

(a) caused by

- (i) the discharge of any missile (including liquids and gas); or
- (ii) the use of any weapon, explosive or other noxious thing; or
- (iii) the doing of any other injurious act;

either by the enemy or in combating the enemy or in repelling an imagined attack by the enemy; or

(b) caused by the impact on any person or property of any enemy aircraft, or any aircraft belonging to, or held by, any person on behalf of or for the benefit of, His Majesty or any allied power, or any part of, or anything dropped from, any such aircraft”.
