Definitions in Ordinance to apply subject to context and to subsidiary legislation made thereunder.

3. (1) Where terms are defined in any law, such terms shall have the meanings assigned to them, unless there is anything in the subject or context repugnant to or inconsistent with such meaning.

(2) Where terms defined in any Ordinance are used in any instrument (that is to say, any order in council, proclamation, rule, regulation, bye-law, order form or notice) made or issued under such Ordinance, such terms shall have the respective meanings assigned to them by the Ordinance, unless they are otherwise defined in such instrument or are inconsistent with the subject or context.

Ordinances to be public Ordinances.

4. Every Ordinance shall be a public Ordinance and shall be judicially noticed as such, unless the contrary is expressly provided by the Ordinance.

Citation of original or revised Ordinances.

5. When an Ordinance is referred to, it shall be sufficient for all purposes to cite the Ordinance either by the short title, if any, by which it is made citable, or by the year of its passing and its number among the Ordinances of that year or in the case of the revised edition of the Ordinances issued under any Ordinance providing for the issue of a revised edition, by its short title or its chapter and number and the reference may in all cases be made according to the copies of Ordinances purporting to be printed by the Government Printer.

6. Whenever the Principal Ordinance on any subject is amended by any Ordinance and the title or short title of of the Principal Ordinance admits of it, the Principal Ordinance and every Ordinance amending it may for all purposes be cited by the title or short title, as the case may be, of the Principal Ordinance, substituting therein the word " Ordinances " for the word " Ordinance " and omitting the year and number, or adding the years of the first and last Ordinances referred to; and whenever two or more Ordinances are cited in the manner authorised by this section, the authorised short title used shall be construed to mean all the Ordinances covered by that short title, or either or any of them.

Citation of amended Ordinances.

7. When any Ordinance, or part of an Ordinance, or any instrument made thereunder (that is to say, any order in council, proclamation, warrant, scheme, letters patent, rule, regulation, bye-law, order, or notice) came or comes into operation on a particular day, it shall be deemed to have come or shall come into operation immediately on the expiration of the day next preceding such day.

Time when Ordinance or subsidiary legislation comes into operation.

* 8. Every Ordinance and any order in council, proclamation, rule, regulation, bye-law, order, or notice made under any Ordinance or other lawful authority and having legislative effect shall be published in the Royal Gazette and unless it be therein otherwise provided shall take effect and come into operation as law on the date of such publication and shall be judicially noticed.

Commencement of legislation.

9. Where any law repealing in whole or in part any former law is itself repealed, such last repeal shall not revive the law before repealed unless words be added reviving such law.

2.7 Repeal of a repealing enactment.

10. Where any law repeals wholly or partially any former law and substitutes provisions for the law repealed, the repealed law shall remain in force until the substituted provisions come into operation.

Repeal and substitution.

11. (1) Where any law repeals and re-enacts, with or without modification, any provision of a former law, references in any other law to the provision so repealed, shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as references to the provision so re-enacted.

Effect of repeal.

(2) Where any law repeals any other law, then, unless the contrary intention appears, the repeal shall not—

(a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal takes effect; or

(b) affect the previous operation of any law so repealed or anything duly done or suffered under any law so repealed; or

(c) affect any right, privilege, or obligation or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any law so repealed; or

(d) affect any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any law so repealed; or

(e) affect any investigation, legal proceedings, or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy may be instituted, continued, or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture, or punishment may be imposed, as if the repealing law had not been passed.

Effect of repeal of Ordinance on subsidiary legislation.

12. Whenever any Ordinance has already been or shall hereafter be repealed and other provisions are substituted by the repealing Ordinance all orders in council, proclamations, rules, regulations, bye-laws, orders, forms, notices or appointments made under the repealed Ordinance, and in force at the time of such repeal, shall until annulled, continue good and valid in so far as they are not inconsistent with the substituted Ordinance or provisions.

Construction of amending law with amended law.

13. Where one law amends another law the amending law shall, so far as it is consistent with the tenor thereof and unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as one with the amended law.

Imperial Act to be read with necessary modifications.

14. Whenever any Act of Parliament is extended or applied to the Colony, such Act shall be read with such formal alterations as to names, localities, courts, officers, persons, moneys, penalties, and otherwise as may be necessary to make the same applicable to the circumstances.

15. Where by or under any law, the Governor or any public authority is empowered to appoint or name a person to have and exercise any powers or perform any duties the Governor or such public authority may either appoint a person by name or direct the person for the time being holding the office designated by the Governor or by such public authority to have and exercise such powers and perform such duties; and thereupon or from the date specified by the Governor or by such public authority, the person appointed by name or the person for the time being holding the office aforesaid shall have and may exercise such powers and perform such duties accordingly.

Appointment of officers by name or office.

16. Where any law confers upon any person or authority power to make appointments to any office or place the power shall be construed as including the power to remove or suspend any person appointed, and to reappoint or reinstate him, and to appoint another person temporarily in the place of any person so removed or suspended or in place of any holder of the office or place, who has died or is ill or absent, and to appoint another person temporarily to fill any vacancy in the office or place arising from any other cause: Provided that where the power of the person or authority to make any such appointment is only exercisable upon the recommendation or subject to the approval, consent or concurrence of some other person or authority the power of removal shall, unless the contrary intention appears, only be exercisable upon the recommendation or subject to the approval, consent or concurrence of that other person or authority.

Power to appoint includes power to remove, etc.

17. Where by or under any law, any powers are conferred or any duties are imposed upon a public officer, the Governor may direct that if during any period owing to absence or inability to act from illness or any other cause such public officer shall be unable to exercise the powers or perform the duties of his office in any place under his jurisdiction or control, such powers shall be had and may be exercised and such duties shall be performed in such place by the Power of Governor to provide for execution of duties of public officer during temporary absence or inability.

person named by or by the public officer holding the office designated by the Governor; and thereupon such person or public officer, during any period as aforesaid, shall have and may exercise the powers and shall perform the duties aforesaid, subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as the Governor may direct.

Power of Governor to delegate authority.

18. When by any law the Governor is empowered to exercise any powers or perform any duties, he may unless by law expressly prohibited from so doing depute any person by name or the person for the time being holding the office designated by him to exercise such powers or perform such duties on his behalf, subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as the Governor may prescribe and thereupon or from the date specified by the Governor the person so deputed shall have and exercise such powers and perform such duties subject as aforesaid: Provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise the Governor to depute any person to make regulations under the power in that behalf conferred upon him by any law.

Signification of orders of Governor.

19. When power is given to the Governor to make any order or give any direction, it shall be sufficient, unless it is otherwise expressed, for such order or direction to be signified under the hand of the Colonial Secretary: Provided that any proclamation, warrant or other instrument issued under the Public Seal of the Colony shall be signed by the Governor himself.

Construction of provisions
as to exercise of powers and duties.

20. (1) Where any law confers a power or imposes a duty then, unless the contrary intention appears, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed from time to time as occasion requires.

(2) Where any law confers a power or imposes a duty on the holder of an office, as such, then, unless the contrary intention appears, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed by the holder of the office for the time being or by a person duly appointed to act for him.

(3) Where any law confers a power or imposes a duty on the holder of an office as such, then, unless the contrary intention appears, the holder of such office, if he has occasion to be temporarily absent therefrom, may, by instrument in writing, appoint the Deputy or Assistant of such office to exercise such powers and duties and during the period of such temporary absence, as may be specified in such instrument.

21. Where any law which is not to come into operation immediately on the passing thereof, confers power to make any appointment or to make, grant, or issue any instrument (that is to say, any order in council, proclamation, warrant, scheme, letters patent, rule, regulation, bye-law or order), or to give notices, or to do any other thing for the purposes of the law, such power may, unless the contrary intention appears, be exercised at any time after the passing of the law so far as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of bringing the law into operation at the date of the commencement thereof, subject to the restriction that any appointment, instrument, notice, or thing, made, granted, issued, given, or done, under such power shall not, unless the contrary intention appears in the law, or the appointment, notice, or thing, is necessary for bringing the law into operation, have any effect until the law comes into operation.

Exercise of statutory power between passing and commencement of law.

22. (1) Where any law confers power on any authority to make any appointment or to make, grant or issue any instrument (that is to say any order in council, proclamation, warrant, scheme, letters patent, rule, regulation, bye-law, order, form or notice) the following provisions shall, unless the contrary intention appears, have effect with reference to the making, issue, and operation of such instrument—

General provision with respect to power given to any authority to make subsidiary legislation.

(a) any instrument as aforesaid may be at any time amended, varied, rescinded, or revoked by the same authority and in the same manner by and in which it was made;

(b) there may be annexed to the breach of any rule, regulation, bye-law, or order such penalty not exceeding forty-eight dollars, as the authority making the rule, regulation, bye-law or order may think fit;

(c) where any law confers power on any authority to make any rule, regulation, bye-law or order for any general purposes, and also for any special purposes incidental thereto, the enumeration of the special purposes shall not be deemed to derogate from the generality of the powers conferred with reference to the general purpose;

(d) no rule, regulation, bye-law or order shall be inconsistent with the provisions of any Ordinance:

(e) the production of a copy of the Royal Gazette containing notice of any appointment or of the granting or issuing of any instrument as aforesaid shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and for all purposes whatever of the due making of the appointment or of the granting or issuing of such instrument and the tenor thereof.

Rules Committee.

(2) When an Ordinance provides that any regulation (which term includes any rule, bye-law or order) made thereunder shall be approved or confirmed by the Legislative Council before such regulation shall have effect or come into force as law, such approval or confirmation shall be deemed to have been given or obtained when such regulation shall have been approved or confirmed by the Rules Committee constituted by and under the Standing Rules and Orders of the Legislative Council. Regulations approved by the Legislative Council or the Rules Committee shall be published in the Royal Gazette and from the date specified in such regulations or if no date be therein specified then from the date of publication such regulations shall have the same force and effect as if they were contained in and formed part of the Ordinance under which they are made.

Acts done under subsidiary legislation to be deemed done under law by which subsidiary legislation authorised.

23. An act shall be deemed to be done under any law or by virtue of the powers conferred by any law or in pursuance or execution of the powers of or under the authority of any law if it is done under or by virtue of or in pursuance of any order in council proclamation rule regulation bye-law order or notice made or issued under any power contained in such law.

Computation of time.

24. In computing time for the purposes of any law unless the contrary intention appears—

(a) a period of days from the happening of an event or the doing of any act or thing shall be deemed to be exclusive of the day in which the event happens or the act or thing is done;

(b) if the last day of the period is Sunday or a public holiday (which days are in this section referred to as excluded days) the period shall include the next following day, not being an excluded day;

(c) when any act or proceeding is directed or allowed to be done or taken on a certain day, then if that day happens to be an excluded day, the act or proceeding shall be considered as done or taken in due time if it is done or taken on the next day afterwards, not being an excluded day;

(d) when an act or proceeding is directed or allowed to be done or taken within any time not exceeding six days, excluded days shall not be reckoned in the computation of the time.

25. Whenever any expression of time occurs in any law, deed, or other legal instrument, the time referred to shall, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, be held to signify the standard time adopted for the Colony.

Time.

26. Where no time is prescribed, or allowed within which anything shall be done, such thing shall be done with all convenient speed, and as often as the prescribed occasion arises.

Provisions when no time prescribed.

27. In the measurement of any distance for the purposes of any law, that distance shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be measured in a straight line on a horizontal plane.

Measurement of distances.

28. Save as is otherwise expressly provided by any law, whenever any act or thing is required to be done by more than two persons, a majority of them may do it.

Power of majority of more than two persons.

29. Save as is otherwise expressly provided, whenever forms are prescribed, slight deviations therefrom, or necessary alterations thereto not affecting the substance or calculated to mislead, shall not vitiate them.

Deviation from forms.

30. Where an act or omission constitutes an offence, under two or more Ordinances, or both under an Ordinance

Provisions as to offences under two or more laws.

and under any other law which applies to the Colony, the offender shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be liable to be prosecuted and punished under either or any of those Ordinances or under such other law, but shall not be liable to be punished twice for the same offence.

Disposal of forfeits.

31. (1) Where under any law any money or any animal or any thing is adjudged by any court or other authority to be forfeited, it shall, unless the contrary is otherwise provided or unless it is expressed by law to be forfeited to any person, be forfeited to the Crown, and the money or the net proceeds of the animal or thing, if it is ordered by competent authority to be sold, shall be paid into the Treasury and shall form part of the public revenue, unless other provision is made.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect any provision in any law whereby any portion of any fine or forfeit or of proceeds of any forfeit is expressed to be recoverable by any person or may be granted by any authority to any person.

Penalties prescribed to be maximum penalties.

32. (1) Whenever in any law a penalty is provided for an offence against that law, such provision shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as fixing the maximum penalty for that offence, and the offender, on being found guilty, shall be liable to any penalty not exceeding the prescribed penalty; and it shall not be necessary in the law prescribing the penalty to use the expressions "not exceeding," "a term not exceeding," "on conviction thereof" or any similar expressions.

Statement of penalty at foot of section.

(2) Whenever in any law a penalty is set out at the foot or end of any section the same shall indicate that any contravention of the section whether by act or omission shall be an offence against that law and shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be punishable by a penalty not exceeding the penalty stated.

Imprisonment may be imposed with or without hard labour.

(3) Where by any law a court is empowered to order imprisonment, either peremptorily or in default of payment of any pecuniary penalty, upon conviction for an offence, the court may, in the absence of express provision to the contrary in the same or any other law, order the offender to be imprisoned either with or without hard labour, and it shall not be necessary in the law prescribing the penalty to state that any such imprisonment may be with or without hard labour.

33. Where, in any Ordinance, order in council, proclamation, rule, regulation, bye-law, order or other enactment for the time being in force in the Colony, whether passed or made before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, any offence is declared to be punishable, or any penalty is declared to be recoverable, on summary conviction, the procedure in respect of the trial and punishment of such offences and the recovery of such penalties, and of all matters incidental to or arising out of the trial and punishment of such offences or the recovery of such penalties shall, in the absence of and subject to any express provision to the contrary, be in accordance with the Summary Courts Ordinance.

Procedure where offences punishable on summary conviction.

34. (1) Whenever in any enactment in force in the Colony on the 15th of July, 1939, any of the amounts indicated in the first column of the following Table has been prescribed as the maximum penalty that may be imposed on the conviction of an offender for an offence, there shall be substituted therefor the amount set out in the corresponding line in the second column of the said Table, namely:—

Penalties.

First Column.	Second Column.
£0 4 0 or $ 0.96	$ 1.00
£0 5 0 or $ 1.20	$ 1.00
£1 0 0 or $ 4.80	$ 5.00
£2 0 0 or $ 9.60	$10.00
£3 0 0 or $14.40	$15.00
£4 0 0 or $19.20	$20.00

(2) Whenever in any Ordinance in force on the 20th of December, 1941, or in any rule, regulation or bye-law made under any Ordinance and in force at that date, provision is made for any minimum penalty or fine, or for any fixed penalty or fine, as a punishment for a criminal offence, such Ordinance, rule, regulation or bye-law shall have effect as though no such minimum penalty or fine had been provided, or as though the fixed penalty or fine was the maximum penalty or fine, as the case may be:

Removal of minimum penalties and fines. Ord. 19-1941.

See Section 74 of 27/1955

Provided that the provisions of this subsection shall be without prejudice to any penalty or fine imposed before the 20th of December, 1941.

Substitution of dollars and cents for pounds, shillings
and pence.

35. Where in any law in force in the Colony reference is made to pounds, shillings and pence, such law shall have effect as if instead reference had been made therein to an equivalent number of dollars and cents at the rate of four dollars and eighty cents for every pound, twenty-four cents for every shilling, and two cents for every penny, and half a cent shall be the equivalent of a farthing.

Provision for future change of titles.

36. Whenever the Governor considers it necessary to change the title of any public officer, he shall cause a notice to that effect to be published in the Royal Gazette setting out the former title and the substituted title of such officer, and thereupon the substituted title shall replace the former title wherever the former title appears in any law in force or in any deed or other instrument made or issued pursuant to or consequent upon such law.

Rights of the Crown.

37. No law shall in any manner whatsoever affect the rights of the Crown unless it is therein expressly provided or unless it appears by necessary implication that the Crown is bound thereby.
