STATUS OF THE COURT AND COMMISSION

1. The Court and the Commission shall possess full juridical personality and, in particular, full capacity to:
 - (a) contract;
 - (b) acquire and dispose of immovable and movable property;
 - (c) institute legal proceedings.
2. In all legal proceedings, the Court and the Commission shall be represented by the Registrar.

ARTICLE III

THE SEAT OF THE COURT AND OFFICES OF THE COMMISSION

1. The Seat of the Court and offices of the Commission shall be the premises defined in Article I of this Agreement.
2. The President shall have the power to make regulations operative within the Seat of the Court and offices of the Commission for the purpose of establishing therein conditions necessary for the full execution of their functions which shall be carried out through the Court Executive Administrator and the Registrar.

3. The Seat of the Court and offices of the Commission shall be inviolable and shall be under the authority of the President as provided for in this Agreement.

4. Officials of the Government, whether administrative, judicial, military or police, shall not enter the Seat of the Court or the offices of the Commission to perform any official duties therein except with the consent of and under conditions agreed by either the Court Executive Administrator or the Registrar. However, in the case of fire or other emergency requiring prompt protective action, or in the event that officials of the Government have reasonable cause to believe that such an emergency has occurred, the consent of the Court Executive Administrator or the Registrar to entry in the Seat of the Court and offices of the Commission by the officials of the Government shall be presumed if neither the Court Executive Administrator nor the Registrar can be reached in time.

5. The service of legal process, including the seizure of private property, may take place within the Seat of the Court or the offices of the Commission only with the consent of and under the conditions approved by the Registrar.

6. The President shall not permit the Seat of the Court or the offices of the Commission to become a refuge either for fugitives from justice or for persons who are endeavouring to avoid service of legal process or judicial proceedings under the laws of Trinidad and Tobago or against whom an order of extradition or deportation has been made by the competent authorities.

7. The Court Executive Administrator may expel or exclude persons from the Seat of the Court or the offices of the Commission for violation of its regulations or for any other reasonable cause.

ARTICLE IV

PROPERTY, FUNDS AND ASSETS OF THE COURT AND COMMISSION

1. The Court, Commission and their property, wherever located and by whomsoever held, shall enjoy immunity from every form of legal process except in so far as in any particular case the President has expressly waived their immunity. No waiver of immunity shall extend to any measure of execution.

2. Save as otherwise provided in paragraph 1 of this Article, the property of the Court and the Commission, wherever located or by whomsoever held, shall be immune from search, acquisition, confiscation, expropriation and any other form of interference, whether by legislative, executive, administrative or judicial action.

3. Nothing in this Article shall be construed as preventing the Government from taking appropriate action in connection with the investigation into accidents involving motor vehicles belonging to or operated on behalf of the Court or the Commission.

ARTICLE V

ARCHIVES OF THE COURT AND COMMISSION

The archives of the Court and the Commission and in general all documents held by them shall be inviolable wherever located.

2. The official correspondence and all other forms of official communications of the Court and Commission shall be inviolable.

3. The Court and Commission shall have the right to use codes and to dispatch and receive correspondence by courier in sealed bags, which shall not be searched or detained unless the competent authorities have serious reason to believe that the sealed bags contain something other than correspondence, documents or articles for the official use of the Court or the Commission exclusively, in which case the bag shall be opened only in the presence of an officer of the Court.

4. Nothing in this Article shall be construed so as to preclude the adoption of measures necessary to protect the security of Trinidad and Tobago.

ARTICLE IX

JUDGES AND OFFICERS OF THE COURT

1. Judges and officers of the Court and members of the Commission, when engaged on the business of the Court or Commission, as the case may be, in Trinidad and Tobago, shall enjoy:

- (a) immunity from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts done by them in their official capacity, such immunity shall continue notwithstanding that the persons concerned have ceased to exercise their functions with the Court or the Commission;
- (b) immunity from personal arrest or detention in relation to acts performed by them in their official capacity;
- (c) inviolability of all papers, documents and materials related to the work of the Court or the Commission;

UNOFFICIAL VERSION

UPDATED TO DECEMBER 31ST 2015

- (d) exemption from immigration restrictions, alien registration requirements and national service obligations;
- (e) the same protection and repatriation facilities in times of international crisis as are accorded representatives of foreign governments of comparable rank;
- (f) the right, for the purpose of all communications with the Court or the Commission, to use codes to dispatch or receive papers, correspondence or other official material by courier or in sealed bags;
- (g) the same privileges and facilities in respect of currency and exchange restrictions as are accorded to representatives of foreign governments of comparable rank;
- (h) immunity from inspection and seizure of personal and official baggage, except in cases of flagrante delicto. In such cases, the competent authorities shall immediately inform the Court Executive Administrator. Inspection of personal baggage shall be conducted in the presence of the person concerned or his authorised representative and, in the case of official baggage, in the presence of a duly authorised representative of the Court Executive Administrator;
- (i) exemption from any form of direct taxation of salaries, remuneration and allowances paid by the Court or the Commission and from customs duties on imports in respect of articles imported for personal use, subject to the condition that articles imported under such exemption shall not be sold within Trinidad and Tobago except under conditions determined by the Government.

2. The privileges, immunities and exemptions mentioned in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (g), (h) and (i) of paragraph 1 of this Article shall also be enjoyed by such senior employees of the Court or Commission as may be designated from time to time by the President in writing to the Government when such officers are engaged on the business of the Court or Commission as the case may be in Trinidad and Tobago.

3. All employees of the Court or Commission shall enjoy exemption from income tax in respect of salaries, remuneration and allowances paid to them by the Court or Commission as the case may be.

ARTICLE X

COUNSEL APPEARING IN PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE COURT

1. Counsel appearing in proceedings before the Court while present in Trinidad and Tobago shall, in the performance of their functions connected with such proceedings, enjoy:

- (a) inviolability of all papers, documents and materials relating to the proceedings before the Court;
- (b) immunity from personal arrest or detention in relation to words spoken or written or acts performed by them in relation to proceedings before the Court;
- (c) exemption from immigration restrictions, alien registration requirements and national service obligations;
- (d) the same privileges and facilities in respect of currency and exchange restrictions in relation to their appearance in proceedings before the Court as are accorded to representatives of Government on temporary official missions.

2. Counsel mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article shall enjoy, in respect of words written or spoken and all acts done by them in the conduct of proceedings before the Court, immunity from legal process. The immunity shall continue although the person entitled is no longer conducting proceedings before the Court.

3. The privileges, immunities and facilities mentioned in this Article are only intended to assist counsel in the efficient representation of clients in proceedings before the Court and shall not be employed to circumvent applicable laws and regulations of Trinidad and Tobago.

ARTICLE XI

CO-OPERATION WITH COMPETENT AUTHORITIES

1. Privileges and immunities are recognised and granted by this Agreement in the interest of the Court and Commission and not for the personal benefit of persons entitled thereto. The Conference, in the case of the President, and the President, in the case of other persons entitled thereto, shall have the right to waive such privileges and immunities whenever in their opinion the enjoyment of the privileges and immunities would impede the course of justice and could be waived without prejudice to the interests of the Court or Commission.

2. The President, the Court Executive Administrator and the Registrar, as the case may be, shall co-operate at all times with the competent authorities in order to facilitate the proper administration of justice, secure the observance of the laws and regulations of Trinidad and Tobago and avoid the occurrence of any abuse in connection with the privileges, immunities and facilities recognised and granted by this Agreement.

3. Without prejudice to the privileges and immunities recognised and granted by this Agreement, it is the duty of all persons enjoying such privileges and immunities to respect the laws and regulations of Trinidad and Tobago.

4. If the Government considers that an abuse has occurred in the enjoyment of any privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement, the Court Executive Administrator shall, at the request of the Government, consult with the competent authorities to determine whether such an abuse has occurred. If such consultations fail to achieve results satisfactory to the Court Executive Administrator and the Government, the issues shall be settled in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article XIII.

ARTICLE XII

FACILITATION OF TRAVEL

1. Subject to the laws or regulations restricting entry or movement for reasons of national security, the Government shall extend all facilities for the uninterrupted passage within Trinidad and Tobago as well as for the entry and departure therefrom of the categories of persons indicated below:

- (a) judges of the Court and members of their families forming part of their household;
- (b) members of the Commission;
- (c) officers of the Court and members of their families forming part of their household;
- (d) parties to and applicants in proceedings before the Court and counsel appearing representing them in such proceedings;
- (e) persons other than officers of the Court performing missions for the Court and members of their families forming part of their household; and
- (f) other persons invited to the Seat of the Court or offices of the Commission on official business.

2. The Court Executive Administrator shall communicate to the Government the names of the persons mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article.

3. This Article shall not be applicable in case of a general interruption of transportation and shall not impede the effective application of laws in force nor waive reasonable application of quarantine and health regulations.

4. Visas required by persons referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be granted expeditiously and free of charge.

ARTICLE XIII

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

1. The President shall make appropriate provisions for the settlement of:

- (a) disputes arising out of contracts and other disputes of a private law character to which the Court or Commission is a party;
- (b) disputes involving any judge or officer of the Court or Counsel conducting proceedings before the Court enjoying immunity if such immunity has not been waived by the persons empowered in that behalf.

2. Any difference between the Government and the Court or the Commission arising out of the interpretation or application of this Agreement and which is not settled by negotiation or other agreed mode of settlement shall be referred for final decision to a Tribunal of three arbitrators at the instance of either party: one to be appointed by the Government, one to be appointed by the President, and the third, who shall be the Chairman of the Tribunal, to be chosen by the first two arbitrators. If either of the parties fails to appoint an arbitrator within six weeks of the decision to resort to arbitration, an arbitrator or arbitrators, as the case may be, shall be appointed for such purposes by the Secretary General of the Caribbean Community. If the first two arbitrators within three weeks of their appointment fail to agree upon the third, the Government or the President shall request the Secretary General to choose the third arbitrator. The arbitral Tribunal shall make a determination within six months from the date of its constitution. A majority vote of the arbitrators shall be sufficient to reach a decision, which shall be final and binding. The Chairman shall be empowered to settle all questions of procedure in any case where there is disagreement between the other arbitrators in respect thereto.

ARTICLE XIV

ENTRY INTO FORCE

1. This Agreement and any agreement supplementary thereto shall enter into force immediately upon signature.

2. Consultations in respect of any amendment to this Agreement may be initiated by either the Government or the President.

3. The Government shall take such action as is necessary for the purpose of incorporating the provisions of this Agreement in the law of Trinidad and Tobago and shall inform the President of the action taken.
