

GOVERNMENT NOTICE NO. 15

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

THE ANIMALS (DISEASES AND IMPORTATION) ORDINANCE, 1954

REGULATIONS

MADE BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL UNDER SECTION 13 OF THE ANIMALS
(DISEASES AND IMPORTATION) ORDINANCE, 1954

THE TUBERCULOSIS IN CATTLE AND GOATS REGULATIONS, 1967

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Tuberculosis in Cattle and Goats Regulations, 1967.

2. In these Regulations, the expression "premises" includes any house, stable, shed, pen or other building capable of housing cattle or goats, and any vehicle or boat.

3. A Government Veterinary Officer or any other Veterinary Officer authorised in writing by the Chief Technical Officer (Agriculture) may examine cattle or goats for tuberculosis and apply the Tuberculin test to cattle or goats whether or not such cattle or goats show signs from which the disease may be suspected and for that purpose may, if necessary enter any premises at any time to secure such examination and apply such test.

4. Any person who is—

- (a) the owner of cattle or goats,
- (b) in control of cattle or goats,
- (c) the owner or occupier of any premises on which cattle or goats are kept,
- (d) employed by the owner or occupier of any premises on which cattle or goats are kept, shall render such assistance to a Government Veterinary Officer or other authorised Veterinary Officer as such officer may reasonably require for the purposes of these Regulations.

5. A person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provisions of these Regulations or with any order or instruction lawfully made or given by any person under the authority of these Regulations is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a penalty of two hundred and forty dollars.

6. The Tuberculosis in Cattle and Goats Regulations, 1951-1953 are hereby revoked.

Made by the Governor-General this 28th day of January, 1967.
