Enactment.

Section 49A
of Principal Ordinance repealed and replaced
Revised Laws
1951-1953,
Vol. 1.

2. Section 49A of the Principal Ordinance, as enacted by section 3 of the Customs (Amendment) Ordinance, 1951-1953, is hereby repealed and replaced as follows:—

49A. (1) The Legislative Council may from time to time by resolution provide that any class of goods specified in the resolution shall be exempt from—

- “Provisions for exempting goods used for specified purposes from customs duty.”
- (a) import duties of customs if such goods are imported or entered for use by any person for any purpose specified in the resolution;
  - (b) export duties of customs if such goods are exported after having been subjected in the Colony to any process specified in the resolution, during any period to be fixed by the Minister in each particular case, not being a period terminating later than the date prescribed in the resolution as the last day on which such exemption shall be operative, and subject to such conditions as the Minister may impose.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, an exemption provided for by any resolution under this section shall be operative only in favour of a person who holds a licence issued to him under the provisions of subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The Minister may, on application made to him in writing, in his discretion, issue to any person a licence entitling such person to the benefit of any exemption provided for by any resolution under this section, and any such licence shall specify the period during which and the conditions subject to which the licensee shall be entitled to such benefits.

(4) In this section “Minister” means the member of the Cabinet for the time being charged with the administration of the subject of industry.”

Section 49B
of Principal Ordinance
repealed.
Revised Laws
1951-1953,
