JUDGES SALARIES AND PENSIONS ACT

An Act to provide for the salaries, pensions and other conditions of service of Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature.

Commencement.

*[31ST AUGUST 1962]

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Judges' Salaries and Pensions Act.

Application.

2. This Act applies to the office of Judge.

Interpretation.

3. (1) In this Act—

“the Commission” means the Judicial and Legal Service Commission established by the Constitution;

“Court of Appeal” means the Court of Appeal established by the Constitution;

“High Court” means the High Court established by the Constitution;

“Judge” means a Judge of the High Court or the Court of Appeal and includes the Chief Justice;

“pensionable emoluments” means the salary paid to a Judge in respect of his substantive office;

“pensionable service” means service which is pensionable under the Pensions Act;

Ch. 23:52.

Ch. 23:52.

(2) Where a Judge has pensionable service, his period of service as a Judge is, for the purposes of the Pensions Act, deemed to be other public service within the meaning of that Act.

*This Act is deemed to have come into operation on 31st August 1962 by section 1(2) as originally enacted.

PART II

SALARIES OF JUDGES OF SUPREME COURT OF JUDICATURE

4. There shall be paid to the Chief Justice of Trinidad and Tobago, to every Judge of the Court of Appeal and to every Judge of the High Court the salaries specified in the Schedule.

Salaries of Judges.
[37 of 1971
38 of 1975
39 of 1981
3 of 1985].
Schedule.

PART III

PENSIONS

5. (1) There shall be paid to a person on his retirement from an office to which this Act applies a pension and gratuity in accordance with this Act.

Pensions.

(2) A person, who in accordance with the Constitution, is removed from an office to which this Act applies for inability, arising from infirmity of mind or body, to perform the functions of his office is deemed to have retired from that office.

(3) A person, who in accordance with the Constitution, is removed from an office to which this Act applies for any cause other than inability, arising from infirmity of mind or body, to perform the functions of his office may be granted such pension and gratuity not exceeding one-half of the pension and gratuity to which he would have been entitled had he retired from such office, as the Commission may decide.

6. (1) Subject to this section, the pension that shall be paid to a person who retires from an office to which this Act applies shall be an amount not less than forty-four and a half per cent and not more than eighty-five per cent of the annual pensionable emoluments drawn by him at the date of his retirement.

Minimum and maximum pensions.
[43 of 1976].

(2) Where a Judge has pensionable service, the amount of pension granted under this Act shall not, when added to the amount of any pension or pensions drawn by him in respect of that pensionable service, exceed eighty-five per cent of the annual pensionable emoluments drawn by him at the date of his retirement.

(3) For the purposes of this section, where a person receives both a gratuity and a pension in respect of the same period of pensionable service or service as a Judge, the amount of such pension is deemed to be four-thirds of its actual amount.

Rate of pension payable to the Chief Justice. [43 of 1976].

7. A person who at any time retires from the office of Chief Justice shall be granted a pension at the rate of the full amount of his pensionable emoluments.

Rate of pension payable to Judges, other than the Chief Justice.

8. A person who at any time retires from an office to which this Act applies, other than the office of Chief Justice, shall be granted in respect of his service as a Judge a pension which is the aggregate of one-third of his pensionable emoluments and one-three hundred and sixtieth of his pensionable emoluments in respect of each completed month of service as such.

Computation of pensions.

9. For the purpose of computing the amount of pension of a Judge, other than the Chief Justice, the full period during which he held the office of Judge shall be taken into account.

Gratuity on death of Judge.

10. Where a Judge dies, there shall be granted to his legal personal representative a gratuity of an amount equal to the total of the gratuities which would have been payable to that Judge in respect of his pensionable service, if any, and in respect of his service as a Judge if he had retired at the date of his death.

Gratuity and reduced pension.

11. (1) A person to whom a pension is payable under this Act shall if he has exercised his option as herein provided, but not otherwise, be paid in lieu of such pension at the rate of three-fourths of such pension together with a gratuity equal to twelve and a half times the amount of the annual reduction so made in the pension.

(2) The option referred to in subsection (1) shall be exercisable, and if it has been exercised, may be revoked, not later than the day immediately preceding the date of such person's retirement; but the Commission may, if it appears equitable to do so, allow him to exercise the option or revoke an option previously exercised at any time between that date and the actual date of the first payment of any pension under this Act.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), if such person has exercised the option referred to in subsection (1), his decision shall be irrevocable so far as concerns any pension paid to him under this Act.

(4) If a person who has not exercised the option dies after he has retired but before a pension has been paid under this Act, there shall be granted to his legal personal representative a gratuity and a reduced pension as provided for in subsection (1) as if such person before his death had exercised the option therein referred to, so however, that such pension shall not be paid in respect of any period later than the date of the death of such person and shall not exceed in the aggregate the total amount due and payable to him on the said date.

(5) The date of the exercise of the option by such person shall be deemed to be the date of the receipt of his written notification addressed to the chairman of the Commission.

12. (1) Where a person dies while he is entitled to receive a pension in respect of his service as Chief Justice and he leaves a widow, the widow shall be paid a pension at an annual rate equivalent to two-thirds of the pension payable to him at the date of his death. Widow of Chief Justice. [43 of 1976].

(2) Where a person dies while holding the office of Chief Justice and he leaves a widow, the widow shall be paid—

- (a) a gratuity of an amount equivalent to twelve and a half times one-quarter of his pensionable emoluments at the date of his death; and
- (b) a pension at an annual rate equivalent to one-half of his pensionable emoluments at the date of his death.

(3) A widow shall not be entitled to receive and shall not be paid a pension under this section in respect of any period after her remarriage.

(4) Where a person dies while holding the office of Chief Justice and he does not leave a widow, a gratuity equivalent to twelve and a half times one-quarter of his pensionable emoluments at the date of his death shall be paid to the legal personal representatives on account of the deceased person's estate.

(5) In this section a reference to "widow" includes a reference to "widower".

13. (1) Where a person dies while he is entitled to a pension in respect of his service as a Judge and he leaves a widow, the widow shall be paid a pension at an annual Widow of Judge. [43 of 1976].

rate equivalent to one-half of the pension payable to him at the date of his death.

(2) Where a person dies while holding the office of a Judge and he leaves a widow, the widow shall be paid—

- (a) a gratuity of an amount equivalent to twelve and a half times one-sixth of his pensionable emoluments at the date of his death; and
- (b) a pension at an annual rate equivalent to one-quarter of the pensionable emoluments payable to him at the date of his death.

(3) A widow shall not be entitled to receive and shall not be paid a pension under this section in respect of any period after her remarriage.

(4) Where a person dies while holding the office of a Judge and he does not leave a widow, a gratuity of an amount equivalent to twelve and a half times one-sixth of the pensionable emoluments payable to him at the date of his death shall be paid to the legal personal representatives on account of the deceased person's estate.

(5) Nothing in this Act shall affect the rights of a widow of any Judge, including the Chief Justice under the Widows' and Orphans' Pensions Act or any other law.

(6) In this section—

- “Judge” does not include the Chief Justice;
- “widow” includes widower.

(7) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the 31st August, 1962.

Widows' and Orphans'
Pensions.
Ch. 23:54.

14. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 2 and 3 of the Widows' and Orphans' Pensions Act every Judge is eligible to be a contributor under that Act and the provisions of that Act in relation to the payment of pensions to widows and orphans of deceased public officers applies to the office of Judge.

Pension not assignable or attachable.

15. No pension, gratuity or other allowance granted under this Act shall be assignable or transferable, or liable to be attached, sequestered or levied upon, for or in respect of any debt or claim whatsoever other than a debt due to the State.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS

16. (1) The President may make Regulations generally ^{Regulations.} for the carrying out of the provisions of this Act, and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make Regulations relating to the conditions of service of, and the allowances payable to, a Judge.

(2) Whenever the President is satisfied that it is equitable that any regulation made under subsection (1) should have retrospective effect in order to confer a benefit upon or remove a disability attaching to any person, that regulation may be given retrospective effect for that purpose.
