- (d) is a dependant of a person to whom any of the foregoing paragraphs applies.

(4) For the purposes of this Ordinance, a person enters the Colony if he arrives by sea or by air with the intention of disembarking in the Colony or if he disembarks in the Colony.

3.—(1) The Governor may appoint a Chief Immigration Officer and also Immigration Officers for all or any specified parts of the Colony for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance.

Appointment of Immigration Officers.

- (g) any member of a class of persons deemed by the Governor in Executive Council on economic grounds or on account of standard or habits of life to be undesirable immigrants and so declared by order published in the Royal Gazette ;
- (h) any person who from information or advice received from any Government, whether British or foreign, through official or diplomatic channels is deemed by the Governor in Executive Council to be an undesirable inhabitant of or visitor to the Colony ;
- (i) any person who, not having received a free pardon, has been in any country convicted of an offence for which a sentence of imprisonment has been passed and who for this reason is deemed by the Governor in Executive Council to be an undesirable immigrant.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Ordinance contained, the Governor in Executive Council may exempt any person from the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (g) of sub-section (1) of this section. Power to exempt.

(3) No appeal shall lie against the decision of the Governor in Executive Council in regard to any of the persons mentioned in paragraphs (g) (h) and (i) of sub-section (1) of this section unless such appeal be directed to identity only of the person affected by the decision. No appeal against decision of Governor.

5.—(1) A person entering the Colony without a passport Passports. shall be deemed to be a prohibited immigrant unless and until he explains why he has no passport, and establishes his identity and nationality, to the satisfaction of the immigration officer.

(2) In this section the expression " passport " means a passport furnished with a photograph and duly issued to the person named therein by or on behalf of the Government of the country of which he is a subject or citizen, not more than five years before the date of his arrival, or some other document establishing the identity and nationality of the immigrant to the satisfaction of an immigration officer :

Provided that the Governor may by regulation order that the passport of a national of any or all foreign countries shall not be accepted unless it bears a British consular visa.

(4) Every person entering the Colony shall truthfully answer all proper questions put to him by the immigration officer for the purposes of this Ordinance, and shall also if required by the immigration officer--

(a) make and sign the prescribed declaration; and

(b) submit to be examined by a medical officer.

(5) ~~Any person who refuses to make and sign the prescribed declaration or to submit to be examined by a Medical Officer shall be deemed to be a prohibited immigrant and may be dealt with as such.~~

*Substituted
Ordinance 29/
Sec. 2 (7)*

9.—(1) The master of a vessel, arriving from any place outside the Colony or departing from the Colony shall answer truthfully to the best of his ability all proper questions put to him by the immigration officer relating to the passengers, in so far as is necessary for the purposes of this Ordinance and, if so required, furnish the immigration officer with a list in duplicate signed by himself of the names of all passengers in the vessel, and such other information as may be prescribed, and every such passenger shall supply the information necessary for the purpose of the list.

Master to furnish particulars and list of passengers.

(2) Any master who shall either refuse to supply such list or to answer any such questions or who shall knowingly and wilfully give an untrue answer thereto shall be liable on summary conviction before a Magistrate to a penalty not exceeding two hundred and forty dollars.

Penalty.

(3) Any passenger intending to enter the Colony who shall knowingly and wilfully supply any false information in respect of such list or in answer to any proper question put to him by an Immigration Officer in respect of the particulars required for such list or otherwise for the purposes of this Ordinance shall be liable on summary conviction before a Magistrate to a penalty not exceeding two hundred and forty dollars.

Passenger supplying false information guilty of an offence.

10.—(1) An immigration officer may for the purpose of making further inquiry postpone deciding whether a person is a prohibited immigrant for a period not exceeding sixty days.

Immigration Officer may postpone decision and grant temporary permit.

(2) An immigration officer may grant a permit for an immigrant to disembark without prejudice to the question whether he is a prohibited immigrant.

(4) If a visitor or passenger in transit fails to leave the Colony on or before the expiration of the permit without having presented himself as aforesaid, he shall be deemed to be a prohibited immigrant and may be dealt with as such.

(5) The immigration officer may require the visitor or passenger as a condition of granting him a permit to give the prescribed security.

14. Where it is decided that an immigrant is not a prohibited immigrant, the immigration officer shall, if so required, give that person a certificate to that effect.

Certificate that a person is not a prohibited immigrant.

15. A decision by an immigration officer that a person is not a prohibited immigrant given by mistake or in ignorance of any material facts or in consequence of any misrepresentation by the immigrant shall not affect the liability of the immigrant to be dealt with as a prohibited immigrant.

Mistaken decision that a person is not a prohibited immigrant.

16. Except as otherwise specially provided by this Ordinance no prohibited immigrant shall enter the Colony, and an immigration officer shall cause a prohibited immigrant entering or found within the Colony (having entered after the commencement of this Ordinance) to be removed therefrom in the manner hereinafter provided.

Prohibition of entry by prohibited immigrant.

17. An immigration officer who decides that a person is a prohibited immigrant may in his discretion—

Orders for prohibited immigrants to leave the Colony.

- (a) if the immigrant arrived by sea, order him to leave the Colony and proceed immediately in the same vessel in which he arrived ;
- (b) order him to leave the Colony within sixty days of his entering the Colony and, if the immigration officer thinks fit, by a specified vessel ; or
- (c) cause him to be arrested and brought before a Magistrate's Court with a view to an order being made for his removal.

19.—(1) Whenever—

- (a) a prohibited immigrant has delivered notice of appeal,
- (b) a prohibited immigrant is ordered to leave the Colony,
- (c) an immigration officer postpones deciding whether a person is a prohibited immigrant, or
- (d) security is required to be given in respect of an immigrant,

Temporary permits pending appeal, &c.

the immigration officer may grant a permit for the immigrant to remain in the Colony for so long as the immigration officer considers necessary.

(2) In lieu of granting the permit or on revocation or expiration of the permit, the immigration officer may cause the immigrant to be arrested and brought before a Magistrate who may either order the permit to be granted, restored, or renewed and the immigrant to be released, or order the immigrant to be detained in custody until the matter is disposed of or until an opportunity occurs for him to leave the Colony, as the case may require.

20. A person held to be a prohibited immigrant or to whom a permit is issued shall, if so required by the immigration officer, submit to his finger-prints being taken by the immigration officer.

Finger-prints may be taken.

21.—(1) A person to whom a permit or certificate under this Ordinance has been granted shall at all times produce it to any immigration officer or constable on demand, and shall not lend, transfer, or assign it to any other person.

Conditions and restrictions relating to permits and certificates.

(2) No person shall borrow or make use of a permit or certificate which has been granted under this Ordinance to any other person.

(3) A person having in his possession a permit or certificate appearing to have been granted under this Ordinance shall answer all questions put to him by an immigration officer ^{or constable} for the purpose of establishing his identity with the person named in the permit or certificate and shall, if so required by an immigration officer ^{or constable}, submit to his finger-prints being taken for that purpose.

Inserted
Order 29/4
Sec 3.

24.—(1) Any person to whom leave to disembark has been refused shall be removed from the Colony by the master of the vessel in which he arrived, and by that same vessel, or with the consent of an immigration officer he shall be removed by the owner or agent of that vessel, by any other vessel, to the country to which he belongs or from which he embarked for the Colony.

Liability of vessel to repatriate a prohibited immigrant.

(2) If an immigrant, in respect of whom notice was given to the Master or local agent or owner of a vessel as required by section 18 (1) hereof, is ordered to be removed from or to leave the Colony within sixty days of his arrival in the Colony, the master of the vessel in which the immigrant arrived or of any vessel belonging to the same owner or chartered by him shall at the request of an immigration officer and on production to him of the order receive the immigrant (and any of his dependants whom he may have brought with him by the same vessel into the Colony) on board and afford them a passage to the country to which the immigrant belongs or from which he embarked for the Colony.

(3) In the event of the immigrant and his dependants being unable to defray the expenses of the passage required to be provided under the preceding sub-sections the master shall nevertheless provide the immigrant (and any of his dependants whom he may have brought with him by the same vessel into the Colony) with suitable accommodation and maintenance during the passage free of charge to the public fund of the Colony; saving nevertheless to the master the right to recover such expenses from the immigrant and his dependants.

(4) Except as provided in the preceding sub-sections the expenses of passage of a prohibited immigrant and his dependants (if any) removed from the Colony shall be payable from the public funds of the Colony in so far as they are not defrayed by the immigrant and his dependants.

25. The master of any vessel may, on the desertion of any seaman, or the landing of any stowaway or prohibited immigrant from his vessel, apply to a Magistrate for a warrant to arrest and convey back on board the vessel such seaman, stowaway, or prohibited immigrant, and the Warrant to convey prohibited immigrant back on vessel.

- (c) obstructs, hinders or opposes any immigration officer or constable in the execution of his duty under this Ordinance; or
- (d) without lawful excuse knowingly harbours or conceals any other person who is within the Colony in contravention of the terms of this Ordinance, or who having entered the Colony in pursuance of permission given as hereinbefore provided, has wilfully failed to observe any condition attached to such permission; or
- (e) fails to comply with or contravenes the conditions under which any permit, certificate or other document has been issued to him under this Ordinance;

(f) added by O. 21 of 1939. S.E.

shall, on summary conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred and forty dollars, and in the case of a contravention of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section, to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding six months.

28. A person detained in custody under this Ordinance but not serving a sentence of imprisonment may be so detained either in the Royal Gaol or in any place appointed for the purpose by the Governor, but if detained in the Royal Gaol he shall be treated as a person awaiting trial. Place of detention.

29. In any proceedings under this Ordinance— Evidence and burden of proof.

- (a) the burden of proof that the person charged belongs to the Colony or that he is not likely to become a charge on public funds shall be upon that person;
- (b) a document purporting to be a removal order made under this Ordinance shall, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to be such an order; and
- (c) any order made under this Ordinance shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to have been validly made and to have been made on the date upon which it purports to have been made.

- (g) the permits and the certificates which may be issued under this Ordinance, the conditions upon which any such permit or certificate shall be issued, the circumstances under which they may be cancelled and the fees which may be charged for any such permit or certificate; and the amount and nature of the security to be furnished for the due carrying out of any conditions upon which a permit to enter and reside for a specified period may be issued to a prohibited immigrant;
- (h) the forms of warrants, permits, certificates or other documents to be issued or used or of the declarations to be made or of the books to be kept for the purposes of this Ordinance, and the particulars to be inserted in any such document, declaration or book;
- (i) generally for the better carrying out of the objects and purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) Regulations made under this Ordinance shall not have any force or effect until they have been approved by resolution of the Legislative Council, and when so approved they shall be published in the Royal Gazette and from the date of such publication, or from the date specified therein, such Regulations shall have the same force and effect as if they were contained in and formed part of this Ordinance: Provided that, until varied or revoked by any such Regulations, the Regulations and Forms contained in the Schedule to this Ordinance shall be in force. Schedule.

32. Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be deemed to affect the operation of the Immigration Ordinance in so far as such Ordinance relates to an immigrant as defined in sections 2 and 12 thereof. Saving as to the Immigration
Ord., Cap. 245.

33. The Pauper Immigration Ordinance, the Pauper Immigration (Amendment) Ordinance, 1926, the Passports Ordinance, and the Passports (Amendment) Ordinance, 1933, are hereby repealed. Repeal of
Cap. 244,
Cap. 246.
No. 18—1931.
No. 7—1933

Provided that in special cases to be approved by the Governor the immigrant may give a security bond in the appropriate amount with one or more sureties acceptable to the Treasurer. The amount of such deposit or bond shall be applied in indemnifying public funds for all costs, charges and expenses incurred in regard to the immigrant within two years of his arrival in the Colony (the balance, if any, or the whole if no part is applied as aforesaid being repaid to the immigrant).

(2) A person on a temporary visit to the Colony, shall, if required by an Immigration Officer, produce evidence to his satisfaction—

- (a) of being in employment elsewhere and intent to return thereto ; or
- (b) of possession of a return steamer ticket ; or
- (c) of the possession of a sum of money sufficient to enable him to maintain himself during the period of his visit and to provide for his return fare or of its immediate availability.

(3) The Immigration Officer may accept as sufficient evidence that the immigrant is not likely to become a public charge if (not being a person suffering from infirmity of mind or body or ill health) he is satisfied that bona fide employment is awaiting the immigrant in the Colony ; the evidence to support such contention must show the nature and period of the employment and the proposed wage, and be supported as to the ability of the prospective employer to carry out his undertaking and include an undertaking by the employer to repatriate the immigrant if the engagement is terminated within two years from the time he landed in the Colony.

(4) The security bond required for the purposes hereof may be given in the Form "C" annexed hereto with such modifications as Form "C". the circumstances require.

6.—(1) The Medical Officer appointed by the Governor for the purpose shall, when necessary and required, be present at the examination of persons entering or seeking to enter the Colony, and shall indicate to the Immigration Officer any person who ought, in the opinion of such Medical Officer to be medically examined. The Immigration Officer may require such Medical Officer to make a medical examination of any such person, and of any other person entering or found within the Colony who is required to submit to such medical examination. Medical Examination.

(2) The medical examination of any person entering or seeking to enter or found in the Colony shall take place at such place as may be convenient, and as soon as possible after the arrival of such person, or after the person is found, and a report as to the result of such examination shall be rendered to the Immigration Officer, and shall accompany that Officer's record of proceedings furnished to the Chief Immigration Officer if any such person be found to be a prohibited immigrant.

7.—(1) A Certificate of Identity issued in terms of section 7 of the Ordinance to persons who belong to the Colony may be in the Form "D" annexed hereto, and subject to the conditions therein set out, or to any modifications required in the particular circumstances ; and every such certificate shall contain such particulars as may be deemed necessary for the purposes of identification. Certificate of Identity.
Form "D".

(2) It shall be deemed to be a condition of every temporary permit that the holder shall report to the officers and at the periods and places specified in such permit, and, if the holder gives any false or misleading address, he shall be liable to forfeiture of his permit and of the deposit made or bond given by him or on his behalf, and to be dealt with as a prohibited immigrant.

(3) No temporary permit shall be issued for a period exceeding one month without the sanction of the Chief Immigration Officer, nor for a period exceeding twelve months without the sanction of the Governor.

12. The Immigration Officer, after commencing his examination of any person who has not satisfied him that he is not a prohibited immigrant, may provisionally restrict the admission to the Colony of such person, or cause his detention in custody, and may cause such enquiries to be made, or await such further information as may be necessary, before finally informing any person in accordance with section 18 of the Ordinance that he is a prohibited immigrant, and that he may appeal to the Magistrate's Court.

13. In the event of an Immigration Officer becoming aware of any circumstances constituting reasonable grounds for suspecting that any person within the Colony is a prohibited immigrant in the Colony, he shall apply to a Magistrate for a warrant of arrest, in the Form "J" annexed hereto, or shall otherwise proceed in terms of section 17 of the Ordinance, and shall cause such person to be brought before him, and thereupon proceed to examine him in order to ascertain whether such person is a prohibited immigrant, and such person may, if necessary, be detained pending the completion of such enquiry, and may be further detained thereafter as hereinafter provided if it is found that he is a prohibited immigrant.

14. The Immigration Officer shall, in the case of every person deemed to be a prohibited immigrant, enter on the Form "K" annexed hereto a full record of his examination of such person, and shall forthwith transmit the record to the Chief Immigration Officer together with all documents relating thereto.

15.—(1) It shall be the duty of an Immigration Officer, after having notified a person whom he has declared to be a prohibited immigrant and when he is informed by such person that it is his intention to appeal to a Court, to supply to such person for completion by him a notice of appeal in Form "L" annexed hereto.

(2) When the notice of appeal has been received by the Immigration Officer in a completed form from the appellant, he shall transmit the same to the Chief Immigration Officer. He shall then arrange for the reception of the appellant at the detention depot, or at such other place as may be approved for his accommodation, pending the determination of his appeal; or should the appellant so request, and on his giving security in the manner provided by Regulation 5 (1) hereof the

16. Any Order which may be issued under the Ordinance for the removal of a prohibited immigrant from the Colony shall be in Form "M" annexed hereto.

Order of removal of prohibited immigrant. Form "M".

17. —(1) Save as is otherwise provided in the Ordinance, any person detained in custody thereunder may be detained at any place at which persons under arrest awaiting trial are liable to be detained, or in any part of the quarantine station specially provided for the detention of prohibited immigrants; or, at any other place which may be convenient, regard being had to the circumstances.

Detention of prohibited immigrants or suspected immigrants.

(2) Any gaoler or immigration guard shall accept custody of any person on the order of the Immigration Officer, or on the order of a Magistrate issued at the request of an Immigration Officer, but no person shall be so detained in custody for any longer period than is necessary for the purpose of any prescribed enquiry or for the completion by the Immigration Officer of arrangements for the removal of such person from the Colony at the first reasonable opportunity.

(3) The production of an order of removal shall be sufficient authority to any gaoler or other officer to deliver the person named therein to the escort appointed to bring such person to any place for the purpose of removal in terms of such order.

18. Any person employed by the Government to have custody and control of any person detained as a prohibited immigrant shall carry out such duties as are assigned to him by an Immigration Officer.

Duties of person in charge of prohibited immigrant.

19. For the purpose of administering the Ordinance and these regulations, all officers appointed hereunder are hereby authorised and empowered to board any vessel at any time and at all places in the Colony.

Authority to board vessels

20. Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of these regulations, with which it is his duty to comply, or who otherwise contravenes these regulations, shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding forty-eight dollars, or, in default of payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding three months.

Penalties.
