12. The Rules contained in the First Schedule with respect to indictments shall have effect as if enacted in this Act, but those Rules may be added to, varied, or annulled by further Rules made by the Rules Committee of the Supreme Court under this Act.

General provisions as to indictments.

(2) Notwithstanding any rule of law or practice, an indictment shall, subject to this Act, not be open to objection in respect of its form or contents if it is framed in accordance with the Rules under this Act.

same indictment.

14. (1) Where, before trial, or at any stage of a trial, it appears to the Court that the indictment is defective, the Court shall make such order for the amendment of the indictment as the Court thinks necessary to meet the circumstances of the case, unless, having regard to the merits of the case, the required amendments cannot be made without injustice.

Orders for amendment of indictment,
separate trial,
and postponement
of trial.
[18 of 1994].

(2) Where an indictment is so amended, a note of the order for amendment shall be endorsed on the indictment, and the indictment shall be treated for the purposes of the trial and for the purposes of all proceedings in connection therewith as if it had been originally presented in the amended form.

(3) Where, before trial, or at any stage of a trial, the Court is of opinion that a person accused may be prejudiced or embarrassed in his defence by reason of being charged with more than one offence in the same indictment, or that for any other reason it is desirable to direct that the person should be tried separately for any one or more offences charged in an indictment, the Court may order a separate trial of any count, or counts of such indictment.

(4) Where, before trial, or at any stage of a trial, the Court is of opinion that the postponement of the trial of a person accused is expedient as a consequence of the exercise of any power of the Court under this Act to amend an indictment or to order a separate trial of a count, the Court shall make such order as to the postponement of the trial as appears necessary.

(5) Where an order of the Court is made under this section for a separate trial or for the postponement of a trial—

- (b) the procedure on the separate trial of a count shall be the same in all respects as if the count had been presented in a separate indictment, and the procedure on the postponed trial shall be the same in all respects (if the jury has been discharged) as if the trial had not commenced; and
- (c) the Court may make such order as to releasing the accused person on bail, and as to the enlargement of recognisances, and otherwise, as the Court thinks fit.

(6) Any power of the Court under this section shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any other power of the Court for the same or similar purposes.

15. (1) Nothing in sections 12, 13 and 14 or Rules made under this Act shall affect the law or practice relating to the jurisdiction of a Court or the place where an accused person can be tried, nor prejudice or diminish in any respect the obligation to establish by evidence according to law any acts or intentions which are legally necessary to constitute the offence with which the person accused is charged, nor otherwise affect the laws of evidence in criminal cases. Savings.

(2) The provisions of sections 12, 13 and 14 relating to indictments shall apply to any plea, replication or other criminal pleading, with such modifications as may be made by Rules under this Act. Application to criminal informations, etc. [45 of 1979].

ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES

16. Every person who is bound by recognisance to attend at any Criminal Sessions as a witness, whether for the prosecution or for the defence, in any case to be tried at such Sessions, shall be bound to attend the Court, whether or not he has received any subpoena or notice, on the day appointed for the trial of such case, and on subsequent days of the Sessions, until the case has been disposed of, or until he has been discharged by the Court from further attendance. Attendance of witness bound by recognisance to attend.

17. (1) Every person whose attendance as a witness, whether for the prosecution or for the defence, is required in any case, and who has not been bound by recognisance to attend as a witness at the Criminal Sessions at which such case is to be tried, shall be summoned by a writ of subpoena. Writs of subpoena.

(2) Every such subpoena shall issue in the name of the State and shall be tested in the name of the Chief Justice.

18. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Registrar shall on being furnished with the names and places of abode of any witnesses on behalf of the prosecution or defence whose attendance is required to be secured by subpoena, prepare for service a writ or writs of subpoena directed to such witnesses, together with as many copies thereof, as there may be witnesses named in such writ or writs. Duty to prepare subpoenas. [12 of 1962].

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Registrar may, before a subpoena directed to any witness whose attendance is required on behalf of the defence is prepared, require to be satisfied by evidence on oath or otherwise that that witness is likely to be able to give material evidence, and the Deputy Registrar or an Assistant Registrar may exercise the like powers in relation to any application for any such subpoena directed to the Registrar. Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to prejudice any right or power of the Court at the trial to call, or permit to be called, any witness.

(3) When application is made to postpone any trial by reason of the absence of any witness, it shall be taken as prima facie evidence, liable nevertheless to be rebutted, that the party applying for such postponement has not exercised all due and necessary diligence to secure the attendance of such witness if it appears that no subpoena to such witness was requested four clear days at the least before the first day of the Criminal Sessions.

Service of subpoenas.

19. The Registrar, by himself or his assistants, shall with all diligence, serve, or attempt to serve, a copy of the writ of subpoena upon each witness to be served, and shall note every such service or attempted service with the time thereof upon the original writ of subpoena, and shall endorse and subscribe thereon a certificate of the service or non-service thereof, as the circumstances of the case may require; any such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Warrant for apprehension of witness not attending on recognisance.

20. If any person who has been bound by recognisance to attend as a witness, whether for the prosecution or for the defence, at the trial of any case does not attend the Court on the day appointed for the trial of such case, and no reasonable excuse is offered for such non-attendance, the Court may issue a warrant to apprehend such person and to bring him, at a time to be mentioned in the warrant, before the Court in order to give evidence on behalf of the prosecution or of the defence, as the case may be.

Warrant for apprehension of witness disobeying summons.

21. If any person to whom any writ of subpoena is directed does not attend the Court at the time and place mentioned therein, and no reasonable excuse is offered for such non-attendance, then, after proof upon oath, to the satisfaction of the Court, that the writ was duly served, or that the person to whom the writ is directed wilfully avoids service, the Court, being satisfied, by proof upon oath, that he is likely to give material evidence, may issue a warrant to apprehend such person, and to bring him, at a time to be mentioned in the warrant, before the Court in order to give evidence on behalf of the prosecution or of the defence, as the case may be.

22. Any person who makes default in attending as a witness in either of the cases mentioned in section 20 or 21 is liable, on the summary order of the Court, to a fine of one thousand dollars, and in default of payment, to imprisonment for two months.

Fine for non-attendance of witness.

23. (1) If a Judge is satisfied, by proof upon oath, that any person likely to give material evidence either for the prosecution or for the defence, on the trial of any case, will not attend to give evidence without being compelled to do so, he may order that, instead of a subpoena being issued, a warrant shall be issued in the first instance for the apprehension of such person.

Warrant for apprehension of witness in first instance.

(2) Every person arrested under any such warrant shall, if the trial of the case for which his evidence is required is appointed for a time which is more than twenty-four hours after the arrest, be taken before a Judge, and the Judge may, on his furnishing security by recognisance, to the satisfaction of the Judge, for his appearance at such trial, order him to be released from custody, or shall, on his failing to furnish such security, order him to be detained for production at such trial.

24. (1) If any person attending the Court as a witness, either on his recognisance, or in obedience to a subpoena, or by virtue of a warrant, or being present in Court and being verbally required by the Court to give evidence in any case—

Mode of dealing with witness refusing to be sworn, etc.

- (a) refuses to be sworn as a witness; or
- (b) having been sworn as a witness, refuses to answer any question put to him by or with the sanction of the Court; or
- (c) refuses or neglects to produce any document which he is required by the Court to produce, without in any such case offering any sufficient excuse for such refusal or neglect, the Court may, if it thinks fit, adjourn or postpone the trial of the case for any period not exceeding eight days, and may in the meantime, by warrant, commit such person to prison.

(2) If such person, upon being brought before the Court at or before such adjourned or postponed trial, again refuses to do what is so required of him, the Court may, if it thinks fit, again adjourn or postpone the trial of the case, and commit him in like manner, and so again from time to time until such person consents to do what is so required of him.

(3) Every such person who is guilty of such refusal or neglect is also liable, on the summary order of the Court, either in addition to or in lieu of such punishment, to a fine of one thousand dollars, and in default of payment, to imprisonment for two months.

(4) Nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of any such person to any other punishment or proceeding for refusing or neglecting to do what is so required of him, or shall prevent the Court from disposing of the case in the meantime, according to any other sufficient evidence produced before it.

Non-attendance
adjourned trial.

25. Every witness who is present when the trial or further trial of a case is adjourned, or who has been duly notified of the time to which such trial or further trial is so adjourned, shall be bound to attend at such time, and in default of so doing, may be dealt with in the same manner as if he had failed to attend before the Court in obedience to a subpoena to attend and give evidence.

EXPENSES OF WITNESSES

Expenses of witnesses for the prosecution.
[45 of 1979].

26. Where any person appears before the Court on recognisance, or subpoena, or by virtue of a warrant, to give evidence against any person accused of an offence, the Court may order payment of the costs and expenses of such witness together with compensation for his trouble and loss of time.

27. The Court may, in its discretion, at the request of any person who appears before it on recognisance, or subpoena, or by virtue of a warrant, to give evidence on behalf of an accused person, order payment to such witness of such sum of money as the Court thinks reasonable and sufficient to compensate him for the expenses, trouble, and loss of time which he incurred or sustained in attending before the examining Magistrate and the Court.

Expenses of witnesses for accused.

28. (1) The amount of the expenses and compensation payable to any witness attending before the Court shall be ascertained by the Registrar and certified under his hand, and, on being allowed by a Judge under his hand, shall be paid to the witness by the Comptroller of Accounts.

Ascertainment of witness's expenses.

(2) The amount of the expenses and compensation payable to any witness attending before a Magistrate shall be ascertained by the certificate of such Magistrate granted before the attendance of the witness in the Court, and, on being allowed by a Judge under his hand, shall be paid to the witness by the Comptroller of Accounts.

PROCEEDINGS AT TRIAL AND SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS

29. Where any person against whom an indictment has been duly preferred, and who is then at large, does not appear to plead to such indictment, whether he is under recognisance to appear or not, the Court may issue a warrant for his apprehension.

Bench warrant where accused person does not appear.

- 30. (1) Where a person is arraigned on an indictment—
- (a) he shall in all cases be entitled to make a plea of not guilty in addition to any demurrer or special plea;
 - (b) he may plead not guilty of the offence specifically charged in the indictment but guilty of another offence of which he might be found guilty on that indictment;
 - (c) if he stands mute of malice or will not answer directly to the indictment, the Court may order the Registrar or officer deputising as such to enter a plea of not guilty on his behalf, and he shall then be treated as having pleaded not guilty.

Arraignment of accused person. [45 of 1979].

Ch. 10:04.

(2) On an indictment for murder a person found not guilty of murder may be found guilty—

- (a) of manslaughter;
- (b) of any offence of which he may be found guilty under a written law specifically so providing or under section 5 of the Criminal Law Act; or
- (c) of an attempt to commit murder, or of an attempt to commit any other offence of which he might be found guilty, but may not be found guilty of an offence not included above.

(3) Where, on a person's trial on indictment for any offence except treason or murder, the jury find him not guilty of the offence specifically charged in the indictment, but the allegations in the indictment amount to or include (expressly or by implication) an allegation of another offence falling within the jurisdiction of the Court of trial, the jury may find him guilty of that other offence or of an offence of which he could be found guilty on an indictment specifically charging that other offence.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) any allegation of an offence shall be taken as including an allegation of attempting to commit that offence; and where a person is charged on indictment with attempting to commit an offence or with any assault or other act preliminary to an offence, but not with the completed offence, then (subject to the discretion of the Court to discharge the jury with a view to the preferment of an indictment for the completed offence) he may be convicted of the offence charged notwithstanding that he is shown to be guilty of the completed offence.

(5) Where a person arraigned on an indictment pleads not guilty of an offence charged in the indictment but guilty of some other offence (whether an offence of which he might be found guilty on that charge or an offence separately charged), and he is convicted on that plea of guilty without trial for the offence of which he has pleaded not guilty, his conviction of the one offence shall be an acquittal of the other.

(6) Any power to bring proceedings for an offence by criminal information in the Court is hereby abolished.

66. Where, in an indictment, any act is charged against any person as an offence, and it is given in evidence on the trial of such person for that offence that he was insane, so as not to be responsible according to law for his actions at the time when the act was done, then, if it appears to the jury before whom such person is tried that he did the act charged, but was insane as mentioned above at the time when he did the same, the jury shall return a special verdict to the effect that the accused person was guilty of the act charged against him, but was insane as mentioned above at the time when he did the act.
