PART I.

PROTECTION OF CREDITORS.

3. For the avoiding and abolishing of feigned, covinous, and fraudulent gifts, grants, alienations, conveyances, bonds, suits, judgments, and executions, as well of lands and tenements as of goods and chattels, devised and contrived of malice, fraud, covin, collusion, or guile, to the end, purpose, and intent to delay, hinder, or defraud creditors and others of their just and lawful actions, suits, debts, accounts, damages, penalties, and forfeitures, all and every gift, grant, alienation, bargain, and conveyance of lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, and chattels, or of any of them, or of any lease, rent, or other profit or charge out of the same lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, and chattels, or any of them, by writing or otherwise, and all and every bond, suit, judgment, and execution at any time to be had or made to or for any intent or purpose before declared and expressed, shall be deemed and taken only as against that person or persons, his or their heirs, successors, executors, administrators, and assigns, and every of them, whose actions, suits, debts, accounts, damages, penalties, and forfeitures by such guileful, covinous, or fraudulent devises and practices as is aforesaid, are, shall, or might be in anywise disturbed, hindered, delayed, or defrauded, to be clearly and utterly void, frustrate, and of no effect; any pretence, colour, feigned consideration, expressing of use or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Conveyances made to defeat creditors to be void.

4. Anything in this Ordinance contained shall not extend to any estate or interest in lands, tenements, hereditaments, leases, rents, profits, goods, or chattels made, conveyed, or assured, which estate or interest shall be upon good consideration and bonâ fide lawfully conveyed or assured to any person or persons, or bodies politic or corporate, not having at the time of such conveyance or assurance to them made any manner of notice or knowledge of such covin, fraud, or collusion as is aforesaid, anything before mentioned to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proviso as to conveyances for good consideration.

PART II.

REMEDIES OF CREDITORS, ETC.

Operation of Judgments.

Judgment to operate as a charge on real estate.

5. Every judgment or decree to be entered up against any person in the Court shall operate as a charge upon all lands, tenements, rents, and hereditaments of or to which such person shall at the time of entering up such judgment or decree, or at any time afterwards, be seized, possessed, or entitled for any estate or interest whatever, whether in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy, or over which such person shall at the time of entering up such judgment or decree, or at any time afterwards, have any disposing power which he might without the assent of any other person exercise for his own benefit, and shall be binding as against the person against whom such judgment or decree shall be entered up, and against all persons claiming under him after such judgment or decree, and shall be also binding as against the issue of his body, and all other persons whom he might without the assent of any other person cut off and debar from any remainder, reversion, or other interest in or out of any of the said lands, tenements, rents, and hereditaments.

Decrees, orders, rules, etc., to have effect of judgments.

6. All decrees and orders of the Court made in any suit, and all rules of the Court made in any action, whereby any sum of money, or any costs, charges, or expenses shall be payable to any person, shall have the effect of judgments in the Court, and the persons to whom any such moneys or costs, charges or expenses shall be payable shall be deemed judgment creditors within the meaning of this Ordinance, and all remedies hereby given to judgment creditors are in like manner given to persons to whom any moneys or costs, charges or expenses are by such decrees, orders, or rules respectively directed to be paid.

No judgment, decree, etc., to affect real estate, until registered.

7. No judgment or decree of the Court shall affect any lands, tenements, or hereditaments as to purchasers, mortgagees, or creditors, or have any preference against heirs, executors, or administrators, in the administration of their ancestors', testators', or intestates' estates, any notice to any such purchaser, mortgagee, or creditor, or to any such heir, executor, or administrator notwithstanding, unless and until a memorandum or minute containing the name and the usual or last known place of abode and the trade or profession of the person whose estate is intended to be affected thereby, and the title of the cause or matter in which such judgment, decree, order, or rule shall have been obtained or made, and the date of such judgment, decree, order, or rule, and the amount of the debt, damages, costs, or moneys thereby recovered or ordered to be paid, shall be left with the Registrar-General, who shall forthwith enter the same particulars, together with the year and the day of the month when such memorandum or minute is so left with him, in a book in alphabetical order by the name of the person whose estate is intended to be affected by such judgment, decree, order, or rule, and the Registrar-General shall be entitled for any such entry to the sum of five shillings, and all persons shall be at liberty to search the same book on payment of the sum of two shillings and sixpence. (As amended by 29 of 1908, s. 2.)

8. Every judgment to be registered in the manner directed by this Ordinance shall entitle the creditor, by virtue of such judgment, decree, order, or rule, to the same remedies in equity against the hereditaments charged by virtue of this Ordinance, or any part thereof, as he would be entitled to in case the person against whom the judgment, decree, order, or rule shall have been so entered up had power to charge the same hereditaments, and had by writing under his hand agreed to charge the same with the amount of such judgment debt, or the amount made payable by such decree, order, or rule, and interest thereon. (S. 11 of 95 incorporated.)

Effect of judgments.

9. (1) All such judgments and decrees as shall be registered in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance shall, after the expiration of three years from the date of the entry thereof, be null and void against lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, as to purchasers, mortgagees, and creditors, and shall not have any preference against heirs, executors, or administrators in the administration of their ancestors', testators', or intestates' estates, unless a like memorandum or minute, as was required in the first instance, is again left with the Registrar-General within three years before the execution of the conveyance, settlement, mortgage, lease, or other deed or instrument vesting or transferring the right, title,

Judgments, decrees, etc., to be again registered after the expiration of three years.

estate, or interest in or to any such purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration, or as to creditors within three years before the right of such creditors accrued, or as to heirs, executors, or administrators within three years before the death of the testator or intestate, and so toties quoties at the expiration of every three years; and the Registrar-General shall forthwith re-enter the same in like manner as the same was originally entered, and shall be entitled for any such re-entry to the sum of five shillings. (As amended by 29 of 1908, s. 3.)

Effect of re-registry of judgments.

(2) Where, by this section, re-registry of judgments, decrees, orders, or rules is required within such period of three years as is therein mentioned, in order to bind purchasers, mortgagees, and creditors, or to secure such preference as is therein mentioned, it shall be deemed sufficient to bind such purchasers, mortgagees, and creditors and to secure such preference as aforesaid, if such memorandum or minute as was required in the first instance is again left with the Registrar-General within three years before the execution of the conveyance, settlement, mortgage, lease, or other deed or instrument vesting or transferring the legal or equitable right, title, estate, or interest in or to any such purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration, or as to creditors within three years before the right of such creditors accrued, or as to heirs, executors, or administrators within three years before the death of the testator or intestate, although more than three years shall have expired by effluxion of time since the last previous registration before such last mentioned memorandum or minute was left, and so toties quoties upon every re-registry. (S. 12 of 95 incorporated.)

Entry of satisfaction on registered judgments.

10. The Registrar-General shall, upon production of an office copy of the notice that the plaintiff's claim has been satisfied in any action, write a memorandum of satisfaction on the minute of registration (if any) of the judgment in such action, and across the entry of particulars required to be kept by section 7 of this Ordinance. (Added by 29 of 1908, s. 14.)

Legal estate vested in purchaser or mortgagee not to be taken in execution.

11. Where any legal or equitable estate or interest or any disposing power in or over any lands, tenements, or hereditaments shall under any conveyance or other instrument become vested in any person as a purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration, such lands, tenements, or hereditaments shall not be taken in execution under any writ of execution to be sued out upon any judgment, decree, order, or rule against any mortgagee or mortgagees thereof who shall have been paid off prior to or at the time of the execution of such conveyance or other instrument, nor shall any such judgment, decree, rule, or order, or any money thereby secured, be a charge upon such lands, tenements, or hereditaments so vested in such purchasers or mortgagees. (S. 24 of 92 incorporated.)

12. Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall extend to revive or restore any judgment which shall be extinguished or barred, or to affect or prejudice any such judgment, or any decree, order, or rule, as between the parties thereto, or their representatives, or those claiming as volunteers under them. (S. 14 of 95 incorporated.)

Revival of judgments.

13. Every judgment debt entered up shall carry interest at the rate of six pounds per centum per annum from the time of entering up the judgment until the same shall be satisfied, and such interest may be levied under a writ of execution on such judgment.

Judgment debt to carry interest.

14. If any person against whom any judgment shall have been entered up in the Court shall have any stock or shares of or in any public company carrying on business in the Colony (whether incorporated or not) standing in his name in his own right or in the name of any person in trust for him, it shall be lawful for a Judge on the application of any judgment creditor to order that such stock or shares, or such of them, or such part thereof respectively, as he shall think fit, shall stand charged with the payment of the amount for which judgment shall have been so recovered, and interest thereon, and such order shall entitle the judgment creditor to all such remedies as he would have been entitled to if such charge had been made in his favour by the judgment debtor.

Stock and shares of debtor standing in his name to be charged by order of a Judge.

15. In order to prevent any person against whom judgment shall have been obtained from transferring, receiving, or disposing of any stock or shares hereby authorized to be charged for the benefit of the judgment creditor under an order of a Judge, every order of a Judge charging any stock or shares in any public company under this Ordinance shall be made in the first instance ex parte, and without any notice to the judgment debtor, and shall be an order to show cause only; and such order, if any stock or shares of or in any public company, standing in the name of the judgment debtor in his own right, or in the name of any person in trust for him, is or are to be affected by any such order, shall restrain such public company from permitting a transfer thereof; and if after notice of such order to the person or persons to be restrained thereby, or, in case of corporations, to any authorized agent of such corporation, and before the same order shall be discharged or made absolute, such corporation or person or persons shall permit any such transfer to be made, then and in such case the corporation or person or persons so permitting such transfer shall be liable to the judgment creditor for the value or amount of the property so charged and so transferred, or such part thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy his judgment, and no disposition of the judgment debtor in the meantime shall be valid or effectual as against the judgment creditor; and further, unless the judgment debtor shall, within a time to be mentioned in such order, show to a Judge sufficient cause to the contrary, the said order shall, after proof of notice thereof to the judgment debtor, his attorney or agent, be made absolute: Provided that any Judge shall, upon the application of the judgment debtor or any person interested, have full power to discharge or vary such order, and to award such costs upon such application as he may think fit.

Order of Judge to be made in the first instance ex parte, and on notice to the company to restrain a transfer.

Interest vested or contingent in stock, interest, or dividends.

16. All the provisions hereinbefore contained with regard to the charging any stock or shares shall be deemed and taken to extend to the interest of any judgment debtor, whether in possession, remainder, or reversion, and whether vested or contingent, as well in any such stock or shares aforesaid as also in the dividends, interest, or annual produce of any such stock or shares.

No terceria allowed in respect of moveable property.

17. No proceeding by way of terceria shall be allowed in respect of any personal or moveable property, goods, debts, chattels, or effects taken in execution or levied upon or sold by the Marshal; but the Marshal shall be subject to such and the like actions at the suit of any person claiming any right in or to any such personal or moveable property, goods, debts, chattels, or effects or the proceeds or any part of the proceeds of the sale thereof, as the Sheriff would be subject to in the like case by the law of England.

Enforcement of Judgments on Personal Chattels.

18. Every judgment or order of the Court for the recovery from or payment by any person of an ascertained sum of money may be enforced by execution, the order for which shall be issued under the seal of the Court to the Marshal on payment of the prescribed fees.

Judgment for recovery of money enforceable by execution.

19. No order for execution shall issue unless the party requiring the same shall file a request for the same; such request shall contain the title of the action, the reference to the record, the date of the judgment, and the name of the party against whom the same is to be issued, and shall be signed by the solicitor of the party entitled thereto, or, if such party has appeared in person, by himself.

How order for execution shall issue.

20. The Marshal, in executing any writ of execution, shall not be bound to exhibit such writ to the defendant, unless requested by the defendant so to do, nor to demand satisfaction of such writ from the defendant, but it shall be lawful for the Marshal to make execution of any moveable property, and, in default thereof, of any immoveable property of the defendant, in the absence of and without any previous notice to the defendant, any law or custom to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Marshal need not exhibit writ, etc.

21. The order for execution shall not specify the mode in which, or the description of the property upon which, execution is to be levied. It shall bear the date of its issue, and be drawn by the party requiring it, and be endorsed with the name and address of the solicitor applying for it together with the name and address of the solicitor, if any, for whom he acts as agent in so applying; or with a memorandum (according to the fact) that the same has been obtained by the party entitled thereto in person, and a sufficient address of such party, and be approved by the Registrar, and bear the seal of the Court, and be issued to the party entitled thereto, who shall deliver the same to the Marshal for enforcement.

Effect of order for execution.

22. On receipt of an order for execution, the Marshal shall forthwith proceed in the first instance to levy the amount authorized, or so much thereof as is capable of being levied, together with the prescribed costs of execution, by Marshal in first instance to execute order by seizure of goods.

seizure and sale of the personal goods and chattels and effects of the debtor, other than chattel interests in land.

Marshal may seize money, bank notes, etc.

23. (1) By virtue of any writ of execution to be sued out of the Court, or any precept in pursuance thereof, the Marshal may and shall seize and take any money or bank notes, and any cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties, or other securities for money belonging to the person against whose effects such writ of execution shall be sued out, and also may and shall levy upon and attach any securities which may be registered whereby any money may be secured to be paid to the person against whose effects such writ of execution shall be sued out, or to any person in trust for him; and may and shall pay or deliver to the party suing out such execution any money or bank notes which shall be so seized or a sufficient part thereof; and may and shall hold any such cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties, or other securities for money as a security or securities for the amount by such writ of execution directed to be levied, or so much thereof as shall not have been otherwise levied and raised.

And pay same to execution creditor.

And sue for amount secured by bills of exchange.

(2) The Marshal may sue in his own name for the recovery of any sum secured on any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, bond, specialty, or other security, if and when the time of payment thereof shall have arrived; and the payment to the Marshal by the party liable on any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, bond, specialty, or other security, with or without suit, or the recovery and levying execution against the party so liable, shall discharge him to the extent of such payment, or of such recovery and levy in execution, as the case may be, from his liability on any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, bond, specialty, or other security.

(3) The Marshal may and shall pay over to the party suing out such writ the money so to be recovered, or such part thereof as shall be sufficient to discharge the amount by such writ directed to be levied, and if after satisfaction of the amount so to be levied, together with expenses, any surplus shall remain in the hands of such Marshal, the same shall be paid to the party against whom such writ shall be so issued.

Proviso as to indemnity for Marshal.

(4) The Marshal shall not be bound to sue any party liable upon any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, bond, specialty, or other security, unless the party suing out such execution shall enter into a bond with one sufficient surety for indemnifying him from all costs and expenses to be incurred in the prosecution of such action, or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof, the expense of such bond to be deducted out of any money to be recovered in such action. (Added by 19 of 1923, s. 2.)

24. The Marshal shall not be compelled to levy unless the execution creditor or his solicitor or agent shall have given him on demand instructions in writing stating the name, residence, and place of business of the party against whom the execution is issued, or to levy on any property real or personal until the same is pointed out or otherwise sufficiently indicated to him by the execution creditor or some person authorized on his behalf.

Marshal not compelled to levy except upon written instructions.

25. All chattels and other personal property seized by the Marshal under any order of execution shall be sold by the Marshal for ready money, and for the best price which can be obtained for the same, at public sale as soon as conveniently may be after six clear days' notice of sale in some public newspaper of the Colony.

Goods and chattels to be sold by Marshal for cash.

26. (1) If the personal property or any part thereof taken in execution shall consist of a moveable house or other chattel in the nature of a tenant's fixture on any land, the Marshal shall not complete his levy by sale thereof till after ten days shall have expired from the service on the owner of the land or the person in actual receipt of the rent, of notice of his levy on such house or chattel.

Ten days' notice of sale to be served on landlord where moveable house or other tenant's fixture taken in execution.

(2) In the event of the Marshal being unable to ascertain the owner of the land or the person in receipt of rent, such notice as in this section provided may be served by leaving a copy thereof with any person in actual occupation of the land or of any house or tenement thereon.

Service of notice when owner not ascertained.

(3) Any claim or objection made by or on behalf of the owner of the land within ten days from service of such notice shall be dealt with by the Marshal by way of interpleader, in manner provided by the Rules of Court for the time being in force in respect of interpleader. In the absence of any such claim or objection, the Marshal shall proceed to complete his levy by sale at the expiration of such Claim or objection by owner of land to be determined by way of interpleader.

On expiration of notice without claim or objection, Marshal to sell.

ten days, and such sale shall be valid and effectual against such owner or any person claiming under him.

Marshal to endorse on order result of levy and to notify execution creditor.

27. The Marshal shall endorse on the order for execution the result of any levy made by him on the personal property of the execution debtor, or, if the fact be so, that no goods of such debtor have been pointed out, or otherwise indicated, or are otherwise known to him, on which a levy can be made, and shall forthwith, before returning the same into Court, give notice of such endorsement to the execution creditor or his solicitor.

Enforcement of Judgments on Lands.

Remedies by sale of debtor's interest in lands where goods insufficient to satisfy order for execution.

28. In respect of any sum recoverable, after giving credit for any sum realized by the sale of chattels under section 22 of this Ordinance, the creditor shall, at any time after the Marshal shall have made such return as is in the last preceding section mentioned, be entitled, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, to an order for the sale of any beneficial interest of the execution debtor in any lands, tenements, and hereditaments within the Colony, whether such interest be legal or equitable, or be of a freehold or chattel nature, or be several or joint or in common with others, and whether in possession, reversion, or remainder. Such order is in this Ordinance referred to as an "order for sale."

"Order for sale."

Marshal to levy on goods which before actual sale of land shall become known to him to be the debtor's.

29. Provided always, that it shall be the duty of the Marshal, when called upon by either the execution creditor or the debtor, at any time before any actual sale of any interest in land under the provisions hereof, to execute the order for execution by levying upon any personal chattels of the debtor that may be pointed out, or otherwise become known to him.

"Order for sale" obtainable on a "Summons for sale."

30. An order for sale shall be obtained by the party entitled thereto on a summons to be heard by a Judge in Chambers (in this Ordinance referred to as a "summons for sale") to be entitled in the action or other proceeding in course of which the order for execution has been made.

Substituted service, and service on and appearance for parties represented.

31. The Rules and Orders of the Court for the time being in force as to substituted service and notice in lieu of service shall be applicable to the service of a summons for sale and of notice thereof; and it shall be lawful for a Judge, at his discretion, to direct that any one of any class of persons interested jointly or in common for any interest, other than the fee simple in possession, legal or equitable, of and in any lands, may be served with, or having been served may appear to, any summons for sale on behalf of or as representing the other or others of such class, and any trustee shall, for the purpose of such summons, be deemed to represent his cestuis que trustent, and any executor or administrator, beneficiaries under a will or intestacy, except in so far as the Judge may otherwise direct, and be served and appear on their behalf.

32. If any person alleged or found to be interested in any lands the subject of a summons for sale shall be resident out of the Colony, service of such summons may be effected in such manner and on such conditions as shall for the time being be in force with respect to the service of a writ of summons. Or the Judge may in his discretion direct the proceedings to continue, and make an order for sale without affecting the interest of such absent person.

Service of summons for sale on absent person. Judge may order sale without affecting such interest.

33. Parties, other than the judgment debtor, attending a summons for sale or any adjournment thereof, may be ordered to enter an appearance thereto, and shall be entitled to such costs of attending and appearance and subsequent proceedings as the Judge shall order, to be paid by the execution creditor and be charged by him against the interest of the execution debtor, if any.

Parties and costs of parties, other than debtors, attending summons for sale.

34. The Marshal shall, at the written request of the creditor or his solicitor, and upon receiving the prescribed fee, make execution for the judgment debt and costs by seizure of any lands of which the execution debtor is in actual possession; and in such case his endorsement on the order for execution shall state the fact of his having so seized, and also the nature and extent of the interest of the debtor alleged by the creditor in justification of his requiring the Marshal so to seize. The Marshal shall forthwith return the order for execution into Court so endorsed, together with a statement of the extent and description of the lands and hereditaments so seized, and he shall notify the execution creditor or his solicitor of such return.

Marshal on request of creditor to seize lands pending hearing of summons for sale.

Particulars to be endorsed on order for execution.

Summons for sale to be taken out where return shows that interest of debtor is not in possession, or that entry would affect third parties.

35. On the return of the order for execution so endorsed, or without any seizure or any return thereof in cases in which it is shown that the available interest in any land of the debtor is not in actual possession or cannot be subjected to immediate entry or seizure without prejudicially affecting the rights of other persons not parties to the proceedings, the execution creditor may in the prescribed manner take out a summons for sale, to be served upon the execution debtor or any other person sought to be affected by the order to be made thereon, and the Marshal shall be a party to every such summons and shall attend the same.

Summons to be served in the same way as originating summons, and to be supported by affidavit of particulars of debtor's interest in lands.

36. The summons in the last preceding section provided for shall be served in the same way as an originating summons in the Court, and shall be returnable on a convenient day not less than six days from the service thereof on the last of the persons to be served; and at the hearing thereof the creditor shall produce an affidavit stating, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the deponent, the title to the hereditaments sought to be affected, and the nature, extent, and value of the interest of the debtor and of other material persons therein, and referring by their registered numbers to the material deeds and assurances affecting the same; and any person served therewith may be heard, and the debtor and such witnesses may be subpoenaed on behalf of the execution creditor and of any persons (other than the debtor) served with the summons, as may be required, and may be examined on oath touching the respective rights, titles, interests, and equities in the premises sought to be affected of the debtor and of such persons respectively.

Summons for sale to issue on filing of affidavit by registered judgment creditor.

37. A summons for sale may also issue without the issue of any order for execution by any judgment creditor whose judgment is registered and the registration of which is in force and effective, on the filing of an affidavit showing, to the best of the knowledge of the applicant or other deponent, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments to which it is alleged the debtor was beneficially entitled at the time of registration of such judgment, or at any time after such registration and before the issue of such summons for sale, and the nature of such beneficial interest, and referring by their registered numbers to the material deeds and assurances affecting the premises, and giving the names and addresses of the persons to be served with such summons. (Substituted by 29 of 1908, s. 4.)

38. If at the return of the summons for sale it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Judge that the debtor was at the time of the registration of such judgment, or at any time after such registration and before the issue of such summons for sale, entitled to the sole immediate unconditional beneficial interest, legal or equitable, in the lands sought to be affected, or in any several and ascertained portion thereof, there shall be a declaration accordingly, and the same shall be ordered to be sold on such conditions as to advertisement, date, conditions of sale, description, reserved price, if any, and otherwise, as the Judge shall by his order direct, and the Registrar shall, after such sale has been confirmed as hereinafter provided, execute and deliver to the purchaser thereof, without further order, a conveyance thereof in fee, to be prepared by the purchaser and which shall (subject as to land under the Real Property Ordinance to the provisions of that Ordinance) have the same effect as if the execution debtor had conveyed the same to the purchaser for all his estate and interest therein. (As amended by 29 of 1908, s. 5.)

On return of summons, Judge may order unconditional beneficial interest of debtor in lands to be sold.

Cap. 160.

39. If at the hearing of the summons it shall appear that the debtor was at the time of the registration of such judgment, or at any time after such registration and before the issue of such summons for sale, entitled to any several beneficial legal or equitable estate or interest in the premises sought to be affected, other than the sole immediate unconditional beneficial interest, legal or equitable, or is solely entitled to any present chattel interest therein, the Judge shall by his order declare the nature and extent of such beneficial interest, and such declaration shall be binding on all persons duly summoned either in person or by service thereof on some person as representing a class, and all persons claiming under them respectively, and the same may in like manner be sold, and a conveyance thereof given by the Registrar by the description so declared, and the effect of such conveyance shall be the same as if the debtor had executed the same. (As amended by 29 of 1908, s. 8.)

Nature and extent of interest of debtor entitled in severalty to be declared by Judge at hearing of summons.

40. If it is made to appear that the beneficial interest of the debtor in such lands at the time of the registration of such judgment, or at any time after such registration and before the issue of such summons for sale, whether legal or equitable, is not several but is joint or in common with other persons, the Judge may, if it appear to be for the general benefit of all persons concerned, with the consent of the persons jointly or in common interested (ascertained, if any of them are married women, as is provided by law with respect to the acknowledgment of deeds by married women), and with the consent of the guardian of any infant in case the Judge deems the same to be for the benefit of such infant, direct the sale to be made in preference to all or any of the parties interested jointly or in common with the debtor, on such conditions as to price and otherwise as may seem fit. And in default of a satisfactory offer of purchase as in this section provided, the Judge may direct the interest of the debtor to be sold by public auction by such description, with such reserve, if any, and subject to such conditions of sale as may seem fit. (As amended by 29 of 1908, s. 9.)

sale of such interest to be by auction.

42. With the consent of any person or persons interested in such lands for any of the interests described in the two last preceding sections, who are not under any disability other than coverture, and in the case of a married woman with her consent ascertained as is provided by law with respect to the acknowledgment of deeds, and on such terms as to the application of the purchase money and otherwise as may be just or may be agreed upon, the Judge may order that the beneficial interest of any such person or persons attending the summons or represented thereat shall be included in the sale of the interest of the debtor, and may give such person or persons liberty to bid. And if it shall be made to appear that it is for the benefit of any infant beneficially interested that his interest should be sold, the Judge shall have power, with the consent of his guardian, to direct accordingly.

Interest of infants or others interested may be included in sale of the interest of any debtor.

43. Any separate estate of a married woman debtor, legal or equitable, as to which she is under no present restraint on anticipation, may be made available by any creditor who has obtained judgment against her separate estate by proceedings under this Ordinance in the same way as if she were a feme sole seised in her own right.

Estate of married woman in certain cases to be dealt with as if she were a feme sole.

44. The equitable beneficial interest of a mortgagor in possession may, on the return of the summons, be dealt with by ordering a sale of the equity of redemption subject to the mortgage or mortgages affecting the property, or by the appointment of a receiver subject and without prejudice to the rights of the mortgagees, or, at the option of the creditor, by ordering the interest of the debtor to be transferred to him, and possession of the property given to him as a puisne encumbrancer for the amount of his debt and costs, and no order shall be made on the return of the summons against or affecting the interest of a bonâ fide mortgagee in possession except an order letting in the judgment creditor to redeem in due course as a puisne encumbrancer, on payment of the costs of the mortgagee in possession, nor shall such order be made unless the mortgagee has been served with the summons for sale.

Mortgagor's interest may be dealt with subject to encumbrances. Interest of mortgagee in possession not to be affected except by order allowing creditor to redeem.

45. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance contained, a summons for sale may also issue by any judgment creditor whose judgment is registered and the Summons for sale of right, title, and interest of debtor in lands, etc.

registration of which is in force and effective, on the filing of an affidavit showing, to the best of the knowledge of the deponent, any lands, tenements, or hereditaments of which the debtor was in actual or constructive possession at the time of the registration of such judgment, or at any time between such registration and the date of the issue of such summons for sale.

Order for sale of right, title, and interest of debtor in lands, etc.

(2) On the return of such summons, the Judge may, in his discretion, order the sale of the right, title, and interest of the debtor in such lands, and the right, title, and interest in such lands of any person party to such summons claiming through or under the debtor by any act or assurance happening or executed after the registration of such judgment, on sufficient evidence by affidavit that the debtor was in actual or constructive possession of such lands after the registration of such judgment, and that the applicant's solicitor has failed to trace the debtor's title thereto after making proper and diligent search for that purpose: Provided that any sale so ordered shall only be binding on the defendant or other party to such summons claiming through or under him. (Added by 29 of 1908, s. 11.)

When estate may be vested in new trustee.

46. The Judge may, on the return of the summons, in case it is doubtful in whom the legal estate in the lands was vested at the time of the registration of such judgment, or at any time after such registration and before the issue of such summons for sale, or in case of the absence from the Colony of any bare trustee, make such order vesting the legal estate as is provided by the Trustee Ordinance. (Substituted by 29 of 1908, s. 10.)

Cap. 50.

Title to be referred to a barrister or conveyancer in certain cases.

47. The Judge may, at his discretion, on the return of a summons for sale, or on any adjournment thereof, in any case, and shall in any of the following cases, that is to say:—

- (1) When it is made to appear that the value of the premises sought to be affected exceeds one hundred pounds;
- (2) When required to do so by or on behalf of the execution creditor;
- (3) When it is made to appear that the debtor is entitled to any several beneficial legal or equitable estate or interest in the premises other than the sole immediate unconditional beneficial interest therein;

- (4) When it is made to appear that the debtor is entitled to an interest, legal or equitable, which is not several but is joint or in common with other persons, or to an interest which is in reversion or remainder and not in possession, or to an estate for life or for an estate or term (other than a term of years certain) terminable on the happening of any event, direct that a barrister or conveyancer to be named by such Judge, not being concerned as counsel or solicitor on the summons, shall report to him as to the title of the defendant at the time of the registration of such judgment, or at any time after such registration and before the issue of such summons for sale, to the premises in respect of which any order for sale is applied for. And the fact of the order for such report being so made shall be entered on, and the report itself when made shall be filed with, the proceedings in every such case. The fee of such barrister or conveyancer shall be according to the scale of fees to be prescribed under the provisions of section 71 of this Ordinance; and shall in each case be paid in the first instance by the execution creditor or other the party having the carriage of the proceedings, and shall be a charge on the proceeds of any sale under the order. (As amended by 29 of 1908, s. 6.)

48. The Judge may, on the return of a summons, direct the trial, in any manner applicable to the trial of any issue in an action, of any question arising between the judgment creditor and the debtor or any person claiming to be entitled to any estate or interest in lands to which the debtor is alleged to have been entitled at the time of the registration of such judgment, or at any time after such registration and before the issue of such summons for sale, either as to the legal ownership of such lands, or the validity of any disputed title thereto or interest therein, or as to the bonâ fides or validity of any alleged conveyance, settlement, gift, mortgage, or other alienation thereof, or as to any dispute respecting the parcels of any such conveyance, settlement, or gift, or as to the extent and nature of any interest therein, and for the purposes of such trial

Judge may direct issue between judgment creditor and others interested to be tried as in an action.

may give such directions as to notices, pleadings, discovery, and otherwise, as may by any interlocutory order be given before trial in any action in the Court. (As amended by 29 of 1908, s. 7.)

Judge may order sale by any proper description or in lots and on terms and conditions.

49. On every order for sale, the Judge may order the sale of the beneficial interest of the debtor by such proper description as "estate in fee," "for life," or otherwise as shall appear to him to be accurate, and in such lots or a lot so described, and subject to such conditions of sale and title as may seem fit, and shall give such directions as to advertisements, time and place of sale, the conduct of the sale, conditions, description, reserved biddings and otherwise as may seem fit, and, on confirmation of a sale, a conveyance in accordance with such directions shall without further order (subject as regards land under the Real Property Ordinance to the provisions of that Ordinance) be executed by the Registrar in such form as may be settled between the party having conduct of the sale and the purchaser, and if they shall disagree, by a Judge; and such sale shall, subject as aforesaid, in every case confer valid and effectual title according to the purport of such conveyance against all persons served with the summons for sale, and all parties claiming through and under them respectively: Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the indefeasibility of the title of a registered proprietor under the said Ordinance.

Cap. 160.

Effect of sale.

Part of debtor's lands may be ordered to be sold.

50. It shall be lawful for the Judge, on the application of the debtor on the hearing of a summons for sale, to direct that such portion of the land as may be made to appear sufficient to satisfy the execution be sold in the first instance; but this section shall not be construed to deprive a creditor of his right to satisfaction of his debt from any other part of the land seized.

Cattle and other stock may be directed to be sold with any plantation.

51. It shall be lawful for the Judge to direct that any cattle, live or dead stock of the judgment debtor used for the cultivation of any plantation or lands of the debtor shall be sold together with such plantation or lands in one or several lots as may seem fit, and the Marshal shall not in any such case remove such cattle or stock, and the reasonable costs and charges of keeping such cattle or stock until the same shall be sold shall be allowed to the Marshal, who shall retain the same from the proceeds of such sale.

52. It shall be lawful for the Judge, in the order for sale, to authorize a sale by private contract to any purchaser by consent of the parties to the summons for sale and of such purchaser, and by like consent to direct a conveyance to be executed by the Registrar at such time, and for such price, and on such conditions, if any, as such parties may consent to.

Private sale may be sanctioned.

53. It shall be lawful for the Judge, in his discretion, to direct as a condition of sale that the purchase money for any lands sold if exceeding two hundred pounds shall, as to any portion thereof not exceeding one moiety, be payable in such instalments not exceeding four, with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, at such intervals as may seem fit, the last payment in no case to be deferred beyond four years from date of sale, and the Judge may at any time direct an assurance to be executed by the purchaser to secure the proper payment of such instalments, and may settle the draft or form thereof.

Purchase money on sale by Marshal payable by instalments.

54. If it shall not appear desirable that the ascertained beneficial interest of the debtor should be sold, the Judge may, at the return of the summons, order further execution by sale of land to be stayed till further order, and may award equitable execution by the appointment of a receiver in respect of the beneficial interest of the execution debtor, or may appoint the creditor, or any person nominated by him, receiver thereof without remuneration, or may, on such terms as may be just, and at the cost of the creditor to be charged by him against the beneficial interest of the execution debtor, appoint a receiver of the entire rents and profits of the said land or of any part thereof, or may order any person in receipt of such rents or profits to pay into Court the whole or such proportion thereof as shall be directed to the credit of the cause or matter, for such time or to such amount as shall be just.

Sale may be stayed and receiver appointed.

55. Forthwith after any sale, the auctioneer or other person conducting the sale shall return to the Registrar, and the Registrar shall screen and, if the Judge so direct, advertise a report of the result of the sale, stating

Result of auction to be returned by auctioneer to Registrar who shall screen same.

the price obtained and the name and address of the highest bidder. And if the reserve price, if any, fixed by the Judge has been reached, such report, unless in the meantime objected to by or on behalf of any party to the summons, or by or on behalf of the purchaser or some other bidder at such sale, shall, at the expiration of ten days from the date of the same first having been screened, be deemed confirmed without any application for the purpose, and the contract of sale may at any time thereafter be enforced on the application of the party having conduct of the sale, or of the highest bidder, as the case may be, by order of the Judge, either for the payment of the purchase money, or for the execution of a deed of conveyance, or for a transfer under the Real Property Ordinance, as the case may be.

Confirmation of sale.

Cap. 160.

Objection to confirmation of report to be filed in Registry.

Grounds of objection.

56. Any objection to the confirmation of the report shall be filed in the Registry within ten days of the screening of the report, and may be made by any party to the summons for sale, or by the purchaser, or by any bidder at such sale, and on the following grounds only: irregularity or improper conduct at the sale; improper admission or rejection of bids; non-compliance with the directions of the order for sale; and, if on behalf of a purchaser, fraud or misconduct relating to the sale on the part of the party having the conduct thereof; bonâ fide mistake; or defective title discovered after the sale, or that the property and estate described in the conditions of sale are not capable of being validly conveyed according to such conditions.

Procedure in case of objection.

57. Any such ground of objection as in the last preceding section provided shall be taken by affidavit entitled in the action, specifying the ground of objection and stating the facts relied on in support thereof, which shall be laid before a Judge, who may direct the Registrar to summon before him, on adjournment of the summons for sale, such of the parties to the summons for sale as he may deem necessary to hear on the question raised by the affidavit, and shall dispose of the question raised by such affidavit (having obtained and considered such further evidence on affidavit or otherwise as he shall think fit) either by confirming the sale, or by annulling the same and ordering a re-sale, and in either case unconditionally, or on such conditions as to specific performance with compensation, entire or partial re-sale, or conditional re-opening of sale, additional restriction, or the removal of restrictions, leave to bid, and otherwise, as he may think fit, and may deal with the costs of such adjourned summons, and of all subsequent proceedings, as he may think fit. Any party not a party to the summons for sale whom the Judge deems a proper party to be served with the adjourned summons shall be so served, and shall, if he desires to be heard, enter an appearance to such summons.

58. If the reserved bid fixed on the order for sale is not reached at the sale, the auctioneer or other person conducting the sale shall so inform the highest bidder, and shall return a report of the bid to the Registrar, but the same shall not be screened or advertised. Within five days after such sale it shall be competent for the party having conduct of the sale, or for the highest bidder, as the case may be, but for no other party, to apply on adjournment of the summons for sale, on a four-day's notice to the other of them, to the Judge for a confirmation of the highest bidder as purchaser, notwithstanding that such reserved bid has not been reached. And the Judge, on hearing such summons, may refuse such application, or may grant the same by confirming the sale to such bidder, and either unconditionally or subject to such further increase of bid, if any, as may seem fit, or may adjourn the same for such further information, or for the attendance of such other parties, as he may think fit.

Procedure when reserved bid not reached.

59. The cost of any such application as in the last preceding section provided shall be borne in the first instance by the applicant, but the Judge may, in his discretion, in the event of his confirming a sale, direct the reimbursement of the same out of the purchase money.

Cost of application for confirmation of sale.

60. The purchase money, in the case of any sale of land, shall be paid into Court without any deduction, and the proper costs of the party having conduct of the sale, and any costs of any party attending the summons for sale or any adjournment thereof, which shall have been allowed, whether taxed or settled by the Judge, shall be a first charge thereon.

Purchase money to be paid into Court without deduction, and costs to be a first charge.

Registrar to convey lands judicially sold.

61. The Registrar shall have power by deed to convey any lands, tenements, or hereditaments which may be sold by him, subject always to the payment of any part of the purchase money thereof remaining unpaid with interest, which shall be a first charge on the estate and interest of the purchaser in the lands, tenements, and hereditaments so conveyed; and every such conveyance so executed by the Registrar, when registered, shall have the same force and effect as if the same had been executed by the person bound by the decree or against whom the writ shall have issued.

Order of Court for sale of interest in land to be carried out in same way as order under section 28.

62. Where, in any action or other proceeding in the Court, an order is made for the sale of any land the subject of such action or other proceeding, the sale shall proceed in the same manner as if the judgment or order for the sale thereof had been an order for sale within the provisions of section 28 of this Ordinance; and such judgment or order shall, for the purpose of regulating and providing for the time and manner and conditions of such sale, stand referred to a Judge in Chambers, and shall be dealt with by such Judge in the same manner in all respects as if the same had been an order for sale under the provisions of section 28 of this Ordinance made by such Judge, and all the powers herein contained shall be exercisable by the Judge to whom such judgment or order shall have been so referred.

Order for possession against person wrongly retaining possession.

63. If any party to the summons for sale, or any one claiming through or under such party by any act or assurance happening or executed after the registration of such judgment, or, in the case of a sale ordered in an action or other proceeding under the provisions of the last preceding section, after the date of the judgment or order, retains and refuses to deliver possession of the property sold or any part thereof, the purchaser may issue a summons to the party so retaining possession to show cause why an order to deliver up possession should not be made against such party in favour of such purchaser, and such summons shall be made returnable not less than six days from the date of the issuing thereof, and on the hearing the Judge may, upon proof that such purchaser is entitled to immediate possession, order the party served with such summons to deliver up immediate possession of the lands so sold, and may make such order in respect to the costs of such summons as may be just; and any person failing to obey such order forthwith on being served with the same shall be deemed guilty of contempt of court, and an order of possession may be issued directing the Marshal, with such assistance as in such writ shall be directed, to enter upon such lands and deliver possession thereof to such purchaser, and any person obstructing or resisting the Marshal or any assistant of the Marshal in the execution of such order shall be guilty of contempt of court. (As amended by 29 of 1908, s. 13.)

Refusal to obey such order a contempt.

64. Every order made by a Judge on a summons for sale, or on any adjournment thereof, shall be subject to appeal to the Full Court, and such appeal shall be had and determined in manner appointed by law or rule in force for the time being with respect to appeals from interlocutory orders.

Appeal against order made on summons for sale.

Lites Pendentes.

65. No lis pendens shall bind a purchaser or mortgagee without express notice thereof, unless and until a memorandum or minute containing the name and the usual or last known place of abode, and the title, trade, or profession of the person whose estate is intended to be affected thereby, and the title of the cause or information, and the day when the bill or information was filed, shall be left with the Registrar-General, who shall forthwith enter the same particulars in a book to be kept by him, in alphabetical order by the name of the person whose estate is intended to be affected by such lis pendens; and the provisions of this Ordinance in regard to the re-entering of judgments every three years shall extend to every case of lis pendens which shall be registered under the provisions of this Ordinance. (S. 15 of 95 incorporated.)

Lis pendens.

PART III.

PROVISIONS FOR OBTAINING INDEFEASIBLE TITLE TO LAND PURCHASED UNDER THIS ORDINANCE.

66. Whenever a barrister or conveyancer has reported on the title of the defendant as in section 47 of this Ordinance provided, it shall be lawful for the purchaser, or any person claiming through or under him, to apply at any time after the confirmation of the report of a sale of land under the provisions of this Ordinance, and if such confirmation Purchaser may apply to bring land purchased under Real Property Ordinance.

Cap. 160.

is conditional, then on satisfactory proof by affidavit of the due performance of the conditions thereof, under sections 8 and 9 of the Real Property Ordinance, for such land to be brought under the provisions of the said Ordinance, and the application shall in such case, in addition to the matters required to be therein set out as in Form A of the First Schedule to such Ordinance, cite the order for sale and set out the order or report by virtue whereof it is alleged that the sale has been confirmed, and also all mesne assurances, matters, and things by which the title to the said land has been transferred, encumbered, or otherwise affected subsequently to such confirmation; and such application shall be accompanied by an affidavit that, to the knowledge of the applicant, no such mesne assurance, matter, or thing has been effected or exists other than as in such affidavit set forth; and office copies of the writ in the action in the course of which the order for sale was made, of the order for sale, and of the order confirming the sale, and of the report of the barrister or conveyancer, shall in each such case be deposited by the applicant under section 10 of the said Ordinance.

Proceedings under summons and order for sale not to be questioned by Registrar-General, except as to omission of parties.
Cap. 160.

67. Every such application shall be subject, according to the nature of the interest claimed by the applicant, to paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 8 of the Real Property Ordinance respectively; but, in dealing therewith as in the last preceding section provided, the Registrar-General and the Examiner of Titles respectively shall not exercise any of the powers in section 6 (paragraphs (1) and (2)) and section 12 of the said Ordinance contained, except in respect of assurances that have been made or omitted, or things that have happened or failed to happen, subsequent to the confirmation of the sale, nor shall the Registrar-General enter a caveat under the provisions of paragraph (5) of the said section 6 in respect of any matter or omission affecting the regularity of the order for sale, except the omission to serve any necessary party with the summons for sale, or in respect of any proceedings in the Court upon which the order for sale was founded, or of any proceedings in the Court subsequent to such order and antecedent to the confirmation:

Parties represented on summons not to be deemed omitted.

Provided always, that in the event of its being made to appear that the Judge on the order for sale, or, in the case of a sale under section 62 of this Ordinance, the Judge in the action, has directed service on one of several parties having the same interest on behalf or for the benefit of all parties so interested, or has appointed some person or persons to represent any heirs at law, next of kin, or class, no person entitled (whether sui juris or not) shall be deemed a necessary party omitted to be served within the provisions of this section, on the ground that he was not served with the summons for sale or in the action, as the case may be, if any party has been authorized to defend or appear on his behalf or to be served as representing him or his class, and has appeared or been so served accordingly.

68. In applications under this Part of this Ordinance, the time appointed under sections 14 and 15 of the Real Property Ordinance for bringing the land under the Real Property Ordinance, in the absence of caveat, shall be twelve months, unless a Judge of the Court shall, on the application of the purchaser or other person applying, for good cause, order any other time; and any mesne purchaser acquiring title to such land from the applicant during such twelve months or other time may, at his discretion, proceed with such application in his own name without thereby incurring any fee or charge other than such as the original applicant would have incurred; and such amendments of the application shall in such event be made free of charge at such time and in such manner as the Registrar-General shall in each such case direct.

One year to elapse before land comes under Real Property Ordinance. Cap. 160.

69. Section 18 of the Real Property Ordinance shall not be deemed to apply to any application under this Part of this Ordinance.

Possessory titles. Cap. 160.

70. If any caveat shall be entered, as in section 22 of the Real Property Ordinance prescribed, by any person who was a party to the summons for sale, or a party to the action in the course of which the order for sale was made, or who was represented as a member of a class on the making of such order or in such action, or by any person claiming through or under any such person, any action or proceeding under section 24 of the said Ordinance by such caveator, on its being so made to appear, shall be dismissed with costs either on motion by any other party thereto or at the hearing thereof, as the case may be, and the land shall be brought under the said Ordinance without regard to such caveat. But no person other than aforesaid shall, in any such action or proceeding as in section 22 of the said Ordinance prescribed, be in any way estopped from impeaching the validity of the order for sale as against parties not served with the summons for sale, and not parties to the action in the course of which the order for sale has been made, or from raising any question as to the boundaries of the land sold or as to the identification of the parcels thereof or of any part thereof.

Caveats to be entertained only if lodged by strangers to the order for sale. Cap. 160.

PART IV.

SUPPLEMENTARY.

Rules to carry Ordinance
into effect.

71. It shall be lawful for the Chief Justice, with the concurrence of a Puisne Judge, to make rules and regulations for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Ordinance, and also tables of fees and charges of the Marshal, and scales or lists of fees, costs, and charges in respect of summonses for sale and the proceedings consequent thereon; and such rules, regulations, tables, scales, and lists shall be laid before the Legislative Council and be subject to approval by such Council in the same manner in all respects as rules, orders, and regulations made under and by virtue of the Judicature Ordinance, and shall be read together with and as part of the rules, orders, and regulations made under the provisions of such Ordinance.

Cap. 35.

Sub-Registrar in Tobago to have
of a Judge.

72. The Sub-Registrar of the Court in Tobago shall, in the absence of a Judge from Tobago, exercise such of the authorities vested in a Judge by virtue of this Ordinance as by rules to be made in pursuance of the last preceding section shall be provided, but in any case such Sub-Registrar may adjourn any summons for the consideration of a Judge in Tobago.
