- (e) repatriation facilities in time of international crises, together with their spouses and dependent children as are no less favourable than those accorded to officials of comparable rank in other international organisations;
- (f) the right to import free of duty and taxes their furniture and personal effects within six months of the time of first taking up their post at the Regional Centre. The importation or acquisition of motor vehicles shall be governed by the terms

5. The privileges, immunities, exemptions and facilities accorded in this Agreement are granted in the interest of CAB International and not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves. CAB International not only has the right but is under a duty to waive the immunity granted to any person, if in its opinion immunity would impede the course of justice and the waiver would not prejudice the purposes for which the immunities are accorded.

6. Without prejudice to their privileges and immunities it is the duty of all members of staff of the Regional Centre enjoying such privileges and immunities to respect the laws and regulations of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. CAB International shall take every measure necessary to ensure that the privileges, immunities, exemptions and facilities conferred by this Agreement are not abused.
