issued on the 4th day of May, 1939.

No. 6—1939.

[L.S.]

I ASSENT,

J. HUGGINS,
Acting Governor

29th April, 1939.

AN ORDINANCE to regulate the Emoluments attached to the office of the Governor.

[23rd November, 1938.]

Commencement.

ENACTED by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Governor's ^{Short title.}
Emoluments Ordinance, 1939.

Emoluments of the Governor,

2. The emoluments attached to the office of Governor of the Colony shall consist of:—

(a) salary at the rate of eighteen thousand dollars per annum, and

(b) duty allowance at the rate of six thousand dollars per annum.

Commencement of salary of Governor
before assumption of office.

3. (1) An Officer appointed to be Governor of the Colony shall receive salary at one-half the rate specified in paragraph (a) of section 2 of this Ordinance from the date on which he embarks to assume the Government, whether the port of embarkation be in England or elsewhere.

(2) If, however, a Governor continues in the tenure of his office until the arrival of his successor, the latter officer shall not be entitled to any portion of the salary until he has assumed the duties of his office.

(3) If the office of Governor is vacated after the incoming Governor has embarked to assume the Government, he shall receive salary at one-half the rate specified in paragraph (a) of section 2 of this Ordinance from the date of such vacancy.

Salary of Governor when visiting a neighbouring Colony or State.

4. (1) The Governor shall, when visiting any neighbouring Colony or State, receive salary at the rate specified in paragraph (a) of section 2 of this Ordinance during the period occupied in such visit including the time necessarily taken on the journey to and from such Colony or State.

(2) The period occupied in such visit shall not be taken into consideration in estimating any period of full pay leave which may be granted to the Governor under this Ordinance.

Salary of Governor when on leave.

5. (1) The Governor shall, when full pay leave either on vacation or on grounds of ill-health is granted to him by the Secretary of State, receive salary at the rate specified in paragraph (a) of section 2 of this Ordinance during the period of such leave.

(2) Full pay vacation leave may be granted at a rate not exceeding five days for each completed month of resident service, but where such leave is spent in a place other than the Colony, the time necessarily taken on the journey to and from such place may in addition be allowed by the Secretary of State, and salary at the rate fixed by the preceding sub-section shall be paid for the time allowed on each journey from and including the day of embarkation.

(3) In addition to any vacation leave that may be granted under the preceding sub-section, full pay leave on grounds of ill-health may be granted for such period as shall be determined by the Secretary of State but not to exceed six months at any one time.

(4) If the Governor be on leave other than as provided for in the preceding sub-sections and another officer be sworn to administer the Government, then the Governor shall, during such leave, receive salary at one-half the rate specified in paragraph (a) of section 2 of this Ordinance.

6. In the absence of the Governor from the Colony in the circumstances provided by sections 3 to 5 inclusive of this Ordinance, the Officer administering the Government, or the Governor's Deputy, as the case may be, shall, in addition to the emoluments of such officer's substantive appointment, receive (i) an amount equal to one-half the difference between such officer's salary and the Governor's salary as specified in paragraph (a) of section 2 of this Ordinance, and (ii) the duty allowance specified in paragraph (b) of the said section 2. Emoluments of the Acting Governor.

7. The Governor or other Officer administering the Government shall, when in the Colony, receive a commuted allowance at the rate of nine hundred and sixty dollars per annum in lieu of exemptions from customs duties. Commuted customs duty allowance.

8. The Governor's Emoluments Ordinance, 1937, is hereby repealed. Repeal. Ord. 5-1937.

Commencement.

9. This Ordinance shall have retroactive effect and shall be deemed to have commenced on the 23rd day of November, 1938.

Passed in Council this twenty-first day of April, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine.

W. E. BOARDMAN,
Clerk of the Council.
