PART I

MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS
MEDICAL BOARD, ITS CONSTITUTION, ETC.

The Medical Board of Trinidad and Tobago. [24 of 1961].

3. The Medical Board of Trinidad established by the Medical Ordinance 1887 and continued under the former Ordinance, shall from the commencement of this Act bear the name of "The Medical Board of Trinidad and Tobago" and by such name shall continue to be a body corporate.

Constitution of Board.

4. All persons registered as members of the Board shall constitute the Board.

Persons registered as members to continue to be registered.

5. All persons registered immediately prior to the commencement of this Act as members of the Board shall continue to be so registered under this Act.

The Council.

6. (1) There shall be a Council of the Board consisting of—
(a) a President;
(b) a Vice-President;
(c) a Secretary-Treasurer; and
(d) four other members of the Board to be elected as below provided.

(2) The Council may appoint such committees of its members as it thinks fit for the proper carrying out of its functions, and may delegate any of its functions to any such committee.

(3) If it appears to the Council that any member is by reason of illness, absence from Trinidad and Tobago, or for any other cause unlikely to be able for some time to perform his duties as a member of the Council, the Council may declare the seat of that person to be temporarily vacant.

(4) Any vacancy on the Council or any temporary vacancy for the period of its duration shall be filled by election of the Board.

Existing Council to continue in office.

7. Members of the Council elected under the former Ordinance and holding office at the commencement of this Act shall continue to hold office until the election of a new Council as below provided.

Election of Council.

8. Within three months of the coming into force of this Act and triennially thereafter, there shall be convened in accordance with the Regulations a general meeting of the Board for the purpose of electing the Council.

9. (1) Members of the Council shall hold office for a term of three years.

Terms of office and eligibility for election.

(2) The President and the Vice-President shall be elected from among members of the Board of at least three years standing.

(3) The members of the Council are eligible for re-election, except that the President is eligible for re-election for one term only.

10. (1) The Council shall cause to be kept a book or register to be known as the "Register of Medical Practitioners" in which shall be entered the name of every person registered as a medical practitioner under this Act showing the following particulars:

Register of Medical Practitioners. [51/1980].

- (a) his full name and address;
- (b) a description of and dates of the diplomas in respect of which he is registered and such other medical degrees and certificates to which he is entitled;
- (c) the date of his registration.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), no person whose name is not entered on the Register shall be deemed to be registered.

(3) All persons who were registered as medical practitioners under the former Ordinance immediately prior to the commencement of this Act are entitled to be registered under this Act without application on the part of such persons, and pending the entry of their names on the Register, shall be deemed to be duly registered.

(4) The Register shall at all reasonable times be open and subject to inspection by any person on payment of a fee of one dollar.

11. (1) The Secretary-Treasurer shall keep the Register in accordance with this Act and the Rules and Regulations of the Council in that behalf and shall from time to time make the necessary alterations in the addresses or qualifications of persons registered.

Secretary-Treasurer to maintain register and perform other duties prescribed.

(2) The Secretary-Treasurer shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed.

12. Any person who establishes to the satisfaction of the Council that he holds a diploma in respect of which he is entered or entitled to be entered on the Medical Register of the General Medical Council and that he is of good character and a fit and proper person to practise medicine shall upon application and upon compliance with the requirements of this Act be entitled to be registered as a member of the Board.

Who may be registered.

Issue of temporary licence to practise.

13. (1) Notwithstanding section 12, the Council may issue or authorise to be issued, a temporary licence to engage in the practice of medicine during the currency thereof and subject to the terms and conditions contained therein, to any other person who establishes to the satisfaction of the Council that he is the holder of a diploma approved by the Board and is of good character and a fit and proper person to practise medicine.

(2) The Council shall determine the nature and extent of each temporary licence, including—

- (a) the time during which the licence remains in force;
- (b) the area to which it extends;
- (c) the nature and character of the work which may be performed under the authority thereof;
- (d) such other terms and conditions as the Council may deem it expedient to impose.

(3) It shall be lawful for the Council, upon the expiration of the period fixed for the temporary licence and upon being satisfied by a majority of members of the Council representing not less than two-thirds of those present and voting that the other conditions therein have been duly met by the person named and that the person is in all respects a fit and proper person to practise medicine, to grant registration to that person as a member of the Board.

Fees.

14. A person upon being admitted to registration or to whom a temporary licence has been granted shall pay to the Secretary-Treasurer such initial registration fee and annual fee as may be prescribed.

Registration of higher or additional qualification.

15. Any member of the Board who has obtained a diploma higher than or additional to the diploma in respect of which he has been admitted to registration and which is approved by the Board shall, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed, be entitled to have the higher or additional diploma shown in the Register in substitution for or in addition to, as the case may be, the diploma previously shown.

16. An applicant for registration or for a temporary licence shall furnish to the Secretary-Treasurer—

- (a) satisfactory evidence of his qualifications;
- (b) satisfactory proof of his identity;
- (c) such further and other information as the Council may require.

Evidence and information required to be furnished.

17. The Council shall cause to be erased from the Register any entry which has been incorrectly or fraudulently made.

Erasure of incorrect or fraudulent entry.

18. In all cases where proof of registration or of the issue of a temporary licence is required to be made, the production of a certificate showing that the person therein named is duly registered or is the holder of a temporary licence, certified under the hand of the Secretary-Treasurer, shall be sufficient evidence in all Courts of the registration of such person, or of the issue to him of a temporary licence as the case may be, and the production of the original Register shall not be required and any such certificate shall be accepted without proof that the person signing as the Secretary-Treasurer is the Secretary-Treasurer.

Certificate of Secretary-Treasurer to be prima facie evidence.

19. (1) The Secretary-Treasurer shall not later than 31st March in each year cause to be printed in the Gazette a true and correct list of the names of all persons who are registered at such time and also a true and correct list of the names of all persons to whom a temporary licence has been granted.

Publication of lists.

(2) A copy of the Gazette containing a list referred to in subsection (1) shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be evidence in all Courts of the registration of, or of the issue of a temporary licence to, any person therein named, as the case may be, and of the qualifications of such person and of the non-registration of any person who is not therein named.

POWERS OF COUNCIL

20. (1) The Council, subject to the approval of the Board, shall have power to make such Rules or Regulations as it deems necessary for carrying the purposes and provisions of this Act into effect, and, without restricting the generality thereof, for all or any of the following purposes:

Power of Council to make rules and regulations.

- (a) for the good government of the Board and for the proper conduct of its affairs;
- (b) for regulating the time, manner and place of meetings of the Board and the Council and the proceedings thereof;

- (c) for the conduct of elections including the manner of voting thereat, and all other matters arising out of or incidental to the elections as provided for in this Act;
- (d) with respect to the fees for registration or for the issue of a temporary licence and the amount of any annual or special fees to be paid by members;
- (e) with respect to the determination of the professional qualification and experience including internship required of an applicant for registration or for a temporary licence, and to proof of professional conduct and general fitness to practise medicine;
- (f) for regulating the manner of applying and using the funds of the Board;
- (g) for providing for by-elections and the circumstances whereby a vacancy shall be deemed to occur on the Council;
- (h) for prescribing anything required or authorised to be prescribed;
- (i) for prescribing in respect of any contravention thereof or failure to comply therewith a penalty not exceeding a fine of three hundred dollars or imprisonment for three months on summary conviction.

(2) No rule or regulation shall come into force or have effect until it has been approved by the Minister.

(3) All Rules and Regulations shall be published in the Gazette and the production of a copy thereof shall be prima facie proof that a rule or regulation contained therein has been made and published as required by this Act.

False representation with a view to obtaining registration or licence.

21. Any person who wilfully procures or attempts to procure himself or any other person to be registered or licensed under this Act, by making or producing, or causing to be made or produced, any false or fraudulent representation or statement or declaration, either verbally or in writing or otherwise, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars and to imprisonment for one year.

22. (1) Any person not being a member of the Board or the holder of a temporary licence who— Use of title by unauthorised person.

- (a) takes or uses any name, title, addition or description implying or calculated to lead persons to believe that he is registered or licensed under this Act or that he is recognised by law as a physician, surgeon, or licentiate in medicine or surgery;
- (b) assumes or uses the title "doctor", "surgeon", or "physician" or any affix or prefix indicative of any such title as an occupational designation relating to the practice of medicine; or
- (c) advertises or holds himself out as a person authorised or qualified to practise medicine or surgery, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars and to imprisonment for six months.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not operate so as to prevent a person who is registered as a dentist from using such title as is authorised thereby and appropriate to his qualifications.

23. (1) No person who is not registered or the holder of a temporary licence under this Act shall, either directly or indirectly, carry on for hire, gain, or hope of reward the healing art in any of its branches or— Advertisement, holding out, or practice by unauthorised person.

- (a) by advertisement, sign, or statement of any kind, written or oral, allege or imply or state that he is, or hold himself out as being qualified, able, or willing, to diagnose, prescribe for, prevent, or treat, any human disease, ailment, deformity, defect, or injury, or to perform any operation to remedy any human disease, ailment, deformity, defect, or injury, or to examine or advise upon the physical or mental condition of any person;
- (b) diagnose, or offer to diagnose, or attempt to diagnose, any human disease, ailment, deformity, defect, or injury, or to examine or advise upon, the physical or mental condition of any person;
- (c) prescribe or administer any drugs, serum, medicine, or any substance or remedy, whether for the cure, treatment, or prevention, of any human disease, ailment, deformity, defect, or injury;

- (d) prescribe or administer any treatment, or perform any operation or manipulation, or apply any apparatus or appliance, for the cure, treatment, or prevention, of any human disease, ailment, deformity, defect, or injury; or
  - (e) act as the assistant or associate of any person who practises or pretends to practise medicine as herein set out.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
- (a) any person acting under the direction or supervision of a medical practitioner;
  - (b) any person who is registered or licensed under any other Act and who, under the authority thereof, performs or provides any service which he is authorised or entitled to perform thereunder; or
  - (c) any person performing any such service under the authority and supervision of any other person so registered or licensed if permitted or authorised by such Act.
- (3) Nothing in this Act shall prevent—
- (a) any person from giving necessary medical or surgical aid in cases of urgent need without hire, gain or hope of reward;
  - (b) the domestic administration of family remedies.
- (4) Any person who contravenes this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars and to imprisonment for one year.
- (5) In any prosecution under this Act it shall be sufficient proof of an offence under this section if it is proved that the accused has done or committed a single act of unauthorised practice or has committed on one occasion any of the acts prohibited hereunder.

Discipline.

24. (1) Where any member of the Board or any holder of a temporary licence has either before or after he is registered or licensed under this Act been convicted either in the Commonwealth or elsewhere of an offence which, if committed in Trinidad and Tobago, would be punishable on indictment, or is guilty of infamous or disgraceful conduct in a professional respect, such practitioner shall be liable to be dealt with in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) The Council may, and upon the application of any four members of the Board shall, cause enquiry to be made into the case of a person liable to be dealt with as in this section provided, and on proof of such conviction or of such infamous or disgraceful conduct may—

- (a) censure or reprimand the medical practitioner concerned;
- (b) suspend the medical practitioner concerned for a period not exceeding two years; or
- (c) cause the name of such practitioner to be erased from the Register or his temporary licence to be revoked, as the case may be,

except that this subsection shall not apply in respect of a medical practitioner adopting or refraining from adopting the practice of any particular theory of medicine or research, nor on account of a conviction for a political offence outside the Commonwealth, nor on account of a conviction for an offence which though within the provisions of this section ought not, in the opinion of the Council, either from the trivial nature of the offence, or from the circumstances under which it was committed, to disqualify a person from practicing medicine or surgery.

(3) If the Council finds, after due enquiry, that a medical practitioner is suffering from a physical or mental condition that might, if he continues to practise, constitute a danger to the public or to a patient, the Council may suspend the member from practising until such time as in the opinion of the Council such member is able to resume practice.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (2), if the Council considers that there are reasons or circumstances which render such a course expedient, the Council may, at any time before making an order, suspend the proceedings of the enquiry for a period not exceeding six months, during which the medical practitioner is entitled to practise; and at the end of such period the Council may either direct that the proceedings shall be discontinued or make such order as it shall deem proper.

(5) Without restricting the generality of subsections (1) and (2), every medical practitioner shall be deemed guilty of infamous or disgraceful conduct who—

- (a) wilfully betrays a professional confidence;

- (b) abandons a patient in danger without sufficient cause, and without giving him an opportunity to retain the services of another medical practitioner;
- (c) knowingly gives a false certificate respecting birth, death, notice of disease, state of health, vaccination or disinfection or respecting any matter relating to life, health, or accident insurance;
- (d) divides with another person, who is not a partner, any fees or profits resulting from consultations or surgical operations, without the patient's knowledge and consent;
- (e) is addicted to the excessive use of intoxicating liquors or the excessive or habitual use of opiates or narcotics;
- (f) impersonates another medical practitioner;
- (g) employs in connection with his professional practice an assistant who is not registered or licensed under this Act, or permits a person who is not registered or licensed under this Act to attend or treat patients or to perform operations upon patients in respect of matters requiring professional discretion or skill, or by his presence or advice, assistance or co-operation, enables any such person, whether acting as an assistant or otherwise, to attend or treat any person for any ailment or to perform any operation upon a patient in respect of any matter requiring professional discretion or skill, or who holds out a person who is not registered or licensed under this Act as a person qualified to practise surgery, medicine or obstetrics in Trinidad and Tobago;
- (h) directly or indirectly holds himself out to the public as a specialist or as being specially qualified in any particular branch of medicine and who has not taken a special course in such branch and received a certificate of specialty therein which is recognised by the Council;
- (i) does or fails to do any act or thing, the doing of which or the failure to do which the Council considers to be unprofessional or discreditable.

25. No certificate required to be given pursuant to any Act by any physician, surgeon, or licentiate in medicine or surgery, shall be valid unless the person giving the same is a member of the Board or is the holder of a temporary licence.

Validity of medical certificates.

26. (1) A member of the Board or the holder of a temporary licence is entitled to demand and recover in any Court, with full costs of suit, his reasonable charges for professional aid, advice and visits, and the price of any medicine or medical or surgical appliance rendered or supplied by him to his patients.

Recovery of fees and costs of medicines supplied.

(2) No person claiming to be, or describing himself as, or acting in the capacity of, a physician or surgeon shall be allowed to recover in any Court any fees or charges for services or for drugs or medicines supplied unless he is a member of the Board or is the holder of a temporary licence.

27. No member of the Board or holder of a temporary licence shall be liable to any action for negligence or malpractice in respect of professional services requested or rendered unless such action is commenced within one year from the date when such professional services terminated.

Limitation of actions.

28. A committee appointed by the Council under this Act may, for the purpose of the execution of its duties, employ at the expense of the Board, such legal or other assessors or assistants as the committee may think necessary or proper.

Employment of assessors and assistants.

29. Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the Council to grant registration or a temporary licence to him, or by the erasure of his name from the Register, or by an order for his suspension under section 24(2)(b) or by the revocation or suspension of his licence, may, within three months after the date on which notice is given to him by the Council of such refusal, revocation or suspension, appeal against the Council's decision to a Judge in Chambers who shall give such directions in the matter as he may think proper, including a direction as to the costs of the appeal.

Appeal against refusal to register, erasure from register, suspension, etc.

30. Any person who commits an offence under this Act for which no specific penalty is provided is liable to a penalty of seven hundred and fifty dollars, and in case of a continuing offence to a further penalty of thirty dollars for each day during which such offence is continued after written notice thereof from the Council.

Penalties.

Authorisation
to prosecute.
[*172/1961
136/1976].

31. No conviction shall take place in respect of any prosecution for any offence against this Act unless the prosecution has been authorised in writing by the Council under the hand of the Secretary-Treasurer or by the Director of Public Prosecutions; and any authority purporting to be signed by the Secretary-Treasurer shall be received as prima facie evidence of the authorisation.

Retention of services of barrister or solicitor.

32. In the prosecution of any person for any offence committed against this Act, the Council may, if it sees fit, employ or instruct any barrister or solicitor to appear and prosecute in respect of any such offence, and to apply any part of the funds of the Board towards the payment and remuneration of the barrister or the solicitor.

Recovery of penalties.

33. All penalties incurred under this Act or under any regulation, may be recovered on summary conviction before a Magistrate, who may also award costs.

Fines for use of Board.

34. Any sum or sums of money arising from conviction and recovery of penalties imposed by this Act or by any regulation, shall be paid to the Magistrate who shall pay the amount recovered to the Secretary-Treasurer for the use of the Board.

Funds of Board to be used for purposes of Act.

35. The funds or moneys belonging or payable to and collected by the Board under and by virtue of this Act may be applied towards the payment of all expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this Act and of all matters incidental thereto.
