(2) A Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any action where the debt or demand claimed consists of a balance not exceeding five thousand dollars after a set-off of any debt or demand claimed or recoverable by the defendant from the plaintiff, being set-off admitted by the plaintiff in the particulars of his claim or demand.

(3) A Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any action for the recovery of any penalty, expenses, contribution or other like demand which is recoverable by virtue of any written law for the time being in force, if—

(a) it is not expressly provided by that or any other written law that the demand shall be recoverable only in some other court; and

(b) the amount claimed in the action does not exceed five thousand dollars.

In this subsection the expression "penalty" does not include a fine to which any person is liable on conviction or indictment or on summary conviction.

(4) In any written law relating to the jurisdiction of the Court or of a Magistrate in the exercise of his civil jurisdiction, where the limit of the amount specified in respect of any matter within the jurisdiction and discretion of the Court or Magistrate is less than five thousand dollars, such amount shall be increased to five thousand dollars, and the Court or Magistrate shall have and exercise jurisdiction accordingly.

(2) Where a Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine an action by virtue of this section, the judgment of the Court in the action shall be in full discharge of all demands in respect of the cause of action and entry of the judgment shall be made accordingly.

Jurisdiction by agreement in certain actions.
[3 of 1980].

9A. (1) Where there is commenced in the High Court any action founded on contract or tort, the parties to the action may agree by a memorandum signed by them or by their respective solicitors, that a Court specified in the memorandum, being a Court with jurisdiction under section 17, shall have jurisdiction in the action, and that Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the action accordingly.

(2) Where an agreement is made under subsection (1) that a Court shall have jurisdiction, the High Court or a Judge thereof shall, on the application of any party to the proceedings order that the proceedings be transferred to that Court.

Transfer of actions of contract or tort from High Court to Court.
[3 of 1980].

9B. (1) In any action commenced in the High Court to which this section applies, any party may at any time apply to the High Court or a Judge thereof for an order that the claim and counterclaim, if any, or, if the only matter remaining to be tried is counterclaim, the counterclaim, shall be transferred—

(a) to any Court in which the action might have been commenced if the subject matter and the amount thereof had been within the jurisdiction of the Court;

(b) if the only matter remaining to be tried is a counterclaim, to any Court in which the counterclaim might have been commenced if it had been an action and the subject matter thereof had been within the jurisdiction of the Court; or

(c) to any Court to which the High Court or Judge may deem the most convenient to the parties, and the High Court or Judge may thereupon, if the Court or Judge thinks fit, order that the claim or counterclaim or both, as the case may be, be so transferred accordingly.

(2) This section applies to any action where—

(a) the plaintiff's claim is founded either on contract or on tort and the amount claimed or remaining in dispute in respect thereof does not exceed five thousand dollars, whether the action could or could not have been commenced in a Court, and whether the defendant does or does not set up, or intend to rely on, a counterclaim, and whether the counterclaim, if any, is founded on contract or on tort, and whether the amount claimed on the counterclaim, if any, exceeds or does not exceed five thousand dollars; or

(b) the only matter remaining to be tried between the parties is a counterclaim founded either on contract or on tort and the amount claimed or remaining in dispute in respect of the counterclaim does not exceed five thousand dollars, whether the counterclaim, if it had been an action, could or could not have been commenced in the Court.

10. (1) A Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any action for the recovery of land (whether or not the relation of landlord and tenant exists or has existed between the parties) where neither the value of the land in question nor the rent (if any) payable in respect thereof exceeds the sum of five thousand dollars a year.

(2) This section is without prejudice to any jurisdiction which would have been possessed by any court if this section had not been passed.

(3) This section shall have effect subject to any law from time to time in force for regulating rentals.

Lessee to give notice of summons for recovery of land

11. (1) Every lessee to whom there is delivered any summons issued from a Court for the recovery of land demised to or held by him, or to whose knowledge any such summons comes, shall forthwith give notice thereof to his lessor or his baliff or receiver, and if he fails to do so he shall be liable to forfeit to the person of whom he holds the land an amount equal to the value of three years improved or rack rent of the land, to be recovered by action in any court having jurisdiction in respect of claims for such an amount.

(2) In this section "lessee" includes under-lessee and any other tenant.

Transfer of actions for the recovery of land to the High Court. [3 of 1964 3 of 1980].

12. (1) Where an action for the recovery of land is commenced in a Court, the defendant or his landlord may, within such time as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act, apply to a Judge of the High Court in Chambers for a summons to the plaintiff to show cause why the action should not be transferred to the High Court on the ground that the title to land of greater annual value than five thousand dollars would be affected by the decision in the action or that some important question of law or fact is likely to arise.

(2) On the hearing of any such summons, the Judge of the High Court, if satisfied that such a title as mentioned above would be so affected or that some important question of law or fact is likely to arise as aforesaid, may order that the action be transferred to the High Court.

(3) Where, in an action for the recovery of land commenced in a Court, no application is made to the High Court in accordance with this section, or where such an application is made but no order is made for the transfer of the action, the Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the action notwithstanding the provisions of this Act relating to actions in which the title to hereditaments comes in question.

(4) Where an action is transferred from a Court to the High Court in accordance with this section, the costs of the whole proceedings both before and after the transfer shall be in the discretion of the High Court.

13. A Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any action in which the title to any hereditament comes in question, being an action which would otherwise be within the jurisdiction of the Court—

Jurisdiction where title in question.
[3 of 1964
5 of 1980].

- (a) in the case of an easement or licence, if neither the value nor the rent (if any) of the hereditament in respect of which the easement or licence is claimed, exceeds the sum of five thousand dollars a year; or
- (b) in any other case, if neither the value of the hereditament in question nor the rent (if any) payable in respect thereof exceeds the sum of five thousand dollars a year.

14. For the purpose of executing a warrant to give possession of any premises, it shall not be necessary to remove any goods or chattels from those premises.

Execution of warrants of possession.

15. (1) Save as expressly provided in this Act, a Court shall not have jurisdiction to hear and determine any action for the recovery of land, or any action in which the title to any hereditament or any toll, fair market or franchise is in question.

Limitation on the jurisdiction of the Courts.

(2) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Act, a Court shall not have jurisdiction—

- (a) to grant any equitable relief or remedy or any judgement or order in the nature of a mandamus or injunction;
- (b) to hear and determine any action for libel, slander, slander of title, seduction, breach of promise of marriage, infringement of a patent or merchandise mark or copyright, malicious prosecution, false imprisonment, or breach of a statutory duty or any action or proceeding by way of replevin or any action in which the validity of any devise, bequest or limitation under any will or settlement may be disputed, or any action in which the validity or legality of anything done in the execution or discharge of any public office or employment, or any liability or alleged liability arising from the holding of any such office or employment, is in dispute.

(3) If it is made to appear in the course of any action or proceeding that such action or proceeding or any claim therein is not within the jurisdiction of the Court, the Court shall order such action, proceeding or claim, as the case may be, to be struck out with or without costs as the Judge thinks just.

Cases triable
by Magistrates

Ch. 4:20.

16. Where an action is brought in respect of the recovery of any money by way of wages, or for damages for any alleged assault, or for the detention or conversion of goods, or for trespass to enclosed lands, or in respect of any other claim or cause of action, and in the opinion of the Judge the same could have been adequately dealt with by a Magistrate under the Summary Courts Act, or any other Act conferring on a Magistrate the power to award payment or damages or compensation to the plaintiff in respect of any debt or claim whatsoever, the Judge shall, unless for good cause it appears to him otherwise just, strike out such action at the hearing, and such striking out shall be without prejudice to any right of the plaintiff to proceed before a Magistrate, if he is entitled to do so. It shall not be deemed good cause for allowing such action to continue, that the time had expired for commencing proceedings in the Court of summary jurisdiction at the commencement of the action.

Jurisdiction as to defendants.

17. Any person may, subject to this Act, be sued in the Court of the district in which he resides or carries on business; and by leave of the Judge, but not otherwise, any person not resident within such district may be sued in the Court of such district in respect of any debt contracted by him within the district or for damages in respect of any wrongful act committed therein or in respect of any breach of any contract made or to be performed therein.

Trustees, executors, or administrators.

18. Any trustee, executor or administrator may sue or be sued under this Act in like manner as if he were a party in his own right, and judgment and execution shall be such as in the like case would be given or issued in the High Court.

19. Any two or more persons claiming or being liable as Partners. co-partners may sue or be sued in the name of their respective firms, if any; and it shall be sufficient if any of such co-partners be served with process, and judgment may be obtained and execution issued against one or all the persons liable as such co-partners.

20. (1) Any person under the age of eighteen years may prosecute any action under this Act for any sum of money not greater than five thousand dollars which may be due to him for wages or piecework, or for work as a servant, in the same manner as if he were of full age; and any person above the age of fourteen and under the age of eighteen may be sued under this Act for any debt not exceeding five thousand dollars contracted for necessaries, in the same manner as if such person at the time of contracting such debt had been of full age, and the burden of establishing that the person contracting such debt was at the time of contracting the same, under the age of fourteen years shall be on the defendant setting up the same. Infants.
3 of 1980].

(2) Infants may sue as plaintiffs by their next friends, and may defend by their guardians, but nothing herein contained shall affect the right or liability of any infant to sue or be sued under subsection (1).

21. (1) All persons may be joined in one action as plaintiffs in whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction or series of transactions is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative, where if such persons brought separate actions any common question of law or fact would arise; but if upon the application of any defendant it appears that such joinder may embarrass or delay the trial of the action the Judge may order separate trials or make such other order as may be expedient. Any judgment may be given for such one or more of the plaintiffs as may be found to be entitled to relief, for such relief as he or they may be entitled to, without any amendment. But the defendant, though unsuccessful, shall be entitled to his costs occasioned by so joining any person who is not found entitled to relief, unless the Judge in disposing of the costs otherwise directs. Joinder of parties.

(2) The plaintiff may, at his option, join as parties to the same action all or any of the parties severally, or jointly and severally, liable on any one contract, including parties to bills of exchange or promissory notes; and every such person against whom judgment has been obtained under this Act, and who has satisfied such judgment, is entitled to demand and recover contribution from any other person jointly liable with him.

(3) All persons may be joined as defendants against whom the right to any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative; and judgment may be given against such one or more of the defendants as may be found to be liable, according to their respective liabilities, without any amendment.

action.

22. (1) Subject to this Act the plaintiff may unite in the same action several causes of action and—

- (a) claims by or against husband and wife may be joined with claims by or against either of them separately; and
- (b) claims by or against an executor or administrator as such may be joined with claims by or against him personally, if they are alleged to arise with reference to the estate in respect of which the plaintiff or defendant sues or is sued as executor or administrator; and
- (c) claims by plaintiffs jointly may be joined with claims by them or any of them separately against the same defendant.

(2) Except by leave of the Court—

- (a) claims by a trustee in bankruptcy as such shall not be joined with any claim by him in any other capacity; and
- (b) no cause of action shall be joined with an action for the recovery of land except claims for mesne profits or arrears of rent or double value of the land claimed or any part thereof or for damages for breach of any contract under which it is held or for any wrong or injury to it, or for payment of any principal money or interest secured by a mortgage or charge.

(3) If, at any time, it appears to a Judge that any causes of action united in one action cannot be conveniently tried and disposed of together, he may order separate trials, or may exclude any cause of action and order any consequential amendments to be made and may make such order as to costs as may be just.

23. A plaintiff may not divide any cause of action for the purpose of bringing two or more actions in one or more Courts.

Division of causes of action.

24. Any demand not exceeding five thousand dollars that is claimed as the balance of a partnership account or the amount or part of the amount of a distributive share under an intestacy or of any legacy under a will may be sued for in an action.

Partnership or intestacy or legacy. [3 of 1980].

25. (1) Where, before judgment, a sole plaintiff or defendant dies or one or more of several plaintiffs or defendants die, the action shall not abate if the cause of action survives or continues.

Death of parties.

(2) Where one or more of several plaintiffs or defendants die after judgment, proceedings thereon may be taken by the survivors or survivor or against the survivors or survivor, without leave of the Court.

26. (1) Save as otherwise expressly provided, all applications, respecting any action or proceeding shall be made in open Court to the Judge, and, except where the Judge thinks fit to permit the same to be made ex parte, shall be made on notice to the party to be affected thereby.

Applications. [51/1980].

(2) All applications to sue any person not resident in the district under section 17 shall not be made in open Court, but such applications may be made in writing in the prescribed form, and a fee of one dollar shall be payable in respect of the filing of every such application.

27. (1) All summonses and other process shall be in the prescribed form, but no process which, in the opinion of the Judge, substantially contains the prescribed information, details, and particulars shall be deemed invalid or insufficient by reason of any want of form or variation in form.

Forms of proceedings.

(2) Where any process is, in the opinion of the Judge, insufficient or substantially defective, the Judge may, in his discretion, on such terms (if any) as to adjournment, costs, and otherwise as he thinks fit, amend the same or permit the party in default to amend the same; but such power of amendment shall not be exercised where the Judge is of opinion that the omission or irregularity has been intentional for purpose of delay, evasion, or deception, or otherwise not in good faith.

Amendment of process.

Affidavits

(3) All affidavits for use in a Court may be sworn either before a Commissioner of Affidavits or before the Judge or before a Clerk.

General jurisdiction at trial

28. At the trial the Judge shall try the whole matter of the action and give judgment thereon, or make any order or give any direction he may consider necessary to enable him to give a final judgment upon a day to which the trial may be adjourned, and also may make such order as to costs as he may think fit.

Time for payment.

29. The Judge at the hearing or, by consent of the parties, the Clerk in entering up judgment by confession or for non-appearance to a default summons under the rules, may make orders concerning the time or times, and by what instalments (if any) any debt or damages or costs for which judgment is obtained shall be paid; and all such moneys shall be paid into Court unless otherwise directed, and in case of default made in payment of such judgment or of any such instalments, execution may issue against the person making such default in respect of the balance or the debt payable at the time or such default in all respects as if no order for payment by instalments had been made.

Instalments.

Judgment to be final. [3 of 1980]. Ch. 4:01.

30. Every order and judgment of any Judge made under any of the provisions of this Act shall, subject to sections 32 and 33 of this Act and to section 36 of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, be final and conclusive between the parties; but the Judge shall have power at his discretion to strike out the action with or without costs and without giving any other judgment thereon, in any case in which satisfactory proof has not been given to him entitling either the plaintiff or the defendant to judgment, but such striking out shall not be a bar to any fresh action.

Certiorari. [3 of 1980]. Ch. 4:01.

31. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 36 of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, the High Court may order the removal to the High Court, by writ of certiorari or otherwise, of any proceedings commenced in a Court, other than proceedings in any such action as is referred to in section 8 being an action in which the sum claimed is three hundred dollars or less.

(2) When any proceedings are removed into the High Court under this section, the costs of the whole proceedings both before and after removal shall be in the discretion of the High Court.

(3) Any such removal shall be upon such terms as to payment of costs, giving security or otherwise as the High Court thinks fit to impose.

32. The Judge shall have power, on application made on notice, in his discretion to set aside any judgment pronounced by him and grant a new trial of any action tried by him on any of the grounds on which the High Court may grant a new trial of any action tried in such Court, and on such terms as to costs or security for costs, amendment, particulars, the payment of money into Court, and otherwise, as he thinks just. And the Judge may, on sufficient cause, in his discretion at any time, on application ex parte, stay execution for such time as he thinks fit to permit of any notice being given or of any other application being made on notice.

New trial and stay of execution.

Stay of execution.

33. (1) Without prejudice to section 36 of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, there shall be a right of appeal to the Court of Appeal from any judgment or order in any action under this Act, not being any action referred to in section 8 in which the sum claimed is three hundred dollars or less.

Appeals [3 of 1980].

(2) In any case in which an appeal lies under this section, the Judge shall make a note—

- (a) of any question of law raised at the hearing; and
- (b) of the evidence given; and
- (c) of his decision thereon and of his determination of the proceedings.

(3) The rules of practice and procedure governing appeals to the Court of Appeal in civil matters shall apply to appeals under this section.

(4) Upon notice of appeal being filed, the Registrar of the High Court shall notify the Judge of the Petty Civil Court, and the Judge shall forthwith send to the Registrar of the High Court a copy of the record of the proceedings.

Defence and counterclaim
by defendant.
[3 of 1980].

34. (1) The defendant may, by notice of special defence or by special leave of the Judge on such terms as the Judge may think fit, at the day of hearing set up any special defence, or, set-off or set up by way of counterclaim against the claims of the plaintiff, any claim for an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars, whether such set-off or counterclaim sound in damages or not, and such set-off or counterclaim shall have the same effect as a cross-action, so as to enable the Court to pronounce final judgment upon the claim and cross-claim. The Judge may at his discretion adjourn any hearing to admit of a claim and set-off or counterclaim being duly heard together, and may require the defendant to deliver written particulars of any such alleged set-off or counterclaim. And if the original claim is stayed or discontinued or dismissed, the defendant shall be at liberty either to withdraw any set-off or counterclaim preferred under the provisions hereof without prejudice to any further action by him in respect thereof, or to proceed with the trial of the same.

(2) Unless special leave has been given as above-mentioned, no evidence in support of any ground of defence or set-off to or counterclaim against any claim whatever involving any allegation of fact beyond a denial of the facts necessary to entitle a plaintiff to judgment shall be admitted at the hearing of any action, unless the prescribed notice of such defence or set-off or counterclaim has been given by the defendant in the prescribed manner.

(3) A defendant shall not be at liberty for the purpose of a set-off or counterclaim to split any alleged sum for an amount due to him from the plaintiff of a greater sum than five thousand dollars but he may abandon any excess thereof over five thousand dollars. But if the defendant satisfies the Judge at the hearing that the plaintiff is indebted to him in respect of a claim in a sum greater than five thousand dollars, the Judge may in his discretion stay execution on the judgment against the defendant for such time as he may consider sufficient to enable the defendant to take proceedings to recover the amount of such claim from the plaintiff in due course of law, or he may, if the plaintiff proves his case, stay execution for such time as he may think fit to enable the defendant to proceed in like manner.

35. (1) Any party may appear at the hearing to conduct his action in person or may be represented by a barrister or solicitor. No costs shall be granted in respect of any appearance or other services by a barrister in an action in which the sum claimed is three hundred dollars or under.

Appearance of parties and advocates.
[3 of 1980].

(2) Any person may appear and conduct the case of his wife or child or servant being a member of his household.

(3) Subject as aforesaid no person, not being a barrister or solicitor duly retained, shall be heard on behalf of any party to any action or other proceeding.

36. (1) Either of the parties to any action or other proceeding under this Act may obtain from the Clerk summonses for witnesses to appear at the hearing of the action or proceeding and give evidence, or to give evidence and produce any books, deeds, papers, writings or articles in their possession or control.

Summonses to witnesses.

(2) Summonses to witnesses may, by leave of the Judge, be served by the party applying for the same or by his solicitor or by someone in the permanent or exclusive employment of the party or his solicitor. It shall be sufficient if such summons be served a reasonable time before the return day.

Service of summonses.

(3) Any person on whom any summons has been served and who refuses or neglects without sufficient cause to appear and give evidence, or to give evidence or to produce any books, deeds, papers, writing or articles required by such summons to be produced, and also every person present in Court who is required to give evidence and who refuses to be sworn or to give evidence, is liable to a fine of two hundred dollars; and the Judge may in his discretion direct the whole or any part of the fine to be paid to the party injured by the refusal or neglect.

Refusal to give evidence, etc.

37. On the hearing or trial of any action or other proceeding under this Act, the parties thereto and all other persons may be examined (either on behalf of the plaintiff or the defendant) on oath. Such oath shall be administered by or in the presence of the Judge.

Costs.

38. The awarding of costs of actions tried in Court shall be in the discretion of the Judge; and the Judge may in his discretion award to the successful party such sums actually incurred in respect of the summoning and attendances of necessary witnesses as he may think just; but subject thereto the costs if awarded shall be computed by the Clerk according to the prescribed scale.

Costs on judgment by confession, or in undefended cases.

39. In cases in which judgment is obtained by confession or for want of appearance or defence, the costs shall be allowed as prescribed, and shall be computed by the Clerk and added to the amount of the judgment. The costs according to the prescribed scale shall be inclusive of all work done in obtaining the evidence of witnesses or taking proof of such evidence and preparing any notice, summons, particulars, or other documents and in conducting any case before the Court.

Costs in cases transferred. [3 of 1980].

39A. Where an action, counterclaim or matter is ordered to be transferred from the High Court to a Court the costs of the whole proceedings both before and after the transfer shall, subject to any order made by the Court which ordered the transfer, be in the discretion of the Court to which the proceedings are transferred, and that Court shall have power to make orders with respect thereto.

Procedure on transfer of cases from High Court [3 of 1980].

39B. (1) Where an action, counterclaim or matter is ordered to be transferred from the High Court to a Court—

- (a) any party may lodge with the Clerk of the Court named in the order, or cause to be lodged with him, the order and the writ, or copies thereof, and such other documents, if any, as the High Court or Judge thereof may direct; and
- (b) the proper officer of the High Court shall, on the application of that party and on production of the order and the filing of a copy thereof, send by post to the Clerk of the Court all pleadings, affidavits and other documents filed in the High Court relating to the action, counterclaim or matter.

(2) On the documents mentioned in subsection (1) being so lodged or sent, the action and counterclaim, if any, or the counterclaim or matter shall be transferred to the Court, and subject to Court rules all further proceedings therein shall be taken and tried as if the action, counterclaim or matter had been originally commenced in that Court, and the Court shall have jurisdiction to deal therewith, notwithstanding any enactment to the contrary.

(3) The transfer shall not affect any right of appeal in the High Court or to the Court of Appeal from the order directing the transfer or the right to enforce in the High Court any judgment signed, or order made in that Court before the transfer.

40. The bailiff of each district shall serve process and levy execution transmitted to him in the prescribed manner for service or levy within his district in any action commenced in the Court.

Service of process.

41. (1) Execution shall be issued by the Clerk of the Court in which judgment has been obtained in the prescribed form to the bailiff of the district within which execution is to be levied, and shall be executed against the personal chattels of the judgment debtor, except the tools or implements of his trade to the value of two hundred dollars.

Execution.
[3 of 1980].

(2) No goods that are taken in execution shall be sold until at least five days next after the day on which such goods were taken, and such goods shall be sold by public auction; and three days' notice at least of the intended sale of such goods shall be given by affixing such notice in some conspicuous place in the office of the Court; and all such sales shall be made for cash only.

Sale of goods
execution.

(3) A Judge may by order suspend the issue or enforcement of execution in any case. And when an order has been made under section 32 to rehear a case, such order shall operate as a stay of execution pending the rehearing, and when an order has been made under section 29 for the payment of any debt by instalments, such order shall operate as a stay of execution for such time as such instalments continue to be regularly paid under such order.

Stay of execution.

Judgment may be made a judgment of the High Court in certain cases. [3 of 1980].

42. Where a party against whom judgment for an amount exceeding three hundred dollars exclusive of costs has been obtained under this Act has no goods or chattels which can be conveniently taken to satisfy such judgment, the judgment creditor may apply to a Judge of the High Court in Chambers for an order that such judgment be made a judgment of the High Court, and such Judge, upon proof of the judgment and of the service or substituted service upon the judgment debtor of a summons to show cause why the application should not be granted, and upon an affidavit showing that the judgment debtor had an opportunity of being heard on the merits in opposition to the judgment, may order that the judgment be made a judgment of the High Court, and thereupon such judgment shall have the same force and effect and be registrable in the same manner and the same proceedings may be had thereon as in the case of a judgment of the High Court.

Debtor's summons.

43. Except as provided in any other Act, the Court shall have power to order the attachment of debts due to any person who is a debtor under a judgment of the Court, and to order the attendance of a debtor for examination as to his property and as to debts owing to him.

Procedure in attachment.

44. For the purpose of exercising the powers conferred in section 43, the Judge shall have and exercise, to the extent provided in that section, the powers for the time being exercisable by the High Court in respect of discovery and attachment of debts according to the Rules of the High Court relating to the attachment of debts, or so much of the same as is applicable to the Judge of the Petty Civil Court, and the said Rules shall apply mutatis mutandis to all proceedings taken for the attachment of debts in a Petty Civil Court under the provisions hereof; but no debt shall, under this section, be attachable in any proceeding to a greater extent than is sufficient to satisfy the debt or damages and costs recoverable in such proceeding against the debtor.

Arbitration.

45. The Judge may refer any action to the arbitration of some person chosen or assented to by the parties, or may refer any question of account to the Clerk. The award of such arbitrator shall be deposited with the Clerk, and upon reading such award the Judge shall give his judgment or make such order as he may think fit, with or without costs, including the costs of such arbitrator.

46. Where a claim is made to or in respect of any goods or chattels taken in execution under the process of the Court, or in respect of the value or proceeds thereof, by any person, the bailiff may, whether before or after any action is brought against him, obtain a summons in the prescribed form without any fee for the same, calling before the Court both the party issuing the process and the party making the claim, and the Judge shall adjudicate upon the claim, and make such order between the parties in respect thereof and of the costs of the proceedings as he thinks fit, and shall also adjudicate between the parties, or either of them, and the bailiff with respect to any damage or claim or to damages arising or capable of arising out of the execution of the process by the bailiff, and make such order in respect thereof and of the costs of the proceedings as he thinks fit; and such orders shall be enforced in like manner as any order in any action brought in such Court, and shall be final and conclusive as between the parties and as between them, or either of them, and the bailiff; and upon the issue of such summons, any action that has been brought in any Court in respect of such claim, or of any damage arising out of the execution of such process, shall be stayed.

Interpleader

47. If a bailiff is assaulted while in the execution of his duty, or if any rescue is made or attempted to be made of any goods levied under process of the Court, the person so offending is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for six months, and the bailiff or any police officer may in any such case take the offender into custody (with or without warrant) and bring him before a Magistrate to be dealt with accordingly.

Assault or obstruction of bailiff.

48. If the bailiff or any clerk or other officer of the Court, acting under or under colour or pretence of the process of the Court, is charged with extortion or misconduct, or with any neglect of duty, or with not duly paying or accounting for any money levied by him under the authority of this Act the Judge may enquire into the matter in a summary way, and for that purpose summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary parties in like manner as the attendance of witnesses in any case may be enforced; and the Judge may thereupon make such order for the repayment of any money extorted, or for the due payment of any money so levied as mentioned above, and for the payment of such damages and costs as he thinks just; and the Judge may also, if he thinks fit, impose such fines upon such bailiff, clerk or other officer, not exceeding two hundred dollars for each offence, as he thinks adequate.

Actions against officer of Court.
[3 of 1980].

49. If a person brings an action in the High Court in respect of any grievance committed by any clerk, bailiff, or officer of the Court under or under colour or pretence of the process of the said Court, and the plaintiff, upon the trial of the action, is not awarded greater damages than the sum of five thousand dollars, no costs shall be awarded to him in the action unless the Judge trying the action certifies in Court upon the record that the action was fit to be brought in the High Court.

Actions for small debts in High Court.

50. If an action is commenced in the High Court that could have been entered and tried in any Court held under this Act, the plaintiff may have judgment in such action for the amount recovered by him if successful, but without any costs; and if the defendant succeeds he shall be entitled to his costs as between solicitor and client, unless in either case the Judge before whom the action was tried certifies upon the record that the action was a fit and proper one to be brought in the High Court.

Enforcement of fines, penalties, and forfeitures.

51. Payment of any fine, penalty or forfeiture imposed by any Judge under the authority of this Act may be enforced upon the order of the Judge in like manner as payment of any debt adjudged in the Court, or the Judge may order the same to be paid forthwith, or in default of such payment may commit the offender to prison for any period in accordance with the scale prescribed by section 68 of the Summary Courts Act, unless the said fine, penalty, or forfeiture is sooner paid.

Ch. 4:20.

List of
moneys.

52. The Clerk in each district shall, in the months of January, April, July, and October in each year, make out a correct list of all sums of money belonging to suitors in the Court that were paid into Court, and have remained unclaimed for three months before the first day of the said months of January, April, July, and October, respectively, specifying the names of the parties for whom or on whose account the same was so paid into Court; and a copy of such list shall be put up and remain during business hours in some conspicuous part of the office of the Court; and all sums of money that were paid into Court to the use of any suitor or suitors therein and have remained unclaimed for the period of six months after the same have been so paid into Court, shall be paid to the Comptroller of Accounts, and shall, if unclaimed for the period of three years after the same shall have been so paid to the Comptroller of Accounts vest in the State for its own use; and no person shall be entitled to claim any sum which shall have remained unclaimed for three years.

53. The Rules Committee established by the Supreme Court of Judicature Act may make rules of Court prescribing any matter of procedure that is necessary or expedient for the purposes of any of the provisions of this Act, and for conferring any appropriate powers ancillary to the exercise of any jurisdiction conferred by this Act, and for regulating the exercise of any such jurisdiction and ancillary powers, and for prescribing generally or specially the practice and procedure of the Courts, including the forms of summonses, notices, particulars and other process, and the duties of the officers of the Courts, and the fees to be taken therein, and the costs to be allowed in respect of proceedings in the Courts.

Rules.
[45 of 1979]
Ch. 4:01.

54. All rules of Court made prior to 22nd January, 1949 shall remain in force as though they were made under section 53.

Saving of existing rules.

55. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in the rules made thereunder, a Judge shall have power, in any proceeding in which good cause appears to him for so doing, either to remit any fees payable therein or to suspend payment of any fees until the conclusion of such proceeding, in which case he may then direct such fees to be paid as costs by any party to the proceeding by whom he has power to order costs to be paid.

Judge may suspend payment of fees.

56. Any person not being a solicitor of the High Court or a clerk in the permanent employ of such solicitor who prepares for reward any notice, summons, particulars, or other process or documents in any action or for use in any Court held under this Act is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred dollars for the first offence and of four hundred dollars for any subsequent offence; and the Judge may in his discretion, on its being made to appear in the course of any trial before him that any person present in Court is guilty of such offence, proceed summarily to enquire into the guilt of such person, and if he convicts such person to impose such fine as aforesaid in the same manner as if he were sitting as a Magistrate in a Court of summary jurisdiction and such person had been duly summoned before him to answer such offence; and a conviction or acquittal of any such person so dealt with shall be a bar to any subsequent proceedings against such person in respect of the same offence.

PETTY CIVIL COURTS RULES

made under section 53

G.20.11.41.
[G.30.4.42
23.12.43
97/1958
51/1980].

Citation.

1. These Rules may be cited as the Petty Civil Courts Rules.

Interpretation.

2. In these Rules, "Form" means Form in the Second Schedule.

Commencement of action.

3. Every action shall be commenced by a summons in writing which shall be signed by the Clerk of the Court in which the action is to be tried. The indorsement on every such summons shall disclose a cause of action.

Issue of Ordinary Summons.

4. Except as is hereinafter provided, every summons for the commencement of an action shall be issued in the form set out as Form 1 in the Schedule, and shall be called an "Ordinary Summons".

Issue of Default Summons.

5. (1) In actions where the plaintiff seeks to recover a debt or liquidated demand in money payable by the defendant, with or without interest, the summons for the commencement of the action may be issued in the form set out as Form 2 in the Schedule, and shall be called a "Default Summons".

Substitution of Default Summons. [51/1980].

(2) A Default Summons issued under these rules may, at the request of the plaintiff, be substituted on payment of a fee of one dollar and fifty cents by an Ordinary Summons, upon the former being filed in Court within two months of its issue, and the fact of such substitution shall be indorsed on the Ordinary Summons by the Clerk.

Service of Ordinary Summons.

6. (1) An Ordinary Summons shall be served upon the defendant in the case of suits entered in the Port-of-Spain Court at least three clear days, and in the case of suits entered in any other Court at least eight clear days, previous to the day named in the summons for the hearing thereof, and the delivery of the summons to the defendant in person or by leaving the same at the residence of the defendant with some person apparently not less than sixteen years of age and actually residing thereat shall be deemed good service and no misnomer or inaccurate description of any person or place in any such summons shall avoid the same provided that the person or place is therein described so as to be commonly known.

(2) An Ordinary Summons shall not remain in force for more than twelve months from the day of its date, including the day of such date; but if any defendant therein named is not served therewith, the plaintiff may, before the expiration of the twelve months, apply to the Judge of the Court out of which the summons has issued for leave to renew the same; and the Judge, if satisfied that reasonable efforts have been made to serve the defendant, or for other good reason, may order that the summons be renewed for six months from the date of such renewal inclusive, and so from time to time during the currency of the renewed summons. The summons shall in such case be renewed by being indorsed with a note, to be signed by the Judge, of the order for the renewal and of the day, month, and year thereof. An Ordinary Summons so renewed shall remain in force and be available to prevent the operation of any statute whereby the time for the commencement of the action may be limited, and all other purposes, from the date of the first issue of the said summons.

Period of validity—renewal.

7. A Default Summons shall be personally served within a period of six months from the date of its issue; but where prompt personal service cannot be effected and the Judge of the Court out of which the summons has issued is satisfied on oath that reasonable efforts have been made to effect the service and that either the fact of the issue of and the nature of the claim upon the summons have come to the knowledge of the defendant, or that he wilfully evades service of the same, or that from any other good cause whatsoever it is impracticable to effect personal service, the Judge may make such order for substituted service as may seem to him effectual, and thereafter for the plaintiff to proceed as if personal service had been effected, subject to such conditions if any as to the Judge may seem fit.

Service of Default Summons.

8. (1) Where leave is required to sue any person not resident within the district, the application for such leave shall be made upon the affidavit of the proposed plaintiff, or of some person on his behalf who has knowledge of the facts, setting forth the facts on which the application is grounded in the form set out as Form 12 in the Schedule.

Leave to sue out of district.

(2) The affidavit shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Court together with a copy of the same for each defendant.

(3) Every order granting leave under this rule shall be signed by the Judge in his own handwriting at the foot of the affidavit, after due consideration of the facts disclosed by the affidavit and the Judge shall exercise his discretion as to the grant or refusal of leave in accordance with the circumstances of each particular case.

(4) Subject to this rule, leave may be granted and an Ordinary Summons may be issued, although the plaintiff cannot give the present place of residence or of business of the defendant, but in that case the defendant shall be served personally.

(5) Subject to subrule (4), no leave shall be granted under this rule unless the name, residence, or place of business, and occupation or description of the proposed defendant are fully set out in the affidavit filed for the issue of the summons.

Issue of Default Summons to be supported by affidavit.

9. Whenever a plaintiff proceeds by Default Summons, he shall at the same time that he leaves the Summons for signature by the Clerk of the Court lodge an affidavit (together with a copy thereof for each defendant) made by himself or by any other person who can swear positively to the facts, verifying the cause of action and the amount claimed, and stating that in his belief there is no defence to the action. The said affidavit shall be in the form set out as Form 10 in the Schedule.

Leave to defend or in default judgment upon Default Summons.

10. (1) Unless a defendant upon a Default Summons, within ten clear days after service of such summons, on an application supported by an affidavit of facts or by notice in writing setting up that there is irregularity or any other good defence in law, satisfies the Judge that there is some real question to be tried or some defect in the proceedings, the plaintiff shall be entitled to enter up judgment in terms of his claim.

(2) The order upon the judgment shall be for payment forthwith, or at such time or times and by such instalments, if any, as the plaintiff or his solicitor shall in writing have consented to take as indorsed on the summons.

(3) Where upon consideration of the affidavit or notice the Judge is of opinion that the defendant should be allowed to defend the whole or any part of the plaintiff's claim, he shall indorse the affidavit or notice accordingly, and thereupon, if the application was heard and determined ex parte, the Clerk of the Court shall immediately inform the plaintiff or his solicitor by post or otherwise of the terms of the indorsement, and shall in so doing send to him a copy of the affidavit or notice (to be left with him by the defendant at the time of his filing the same) bearing upon it a copy of the indorsement.

(4) In every case in which leave to defend is granted on an application as aforesaid a date for the trial of the action shall be fixed by the Judge and the parties, if present, shall be informed accordingly. If either party or his solicitor is not present at the time of the fixing of the date of trial, the Clerk of the Court shall at least three clear days before the date so fixed notify such party or his solicitor of the date fixed.

11. Where a defendant upon a Default Summons fails to file the affidavit or notice to obtain leave to defend within the time limited for so doing and judgment for the plaintiff upon his claim has been entered accordingly, the Judge may upon application made by the defendant set aside the judgment upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as he may think just, and allow the defendant thereafter to defend the whole or such part of the claim as he may think proper. Any application made in this behalf must be supported by affidavit disclosing a defence upon the merits and explaining the neglect, and notice of the application together with a copy of the affidavit shall be served upon the plaintiff or his Solicitor at least three clear days before the date fixed for the hearing of the same.

Setting aside judgment obtained on Default Summons.

12. All summonses or other processes or writs of execution shall be served or executed by the bailiff of the Court out of which the same have issued, subject in every such case to the provisions hereinafter set out for service or execution out of the district from which the same have issued.

By whom process to be served or execution levied.

13. Where any summons or other process or writ of execution is required to be served or executed in a district other than that out of which the same has issued, the Clerk of the Court issuing the same shall transmit it and a copy thereof forthwith by post to the bailiff of the Court of the district in which it is to be served, and thereupon the bailiff shall be authorised and required to act in all respects in the service or execution thereof in the same manner, with the same powers, and subject to the same rules as if the said summons or other process or writ of execution had originally issued out of the Court of which he is bailiff.

Process issued in one and served in another district.

14. Save in respect of default summonses, the service of which is to be governed exclusively by rule 7, the service of all summonses or other processes is subject to the following provisions—

Mode of service of process.

- (a) when an infant is a defendant, service on the infant, or on his father or guardian, or (if none) on the person with whom he resides or under whose care he is, shall be sufficient;

- (b) where persons are sued as partners, service upon any one or more of the partners or at any place of the partnership business shall be sufficient;
- (c) where husband and wife are both defendants, either may be served unless the Judge shall otherwise order;
- (d) where a defendant is living or serving on board of any ship or vessel, it shall be sufficient to deliver the summons or other process to the person on board who is at the time of the service apparently in charge of the ship or vessel;
- (e) where a defendant is employed or dwells in any public asylum or in any prison or is a prisoner in any prison it shall be sufficient to deliver the summons to the gatekeeper or lodgekeeper of any such asylum or prison;
- (f) where a mentally ill person is a defendant, service on the Committee (if any) of the lunatic, or on the person with whom he resides or under whose care he is, shall, unless the Judge otherwise orders, be sufficient;
- (g) where a defendant keeps his house or place of dwelling or place of business closed, and the bailiff shows to the Judge reasonable ground for concluding that the same is kept closed in order to prevent service, the Judge may order that the summons or other process be affixed by him to or upon the door of the house or place of dwelling or place of business, and that shall be sufficient;
- (h) where the bailiff is prevented by violence or threats or other conduct of the defendant, or of any other person, from personally serving a summons or other process, it shall be sufficient for him to leave the same as near to the defendant as practicable.

Proof of service of process.

15. Service of any summons or other process of Court may be proved by indorsement on a copy of the same under the hand and description of the person making the service, showing the day, place, time, and mode of service, and every such indorsement shall be taken as prima facie evidence of the truth of the facts stated therein.

Failure to serve process or effect execution.

16. If a summons or other process is not served or any writ of execution not executed within the time prescribed for the service or execution thereof, the same shall be returned by the bailiff to the Clerk of the Court out of which it has issued, and the Clerk shall forthwith give notice to the plaintiff or to his solicitor of such non-service or non-execution.

17. (1) The defendant may at any time before the day of hearing pay to the Clerk of the Court such sum as he may be advised in full satisfaction of the plaintiff's demand, together with the costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment; but with a defence setting up tender before action the sum of money alleged to have been tendered must be brought into Court.

Payment into Court.

(2) Notice of any such payment shall be given in writing to the plaintiff or his solicitor and shall state whether liability is admitted or denied and, if it is the case, that a plea of tender is being set up.

18. (1) Where a payment into Court is made under rule 17 either with an admission or a denial of liability the plaintiff may accept the sum so paid in full satisfaction of his claim in which event he shall recover from the defendant such costs as he has incurred up to the date of service of the notice upon him of the said payment into Court and the action shall thereafter be stayed; or he may refuse to accept such sum so paid in full satisfaction of his claim in which event the action shall proceed to trial and the Judge shall make such order thereon as may be just. No sum paid into Court as aforesaid shall be paid out unless the plaintiff or his solicitor files a notice, a copy whereof must be served upon the defendant or his solicitor, that he is accepting the sum in full satisfaction of his claim or upon the order of the Judge.

Plaintiff may accept money paid into Court.

(2) Where payment into Court is made with a plea of tender the defendant shall be entitled to have the issue raised by such plea duly determined, and, if necessary, the action shall continue for the said purpose, and upon the determination of the said issue the Judge shall have power to make such order as to costs as he thinks fit.

Issue of tender, if raised, to be determined.

(3) No sum paid into Court with such a plea of tender shall be paid out until the said issue has been duly determined unless the Judge otherwise orders.

19. Except in an action in which the defence of tender before action is raised no statement of the fact that money has been paid into Court shall be filed on the proceedings, and no communication of that fact shall at the trial of any action be made to the Non-disclosure of payment into Court.

Judge, and no act or thing calculated to communicate to the Judge at or prior to the trial of any action the fact that money has been paid into Court shall be done, until all questions of liability and the amount of the debt or damages have been decided. But the Judge shall in exercising his discretion as to costs take into account both the fact that money has been paid into Court and the amount of such payment.

Discontinuance. 20. The plaintiff may at any time not less than two clear days before the day fixed by any ordinary summons for the hearing of the Claim thereon or notified by the Clerk of the Court for the hearing of any default summons discontinue his action by notice in the form set out as Form 6 in the Schedule, to be personally served by him on the defendant, or, where the defendant has taken any step by a solicitor, on his solicitor, and thereupon the defendant shall be at liberty to apply to the Judge to be awarded such costs as to the Judge may seem just. The plaintiff may also at any time subsequent to the time provided hereinabove, but only by leave of the Judge, discontinue his action, and such leave shall be granted upon such terms as the Judge thinks fit.

Entry of judgment. 21. Whenever the Judge makes an order in any proceeding pending before him, the person in whose favour the order is made is entitled thereupon to enter up judgment immediately without any notice or summons to the other party.

Time. 22. The Judge may in any case make order for granting time to the plaintiff or the defendant to proceed in the prosecution or defence of the suit, and also may from time to time adjourn the hearing or further hearing of any cause in such manner and subject to such terms (if any) as the Judge thinks fit.

Cross judgments. 23. If there are cross judgments between the parties, whether for a liquidated amount or for damages or for costs, by reason of a set-off or counter claim or for any other reason, execution shall be taken out by that party only who has obtained judgment for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum, and satisfaction for the remainder shall be entered, as well as satisfaction on the judgment for the smaller sum, and if both sums are equal, satisfaction shall be entered upon both judgments.

When execution may issue. 24. (1) Whenever the Judge makes an order for the payment of money not payable by instalments or in respect of which execution has not been stayed or, if stayed, the conditions attaching to such stay have not been complied with, the party in whose favour the said order is made may, in case of default or failure of payment thereof forthwith, sue out a writ of execution for the amount so ordered to be paid without any notice to the other party.

(2) If it should appear upon the affidavit of a judgment creditor or of his solicitor that any person against whom a judgment has been obtained is about to leave Trinidad or Tobago before the time ordered for the payment of such judgment debt by instalments or otherwise, and that by reason thereof payment may not be made as and when the same becomes due, the Judge may order the debtor to appear forthwith to show cause why the order providing for payment by instalments or staying execution should not be revoked.

(3) If after due service the debtor fails to appear to show cause as aforesaid or if after appearance he fails to show such cause to the satisfaction of the Judge, the Judge may revoke the said order or give such further or other direction as he may think fit.

25. (1) Writs of execution issued under the authority of the Act shall be in the form set out as Form 5 in the Schedule.

Writs of execution.

(2) Such writs of execution shall remain in force for 12 calendar months from the date of issue and no longer, but a fresh writ may be issued on payment of the appropriate fee.

(3) Where any change has taken place by reason of death or assignment or otherwise in the parties entitled to take proceedings to enforce a judgment or order or in the parties liable to such proceedings, any person claiming to be entitled to enforce such judgment or order may apply to the Court, on affidavit, for leave to issue the necessary process accordingly; and the Court, may, if satisfied that the applicant is entitled to issue such process, make an order to that effect, or may order that any question necessary to determine the rights of the parties shall be tried in the way in which an action may be tried. In either case, the Court may impose such terms as to costs or otherwise as may seem just.

26. The bailiff is not compelled to levy unless the execution creditor or his solicitor or agent gives him instructions in writing stating the name and residence or place of business of the party against whom the execution is issued, or to levy on any personal chattels until the same are pointed out or otherwise sufficiently indicated to him by the execution creditor or some person authorised on his behalf. At the time of filing a request for execution, the execution creditor, or his solicitor or agent, shall deposit with the Clerk of the Court such sum of money as the Judge may think reasonably sufficient to cover all expenses which may be incurred in connection with such levy, and any balance after defraying all such expenses shall be returned to the execution creditor or his duly authorised agent.

Stay of execution.

27. If at any time it appears to the satisfaction of the Judge by the oath of any person or otherwise that the judgment debtor is unable from any cause to pay and discharge the debt or damages recovered against him, or any instalment thereof ordered to be paid as aforesaid, the Judge may in his discretion suspend or stay any judgment, order or execution given, made or issued in such action, for such time and on such terms as the Judge thinks fit, and so from time to time until it appears by the like proof as aforesaid that such temporary cause or disability has ceased.

Particulars of writ of execution.

28. In or upon every writ of execution issued the Clerk shall cause to be inserted the sum of money and costs adjudged, with the sums allowed by the Act as increased costs for the issue and execution of such writ, and if, before an actual sale of the goods and chattels, the party against whom the execution is issued, pays or causes to be paid or tendered to the Clerk or to the bailiff such sum of money and costs as aforesaid, or such part thereof as the party entitled thereto agrees to accept in full payment of his debt or damages or costs, together with the fees herein directed to be paid, the writ of execution shall be superseded and the goods and chattels of the said party shall be discharged.

Where goods to be sold.

29. All goods seized in execution shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court issuing the execution, be sold in the district within which the same have been seized.

Return of writ of execution.

30. No writ of execution issued under and by virtue of the Act shall be made returnable within any limited or particular time, but the bailiff having the execution of any such writ shall be bound to return such writ within a reasonable time unless he receives instructions from the person on whose behalf such writ was issued or from his agent to suspend the execution and return of such writ for any limited or particular time, in which case the bailiff shall suspend the execution and return of such writ for such time as he may have been directed by such person or his agent to do so.

INTERPLEADER

31. (1) Where a claim is made to or in respect of any goods or chattels taken in execution under the process of a Court, the claim shall be in writing and filed with the Clerk; and thereupon the Chief Clerk shall forthwith send notice to the execution creditor.

Notice of claim to execution creditor.

(2) If within four days after receiving the notice mentioned in subrule (1), the execution creditor gives notice to the Clerk that he admits the title of the claimant to the goods or chattels, or requests the bailiff to withdraw from possession, he shall only be liable to the bailiff for any possession fees or expenses incurred by the bailiff prior to the receipt by the Clerk of such notice; and the Judge may, if he thinks fit, on application by the bailiff, make an order for payment of any such fees or expenses by the execution creditor to the bailiff. Any such application shall be made in writing, and intitled in the matter of the execution, and three clear days' notice in writing thereof shall be given by the bailiff to the execution creditor.

Notice by execution creditor of admission of claim or to withdraw from possession.

32. (1) Where a claim is made to the goods or chattels of the judgment debtor taken in execution, the person making the claim shall deposit with the Clerk of the Court the following sums:

Deposit to be made on claim. [5/1/1980].

Where the chattels claimed consist of—

(a) Live animals—

For each horse or mule	$20.00
For each ox, bull, or cow	15.00
For each ass	10.00
For any other animal	5.00

(b) A chattel house 20.00

(c) Any other goods or chattels 10.00 or such larger sum as the Judge may direct having regard to the circumstances of any particular case.

(2) All expenses, including the costs of keeping such animals, watchman fees, storage, and any other incidental expenses, as circumstances may warrant, pending the determination of the interpleader, shall be defrayed out of the sum so deposited, and any balance shall be returned to the claimant. If such deposit is not made, the bailiff shall proceed with the execution as if no such claim had been made in respect of such chattel, unless the Judge otherwise orders.

Power to make order protecting bailiff.

33. Where the execution creditor gives notice in due time to the clerk, as directed by rule 31, that he admits the title of the claimant to the goods or chattels, or requests the bailiff to withdraw from possession, the bailiff may thereupon withdraw from possession and may apply for an order protecting him from any action in respect of the seizure and possession of the said goods and chattels and the Judge may make any such order as may be just and reasonable in respect of the same. Any such application shall be made in writing, and intitled in the matter of the execution, and three clear days' notice in writing thereof shall be given to the claimant, who may, if he desires it, attend the hearing of the application, and if he attends the Judge may, in and for the purposes of such application, make all such orders as may be just and reasonable.

Issue of interpleader summons.

34. Where the execution creditor does not in due time, as directed by rule 31, admit the title of the claimant to the goods or chattels or request the bailiff to withdraw from possession, and the claimant persists in his claim, the bailiff shall apply for an interpleader summons to be issued; and if before the return day of such summons the claimant files notice that he withdraws his claim, and at the same time gives notice of such withdrawal to the execution creditor, or the execution creditor files an admission of the title of the claimant, and at the same time gives notice of such admission to the claimant, the goods and chattels taken in execution or the proceeds of the sale thereof, or the money paid into Court (as the case may be) shall be dealt with and disposed of as if such claim had not been made, or as if the execution had been withdrawn (as the case may be) and the Judge may, in and for the purposes of the interpleader proceedings, make all such orders as to costs, fees, charges, and expenses as may be just and reasonable.

Proceedings generally.

35. Where any claim is made to or in respect of any goods or chattels taken in execution, or in respect of the proceeds or value thereof, and summonses have been issued on the application of the bailiff, such summonses shall be served in such time and mode as by these Rules directed for the service of an ordinary summons to appear to a plaint, and the case shall proceed as if the claimant were the plaintiff, and the execution creditor the defendant.

Claimant to lodge particulars and grounds of claim.

36. The claimant shall two days at least before the return day, or at the hearing by special leave of the Judge on such terms as the Judge may think fit, leave at the office of the Clerk of the Court, two copies of the particulars of any goods or chattels alleged to be the property of the claimant, and of the grounds of his claim, or in case of a claim for rent of the amount thereof, and for what period and in respect of what premises the same is claimed to be due; and the name, address, and description of the claimant shall be fully set forth in such particulars, and the Clerk shall forthwith send by post (or otherwise) to the execution creditor one of the copies of the particulars. Any money paid into Court under the execution shall be retained by the Clerk of the Court until the claim has been adjudicated upon. By consent of all parties, or without such consent if the Judge so directs, an interpleader claim may be tried although this rule has not been complied with.

37. The Judge upon the hearing shall adjudicate upon any claim of the bailiff for fees, and may, if he thinks fit, order the same, or such part thereof as he may think just, to be paid by the claimant or by the execution creditor.

Bailiff's fees.

38. (1) Where the claimant to goods taken in execution claims damages from the execution creditor or from the bailiff for or in respect of the seizure of the goods, he shall in the particulars of his claim to the goods state the amount he claims for damages, and the grounds upon which he claims damages.

Claim for damages by claimant.

(2) Where the claimant has not claimed damages before the issue of the interpleader summons, but claims such damages in his particulars of claim, he may be ordered to pay the costs of any adjournment which may be necessary to enable the execution creditor or the bailiff to prepare his defence to the claim as made.

Damages not claimed until filing of particulars.

39. Where under section 48 of the Act an execution creditor claims damages against a bailiff arising out of the execution of any process, he shall two clear days at least before the return day of the interpleader summons give notice in writing of such claim to the Clerk of the Court and to the bailiff, stating the grounds and amount of such claim, and he may thereupon apply to the Judge at the hearing of the interpleader summons to adjudicate upon such claim. For the purposes of fees and costs such claim shall be deemed to be a claim in an interpleader.

Claim for damages by execution creditor against bailiff.

40. Where a claim for damages under section 48 of the Act is made against any bailiff and execution creditor or either of them, they or either of them may pay into Court money in satisfaction of such claim for damages; and such payment into Court shall be made in the same manner and have the same effect, and the parties respectively shall have the same rights and remedies as they would respectively have if the proceeding were an action in which the claimant was plaintiff, and the bailiff and execution creditor were defendants. A bailiff may in like manner pay money into Court in satisfaction of a claim for damages made against him by an execution creditor.

Interpleader summons.

41. Interpleader summonses shall be issued by the Clerk of the Court on the application of the bailiff without leave of the Judge, and shall be served on the solicitor of any of the parties who acts by a solicitor.

From what Court issued.

42. Interpleader summonses shall be issued from the Court of the district in which the levy was made, and the execution creditor and claimant shall be summoned to such Court.

Judge may direct sale of goods claimed under bill of sale.

43. (1) When goods or chattels have been seized in execution under process of the Court, and any claimant alleges that he is entitled under a bill of sale or otherwise to such goods or chattels by way of security for debt, the Judge may order a sale of the whole or part thereof, and may direct the application of the proceeds of such sale in such manner and upon such terms as may be just.

Costs of application.

(2) The costs of the application for sale under this rule shall be borne as between the parties to the application as the Judge shall direct.

Order on interpleader.

44. The order made upon the hearing of an interpleader summons shall contain directions as to how any money paid into Court in the proceedings is to be disposed of. A minute of every such order shall be entered in the minute book, but no order need be drawn up or served unless any of the parties requires it, or the Court otherwise orders.

Interpleader in action by assignee.

45. (1) Where the defendant in an action brought by the assignee of a debt or chose in action has had notice that the assignment is disputed, as to the whole or any part of the debt or chose in action, by the assignor or any one claiming under him, or where the defendant in any such action, or in any other action for any debt, chose in action, money, goods or chattels, has had notice of any other claim opposing or conflicting to the whole or any part of such debt, chose in action, money, goods or chattels, the defendant may apply to the Clerk of the Court for a summons against the assignor or the person making such opposing or conflicting claims, hereinafter called the claimant.

(2) The defendant shall satisfy the Clerk of the Court, by affidavit, that he claims no interest in the subject matter in dispute other than for charges or costs, and does not collude with either the plaintiff or the claimant, and is willing to pay or transfer the subject matter into Court, or dispose of it as the Court may direct. On filing such affidavit the defendant shall lodge with the Clerk of the Court copies thereof for the plaintiff and the claimant.

(3) The defendant shall not be disentitled to relief by reason only that the titles of the plaintiff and the claimant have not a common origin, but are adverse to and independent of each other.

(4) The Clerk of the Court shall, on being satisfied as aforesaid, issue for service on the claimant an interpleader summons returnable as soon as conveniently may be, and shall annex thereto a copy of the original summons and of the defendant's affidavit, and shall adjourn the trial of the action to the day on which the interpleader summons is made returnable, and shall give notice to the plaintiff and the defendant of the issue of the interpleader summons and of the adjournment of the trial of the action. The interpleader summons shall be served in such time and mode as by these Rules directed for the service of an ordinary summons to appear to a plaintiff.

(5) The claimant shall, two days at least before the return day of the interpleader summons, leave at the office of the Clerk of the Court either three copies of a notice that he relinquishes his claim or three copies of particulars stating the grounds on which he disputes the assignment or founds his claim to the subject matter in the action; and the Clerk of the Court shall forthwith send by post or otherwise one of such copies to the plaintiff, and one other of such copies to the defendant. By consent of all parties, or without such consent if the Judge so directs, the interpleader may be tried although this rule has not been complied with.

Claimant to file notice of relinquishment or particulars of claim.

(6) On filing his affidavit, or at any time after the issue of the interpleader summons, the defendant may pay the debt or money or bring the chose in action, goods, or chattels into Court, to abide its decision.

Payment into Court by defendant.

(7) Upon the return day of the interpleader summons—

(a) if the plaintiff does not appear, the action and interpleader summons shall be struck out, and the Judge may make such order as to costs as may be just;

Interpleader how disposed of. Where plaintiff does not appear.

Where claimant does not appear.

(b) if the claimant does not appear, the Judge shall hear and determine the action as between the plaintiff and the defendant, and may make an order declaring the claimant and all persons claiming under him forever barred against the defendant and all persons claiming under him, and may make such order as to costs against the claimant as may be just, but the order shall not affect the rights of the plaintiff and the claimant between themselves; or if the claimant has filed notice that he relinquishes his claim, the Judge may make an order declaring him and all persons claiming under him forever barred, against both the plaintiff and the defendant and all persons claiming under them and may make such order against the claimant, as to costs incurred by the other parties before the receipt of notice of relinquishment, as may be just;

Where both parties appear.

(c) if both the plaintiff and the claimant appear the Judge shall, whether the defendant does or does not appear, hear the cases of the plaintiff and the claimant (and the case of the defendant if he appears) and shall give such judgment thereon as shall finally determine the rights and claims of all parties; but the Judge shall not make any order in favour of the claimant against the defendant unless the claimant requests him to do so.

Costs and incidental matters in interpleader proceedings.

46. The Judge may, in and for the purposes of any proceedings, make all such orders as to costs and all other matters (including in the case of proceedings under rule 45, the repayment to the defendant of any costs paid by him into Court, and the disposal of any money, chose in action, goods, or chattels paid or brought by the defendant into Court) as may be just and reasonable.
