(2) Section 2 of the Firearms Act applies for the interpretation of such expressions as are referred to in paragraphs (m) and (n), and are defined in the Firearms Act.

Registration of bands

3. (1) The leader of a band—

- (a) of more than fifty persons, shall register his band not later than Thursday 12th February, 2004, with the Senior Superintendent or Superintendent of Police in charge of the Police Division in which the leader resides and on registration the Senior Superintendent or Superintendent of Police shall assign a registration number to the band.
- (b) shall ensure that his band is identified by a banner on which the name and registration number of the band are inscribed in a conspicuous manner; and

(c) of more than fifty persons, shall produce the certificate of registration of the band at the request of any member of the Police Service, Special Reserve Police, the Supplemental, City or Borough Police in uniform.

(2) For the purpose of this Regulation “leader” means the person responsible for the organization of the band.

4. (1) The leader of an orchestra shall not allow his orchestra to play on the road unless he has registered its name and the names and addresses of its members with the Senior Superintendent or Superintendent of Police in charge of the Police Division in which the leader resides and on registration the Senior Superintendent or Superintendent of Police shall assign a registration number to the orchestra.

(2) The leader of an orchestra shall ensure that his orchestra is identified by a banner on both sides of which the name of the orchestra and the registration number are inscribed in a conspicuous manner.

(3) The leader of an orchestra shall produce the certificate of registration for the orchestra at the request of any member of the Police Service, Special Reserve Police, the Supplemental, City or Borough Police, in uniform.

5. (1) A motor vehicle shall not be used to convey the members of any orchestra or any person masked or facially disguised, unless a licence has been issued by the Senior Superintendent or Superintendent of Police in charge of the Police Division in which the owner of the motor vehicle resides.

(2) The owner of the motor vehicle shall make an application for a licence not later than Monday 16th February, 2004 and the application shall contain—

- (a) the names and addresses of the persons to be conveyed;
- (b) the name of the band to which the persons belong; and
- (c) the names and addresses of the persons, not more than three in number, who would be driving the motor vehicle during Carnival.

(3) A member of the Police Service, Special Reserve Police, the Supplemental, City or Borough Police, may stop and search any motor vehicle in which there is a person who is masked or facially disguised or may require any person in the motor vehicle to give his name and address.

Penalty 6. A person who during the period of Carnival contravenes any of these Regulations is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months.

Duration 7. These Regulations apply for the period of Carnival 2004, as declared by Order of the President dated the 10th day of February, 2004, issued under section 5 of the Public Holidays and Festivals Act.
